To Make a World

When heart and mind
For as long as we live
Reach out in love
To receive and to give,
A world is made
That all men cherish,
One with another,
That can not perish.

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE TO STUDENTS

In my card to you at this holiday season, we tried to communicate our prayer, for all men, that would bring us a better world. During this season, men of all faiths search for the rebirth of hope and peace that is part of all human aspiration. In the prayer, "To Make a World," written by Mr. Groh, the combination of heart and mind needed to make a finer world focuses on our mission at Wilkes. The development of our God-given gift of intelligence is part of man's hope - but the respect and sensitivity, the values that come from the heart, must also be significant in our lives if we are, in fact, to make a better world.

My wish at the Christmas season is that these messages of hope and love for mankind are not forgotten during the rest of the year.

My warmest wishes to you all for a safe and happy holiday.

Dr. Mike:

Last year we ordered 74 wreaths (Christmas) from Mr. Rhodes. He telephoned to see if the same order will be placed this year.....I have his phone number if you say yes, and can call him, unless you would like to. 639-5887

He would like to know early so that he can get started on the order.
