Welcome...

Parents!

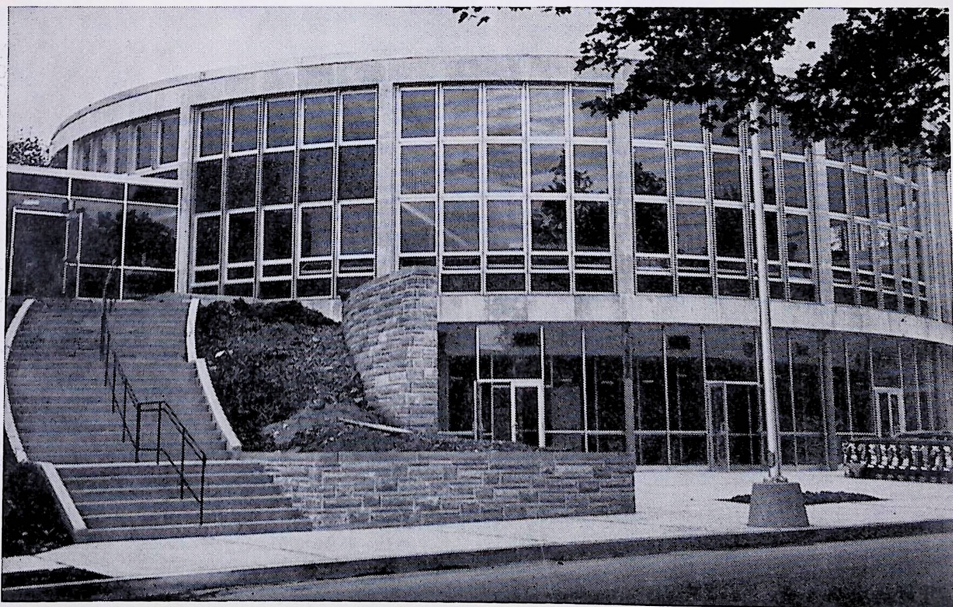

Calvert N. Ellis
President

Ralph W. Harden
Director of Athletics

Juniata College and its Department of Physical Education are happy to welcome Alumni, parents and the many other followers of our football and cross-country teams and their opponents to the re-conditioned New College Field.

In addition to enjoying an exciting small college football game and a good race, you are welcome to visit the campus and see some of the results of our $5,350,000 development program. Swigart Music Hall and the Art Center, Carnegie Hall, were completed last year. The new $2.7 million Science Center is nearing completion; the center section (pictured below) is now in use and the laboratories in the two front wings should be in use next semester. The Science Center is the most impressive recent addition to our campus.

Juniata's Newly Integrated Cheering Squad

Today's Opponent

The Wilkes Colonels enter today's game on Parents' Day with a 4-1 record. They beat Lebanon Valley and Moravian before dropping a close game to Upsala. After the Upsala game, they came back to defeat Ursinus and Muhlenburg.

At the beginning of the season, two-thirds of the team were unproven frosh. They have come along very fast, and when combined with an adequate number of returning lettermen, have given the Colonels their fine record.

The backfield is led by quarterback Rich Roshong, halfbacks Paul Purta, and Roger Beatty, and fullback Ray Lowery. Lowery was named to the ECAC team for his play against Lebanon Valley. Lowery handles the punting chores, while Purta handles the placekicking. These backs are given excellent blocking led by Captain Ralph Hendershot at center and tackle Jack Gallagher, who also plays guard. Tackle Albert Yatko has been outstanding on defense and also plays offense.

Two frosh start on the offensive line. They are Joseph Skvarla, an end, and Bill Layden, a tackle. Numerous others will probably start on defense, and there is a possibility that Mike Connolly may start at a halfback spot.

Wilkes would like to end with a winning season. They have desire and size. Still, they have a good many freshmen who are not proved against the tougher MAC teams. Today's game should be exciting with many explosive plays.
