Capsule Forecast: Defensive line faces major rebuilding with the loss of veterans John Mazur and Harry Hoover . . . the kicking game also may be a problem with Dave Kaschak having graduated . . . a banner freshman crop should help . . . halfback Ted Yeager enters his final season with 1917 yards and is a genuine All-American threat . . . linebacker quartet of Charles Graziano, Tony Cardinale, Bob Ashton, and Frank Galicki must also be reckoned with . . . the presence of a starting quarterback at seasons start will also put the Colonels ahead of last year's pace, which didn't see the Blue and Gold move until sophomore Jeff Giberson was handed the regular job . . . the Colonels with a 25 year total of 96-94-6 are only four victories away from the 100 all-time win plateau . . . Wilkes will again be ineligible for the MAC "Northern Division" title.

HEAD COACH

ROLAND C. SCHMIDT

This fall Roland Schmidt will begin his tenth season at the helm of the Wilkes football Colonels. During the nine year span between 1962-1970, his teams compiled a 47-22-1 record which ranks him near the top among the nations college division coaches.

From 1965 to 1969 his squads terrorized the Middle Atlantic Conference and other eastern independents, winning 37 of 40 contests. Included in this impressive total are five straight Northern Division MAC titles (1965-69); two Lambert Bowls, symbolic of ECAC Division III supremacy (1966, 1968); three straight undefeated seasons (1966, 1967, 1968); and a 32-game winning streak, the third longest in the history of NCAA College Division.

Not to be outdone on other fields of sport, Schmidt coached the Wilkes baseball team from 1962-69, and in 1970 assumed the duties as the golf mentor. His 1968 and 1969 baseball teams combined for a 22-5 record, which included an MAC championship in 1968. Although loaded with underclassmen the past two years, Coach Schmidt guided the Colonel golfers to an 8-3 record in 1970 and went a step higher in 1971 by copping MAC Golf laurels.

A 1950 graduate of Wilkes-Barre Coughlin High School, "Rollie" took part in football, wrestling, and track. He attended Bloomsburg State College for two years before serving a two-year stint in the Army. Returning to Bloomsburg upon the completion of his military obligation, the Colonel head participated in football and track for the Huskies.

His coaching career began at Clarks Summit High School where he served as assistant football, track, and head wrestling coach for three years. Schmidt put in another three-year tour with Kingston High School as an assistant before moving on to Wilkes in 1962.

COLONELS ON RADIO

For the seventh straight year all eight Wilkes grid encounters will be carried by WBRE Radio, 1340 AM and 98.5 FM, Wilkes-Barre. Handling play-by-play and color action will be Joe Gries, Dave Duncan, and Ray Lowery.

Offensive line stacks up with lettermen seniors Tom Boshinski, Tom Panetta, and Rich Lorenzen; juniors Bob Mazzitelli and Bill Metzger; and sophomore Joe Dettmore, back in the fold.

Defensive line will be only slightly changed with seniors Jeff Grandinetti, Steve Adamchak, and Joe Pavill adding experience to junior John Van Gorder, and sophomore Lou Maczuga.

Linebacking department will miss All-East Frank Galicki, but older and wiser seniors Rich Lack and Craig Deacon, junior Terry Blaum, and sophomores Steve Leskiw and Don Kulick should offset the loss.

Backfield is adequate but needs added depth for senior Dave Check, junior Alan Barrett, and sophomores Dave Trethaway and Fred Marianacci.

SOCCER PROSPECTUS

After enjoying record scoring success in 1971, the Colonel offense sputtered in 1972 . . . Coach Rokita was hardpressed at goalie, using several men in the nets . . . big job in 1973 will be finding replacements for graduated defensive stars Ed Weber and Bob Linaberry . . . Ray Grysko shows excellent scoring potential up front . . . he paced the Wilkesmen last fall with 12 points . . . Stellios Patsiokas can also hit the cords . . . he had ten points in 1971 . . . defense has experience with Tom Trost, Marty Pobutkiewicz, Bill Killeen, Gary Mocko, Gerry Blade, Roger Danbury, and Mike Shoemaker . . . Colonels will be a winner if the goalie can be found.

Lettermen returning: 5

Jere Woods, Duane Sadvary, Jim Godlewski, Steve Spock, Rich Curry

Lettermen lost: 1

Gary Horning

Co-captains: Jere Woods and Duane Sadvary

HARRIER PROSPECTUS

Addition of several newcomers will give the Wilkesmen depth . . . the Colonels managed with six runners in 1971 and eight in 1972 . . . senior co-captain Jere Woods captured firsts against Susquehanna and Baptist Bible plus runnerup finishes versus Scranton, Lebanon Valley, and Albright . . . Coach Pawlusch will miss veteran Gary Horning, who was second in point standings . . . Despite a poor 3-21 record through the first two years of the sport, performances have steadily improved with competition . . . will try to better 18th of 18th placing in their first MAC appearance at Fairmont Park . . . seniors Duane Sadvary and Jim Godlewski are seasoned vets . . . the addition of Coughlin scholastic standouts Mark Zavoy and Steve Ungvarsky plus Larry Pekot (Nanticoke) and Bruce Jackson (Phoenixville) could make Wilkes a winner . . . sophomore Steve Spock and senior Rich Curry add icing to the cake.

PROSPECTUS

Mansfield State joins Bucknell and Millersville State as powerful foes on the 1973 schedule . . . center half slot occupied by three-letter-woman Stephanie Pufko will be hard to fill . . . veteran Laraine Mancuso lost at goalie . . . optimism shown with an excellent spring practice turnout.

The Parents Club annually sponsors an appreciation dinner for the football team. In recent years the club has also purchased whirlpool baths, blocking sleds, a tackling device, telescopic goal posts, and a complete camera outfit.
