Weight by Weight Preview

125- A freshmen will man this weight for the Colonels with the departure of senior NCAA Qualifier Shaun Farnham. Scott Mantua (two-time Maryland Champion), Taylor Stuart (PA State Qualifier) and Sean Cox will compete for the starting nod. Freshman Griffin Panicucci (NJ State Qualifier) will red-shirt with injury.

133- Another weight where the Colonels must replace an NCAA qualifier with Josh Pauling graduating. Sophomores Ryan Wilson and Matt Manganiello have college experience, while freshman A.J. Fisher (6th NJ), Jeff Peterson (NJ State Qualifier) and Matt Gaines all have their sites at this wide open weight class.

141- This weight class becomes open as Anthony Dattolo, who was a Metro Conference finalist, will move to 149 to start the season. This will leave sophomore Jared Brownmiller, freshman Kris Krawchuk (4th PA) or fellow freshman Kyle Huber looking to start.

149- Erik Smith (Two-time NCAA Qualifier) started the last four years, but Anthony Dattolo, seniors Derek Brownmiller and Robert Griffith all have plenty of experience at this very deep weight class. Tom Andresen, Matt Ellery, Steve Falk, Tyler Ferry and Nathan White (four-time Maryland place winner) will also compete for the opening left by Smith's graduation.

157- Junior, James Histed and Sophomore Rich Sparks both started at times for the Colonels last season and return. Joining them will be Lehigh transfer Ben Marich, freshman Ray Dungee (NJ State Qualifier) and Frank O'Shea.

174- NCAA All-American Frank Heffernan will return and look to improve on his 7th place at the NCAA's.

184- A weight where two conference finalist will look to compete and qualify for the NCAA's. 197 Metro Champion Zach Pizarro looks to drop a weight class and compete with 184 Metro Runner-up Buddy Gouger. Should be an excellent weight for the Colonels.

197- Juniors Chris Smith and Jake Weinrich will look to break into the line-up as a full time starter after serving as back-ups at 197 and heavyweight their first two seasons. Pizarro or Gouger may also see action here later in the year after competing at 184.

285- Two time Conference Runner-up Andrew Feldman will look to capture his first conference crown as a senior. Senior Colin Nagy will also look for mat time after coming back from injury. Freshman Justin Franiak will look to gain valuable experience for the future at this weight.

Head Coach Jon Laudenslager

Jon Laudenslager begins his seventh season as the head wrestling coach at Wilkes University. Laudenslager has led Wilkes to a dual match record of 79-46-3 during his first six seasons. Prior to taking over the head coaching chores he was an assistant coach for the Colonels for three seasons. A graduate of Wilkes with a degree in Psychology, Laudenslager is only the seventh head coach in the 58-year history of the Colonels wrestling program.

A year ago Laudenslager guided the Colonels to a 17-6-2 record as the Colonels won the Metropolitan Conference Title. The Colonels placed seven into the Metropolitan Tournament Finals, with 133 Josh Pauling, 149 Erik Smith and 197 Zach Pizarro claiming titles. The Colonels ranked as high as 12th in the NWCA polls in 2008-09 and qualified five to the national Tournament in Iowa, as 125 Shaun Farnham and 174 Frank Heffernan joined the three conference champions as at-large selections to the NCAA's.

Senior linebacker Kyle Follweiler will anchor the Colonels defense this season. Follweiler was a second team All-American a season ago and was named the 2005 and 2006 Middle Atlantic Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

FAST FACTS

ABOUT THE MIDDLE ATLANTIC CORPORATION

The Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Corporation, formerly called the Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Conference, originated in 1912 as a loose confederation of colleges. It was unified into an actual all-sports playing conference in 1952, and is the largest Division III Conference holding NCAA associate membership. In 1999, spurred by changes in the NCAA championship structure, the Corporation formed as an umbrella for three conferences - Freedom, Commonwealth, and Middle Atlantic.

The Freedom Conference contains Arcadia University, Delaware Valley College, DeSales University, Fairleigh Dickinson University-Florham, King's College, Manhattanville College and Wilkes University.

The Commonwealth Conference consists of Albright College, Elizabethtown College, Lebanon Valley College, Lycoming College, Messiah College and Widener University.

The Middle Atlantic Conference contains all thirteen institutions.

The MASCAC will undergo further expansion next year when Alvernia College and College Misericordia join the Freedom Conference.

The earliest records indicate that the Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Association was organized on December 11, 1912. The first annual meeting occurred on May 16, 1913, followed by the first conference track meet at Lafayette College the next day.

ABOUT WILKES

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR ADDY MALATESTA

Malatesta is in her 19th year at Wilkes, her ninth as Athletic Director. In addition, Malatesta previously served as field hockey coach at Wilkes, where she led the Lady Colonels to a record of 140-113-9 in 14 years. In 1999, the Lady Colonels finished with an overall record of 14-8. They also won the Freedom League title and captured the school's first-ever Middle Atlantic Conference field hockey crown. During the 1995 season, Malatesta guided the Lady Colonels to the NCAA Division III championships, in a season when the Lady Colonels were ranked as high as 11th in the country.

Malatesta also coached softball for five years at Wilkes, guiding the Lady Colonels to a record of 60-52-1 and appearances in both the MAC and ECAC playoffs.

A graduate of Slippery Rock University, Malatesta also holds a master's degree in Education from East Stroudsburg University.

Malatesta served as the chairperson for the MAC Field Hockey Games Committee. She has also served on the NCAA Division III Regional Field Hockey Selection and All-American Committees, while also serving a three-year stint as chairperson of the NCAA Division III National Softball Committee.

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR PHIL WINGERT

Wingert assumed the role of Associate Athletic Director in August of 1998 after serving six years as the school's Athletic Director. A 25-year member of the Wilkes athletic department, Wingert is also head coach of the men's soccer team which has made 11 post-season appearances under Wingert. Wingert, who has a career coaching mark of 237-201-36, guided the Colonels to a record of 12-6-1 in 2006, that included a berth in the Freedom Conference playoffs. He is by far the winningest coach in Wilkes soccer history.

A graduate of SUNY-Cortland, Wingert served as an assistant on the staff of Division I Virginia Tech before coming to Wilkes. Wingert is active in the MAC, serving as the chairperson of the Championships Committee. He and his wife, Antonette, are the parents of a daughter, Laura, and a son Robert. They reside in Wilkes-Barre.

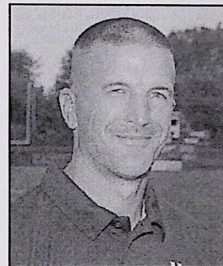

Sophomore Drew Letcavage (#14) and senior Ryan Gallagher (#39) will play key roles for Wilkes offensively this season.

SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTOR JOHN SEITZINGER

Seitzinger is in his tenth year of promoting the 14 Wilkes athletic programs. Along with overseeing all publicity, publications, and media relations for Wilkes sports, Seitzinger is also the producer and host of the cable television show, Colonels Corner. He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and serves as a member of the Bob Cousy Award Blue Ribbon Committee.

Seitzinger previously served as Sports Information Director at Marywood University for seven years and as head men's tennis coach at the University of Scranton for six seasons.

HEAD COACH FRANK SHEPTOCK

Frank Sheptock begins his 12th year as head coach after being named the seventh head coach in Wilkes football history in January of 1996. Sheptock has led the Colonels to an overall record of 74 wins and 43 losses, including seven post-season playoff berths.

In 2006 Sheptock was named the MAC and AFCA Region 2 Coach of the Year after leading Wilkes to an 11-1 record, a conference title, and a berth in the NCAA Division III Championship. The 2005 season saw Sheptock guide the squad to an overall record of 8-3 and a berth in the NCAA Division III playoffs. For his efforts he was named the Middle Atlantic Conference's Coach of the Year.

The Colonels have also earned a berth in the ECAC Playoffs during two of the last five seasons, including a 31-7 win over the United States Merchant Marine Academy in the 2002 South Atlantic title game. Wilkes also claimed an ECAC Southeast championship in 1999.

Coming to Wilkes with former head man Joe DeMelfi in 1990, Sheptock was the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach for the Colonels from 1992 to 1995. During his tenure as defensive coordinator, Sheptock turned the Colonels into one of the top defensive teams in the Middle Atlantic Conference.

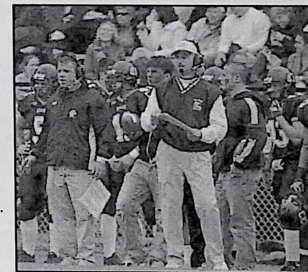

Under Sheptock, who is a member of the American Football Coaches Association and served as chairperson of the MAC Football Games Committee, the Colonels have had 96 players named to the All-MAC teams, including 56 first team selections. Sheptock has also coached 32 All-ECAC honorees, including two players of the year, and three All-Americans.

A graduate of Bloomsburg University with a degree in Business Administration/Accounting, Sheptock played linebacker under DeMelfi while a member of the Huskies football team.

A member of the NCAA Division II Team of the Quarter Century (1973-97), Sheptock holds the school records for tackles in a career (537), single season (159) and single game (23), and career fumble recoveries (12). The four-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) first team pick helped Bloomsburg win the PSAC championship title and earn a berth in the NCAA Division II semifinals in 1985.

Sheptock, a three-time All-American and All-East honoree for the Huskies, was inducted into the Bloomsburg Sports Hall of Fame in October of 1997 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in July of 2007.

Frank, his wife, Lisa, and daughters, Nicole and Kelly, reside in Berwick.

MIKE MCCREE - SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS

McCree returns for his eighth season as the Colonels Special Teams Coordinator and linebackers coach. This will be his sixth season in a full-time capacity. McCree was a standout linebacker for the Colonels during the early 1990s. A two-time MAC all-star, he was named the team's Defensive Most Valuable Player in 1993 after helping Wilkes rank first in Division III in sacks, interceptions and scoring defense. He spent the 1994 season as an assistant coach at Wilkes before moving on to Wyoming Seminary for three years. Prior to returning to the Colonels staff, McCree spent one year as an assistant coach at Tunkhannock High School.

JOE ZABIELSKI - DEFENSIVE LINE

Zabielski returns for his third season as an assistant coach at Wilkes and will be responsible for the defensive line. Zabielski is a 1995 graduate of Bucknell University where he earned his degree in Math Education. Zabielski began his coaching career as an assistant coach at his high school alma mater Old Forge. He also served as an assistant coach at Crestwood High School and spent nine seasons at Susquehanna High School. Zabielski was the head coach at Susquehanna from 2002 through 2004 and served as the defensive coordinator prior to being named head coach. Zabielski resides in Kingstley with his wife Anastasia and their daughters Megan and Mary.

ED MICHAELS - DEFENSIVE BACKS

Michaels begins his second season as a member of the Wilkes coaching staff. He will coach the Colonels defensive backs this fall.

A 1990 graduate of the University of Delaware with a degree in Physical Education and Health, Michaels was a three-year letterwinner on the gridiron for the Blue Hens. Michaels began his coaching career in 1990 as an assistant coach at Meyers High School. After three seasons with the Mohawks he moved to Wyoming Valley West High School and served as an assistant coach from 1993 to 1997. Michaels assumed the head coaching chores at Wyoming Valley West in 1998 and compiled a 56-30 record during the last eight seasons.

Michaels is a teacher in the Wyoming Valley West School District. He and his wife Tina are the parents of three children, Christina, Caitlin and Colby.

ANTHONY TAYLOR - DEFENSIVE BACKS

Taylor is in his first season on the Wilkes staff and will assist with the defensive backs. A 2007 graduate of Waynesburg College with a degree in Criminal Justice, he was a four-year member of the football team. During his senior season he tallied 40 tackles and led the Yellow Jackets with five interceptions. For his efforts Taylor was named to the All-Presidents' Athletic Conference first team.

GREY SESNY - OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/TACKLES & TIGHT ENDS

Sesny begins his second season as the offensive coordinator at Wilkes University. He is a 1999 graduate of Catholic University with a degree in electrical engineering and also earned his masters degree in education from the University of Maryland in 2004.

Sesny spent the last two seasons as an assistant coach at Hampden-Sydney College, where he was the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator. In 2005 Sesny also served as the Tiger's special team's coordinator. He also spent three seasons as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Maryland and worked with the Terrapin defense. Prior to his stint at Maryland he spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Catholic.

During his playing days Sesny played both a tight end and H-back at Catholic. A three-year starter for the Cardinals, he helped the team post an overall record of 28-4 and earn two NCAA playoff appearances.

MATT DIBERNARDO - QUARTERBACKS

Dibernardo begins his second stint on the Wilkes staff after serving as the squad's running backs coach in 1994. He is a 1990 graduate of the University of Tampa with a degree in Economics.

Dibernardo was the head coach at Wyoming Seminary from 1995 to 1998 and again from 2002 to 2004. He spent the 1999 season as the offensive coordinator at Hobart College and was the head coach at Delaware Valley College from 2000 to 2001. Last season he was the defensive coordinator at Crestwood High School.

Dibernardo and his wife Lindsay live in Harvey's Lake. He is the father of two children, Rocky and Jessica.

BOB BARBIERI - OFFENSIVE LINE

A longtime head coach at Pittston Area High School, Barbieri begins his 18th year as an assistant coach for the Colonels. Barbieri will coach the offensive line this season after coaching the tight ends a year ago.

While coaching at Pittston Area High School, Barbieri compiled a record of 197-100-4 in 25 years. He had among his players at Pittston Area former Penn State and NFL great Jimmy Cefalo. He resides in Duryea with his wife Henrietta. They are the parents of two children, Nick and Maria.

JASON MAJIROS - WIDE RECEIVERS

Majiros starts his seventh season as a member of the Wilkes coaching staff, where he will coach the wide receivers. A four-year starter for the Colonels on the offensive front during the mid-90s, Majiros was named to the MAC all-star team three times, while also earning an ECAC all-star berth in 1996. Prior to returning to Wilkes, Majiros spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Coughlin High School.

TOM ANDREPOULOS - RUNNING BACKS

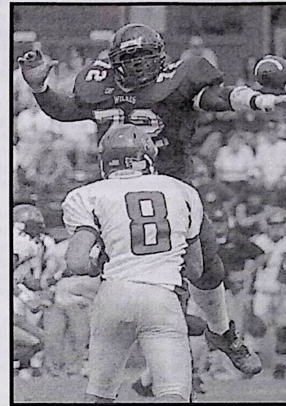

Andreopoulos begins his first season as the running backs coach after a standout career in the Wilkes backfield. He is a 2007 graduate of Wilkes with a degree in Criminology.

During his four seasons Andreopoulos rushed for 2,215 yards to rank fifth on the all-time rushing list for the Colonels. He also amassed 21 touchdowns. Last season he was named to the All-MAC second team after compiling 1,285 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns.

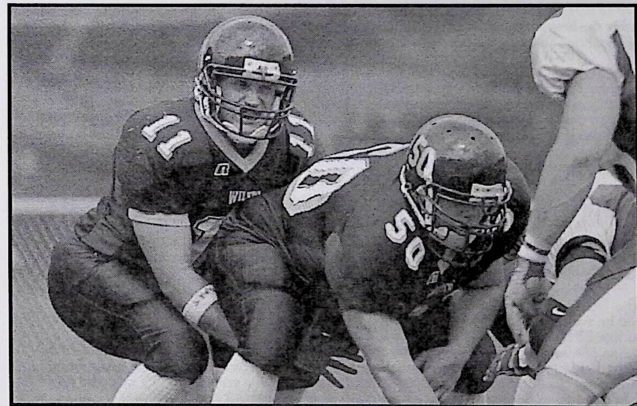

RYAN YUREWICZ - STUDENT ASSISTANT/KICKERS

Yurewicz is in his first season as an assistant coach after three seasons as the Colonels top kicker. During his three years he connected on 87 of 99 extra point attempts and also converted 11 of 13 field goal tries. As a senior Yurewicz ranked second on the team in scoring with 58 points after hitting seven field goals and 37 extra points. Among his successful field goal attempts was a career-long 43-yard boot.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Senior defensive lineman Jason Acquaye racked up eight sacks a season ago on his way to earning first team All-Middle Atlantic Conference honors.

Senior quarterback Al Karaffa and junior center Kyle Kutney are returning starters this season. Karaffa was a first team All-Middle Atlantic Conference and All-ECAC honoree, while Kutney helped pave the way for an offense that averaged 339.7 yards and 26.2 points per game in 2006.

The Wilkes University football team is excited to begin defense of their Middle Atlantic Conference championship. The Colonels, who went through the regular season unbeaten, ended the 2006 campaign with an overall record of 11-1, which included their second straight trip to the NCAA Division III playoffs. Wilkes was ranked 12th in the final AFCA Division III Top-25 Poll.

The Colonels, who are ranked 13th in the Street & Smith Division III Pre-Season Top-25 Poll, will have to replace 11 starters from a season ago. However, head coach Frank Sheptock has a solid group to work with thanks to the return of 57 lettermen.

"We do have a lot of question marks heading into camp," stated Sheptock. "But, I feel very good about the overall athleticism of our team. The skill areas on both sides of the ball will be a key for us. We need to find playmakers on both sides and we need to make the adjustments as a coaching staff to put those players in a position to be successful."

The Wilkes offense returns seven starters from last season's squad that averaged 339.7 yards and 26.2 points per game. The Colonels balanced attack piled up 165.8 rushing yards and 173.8 yards per game through the air last fall.

Senior quarterback Al Karaffa, who was a first team All-MAC and All-ECAC selection, will steer the offense. Karaffa completed 59.4 percent of his aerial attempts for 1,966 yards and 17 touchdowns last season. Sophomore Drew Letcavage, who will move from running back to tight end this season, is the team's top returning receiver after nabbing 15 passes as a rookie.

Wilkes will have two experienced fullbacks in seniors Ryan Gallagher, who was a second team All-MAC selection, and Paul Signora. They also return senior tight end Kyle Regner, who was a key component in the Colonels run to a championship in 2006.

The offensive line returns five of their top six players from a year ago, including four starters. Senior Jordan Purdy will anchor the unit that allowed only 27 sacks in 12 games last season. Purdy was named a second team All-American by the Football Gazette, while also gaining first team All-MAC and All-ECAC honors. Junior Josh George, who was named to the All-MAC second team, is back for his third season as a starter.

"We have a great nucleus to build around offensively," commented Sheptock. "With Al at quarterback we have a great leader and proven winner. We have an outstanding group of offensive linemen to rely on and two fullbacks in Gallagher and Signora that give us an added physical presence, as does Regner, who did a great job in our two tight end set last season."

"I am anxious to see what happens at the tailback and wide receiver positions," said Sheptock. "We have great talent at both positions, so it is really a matter of whether or not we can be consistent and maintain a level of play that will help us to succeed."

The Wilkes defense will have to replace seven starters from last season's team that was among the best in the nation. The Colonels surrendered a mere 205.6 yards, including only 61.0 yards rushing, and 8.7 points per game to rank first in the MAC in all three categories.

Two-time All-American Kyle Follweiler is back for his fourth season as a starter at linebacker. Follweiler, who is a three-time first team All-MAC selection and a two-time MAC Defensive Player of the Year, was named the ECAC Defensive Player of the Year last season after racking up 102 tackles, 14 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks.

Seniors Jason Acquaye and Erik VanGilst return on the defensive line. Acquaye, who had 45 tackles and eight sacks, was selected to the All-MAC first team after earning second team honors as a sophomore. VanGilst contributed 19 tackles, 12 of those coming behind the line of scrimmage, and 4.5 sacks last season.

The lone starter returning in the secondary is sophomore Corey Gilroy. Gilroy was credited with 25 tackles last season and helped Wilkes lead the MAC in turnover margin by picking off four passes and recovering a fumble.

"We took a tremendous hit on the defensive side of the ball due to graduation," said Sheptock. "Despite that I believe that we have the potential to be outstanding defensively. We return a lot of players who saw significant playing time last season so hopefully they will be ready to take on additional responsibilities this season."

The Colonels special teams were also hit hard by graduation, with only junior punter Mario Della Fortuna returning this season. Della Fortuna enjoyed a solid sophomore season when he averaged 35.6 yards last season and was able to drop the ball inside the opponent's 20-yard line 23 times.

"Mario did a great job punting the ball last season," stated Sheptock. "He created positive field position for us and we are very pleased with his development. How we are going to handle our place kicking and kickoffs will be a focus during the pre-season. We were also very senior oriented in our return game, so we will need to address that area."

Sheptock is hoping that the momentum from last season will continue into the new campaign. "We are going to try and focus on what it takes to get to November with a chance to win the MAC title. The experience of earning consecutive NCAA playoff berths will hopefully pay dividends this year."

COLONELS BY POSITION

QUARTERBACK

Karaffa assumed the starting chores midway through his freshman season and has led Wilkes to a 23-5 record as the starter. Fellow senior Jonathan Stroup has also gained experience and completed 7-of-12 passes for 91 yards last season.

TAILBACK

The Colonels will have to replace the 1,285 yards and 12 touchdowns that Tom Andreopoulos contributed last season. Sophomore Kevin Drakes is the most experienced tailback after seeing action in eight games last season. Three other sophomores will also vie for time including Zack Latourette, who played in three contests as a freshman, Corey Carter, who makes the move from wide receiver to tailback this year, and Sean Madden, who transferred to Wilkes from Iona College.

FULLBACK

One of the strengths of the offense should be the fullback position thanks to the return of both Gallagher and Signora. The duo combined to pave the way for a rushing attack that piled up 22 touchdowns last season.

WIDE RECEIVER

Wilkes will have to find replacements for their top two wide outs from a season ago. Among the candidates who will compete for the starting spots are seniors Randy Donato and Gil Flores, juniors Jason Prushinski and Philip Cimiluca, and sophomore Gennaro Zangardi.

TIGHT END

Regner and Letcavage will be among the players who will vie for time at the tight end position. Also expected to push for time on the field are senior Rocky D'Aconti and sophomore Eli Hollock.

OFFENSIVE LINE

DEFENSIVE LINE

Acquaye and VanGilst will provide a plethora of experience on the defensive line. Wilkes will also welcome back four other players who could figure prominently into their plans. Seniors Rex Harris, who had four sacks, and Jonathon Lazarchuk had 12 tackles each last fall. Junior Matt Archey, who had nine stops and one sack, and junior Chris Applegate are also expected to vie for starting berths.

LINEBACKER

Follweiler has been the team's top tackler during each of his first three seasons and enters the year with 303 career tackles. Others who are expected to compete for playing time include senior Kurt Dunbar, junior Tim Yeagley and sophomore Zach Pizarro. Dunbar had nine stops and two sacks as a junior, Yeagley contributed 18 tackles and one interception, while Pizarro was credited with six tackles.

DEFENSIVE BACK

Seven players who saw plenty of action last season will look to join Gilroy in the starting lineup this season. The list includes seniors David Crega, Augusto Lombana, Matt Mauro and Bob Sutjak, and juniors Justin Friedel, Ryan Holmes and Corey Tucker.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Della Fortuna will handle the punting chores once again this season, while sophomore Nick Genuardi will battle for the starting role as the place kicker. The return teams will undergo major changes with the top punt and kickoff returners both gone due to graduation.

2007 Wilkes University Football

ABOUT THE SENIOR CLASS

The senior members of the 2007 Wilkes University football team have enjoyed their fair share of success during their first three seasons. The group has played an integral role in helping the Colonels post an overall record of 25-8, which includes one MAC championship and two berths in the NCAA Division III playoffs.

After going 6-4 during their freshman season in 2004, the group won seven straight games after starting 1-2 to post an overall record of 8-3 in 2005. That same season Wilkes earned an at-large berth into the Division III playoffs. Last season the squad raced through the regular season, fashioning a perfect 10-0 record and winning the MAC title. The Colonels claimed their first-ever NCAA playoff win with a 42-0 victory over Washington & Lee in the opening round before suffering a tough 21-14 loss to Rowan in the second round.

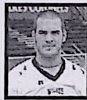

This year's senior class has a chance to go down as the winningest group in school history. Last season's seniors ended their careers with a 33-11 record to establish a new mark.

2007 Wilkes University Football

ABOUT THE SENIOR CLASS

The senior members of the 2007 Wilkes University football team have enjoyed their fair share of success during their first three seasons. The group has played an integral role in helping the Colonels post an overall record of 25-8, which includes one MAC championship and two berths in the NCAA Division III playoffs.

After going 6-4 during their freshman season in 2004, the group won seven straight games after starting 1-2 to post an overall record of 8-3 in 2005. That same season Wilkes earned an at-large berth into the Division III playoffs. Last season the squad raced through the regular season, fashioning a perfect 10-0 record and winning the MAC title. The Colonels claimed their first-ever NCAA playoff win with a 42-0 victory over Washington & Lee in the opening round before suffering a tough 21-14 loss to Rowan in the second round.

This year's senior class has a chance to go down as the winningest group in school history. Last season's seniors ended their careers with a 33-11 record to establish a new mark.

MUNSON FIELDHOUSE

RALSTON FIELD HISTORY

Ralston Field opened on September 25, 1965, and is named after the "father" of Wilkes athletics, George Ralston. Ralston was the first football coach and the first athletic director in school history. In addition, Ralston also coached basketball and baseball at Wilkes.

The field was dedicated to Ralston in 1967 and was awarded a plaque proclaiming "To the person who most represents the spirit at Wilkes: Friendship through Sports."

In 1992, Ralston was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame, Luzerne County Chapter, and in 1993 was an inaugural member of the Wilkes University Athletics Hall of Fame.

ON THE COVER:

Senior running back Brett Trichilo is back for his senior season. Trichilo was a consensus All-American last season after rushing for a school and MAC record 2,175 yards and 27 touchdowns. He was awarded the Melberger Award as the Division III Player of the Year, while also earning ECAC and MAC Offensive Player of the Year honors.

FAST FACTSABOUT THE MIDDLE ATLANTIC CONFERENCE

The MAC was formed more than 70 years ago as a loose confederation of colleges and universities before being unified into an actual playing conference in 1952.

In 1993, the MAC saw significant change in organization and administration. The MAC is now comprised of two eight-team conferences, the Commonwealth and the Freedom. Also, the MAC will operate under the leadership of a new executive committee consisting of two presidents from each league.

This MAC operates as one unified conference in football. Each team plays nine games in the conference, and the team with the best record will receive an automatic berth into the NCAA Division III championships.

The Freedom Conference consists of Delaware Valley, DeSales, Drew, FDU-Madison, King's, Lycoming, Scranton and Wilkes. The Commonwealth Conference includes Albright, Elizabethtown, Juniata, Lebanon Valley, Messiah, Moravian, Susquehanna and Widener.

Wilkes University is an independent institution of higher education dedicated to academic and intellectual excellence in the liberal arts, sciences, and professional programs. The University provides its students with the experience and education necessary for career and civic responsibility, and encourages its students to welcome the opportunities and challenges of a diverse and continually changing world. The University enhances the tradition of strong student-faculty interactions in all of its programs, attracts and retains outstanding people in every segment of the University, and fosters a spirit of cooperation, community involvement, and individual respect within the entire University.

For more information about Wilkes University and its many academic programs, call the Wilkes Admissions Office at 1-800-WILKESU.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR ADDY MALATESTA

Malatesta is in her 16th year at Wilkes, her seventh as Athletic Director. In addition, Malatesta previously served as field hockey coach at Wilkes, where she led the Lady Colonels to a record of 140-113-9 in 14 years. In 1999, the Lady Colonels finished with an overall record of 14-8. They also won the Freedom League title and captured the school's first-ever Middle Atlantic Conference field hockey crown. During the 1995 season, Malatesta guided the Lady Colonels to the NCAA Division III championships, in a season when the Lady Colonels were ranked as high as 11th in the country.

Malatesta also coached softball for five years at Wilkes, guiding the Lady Colonels to a record of 60-52-1 and appearances in both the MAC and ECAC playoffs.

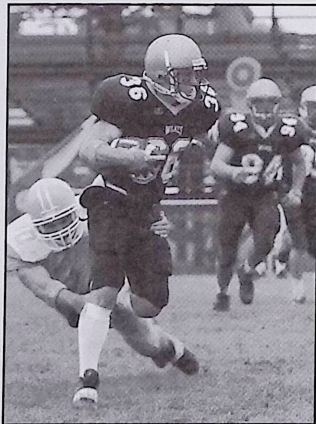

A graduate of Slippery Rock University, Malatesta also holds a master's degree in Education from East Stroudsburg University.

Malatesta served as the chairperson for the MAC Field Hockey Games Committee. She has also served on the NCAA Division III Regional Field Hockey Selection and All-American Committees, while also serving a three-year stint as chairperson of the NCAA Division III National Softball Committee.

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR PHIL WINGERT

Wingert assumed the role of Associate Athletic Director in August of 1998 after serving six years as the school's Athletic Director. A 21-year member of the Wilkes athletic department, Wingert is also head coach of the men's soccer team which has made nine post-season appearances under Wingert. Wingert, who has a career coaching mark of 207-181-31, guided the Colonels to a record of 10-8-2 in 2000, that included a berth in both the Freedom Conference and ECAC Playoffs. He is by far the winningest coach in Wilkes soccer history.

A graduate of SUNY-Cortland, Wingert served as an assistant on the staff of Division I Virginia Tech before coming to Wilkes. Wingert is active in the MAC, serving as the chairperson of the Championships Committee. He and his wife, Antoinette, are the parents of a daughter, Laura, and a son Robert. They reside in Wilkes-Barre.

Seitzinger is in his seventh year of promoting the 14 Wilkes athletic programs.

Along with overseeing all publicity, publications, and media relations for Wilkes sports, Seitzinger is also the producer and host of the cable television show, Colonels Corner. He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Seitzinger previously served as Sports Information Director at Marywood University for seven years and as head men's tennis coach at the University of Scranton for six seasons. He served for three years as the chairperson for the MAC Men's Tennis Games Committee during his coaching tenure.

HEAD COACH FRANK SHEPTOCK

Frank Sheptock begins his ninth year as head coach and his 15th season affiliated with the Wilkes football program. During his first eight seasons at the helm, the Colonels have made five post-season appearances and captured ECAC titles in both 1999 and 2002.

Coming to Wilkes with former head man Joe DeMelfi in 1990, Sheptock was the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach for the Colonels from 1992 to 1995. During his tenure as defensive coordinator, Sheptock turned the Colonels into one of the top defensive teams in the conference.

Wilkes has remained among the nation's top defenses during Sheptock's reign as head coach. During the 2000 season, Wilkes ranked tenth in Division III in total defense, 13th in rushing defense, and 16th in turnover margin. Last season the Colonels ranked 10th in Division III in rushing defense allowing only 88.3 yards per game.

Under Sheptock the Colonels have had 79 players earn Middle Atlantic Conference all-star honors. In addition, 27 players have been named to the ECAC all-star unit, while three players have earned All-American accolades.

Sheptock is a member of the American Football Coaches Association, where he serves on the Division III All-American Selection Committee and is also a voting delegate for the Division III Coaches Poll. Sheptock serves as the chairperson of the MAC Football Games Committee as well.

A graduate of Bloomsburg University with a degree in Business Administration/Accounting, Sheptock played linebacker under DeMelfi while a member of the Huskies football team. A four-time PSAC first team selection, Sheptock was also a three-time All-American and All-East honoree. He was inducted into the Bloomsburg Sports Hall of Fame in October of 1997.

Frank, his wife, Lisa, and daughters, Nicole and Kelly, reside in Berwick.

MIKE MCCREE-LINEBACKERS

McCree returns for his fifth season as the Colonels linebackers coach and his third as a full-time assistant. McCree was a standout linebacker for the Colonels during the early 1990s. A two-time MAC all-star, he was named the team's Defensive Most Valuable Player in 1993 after helping Wilkes rank first in Division III in takeaways, and second in scoring defense. He spent the 1994 season as an assistant coach at Wilkes before moving on to Wyoming Seminary for three years. Prior to returning to the Colonels staff McCree spent one year as an assistant coach at Tunkhannock High School.

MIKE SPAGNUOLO-OFFENSIVE LINE

Spagnuolo starts his fourth season as an assistant coach with the Wilkes program and his third in a full-time capacity. Spagnuolo will coach the Colonels offensive line this fall.

Spagnuolo is a 2001 graduate of Lycoming College, where he played four seasons on the offensive line for the Wilkes Warriors. Spagnuolo helped Lycoming finish in an impressive record of 38 wins and five losses. The squad captured four Freedom League titles, while making three NCAA appearances during his four seasons. The Coughlin High School graduate was named a first team Freedom League all-star during both his junior and senior seasons.

BOB BARBIERI-TACKLES AND TIGHT ENDS

A long-time head coach at Pittston Area High School, Barbieri begins his 15th year as an assistant coach for the Colonels. Barbieri will coach the tackles and tight ends this season.

While coaching at Pittston Area High School, Barbieri compiled a record of 157-100-4 in 25 years. He had among his players at Pittston Area former Penn State and NFL great Jimmy Cefalo. He resides in Duryea with his wife Henrietta.

JASON MAJIROS-RUNNING BACKS

Majiros starts his fourth season as a member of the Wilkes coaching staff, where he will coach the running backs. A four-year starter for the Colonels on the offensive front during the mid-90s, Majiros was named to the MAC all-star team three times, while also earning an ECAC all-star berth in 1996. Prior to returning to Wilkes, Majiros spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Coughlin High School.

JAN CECCHAK-DEFENSIVE LINE

Cecchak begins his third season as the Colonels defensive line coach. Prior to coming to Wilkes he spent three years as the head coach at Tunkhannock High School.

A graduate of Millersville University, Cecchak has spent 18 years coaching at the high school level. He was the head coach at Harry S. Truman for seven seasons, before moving on to Neshaminy High School as an assistant coach during the 1998 season.

A teacher in the Tunkhannock School District, Cecchak and his wife Deborah are the parents of three children, Greg, Thomas and Chuck.

STEVE WILSON-ASST. DEFENSIVE LINE

Wilson begins his first season as an assistant coach for the Colonels. A 2003 graduate of King's College, Wilson was a standout defensive end for the Monarchs and helped the squad capture the 2002 MAC title. During his career he amassed 273 tackles, including 117 stops behind the line of scrimmage. He also tallied 56 sacks in only 42 games. Wilson was named a consensus first team All-American as both a junior and senior. He was also honored as the Division III Defensive Player of the Year by the Football Gazette in 2002. The MAC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, Wilson currently plays for the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Pioneers in the Arena Football League.

TONY DONATO-DEFENSIVE BACKS

Donato starts his third season as a member of the Wilkes coaching staff. Prior to his arrival at Wilkes, Donato spent 26 years coaching at the high school level.

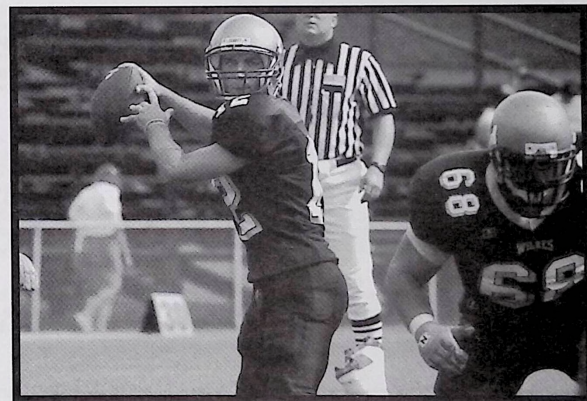

Donato has been a member of the local high school coaching scene since 1977, when he assumed an assistant coaching job at Dunmore High School. Donato left Dunmore in 1981 to become an assistant coach at North Pocono High School, where he remained until 1994. Donato then became the head coach at Abington Heights High School, before leaving to take the head coaching position at North Pocono in 1996. Donato resigned his post at North Pocono following the 2001 season.

MATT SCHIEFEN-SAFETIES

Schiefen returns to the sidelines for his second season as the Colonels safeties coach. A 2003 graduate of Wilkes with a degree in Psychology, Schiefen was a four-year member of the Colonels football squad. A two-year starter at safety, Schiefen racked up 33 tackles, two sacks and two interceptions during his senior season, while helping to lead the Colonels to the ECAC South Atlantic championship and an overall record of 7-4.

Senior defensive back Jon Jamison (#9) earned All-Conference honors in 2003 after finishing with 65 tackles and tying for the team lead with three interceptions.

Junior quarterback Duran Porrino completed 61.4 percent of his pass attempts for 1,247 yards and six touchdowns a season ago.

The Wilkes University football team heads into the 2004 season with high expectations. The Colonels have been ranked 20th in the Street & Smith Division III Pre-Season Top-25 Poll and return 50 lettermen from last season's 8-3 squad.

"We graduated some very good players who had experience, so our experience at certain positions will be a question mark," commented head coach Frank Sheptock. "But, I feel that our nucleus is strong enough that we have a solid foundation."

Offensively, Wilkes returns six starters, including consensus first team All-American Brett Trichilo. Trichilo, a senior running back, rushed for a school and Middle Atlantic Conference record 2,175 yards and 27 touchdowns last season. He won the Melberger Award as the Division III National Player of the Year, while also copping MAC and ECAC Offensive Player of the Year honors. He is joined in the backfield by senior fullback Kyle Gallagher, who was a second team All-MAC selection last season. Junior quarterback Duran Porrino, who took over the starting job midway through the 2003 season, is also back after hitting on 61.4 percent of his pass attempts for 1,247 yards and six scores. The leading returning receiver is sophomore Jim Jordan. Jordan led Wilkes with 34 catches for 394 yards a year ago.

On the offensive line the Colonels will have to replace three starters. Senior guard Matt Begansky will anchor the unit. Begansky has been a starter each of the past two seasons. Sophomore tackle Kris Kauffman was also a starter in 2003.

"Obviously, when you have a player the caliber of Brett Trichilo you know that teams are going to prepare to stop him," added Sheptock. "He is tremendously productive and you know what you are going to get. Our goal is to get better at throwing the football. The key for us offensively is going to be making opposing defenses defend the whole field by distributing the ball."

The Wilkes defense has six starters back from a year ago. Senior defensive lineman Julian Morales, who was a first team All-MAC and All-ECAC selection, leads the group. Joining Morales are junior Mike Bolsar and Jared Meckler, who were both starters last season. The trio helped Wilkes rank tenth in Division III in rushing defense in 2003 allowing only 88.3 yards per game.

At linebacker, Wilkes will have to replace both starters from last season. Sophomores Tyler Henninger, who had 14 tackles in seven games, and senior Dave Flynn, who chipped in with ten tackles in seven games, are among the candidates to fill the void.

The Wilkes secondary gained a great deal of experience last season. Senior Jon Jamison is one of three returning starters. Jamison was a second team All-MAC selection last year. Junior Chris Oustrich and sophomore John Darrah are also returning starters.

"The middle of our defense with Morales, Bolsar and Jamison is very good," said Sheptock. "We feel that we have addressed our needs defensively by adding more speed. If we can create more pressure with a four-man rush I think we can be more effective."

"The MAC is going to be similar to the way it was last year. There are five or six teams that have a shot at winning the conference. We have been in the hunt for the last two years and we need to draw on that experience in 2004."

QUARTERBACK

Porrino gained valuable experience and confidence last season. He leads a very talented and deep group of quarterbacks who will vie for time. Sophomores Tim Phelps and Brock Snyder, as well as heralded freshmen Al Karaffa, Garrett Kendziera and Jonathan Stroup, will look to push for playing time.

RUNNING BACKS

The Colonels have an experienced quartet of running backs on which to rely. Trichilo has been the team's leading rusher during each of the last three seasons, while Gallagher returns for his third season as the starting fullback. Senior Maleek Mills and junior Jake Rempel are also experienced backs who will see ample playing time.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Six returnees will vie for playing time at the wide receiver position. Jordan leads the list after topping the team in receptions and receiving yards as a freshman. Senior Dave Breuder, juniors Kevin Carroll and Tony Verbitsky, and sophomores Stephon Burgette and Sean Sholtes are also experienced veterans.

TIGHT END

Sophomore Matt Pizzaro and senior Paul Bilous are expected to battle for the starting job at tight end. Both players saw ample playing time last season and are poised to take over the role. Freshman Kyle Regner, Ed Smulligan and John Turrissini could also figure into the mix.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Although the Colonels return only two starters, Begansky and Kauffman, they have a solid group of players who could step in and earn a starting spot. Among the candidates are junior Ryan Dippre and sophomores Josh Hurlbutt and John Zedonik. Seniors Fran Quinn and John Guarneri have moved over from the defensive side of the ball and could also fit in to the mix. Freshman who are expected to compete for time include Jonathon Lazarchik, Jordan Purdy, Greg Reuther and Kevin Wetzel.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The defensive line starts with the big three of Morales, Bolsar and Meckler. Senior Darron Fadden, who missed all of last season due to injury, junior Mike Fox and sophomore Anthony Serafini all have experience as well. Transfers Mike Donati, who played two seasons at Division II Mansfield, and sophomore Jason Karnofel, who played at Albright last season, are also expected to push for playing time. Rookies who may figure into the mix include Jason Acquaye, Chris Bennett, Chris Borgna and Erik VanGilst.

LINEBACKERS

Henninger and Flynn, along with senior Steve Donlin and sophomore Vinnie LaSelva, are expected to be part of the competition for the starting linebacker spots. Newcomers Kyle Follweiler, Corey Meade and Jake Simonis will also battle for playing time at linebacker.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Jamison and Oustrich will guide an experienced group of players in the defensive backfield. A trio of sophomores, Dan DiBella, Gil Flores and Jake Grande could also find playing time. Sophomore Bo Tkach, who transferred from Division I Lehigh, along with freshmen Ean Costenbader, Anthony Fotunato, Matt Mauro and Rob Sutjak will also vie for time on the field.

SAFETY

Darrah and senior Adam Mihalko are veterans who saw plenty of playing time a season ago. Senior Matt Kaskie, who played quarterback during his first three seasons, will move over to the defensive side this fall. Sophomores Frank Giammarino and Bryan Vivaldo, as well as rookies Bill Foley, Greg Martucci and Rich Ruppert, will also seek playing time.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Junior Kyle Devlin is expected to handle both the punting and kicking chores this season. Devlin, who averaged 36.1 yards per punt last season, took over the kicking duties midway through the season and connected on 24-of-32 extra point tries and 5-of-6 field goal attempts. One of his field goals was a career-long 44-yard boot against King's. Junior Mike Fox and sophomore Ryan Yurewicz will provide depth in the kicking game.

Senior Maleek Mills is back as the team's top return specialist. Mills averaged 6.2 yards per punt return, including a 54-yard return for a score. He also led the team averaging 22.9 yards per kick return.

2004 FOOTBALL CAPTAINS

Seniors Kyle Gallagher, Jonathan Jamison and Julian Morales have been selected as captains for the 2004 Wilkes University football team.

Gallagher is a team captain for the second straight season. A second team All-MAC honoree last fall, the fullback rushed for 354 yards and four touchdowns a season ago. A starter during each of the last two seasons, he has amassed 721 yards and nine touchdowns during his career.

Jamison, who returns for his third season as a starter, ranked third on the team last season with 65 tackles from his defensive back position. He earned second team All-Conference honors in 2003 after also contributing three interceptions and 13 passes defended.

Morales has been a starter on the defensive line during each of his first three seasons. A first team All-Conference selection as a junior and a second team selection as a sophomore, Morales has racked up 77 tackles and four sacks during his career. Last season he finished with 35 tackles, including two sacks, while also scoring three defensive touchdowns. He earned first team All-ECAC and third team Regional All-American honors for his efforts.

"I think that we have three great leaders in Kyle, Jonathan and Julian," commented Coach Sheptock. "Each of these young men have a strong work ethic and determination. They are outstanding young men who we have a great deal of confidence in."

The Wilkes defensive front will be anchored by senior Julian Morales (#98) and juniors Mike Bolsar (#90) and Jared Meckler (#46).

Senior fullback Kyle Gallagher returns for his third season as a starter and his second as a team captain.

MUNSON FIELDHOUSE

Ralston Field opened on September 25, 1965, and is named after the "father" of Wilkes athletics, George Ralston. Ralston was the first football coach and the first athletic director in school history. In addition, Ralston also coached basketball and baseball at Wilkes.

The field was dedicated to Ralston in 1967 and was awarded a plaque proclaiming "To the person who most represents the spirit at Wilkes: Friendship through Contact."

In 1992, Ralston was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame, Luzerne County Chapter, and in 1993 was an inaugural member of the Wilkes University Athletics Hall of Fame.

Ralston is currently Dean of Students, Emeritus at Wilkes.
