A Fighting Methodist by Any Other Name?

by LARRY GUEST, Orlando (Fla.) Sentinel Star

The very heavy thinkers in the University of Southern Mississippi Alumni Association gathered over doughnuts one day back in the early '60s and decided the nickname for the school's athletic teams was outdated.

The seed was planted in the minds of a few student leaders and before long, it was duly decreed that Southern's practitioners of sport would be known as Generals; no longer as Southerners. Perhaps the latter tag seemed somewhat incongruous when applied to the school's outstanding basketball team of that era. For when the pep band completed the National Anthem and broke into a spirited rendition of Dixie, the five starting Southerners who took the floor would have been hard-pressed to distinguish between hominy grits and collards. They hailed from the Bronx, Brooklyn, New Jersey, Illinois and Indiana.

However, as has been the case with so many other nickname changes, the new monicker didn't stick. In less than a year, Generals no longer appeared in official references to the squads, marking a decisive victory for those supporters who continued to cheer the Southerners ingrained in their loyalties.

Subsequently, as confirmation of the Civil War outcome seeped down from Appomattox, the heavy thinkers renewed their effort to rid USM of its provincialistic nickname. And just a decade after the first misfire, Golden Eagles was successfully adopted via a nickname contest.

Nickname changes—or aborted attempts—are liberally sprinkled throughout the history of collegiate athletics. A fight song provided Tulane with the Green Wave, replacing Greenbacks, a handle that might have red-faced the school's athletic business manager during the attendance slump of the mid-sixties when the average number of paying customers at Tulane home games dipped to a budget-pinching 14,000.

Many, many seasons have come and gone since Cornhuskers replaced Bugeaters at Nebraska—for reasons which should be painfully apparent. Although the many recent victims of Alabama football teams may find it hard to believe, the Crimson Tide was once the Thin Red Line.

And, while in the crimson area, a student attempt to change Indiana's Hoosiers to the Crimson Bulls fortunately never got off the ground. Same for an aborted try to have the Purdue Boilermakers become the Riveters. Riveters?

Oh, well. That wouldn't have been much more unusual than the current St. Louis University Billikins. Don't feel culturally deprived if your neighborhood zoo fails to contain a herd of billikins. It's actually a Chinese God who was supposed to bring good luck. The mascot is a god much like Hoy-Tay—squat, fat little guy with a big belly—giving your humble reporter hope for new employment if I ever leave the newspaper business.

Another newspaperman, Wallace Abbey, is generally credited with applying the Wildcat tag to Northwestern much to the relief of peace-loving clergymen. The school's football team had previously molested opponents under guise of being Fighting Methodists.

Ask a grad of Western Carolina or Vermont what a Catamount is and watch him stutter. They've cheered for Catamounts since their freshman year probably unaware that it's actually a general name given to any of various wild cats, and short for cat-a-mountain.

Many schools took the easy route by merely embracing their state's accepted mascot or nickname, i.e., Tennessee Vols, Illinois Illini, Indiana Hoosiers, Minnesota Gophers, etc.

No bickering between alumni and students. No nickname contests. Think of the fun they missed.

Others were more original . . . California Irvine Anteaters, Colby College White Mules, and the Tufts Jumbos to name a few.

ALMA MATER

Words and Music by Eleanor C. Farley

*Wilkes, our Alma Mater
We pledge our hearts to thee,
Honor, Faith, and Courage,
Truth and Loyalty.
In our work as in our pleasure
Guide us as a friend;
We shall always love thee,
Loyal to the end.
Thou shalt lead us onward
In search of finer things.
May we find the wisdom
That thy spirit brings.
May our deeds of love and service
Ever swell thy fame —
Wilkes, we stand to greet thee!
Glory to thy name!*

COLONEL FOOTBALL CHIEF - Roland C. (Rollie) Schmidt

Rollie Schmidt begins his 14th season at the helm of the Wilkes College football Colonels. During this time, Schmidt guided teams have compiled an enviable 69-34-1 record.

From 1965 to 1969 his squads were the talk of the nation among college division football, copping 37 victories in 40 outings. Included in this impressive accomplishment were five straight MAC Northern Division titles (1965-69); two Lambert Bowls (1966, 68), symbolic of ECAC Division III supremacy; three consecutive undefeated seasons (1966-68); and a 32-game winning streak, the third longest in NCAA CD history.

Wilkes overcame a five-year drought in 1974 by capturing their sixth MAC Northern Division crown with a perfect 6-0 record. Not to be outdone in other fields of sport, Schmidt coached the Blue and Gold baseball team from 1962 to 1969, and in 1970 switched to golf.

His 1968 and 1969 baseball squads combined for a 22-5 record and won an MAC title in 1968. In 1971 and 1972 Schmidt's golf teams garnered back-to-back MAC links championships.

A 1950 graduate of Wilkes-Barre Coughlin High School, Rollie participated in football, wrestling, and track. He later attended Bloomsburg State College for two years before serving a stint in the Army. Schmidt returned to Bloomsburg where he graduated in 1956. His coaching career began at Clarks Summit High School, where he served as head wrestling, and assistant football, and track coach. Schmidt put in another three-year tour at Kingston High School under Jim Fennell before moving to Wilkes in 1962. He is married to the former Margaret Dombrowski of Plains.

An Evenly Matched Battle Slated For Parent's Day

Prior to the start of the 1975 grid campaign, prognosticators all across the Middle Atlantic Conference's Northern Division had labled the Wilkes College Colonels and the Susquehanna University Crusaders as two of the top teams expected to be in the thick of the fight for championship honors.

For Wilkes, the dream came to a screeching halt last weekend at Reading, as the Colonels sustained a 20-14 setback at the hands of Albright College.

Albright has a 5-0 league record and on the basis of wins over Wilkes and Lycoming earlier in the year, have clinched the Northern Division title regardless of what they do in their season finale with Upsala on November 15.

Pre-season press releases out of Selinsgrove had indicated the possibility of a 10-0 season for the Crusaders but that all too quickly went out the window as the Orange and Maroon lost six straight outings before turning the cart around Saturday against Delaware Valley.

JEFF STELTZ

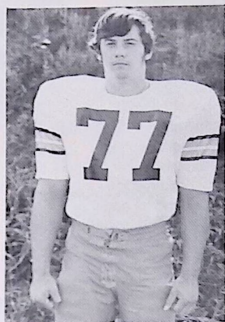

It wasn't as happy for the Colonels at Reading, as the Blue and Gold were foiled by Albright in their quest for a repeat Northern Division title. Wilkes led, 14-13 most of the third quarter, before the alert Lions blocked a Don McDermott punt and made good on the opportunity, going eight yards on two plays for the score. The Colonels made a valiant effort for the comeback, having one drive stalled by a loss of downs and another by a costly interception.

With the chances for a berth in the NCAA III playoffs and a MAC Northern Division title shot by the wayside, Colonel mentor Rollie Schmidt is faced with the difficult task of getting his charges back into the swing of things.

Despite a lackluster 2-3 record, the Blue and Gold have the horses to finish the year with four straight victories and eclipse the .500 plateau for the 14th time in history.

"Playing just for pride" will be the mission of both Wilkes and Susquehanna for the remainder of the season and the team that wants it more will be the winner in today's evenly matched Parent's Day game.

This afternoon's game will mark the eighth meeting between Wilkes and Susquehanna. The Crusaders dominated the early portion of the rivalry in the early 1960's but it has been the Colonels turn in recent years, winning the last three outings to establish a 4-3 series edge in games won.

PAUL O'NEILL

Susquehanna operates out of the "Power I" formation from which the Wilkes defenders should expect to find three Crusader ball carriers blasting out of the backfield.

Paul O'Neill, a 6-0, 200-pound sophomore has been the Crusaders leading rusher this annum, gaining 310 yards on 81 carries. The real threat is junior Tim Lawlor, a running cyclone as a freshman and sophomore, who is feeling the pangs of Susquehanna's miseries, but is still better than his seven-game accumulation of 276 yards in 90 totes.

TIM LAWLOR

Hadley Brown, who started the season as the Crusaders third-string signalcaller, has assumed the quarterback slot and has shown constant improvement with each outing. Not regarded as a scrambler, the diminutive 5-9, 145-pounder has been prolific in the airways, completing 36 of 80 passes for 492 yards and three touchdowns.

His prime receiver has been senior Steltz, the hero in Saturday's dramatic encounter, who has snared 30 bullets for 441 yards. Susquehanna's other man to watch on the pass patterns is John Xanthis. The 6-0, 170-pound junior has 12 catches for 141 yards.

THE CRUSADERS IN 1975

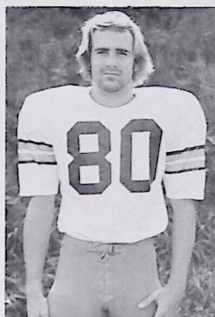

Grove City	14	Susquehanna	7	Albright	42	Susquehanna	20
Westminster	28	Susquehanna	0	Susquehanna	13	Del. Val.	6
Upsala	7	Susquehanna	3	November 1	at Wilkes
Lycoming	13	Susquehanna	7	November 8	Waynesburg
Juniata	20	Susquehanna	20

The Crusaders miss the services of defensive tackle Pat Lowe, who was hurt three weeks ago and is not expected to see action for the remainder of the season. Lowe was voted the team's most valuable lineman last year.

The Orange and Maroon also have a bluechipper at linebacker in Joe LoCastro, an All-MAC choice in 1974. LoCastro stands 6-0, 210, and is one of the better defenders which the Colonels will meet this fall.

Offensively, Susquehanna has accumulated 1589 yards running and passing in seven games while allowing 2054 to opponents. The Crusaders are shallow in the kicking department with the loss of Chuck Smeltz through graduation. Schmeltz set a NCAA College Division record last year with 77 straight placements. During his career, Smeltz was also responsible for 24 field goals.

While the Wilkesmen were bowing to Albright last weekend, senior co-captain Fred Lohman had to watch helplessly from the sidelines in street clothes. The 5-11, 185-pounder, who sustained a leg injury at Ithaca, should be ready today, giving the Colonels an improved dimension in the offense.

BOB IRWIN

Wengen (18-179), senior John Matusek (17-193), sophomore Larry Tarutis (13-133), and freshman Bob Irwin (4-67). Irwin, a tall 6-4, 195-pounder gives every indication of following in the footsteps of Joe Skvarla as a great pass catcher.

In Lohman's absence, Wilkes fans got a good look at Ed "Dinger" Murray, who enjoyed his finest hour as a collegian, carrying the ball 16 times for 114 yards. One of his trips spelled a 61-yard touchdown.

ED MURRAY

One of the bright areas for Wilkes has come at defense where the front wall has been rebuilt at tackle with freshmen Tony Pace and Bob Gratton coming to fill the void.

TONY COUTO

AND NOW, THE WEATHER. FAIR AND WARMER WITH A MONTEZUMA SNOWBLAST LIKELY THIS EVENING.

What better way to follow up a lot of tough, strenuous football watching than with a cool, refreshing Montezuma Snowblast? You've never heard of a Montezuma Snowblast? Well, you can find out what it is by ordering one at your favorite watering hole. Or better yet, you can make one yourself, right in your own domicile.

Here's how.

To make a Montezuma Snowblast, you take a large amount of subzero altocumulus clouds—no, that's not it. Here it is.

Snowblast ready to unleash on friend and foe alike.

This recipe is void where prohibited or otherwise restricted.

Get an authentic Montezuma Snowblast T-shirt. Just look for our display at your local store. Or send $2.95 (check or M.O. only) to Barton Brands, Dept. C, 200 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL 60604. Indicate S, M, L, or XL. Offer good while supply lasts. Void in any state where prohibited or restricted.

Fresca: it puts out thirst.

Montezuma: the noblest tequila of them all.

Susquehanna University is a co-educational, liberal arts institution located on the Susquehanna River in Selinsgrove, Pennsylvania, about 50 miles north of Harrisburg. Programs are offered leading to the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science in Business, and Bachelor of Music degrees.

A special emphasis is placed on learning through practical experience. The university believes in the concept of vocational preparation within the context of a broad, liberal arts education.

Off-campus internships and practicums are offered in accounting, banking, business, computer science, political science, psychology, sociology, social services, and teaching. Off-campus study programs are offered in English culture at Oxford University, England; in American government at American University in Washington, D. C.; and in the work of the United Nations at Drew University, Madison, N. J. Urban affairs programs which combine course work with internship experiences are conducted in Baltimore and Harrisburg. A Rural Studies program, focusing on the Central Susquehanna Valley, was recently begun in conjunction with seven other colleges in the area. Currently being implemented is a Cooperative Education program which permits the student to alternate periods of full-time employment with full-time study while earning a bachelor's degree in five years.

Susquehanna was founded in 1858 as the Missionary Institute of the Evangelical Lutheran Church. The Institute became a pioneer in the area of co-education by admitting women from the defunct Susquehanna Female College of Selinsgrove in 1873. The present corporate title was adopted by the institution in 1895. The university's theological department was disbanded in 1933, but Susquehanna is still affiliated with the Lutheran Church in America.

Susquehanna has experienced great growth during the past 15 years. Enrollment has increased from about 500 students in 1960 to about 1,400 today, and there has been a corresponding expansion of physical facilities. The size of the campus has increased from 62 to 185 acres and 10 major buildings have been constructed or renovated during that period, including the 175,000-volume Roger M. Blough Learning Center and the 1,500-seat Weber Chapel Auditorium. A new $2 million physical education building is currently under construction, with completion expected by next fall.

Susquehanna's faculty members, over half of whom have earned doctorates, are committed to excellence in the teaching of undergraduates. Faculty-student ratio is 1:14. The university operates on a "3-3" calendar in which students take three courses during each of three ten-week terms.

About one-half of Susquehanna's undergraduates are from Pennsylvania, but a total of 25 states and several foreign countries are represented. Enrollment is 55 percent men, 45 percent women.

The university also offers associate degrees in liberal arts and business, and enrolls about 200 people in its adult evening program.

TV service technicians name Zenith for the two things you want most in color TV.

I. Best Picture.

In a recent nationwide survey of independent TV service technicians, Zenith was named, more than any other brand, as the color TV with the best picture.

Question: In general, of the color TV brands you are familiar with, which one would you say has the best overall picture?

Answers:

Zenith.....	36%
Brand A.....	20%
Brand B.....	10%
Brand C.....	7%
Brand D.....	6%
Brand E.....	3%
Brand F.....	2%
Brand G.....	2%
Brand H.....	2%
Brand I.....	1%
Other Brands.....	3%
About Equal.....	11%
Don't Know.....	4%

Note: Answers total over 100% due to multiple responses.

II. Fewest Repairs.

In the same survey, the service technicians named Zenith as the color TV needing the fewest repairs. By more than 2-to-1 over the next brand.

For survey details, write to the Vice President, Consumer Affairs, Zenith Radio Corporation, 1900 N. Austin Avenue, Chicago, IL 60639.

ZENITH 100% SOLID STATE
CHROMACOLOR II

The quality goes in before the name goes on.

John Bird, who has a demoralizing background of injuries, is the heir-apparent. He completed 8 of 23 attempts as a standby, last year. But the freshmen may come up with somebody—or maybe a promising student will materialize from some other school. Otherwise, the offense looks steady. Tim Lawlor 5-10 180 HB is a swifty who led the way with 616 yds, 4.4 per carry, in '74. Power running can come from Jim Camut 5-10 200 HB and Paul O'Neill 6-0 210 FB. With a school record for pass receiving in his sure hands, Jeff Steltz looks for improvement on his 39 catches (539 yds) at SE and John Binosak, who caught 22, is at TE. The line looks firm with Mike Monahan 6-0 200 OG and Gerry Huesken 6-1 235 OT available. Monahan's touted as best guard in Susquehanna history. Top defenders are Pat Lowe 6-0 235 DT, best lineman of last year according to the coaches, Joe LoCastro 6-0 215 LB and secondary man Dave Breymer.

DELAWARE VALLEY—Perennial bridesmaids of the conference, Delaware Valley is looking for its first title this year, even though Coach Tom Shreiner's Aggies went 2-6 in '74. Chalk it all up to experience. The year is in on offense, with Tim Orr at QB to run it some more. He welcomes Jan Gauby back into the backfield after a year at TE and John Maloney and Ed Cini will be getting some calls, too. Pass receivers include Ed Peyton, Jack Fallenstein, Ken Brokenborough and Scott Kingshew. The line will be built around center Jude McKenna, all-conference tackle Mike Rinaldi, his counterpart Len Mahoney and guards John Edwards and Dennis Helmstetter.

Another strong defense is anticipated. It will be in the hands of tackle Ted King, 4.5s Bill O'Neill and Mike Hann, and DBs Scott Melroy, Fitzgerald Gittens and Tim Boyce. Lettermen in reserve are Mike Konoza, Steve Hertig, Fred Zeidler, Jeff Wiest, Bob Mekel, Bob Nicholson and Charles Comstock.

WILKES—If any Colonels ever rated a salute, it's the Navy and Gold gang of Coach Rolfie Schmidt who grabbed off another MAC northern division title last year for the first time in half a decade. They went 7-2, unblemished in six conference games. What do they do for an encore? Well, with only one starter gone from the offense and three from the defense, they could think about 9-0. There are 30 lettermen to play around with.

Two of them are QBs, the Chuck Suppon and Greg Snyder tandem that has done it in the past. When on the ground, they can give the ball to Fred Lohman, second leading grounder gainer in Wilkes history with 1,312 yds—or speedsters Mickey Calabrese or Rodney Smith. An offensive front averaging 225 pounds should make things go fine for those runners. Foremost on front are Frank Wengen and tackle Joe Detmore.

A sturdy defense includes ends Lou Maczuga and Don Kulick, interior LB Steve Leskiw and backs Fred Marianacci and Dave Trethaway.

JUNIATA—Coach Walt Nadzak thinks he has the Indians again, particularly in the vital offensive front line, to play in the league with the 7-2 tribe of '74. He has 32 lettermen on tap.

Two of them were number two and three passers in the conference last year: QBs Dave Wichrowski and Scott Magley. Wichrowski started the first four games before a concussion put him out of business. In came Scott Magley who led the team to five straight victories. Between them, they threw for 1,191 yds, and ten TDs. Daryl Long, who came on the stage late but averaged 5.6 yds a carry, is ready at FB. Backup Rich Madley averaged 4.8. Charlie Zorger is the anchor of the offensive line—either at center or back to tackle.

On defense, safety Bob Devine will see if he can't pick off 8 passes, at least, like last year. CBs Steve Lehman and Dave Cortazzo are in the Indian camp and so are LB Barry Hartley and down linemen Stu Jackson and Don Page, all-conference at MG and tackle respectively last year.

UPSALA—Not everyone in the Middle Atlantic Conference is loaded. The Vikings put an 18-game losing streak on the line on opening day against Swarthmore—which has lost 29 in a row. Upsala's last victory was on Nov. 4, 1972, a 15-12 conquest of Lycoming.

Coach John Hooper, who has seen better days, enters his 19th year at the helm looking for some brutes for the galley that is the offensive line and some secondary men who can stop aerial warfare. The Vikings sail into their 50th football campaign this year hoping for the best from men like QBs Barry Milazzo and Phil Castagna, HB Tim Fortier, punter-safety Winslow Stillwell, FB Jim Bray, DT Phil Mandato and LB John Kupfer. Help is wanted and may come from transfers Nor Forino, A FB from Delaware, safety John Palumbo from St. Peter's, and TE Mike Popalardo from Southern Connecticut.

ALBRIGHT—With most of last year's Lions returning from a free-scoring 6-3 crew, Coach John Potskin eyes a conference crown in his 21st year at Reading. In his first two decades, he is 96-81-4. A number of incoming freshmen should find places on the squad to help him in that quest. Potskin expects to continue running out of the wishbone, with HBs Frankie Franks, Bill Gallen, Jeff Welch and Dave Kalodner doing most of the running. Franks gained 692 yds on 190 carries and the other three rang up roughly 200 yds each. Franks averaged 6.35 yds a carry and 500 more yds on 30 KO and punt returns. Paul Shellhammer, injured out most of last year, is expected to be a whole QB again and could be dynamite. Pat Sharp, passing leader as a freshman last fall, is still around. Regis Yoboud 6-1 190 OE who caught 7 for 115 yds and 4 TDs is likely to see the ball more and so is Mark D'Andrea 5-10 165 OE. Gary Papay 6-1 200 FB, who was third behind Franks with 252 yds, will be booming through again. Outstanding OG Joe Noonan 6-0 200 returns up front with OT Paul Capelli 6-2 215, center David Kurzinsky 6-2 225 and OG Mark Redmond 6-2 200. Gallen does the punting and Brown, placekicker and leading scorer of '74 with 33 PK Bill Brown (2 FGS, 27 PATs, 33 pts) also returns.

Mike Sahli 6-0 180 DB who led the team with interceptions, which he returned for 86 yds and one TD, is a key man on D. He has company in the secondary from old friends John Gesualdo, James Fulginiti, Thomas Glosner and Willie Brown. Backing up the line again are Ed Hynes, Richard Spohn and Michael Vidulich. Tom Neary is top returning defensive lineman.

LYCOMING—A pro-type offense remains in the hands of John Johnson 6-2 190 QB who took over midway through the '74 season and led the Warriors to two of their victories in a 3-6 season. He completed 25 of 59 for 246 yds and a TD and scored two more himself. Coach Frank Giras says Randy Steiner 5-10 150 QB may press him.

Competent catchers and runners are available like junior HBs Nick Renzi 5-10 187 and Phil Bellino 5-10 180, sophs Bob Weber 6-1 205 and Ray Radomicki 5-10 170. Each averaged between 3 and 4 yds a carry. Slotback Jim Rich, top league receiver two years ago, is a formidable 5-10 16 John Vanaskie 6-3 192 TE throws weight around on the line and caught 15 for 213 yds last year. Also in the line are 4 who started as frosh last year: Barry Belgrade 6-2 220, Dominic Johnson 6-1 212, Joe Joyce 6-1 225 and Joe Serrantonion 5-10 250.

Up front on defense are ends Steve Weigle and Frank Kindler, tackles Joe Montagnino and Bill O'Connor, averaging about 220.

All-conference Mike Prowant 6-4 215 MG stays put. They'll be backed up by Randy Parson and Jim Tkach with the secondary keeping letter men Ken Heideger, Tom Heim, Joe Klebon, Tom Rice and Dwight Stilwell.

Southern Division

SWARTHMORE—The most golden day for the Garnet last fall was when it scored 21 points on Johns Hopkins. Hopkins scored 28, though, and the Little Quakers finished an 0-7 season. They have now lost 29 games in a row over the last four years.

They were shut out twice last year, held to 1 safety by Dickinson, and scored a TD each against Ursinus, Muhlenberg and Widener.

Lewis Elverson has resigned his post as head football coach at Swarthmore, effective the 1975
