WILL THE PRO FOOTBALL BOOM CONTINUE?

by Martin Lader, UPI Sportswriter

Love being more popular than war, business should be better than ever for professional football.

After having milked a bitter rivalry for eight years to produce the healthiest sport in the land, the National and American Football Leagues have kissed and made up. The resulting boom could bolster the economy of many a small nation.

Anyone who questions the growing popularity of pro football is welcome to try to buy a seat for a game. Before setting out, however, it would be advisable to make alternate plans for the day.

The sport, which has become a national institution on winter Sundays, is setting as many records off the field as the Green Bay Packers are setting on it. Apparently, only the calendar can put a squeeze on its rapid expansion. And even there, the season quietly is being stretched out to a point where training camps open in July and the last tackle isn't made until January.

Front office personnel carry their statistics with pride, they lend credence to the health and wealth of football.

In 1967, the 16 NFL teams, playing in heat, bitter cold, snow, and rain, drew 88.4 percent of stadium capacity. This added to 5,941,360 paying customers for 112 regular season games, or an average of 53,048 a game.

The younger American League did nearly as well, drawing 2,295,697 fans for 63 contests, an average of 36,439.

Figures for both leagues are alltime records, just as the NFL has set attendance marks for seven consecutive years.

Since its birth in 1960, the AFL has increased its attendance 147.9 percent, while the National League jumped 11.32 percent just from 1966 to 67.

Will this amazing rise continue?

The men who created it are wise enough not to sit in rocking chairs; instead they are working to ensure an even more profitable future. That's where the love comes in.

Natural rivalries abound between the two leagues, such as with the New York Giants and Jets, Oakland and San Francisco, Dallas and Houston, and Los Angeles and San Diego, and once the interlocking schedule made possible by the friendly merger goes into effect in 1970, these contests will be natural attractions.

Until then, football still is counting huge crowds for exhibitions matching teams from the rival leagues, and the last Super Bowl game at Miami drew 75,456 paying fans plus more than 60 million television viewers.

The AFL will be bolstered further this season by a new franchise in Cincinnati, the transfer of Houston Oilers games from Rice Stadium to the Astrodome, where already they've more than doubled their previous best season ticket sales, and the enlargement of Denver Stadium by 15,000 seats to a capacity of about 50,000.

Football commissioner Pete Rozelle proudly points out:

"The acceptance of our game by the younger segment of the population indicates we'll be around for a while."

THE PACKERS WITHOUT LOMBARDI AS HEAD COACH

by Stu Camen, UPI Sportswriter

Question: How does one go about bettering a professional football coaching record that comes closer to perfection than any other?

Answer: You don't. You just try to emulate it.

That's the challenge facing Phil Bengtson, who replaces the incomparable Vince Lombardi as head coach of the world champion Green Bay Packers this season.

Lombardi inherited a last-place club when he took over at Green Bay in January, 1959. He proceeded to direct the Packers to six Western Division titles, five National Football League championships, and two Super Bowl victories in nine seasons before relinquishing the coaching reins to Bengtson in February to concentrate solely on his duties as general manager.

In addition to trying to match Lombardi's coaching record, Bengtson also has to contend with the "Superman" aura built around his predecessor by the press and by radio and television.

Bengtson was one of four assistant coaches hired by Lombardi when he assumed command at Green Bay. He was put in charge of the defensive unit to which many have attributed the team's continuing success.

When asked why he hired Bengtson, Lombardi was quite candid in his reply: "Because he was available and out of work."

Bengtson, 54, has been an assistant coach for 32 years, except for four years spent in the Navy during World War II. A native of Rousseau, Minn., he is a tall, slight man and quite different from the burly and outspoken Lombardi.

Bengtson was an All-America tackle at the University of Minnesota and an assistant coach at Missouri, Stanford, and the San Francisco Forty Niners before joining Lombardi at Green Bay.

If there are any doubts about Bengtson's ability to take over as head coach, they are not shared by Lombardi, who introduced his successor to the public by stating, "I am positive that under his (Bengtson's) leadership, the Green Bay Packers will continue to grow and continue to be successful."

One of the big reasons for Lombardi's continuing success is his refusal to dwell on present glories. As the former Fordham star lineman continually emphasizes, "The success of the Green Bay Packers lies not in the present, but in its future."

Lombardi, in his role as general manager, continues to make the trades that assure the continuation of the Packer dynasty for years to come.

As he has proved shrewd in his many player deals, it is doubtful if Lombardi made a wrong choice in naming Bengtson to succeed him as coach.

Bengtson is certainly no stranger to the players, and while he may not be held in the same awe as the stern Lombardi, he is sure to command his share of respect.

After his appointment as head coach, Bengtson made certain everyone knew how he planned to approach his new job. "As far as I'm concerned," Bengtson said, "anything short of winning the championship is unsuccessful."

Even Lombardi couldn't have said it any better.

AMERICAN FOOTBALL LEAGUE OUTLOOK FOR 1968

by Fred McMane UPI Sportswriter

The legendary Paul Brown, who built the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League into a power, is returning to the coaching lines this season as the head mentor for the AFL's new franchise in Cincinnati, and his mere presence on the field can be expected to boost the prestige of the AFL considerably. The Divisions shape up this way: EASTERN DIVISION—The admission of Cincinnati balances the two divisions of the AFL for the first time since 1965. Miami was added to the league in 1966, and there have been nine teams in the AFL for the past two seasons.

It won't be decided until a later league meeting which division Cincinnati will be placed in, but the guess is that the Bengals will be put in the Eastern Division with Houston shifting over to the West.

Houston surprised everyone by winning the Eastern Division last year, but the Oilers were hard hit by the stockpile draft in which they lost three starters to the Bengals—defensive tackles Willie Jones and Andy Rice and tight end Bob Poole.

It doesn't appear as if the Oilers got much help from the college draft either. They didn't get to choose until 48 players had been taken and thus will have to go basically with what they had last season. It might not be enough.

This could be the year the New York Jets finally reach the heights that have been predicted for them the past two seasons. The Jets finished just a game behind Houston last season as Joe Namath set a league passing record, and things should improve for them this fall.

Boston and Buffalo each lost some good personnel to Cincinnati in the draft, yet the Bills could be a real threat provided injuries don't cripple them like last year. Miami also should improve on last year's 4-10 record, especially if fullback Larry Csonka of Syracuse comes through as expected.

Cincinnati went for a youth movement in its draft, as most of the 40 players selected from the AFL stockpile were under 27. Additionally, the Bengals may have gotten a couple of real standouts from the college draft in center Bob Johnson of Tennessee and halfback Warren McVea of Houston. WESTERN DIVISION—Nobody figures to beat Oakland in the West. The Raiders compiled a 13-1 record last year, clobbered Houston 40-7 for the AFL title, then lost to Green Bay 35-10 in the Super Bowl.

The Raiders had six men on the all-AFL first team and six more on the second unit last year, and all will be returning with a little bit more experience.

San Diego figures to give the Raiders their biggest challenge if flanker Lance Alworth and halfback Paul Lowe have recovered from injuries that plagued them last season.

Kansas City, which finished second to the Raiders last year, is forced to rebuild its program this year. Missing from the Chiefs camp this year will be six players who started regularly last season. Four went to Cincinnati in the expansion draft, center Jon Gilliam retired, and cornerback Fred Williamson was released.

Denver should begin to climb this year. The Broncos have a young club which showed great promise last season, and the addition of collegiate standouts like defensive end Curley Culp of Arizona State and fullback Garrett Ford of West Virginia brightens their future even more.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE OUTLOOK FOR 1968

by Joe Gergen, UPI Sportswriter

Two colorful coaches announced their retirement from National Football League teams for the upcoming season. First was Vince Lombardi from the Green Bay Packers; next was George Halas, longtime owner and head coach of the Chicago Bears.

Chicago fans will miss "Papa Bear" Halas running along the sidelines keeping his eagle eye on each move of his players and sometimes protesting calls by the officials against the Bears' play. He could no longer keep up this pace due to arthritis, in spite of his wishes to complete his fiftieth year as an active participant in football. Though he turned the reins over to Jim Dooley, his assistant coach, Halas' presence will still be noted in the background.

CAPITOL DIVISION—Dallas is still a young team with a defensive line that ranks among the best and has game-breakers in Bob Hayes and Lance Rentzel. The Cowboys can't be expected to falter amongst the likes of Washington, Philadelphia, and New York. Sonny Jurgensen makes the Redskins dangerous at any time, but a leaky defense negates his efforts. The Eagles have little flash and less enthusiasm for the game, while the Giants, with Fran Tarkenton and Homer Jones sparking the attack, are willing but soft on defense.

CENTURY DIVISION—Cleveland staggered to title a year ago and may be hard-pressed to hold off St. Louis this season. Quarterback Frank Ryan, a 32-year-old veteran, was besieged by injuries, and the Browns lost their knack for winning the big game as evidenced by their 52-14 loss to Dallas in the Eastern title clash. A year of experience should benefit St. Louis quarterback Jim Hart, whose team inexplicably collapsed the second half of the season for the last two years. Pittsburgh still is a solid quarterback away from contention, and the New Orleans Saints, who won three games in their initial season, may have trouble repeating that figure.

CENTRAL DIVISION—Lombardi's stockpile system continues as Fred Carr, a terror of a linebacker from El Paso, Texas, injects youth into the basically veteran club. The Packers remain deep at every position. Only a serious injury to quarterback Bart Starr is likely to stop this juggernaut. The Chicago Bears are the top contenders solely on their defensive prowess but need more than Gale Sayers on offense to do the impossible. Minnesota, which acquired quarterback Gary Cuozzo from New Orleans, is expected to be much improved, while Detroit prays fervently that quarterback Greg Landry, a first-round draft pick from Massachusetts, is the answer to its quarterback woes.

COASTAL DIVISION—Los Angeles and Baltimore finished with identical 11-1-2 marks in 1967, the best of any NFL teams, and can be expected to provide the league with its most intense rivalry again this season. The Rams trounced the Colts 34-10 on the final day of the season last year to win the division title, and the two clubs are booked for a rematch on the same day this season. Although Tim Brown could help considerably, Johnny Unitas still carries Baltimore's hopes, while Los Angeles' rush line remains the most frightening in football. San Francisco, boasting a new head coach in Dick Nolan, still must choose among John Brodie, George Mira, and Steve Spurrier at quarterback, while the sorry Atlanta Falcons, 1-12-1 last season, wish they only had such a problem. They do have many others.

Rose Bowl—
Southern California vs. Indiana
U.P.I. player of year O. J. Simpson scores from 2-yard line with first of his two TD's in Southern California's 14-3 victory over Indiana in Rose Bowl before record of 102,946 at Pasadena, Calif. Simpson scored later on 8-yard slash as national champions from Pacific Eight downed the Hoosiers, who were the surprises of the college season. Simpson gained 128 yards in 25 carries.

Cotton Bowl—
Texas A&M vs. Alabama
Wendell Housley bursts through the Alabama line at the start of his game-winning 20-yard touchdown smash which gave underdog Texas A&M 20-16 win in Cotton Bowl. Gene Stallings, Bear Bryant's former assistant at Alabama, masterminded triumph of Aggies, who lost four games during regular season. Housley and quarterback Edd Hargrett paced Aggies to victory in their first Bowl appearance in 26 years.

Sugar Bowl—
Louisiana State vs. Wyoming
Unheralded sophomore Glenn Smith came off bench in second half to inspire Louisiana State and rally Tigers from 13-0 deficit to 20-13 victory over previously undefeated Wyoming. Here Smith, who scored one TD and gained 66 yards in 17 carries, charges for a 5-yard gain. Wyoming, making first appearance in major bowl game, had 10-0 regular-season record.

Orange Bowl—
Oklahoma vs. Tennessee
Typical of Oklahoma's 26-24 victory over Tennessee in Orange Bowl is all-out effort of Oklahoma tailback Ron Shatts (22) to spin away from Tennessee tackle Steve Carroll. Sooners built 19-0 half-time lead and barely outlasted Volunteers who rallied for 24 points in second half. Bob Stephenson raced 26 yards with interception to score winning TD for Oklahoma midway through fourth period.

NFL Championship—Green Bay vs. Dallas
Pro football's play of the year: Bart Starr (15), driving behind 245-pound guard Jerry Kramer (leg extended), scores from 1-yard line with 13 seconds left to give Green Bay Packers a 21-17 victory over Dallas Cowboys and unprecedented third consecutive National Football League championship. Packers drove 68 yards to glory in the final 5 minutes after Cowboys took 17-14 lead on a 50-yard pass from Don Reeves to Lance Rentzel. Dallas players suffered frostbite in the 149° below-zero temperature.

AFL Championship—
Oakland vs. Houston
Dave Grayson returns opening kickoff 48 yards to trigger the Oakland Raiders' 40-7 triumph over the Houston Oilers in the American League championship game. Hewitt Dixon gained 144 yards rushing, including a 69-yard TD punt, before record AFL title game crowd of 53,330 at Oakland to pace Raiders. George Blanda, 40-year-old former Oiler, kicked field goals of 37, 40, 42, and 36 yards during Raider romp.

Super Bowl—Green Bay vs. Oakland
Danny Anderson (44) vaults over linebacker Bill Lankley (42) into the end zone during the third period in Green Bay's 33-14 victory over the Oakland Raiders in the Super Bowl game between the National and American League champions. Bart Starr completed 13 of 24 passes for 202 yards, and Don Chandler kicked field goals of 39, 20, 43, and 31 yards as the Packers gained their second straight Super Bowl victory. Daryle Lamontica threw TD pass of 23 and 24 yards to Bill Miller for the Raiders.

1968 COLLEGE FORECAST

With Major College Conference Standings 1967 And Predictions of Conference Standings 1968

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE—Defending champion Clemson has depth again and Buddy Gore—who should be the best runner in the ACC. But look out for Virginia. The Cavaliers lost only one starter from last year's team, and Frank Quayle may be even better than Gore. Wake Forest has a dandy quarterback in Freddie Summers and is loaded with offensive veterans. Liberty Bowl champ North Carolina State lost most of its defense, and it's doubtful that an improved offense can take up that much slack. South Carolina, led by fullback Warren Muir, is the ACC dark horse. North Carolina will be improved but not enough.

BIG EIGHT—Oklahoma, the Orange Bowl champ, is a razor-thin favorite to win again, but Colorado, Nebraska, and Kansas figure to give the Sooners a run for the Big Eight title. Oklahoma returns 25 lettermen including star quarterback Bob Warmack and tailback Ron Shotts, but must replace All-America middle guard Granville Liggins, 1967 college lineman of the year. The Colorado Buffs, who beat Miami of Florida in last year's Bluebonnet Bowl, return 25 lettermen from an injury-riddled 9-2 season including Colorado quarterback Bobby Anderson who ran and passed for more than 1500 yards last year. Nebraska returns 27 lettermen including quarterback Frank Patrick and running backs Joe Orduña and Dick Davis. Kansas is led by quarterback Bob Douglas, the back of the season last year. Missouri is always tough defensively but is the only team returning a starring quarterback. Oklahoma State returns quarterback Ronnie Johnson, fullback Jack Reynolds, and tailback Larry Gosney among 25 lettermen. Iowa State and Kansas State have some fine players, but lack depth.

BIG TEN—Purdue is the kingpin in the Big 10 with All-America Leroy Keyes, the 1967 scoring champion (114 points), quarterback Mike Phipps (1800 yards gained passing on 118 completions), and fullback Perry Williams, 28th in rushing last year with 746 yards on 177 carries (11 touchdowns) . . . Couple the offense with middle guard Chuck Kyle, linebacker Clanton King and tackle Dave Stydahr, and the Boilermakers have the wherewithal for a Rose Bowl trip, perhaps against Southern Cal. . . . Indiana, still smarting over the 1968 Rose Bowl loss to USC, returns with quarterback Harry Conso, flanker Jade Butcher, and tight end Al Cage . . . Regis Cavender replaces graduated Bob Apisa as Michigan State's fullback threat, but quarterback now is a problem with Jimmy Raye gone. Jack Pitts and Charlie Wedemeyer compete for the post . . . Minnesota will miss Curt Wilson who quarterbacked to a three-way tie for the Big Ten title with Indiana and Purdue. Speedy John Wintermute will be back, but their defense may be hurt by several key graduations . . . Rebuilding programs will keep the other schools out of contention, unless a black sheep suddenly emerges as the white knight of the conference.

IVY LEAGUE—The rich get richer, even in the Ivy League, which makes Yale the popular choice to repeat as champion of the Ancient Eight's football scramble. Coach Carm Cozza's Eli, unbeaten in Ivy play last fall, have 28 reasons why they should again rule their league this season—all of them lettermen. Included are quarterback Brian Dowling and rugged halfback Calvin Hill, two of the league's best offensive football players. If the Eli do falter, Princeton is the best bet to take charge. Dick Colman's single wing program has been spectacularly successful (71 wins, 28 losses in 11 seasons), and he appears to be well stocked with key tailbacks in the veteran Rick Bracken and freshman ace Brian McCullough to give the Bulldogs a run for their money. Harvard, which gave Yale fits before bowing 24-20 in last fall's spectacular windup, has a stable of the hottest running backs in the league in veterans Vic Gatto, Ray Hornblower, and Will Stargel and incoming freshman record-setter Richie Szaro. Bob Blackman always has a contender at Dartmouth, but his chances will depend on the arrival of quarterback Bill Koenig who split the chore with the graduated Gene Ryzewicz last fall. Jim Chasey, who as a freshman a year ago completed 36 for 625 yards and eight touchdowns, could move in. Brown, rebuilding under Coach Len Jardine, figures to be somewhat stronger this fall, while Cornell could have trouble replacing its defensive line. Columbia will be just starting out under new Coach Frank Navarro, and Penn suffered heavy backfield losses after a 2-5 league season last year.

MID-AMERICA CONFERENCE—Figured to fight it out for the top spot are Ohio University, Toledo, Western Michigan, and Miami of Ohio. Kent State looms as a possible dark horse. Only Marshall and Bowling Green, both with new coaches, appear to be out of it. If anybody is a favorite, it would have to be Ohio University's Bobcats. They should have the most explosive offense in the league headed by junior quarterback Cleve Bryant and tailback Dick Conley. The entire offense including linebacker Steve Robinson and tackle Frank Peters return. Toledo lost a lot of key performers from last year's 9-1 outfit, but the Rockets' hopes are pinned on quarterback Steve Jones, rated the fastest back on the team. Both Roland Moss, the MAC's leading scorer, and fullback Bob Pfefferlezer return. Western Michigan thinks it can win it all with good size and 26 lettermen returning, including all-league end Jerry Collins. Miami has a veteran team of 20 lettermen and 14 starters from last year. The biggest job facing Coach Bo Schenbeckler will be to find replacements in the offensive line and defensive backfield, including the spot vacated by tailback Al Moore. New Coach Dave Puddington of Kent State could sneak the Flashes into title contention, but he has to solve the problem of finding a new quarterback and getting his players accustomed to a new system. Lack of offensive linemen will hamper Bowling Green under new Coach Bob Nehlen. Marshall, 0-10 last year, has an entirely new coaching staff headed by former Purdue player Perry Moss. Junior college transfers could get the Marshall football program off the ground.

MISSOURI VALLEY—North Texas State, which walloped Tulsa 54 to 12 last year to win the Missouri Valley title in Coach Rod Rust's first season, will be hard pressed this year by Tulsa and newcomer Memphis State. The Eagles, led by the pass-catch duo of quarterback Steve Ramsey and flanker Ronnie Shanklin, finished 7-1-1. Both Ramsey and Shanklin's return, but the addition of Memphis State to the Valley's championship schedule is Rust's biggest concern. The Tigers were 6-3 last year, but Coach Bill Murray is counting on sophomore quarterback Rich Thuro and tailback Nick Passas to better things. Tulsa, 7-3 a year ago, has an outstanding quarterback returning in Mike Stripling. Cincinnati figures to be tougher with All-Conference halfback Lloyd Pate and quarterback Greg Cook returning. Louisville, 5-5 last year, has 14 starters returning including quarterback Wally Oyler and running back Herbi Phelps. Wichita State returns only 19 lettermen and must replace star quarterback John Eckman following a 2-8 season.

PACIFIC EIGHT—The leaning naturally is toward Southern California as the repeater regionally and nationally. The Trojans have the man who has everything—O. J. Simpson, a fast cat who made everyone's All-America list last season. He was the nation's leading rusher in 1967 with 1,415 yards gained on 266 carries. He scored 11 touchdowns for a team that still lacks good passing and must renew a ground game in 1968. Steve Sogge may have the job of quarterbacking all to himself. Last year, he shared the signal calling with Toby Page. . . With Heisman Trophy winner Garry Beban gone, UCLA lost its potent offense, and chances are that Oregon State, with fullback Bill Enyard, will step up to challenge the USC dynasty. . . Ron Boley and Jess Lewis, defensive tackles, anchor the Beaver line. . . Offensive stars to watch include quarterback turned pass catcher Gene Washington of Stanford and split end Wayne Stewart of California.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE—Richmond Flowers returns as wingback for Tennessee, but chances are the fleet Volunteer will elect to utilize his speed on the U. S. Olympic track team at Mexico City in October before playing football. Ken DeLong at end provided Tennessee with the other half of a glue-fingered pass-catching pair for the defending Conference champions. Dick Perkins at fullback packs the punch for line rushes. Florida could turn up the surprise title package in SEC, especially since Larry "Silent" Smith's switch from halfback to fullback. The Gators led the conference in total offense last season and have most of their personnel back this season. All-SEC end Dick Trapp is among the missing, indicating this season could be more of a running game for Florida than passing. Larry Rentz or Jackie Eckdahl can handle whatever quarterback chores are required. Auburn is another pretender to the SEC crown, and quarterback Loren Carter placed the Tigers in that lofty position with his strong passing that accounted for 1,307 yards last season. Perennial favorite Georgia continues as a threat, mainly because of Kent Lawrence's capabilities in a picking up yardage. LSU has Glenn Smith for its offensive power, and Alabama leans on quarterback Joe Kelley for strength.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE—With the withdrawal of West Virginia, the Southern Conference has just about completed its plunge to second-class status. There isn't a team left in the Southern which could be expected to give a major team like those of the SEC or Big 10 as much trouble as their own scrubs. East Carolina, except for West Virginia, was the class of the Southern last season and now should stand alone. Brook Colson of East Carolina looks like the league's best runner. Virginia Military has a pretty good runner in fullback Bob Habasevich, and Richmond's Buster O'Brien looks like the best quarterback. Richmond and William & Mary, who always meet in their season finales, probably will battle for the runner-up spot in that game.

*West Virginia has withdrawn from Southern Conference for 1968.

SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE—Defending champion Texas A. & M., which lost its first four games, swept its last six, and then beat Alabama in the Cotton Bowl, is the early favorite because Coach Gene Stallings has 13 two-year lettermen among 33 returnees, plus proven quarterback Edd Hargett. The feeling, however, is that the Texas Longhorns will be the team to beat, especially if injury-plagued Bill Bradley remains whole at quarterback. Rice is the only other team with a proven signal caller, but Robby Shelton also has been injury-prone. Shelton, however, brings Rice up into a group of four teams that could push the favorites. These are Texas Tech, Texas Christian, and Arkansas, all of whom must rely on youth at the key man-under slot. Baylor and Southern Methodist appear outclassed. Overall, the conference returns most offensive stars, but graduation cut deep defensively. Texas switched from the I-formation to the wing-T to ease Bradley's load and utilize some excellent runners. Arkansas, too, changed formations to a pro set with two wide receivers seeking to capitalize on hoped-for passing ability.

WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE—The newly expanded Western Athletic Conference expects to have a wide open pennant race with perennial powers Wyoming and Arizona State and newcomer Texas, El Paso, battling in the league's first football fight involving eight participants. Texas, El Paso, and Colorado State University became official members of the WAC family with the 1968 football campaign, but CSU won't be eligible to compete for the championship since the Rams do not play the required four league rivals. Wyoming, only major college team to go through the regular 1967 season unbeaten and untied, suffered heavy graduation losses, as did their opponents. Arizona State has an abundance of experience and could go all the way. Texas, El Paso, lost gifted quarterback Billy Stevens, but the Miners, winner of last year's Sun Bowl, have a capable replacement in Brooks Dawson who threw 15 touchdown passes last season. Brigham Young University boasts an experienced quarterback in Marc Lyons and will challenge the leaders. Arizona also expects improvement.

THE MAJOR INDEPENDENTS—Notre Dame, perennial powerhouse among the nation's major college independents, should continue to dominate the ranks of non-affiliated schools with quarterback Terry Hanratty and split end Jim Seymour among Coach Ara Parseghian's returnees. Coley O'Brien, who also saw duty last year as a quarterback for the Irish, also returns and has developed new credentials as a punt return specialist. Penn State, which lists end Ted Kwalick among its returnees, is expected to dominate the East, but the Nittany Lions will be challenged by Army's Black Knights. Army, under Coach Tom Cahill, has exceptional backfield experience and speed with quarterback Steve Lindell and fullback Charley Jarvis returning. Syracuse lost fullback Larry Csonka via the graduation route but Coach Ben Schwartzwalder expects to field another strong squad. Utah State, New Mexico State, Houston, Miami of Florida, Navy, and Buffalo expect to rank among the independent leaders in their areas.

REFEREES' SIGNALS

Tri-Captains

Bill Layden 70 — Joe Wiendl 44
Bruce Comstock 77

Joe Wiendl

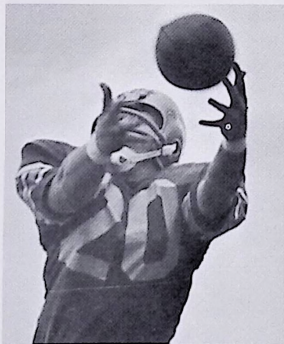

JOE WIENDL — Senior defensive safety from Westfield, New Jersey; Second team All-American in his Junior year; NCAA Small College Wrestling Champion last winter; 35-1 dual meet wrestling career record; hit .353 and led MAC in stolen bases with 12 last baseball season; holds five Wilkes College Football records; 12 career interceptions; had 96 yard punt return against Ursinus and 90 yard interception versus PMC; ALL-MAC last fall at safety. Joe was accorded ECAC honors as Defensive Back of the Week for his outstanding performance against Delaware Valley two weeks ago. He returned two punts (82 and 68 yards) for scores. Against Ithaca, Joe returned a punt 95 yards to put the game out of reach.

Bill Layden

BILL LAYDEN — Senior defensive tackle from Wilkes-Barre GAR High School; All MAC Tackle last three seasons; Co-Captain of this years squad; Number two man in tackles and assists with 104; strong, aggressive and mean pass rusher; mainstay of Wilkes line. Bill has been hobbling through the 1968 season due to early season injuries and is still suffering from the effects.

Bruce Comstock

BRUCE COMSTOCK — Senior defensive tackle from West Pittston; All MAC offensive tackle for the last three years; Co-Captain of this years Colonel squad; opens up the big gaps; played football and track in high school. Bruce has been a mainstay on the offensive line for four years.

victory.

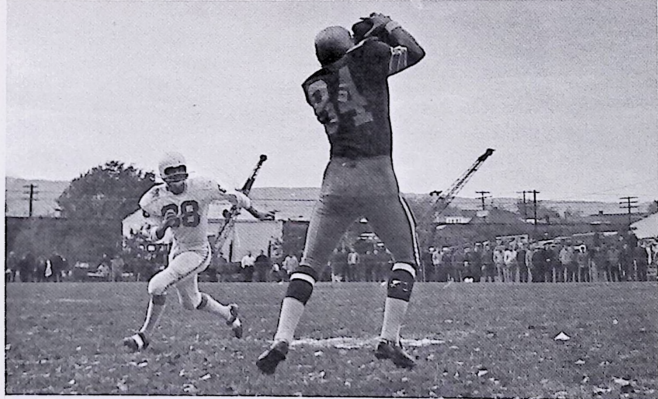

Dave Patterson, Upsala's one-man gang, is brought down by linebacker MIKE CONNOLLY in a display of open field tackling. Connolly registered six tackles and five assists in the Upsala encounter.

DAVE KASCHAK'S field goal attempt in the second quarter of the Upsala encounter split the uprights and provided the margin of victory in the Colonel's 9-7 triumph over the Vikings.

JOE SKVARLA hauls down one of several pass receptions during the Upsala win.

COLONELS CHARGE!

HEAD COACH

ROLAND C. SCHMIDT

This year Coach Roland Schmidt will begin his seventh season at the helm of the Wilkes Colonels. During this time he has compiled a 30-16 lifetime record. His teams in the past three years have posted an incredible 23-1 log which includes three Middle Atlantic Conference championships.

A 1950 graduate of Wilkes-Barre Coughlin High School, Coach Schmidt took part in football, wrestling and track. He attended Bloomsburg State College before serving a two year stint with the Army. Returning to Bloomsburg in 1955, "Rollie" played football and track for the Huskies.

The mentor graduated from Bloomsburg in 1956 with a B.S. in education and served as a member of the Clarks Summit teaching staff for three years. In addition to being an assistant football coach, he also served as the head wrestling coach and assistant track coach. The Wilkes mentor later moved on to Kingston High School and was an assistant coach for three years. Coach Schmidt holds a master's degree from the University of Scranton. He is married to the former Margaret Dombroski.

ASSISTANT COACH

JOHN LUKIS

Coach Lukis was a top flight football and baseball player at Burlington High School in New Jersey. Later moving on to Springfield College, Massachusetts, he played quarterback on the grid team before graduating in 1964. Last year for the Colonels, "Jake" served as a backfield coach and also helped out on the diamond with Coach Schmidt in the Spring. He is married to the former Betty Severi of Burlington, N. J.

ASSISTANT COACH

CHARLES ADONIZIO

A former Colonel line standout, Coach Adonizio played two years of football at the University of Pittsburgh before transferring to Wilkes where he played under Coach Schmidt. "Chuck" received his degree in Business Administration. He played high school football for St. Johns High School in Pittston and later attended the Fork Union Military Academy. At Wilkes, Coach Adonizio has been offensive line coach for the past two years. He is married to the former Catherine Fahey and is associated in business with the Addy Asphalt Company, Wilkes-Barre.

ASSISTANT COACH

GENE DOMZALSKI

A recent addition to the Wilkes Grid coaching staff, Domzalski played for five years in the New York Yankee farm system before retiring in 1964. Gene matriculated at Newport Township high school and starred in Baseball, Basketball, and Football for the Nutcrackers. Domzalski led the nation in punt return average playing for the University of Wyoming in 1958. Last spring he guided the Nanticoke Area Trojans to their first P.I.A.A. District Two Baseball championship. The new assistant mentor will remain teaching in the Nanticoke Area School system. Under Coach Schmidt he will serve as Defensive co-ordinator. Gene is married to the former Arline Barnowski of Wilkes-Barre.

ASSISTANT COACH

BRINLEY VARCHOL

Another recent addition to the coaching staff, coach Varchol is a product of the Wilkes College dynasty, having served four years under the tutelage of coach Schmidt. A linebacker during his career at Wilkes, Brinley was co-captain of last years 8-0 MAC Championship team. He was chosen to the Pennsylvania All State College team last year and ended his college tenure with a total of ten interceptions. Coach Varchol played high school football and wrestling at Hanover Township. In addition to being an offensive line coach, Brinley will serve as an assistant grappling mentor under Coach John Reese. He will teach in the Wilkes-Barre School System.

ASSISTANT COACH

JONAH GOOBIC

Jonah was a three sport athlete at Plains High School. Graduating from that Wilkes-Barre Area institution in 1954, Coach Goobic was a standout football, baseball, and basketball player. He later matriculated at Bloomsburg State College, receiving a degree from that down river institution in 1958. During his four years at Bloomsburg, he played football and baseball. Jonah teaches at the Northwest Area High School, Shickshinny, and is first assistant and backfield coach at Wilkes. In the spring he serves also as an assistant baseball coach for the Colonels. Coach Goobic will be starting his seventh year at Wilkes.

Moravian Outlook

The return of quarterbacks Greg Seifert (captain) and Jim Dietz, who established Moravian pass records a year ago, lend to the bright side of Moravian's football outlook, while the loss of some key linemen via graduation provides Coach Rocco Calvo with a challenge—filling the gaps. George Betz, a standout lineman last year, returns this season as a defensive end. Paul Martinelli, a top pass-catcher, is back in the fold, too. The Greyhounds' biggest job will be developing a tough, aggressive defensive unit. Passing was the big factor a year ago and again looms as the Greyhounds' "ace in the hole."

ROCCO CALVO:

Coach Rocco Calvo, head football mentor and one-time quarterback for the Big Red of Cornell, assumed the top spot at Moravian in 1955. His teams have won 50 games, lost 49 and tied 4 since that time. He started at quarterback for Cornell in the 1950-51 seasons, played service ball while serving a stint in the Army and was a second team All-Stater while at Bethlehem's Liberty High School in 1947. Calvo was recently named assistant to Athletic Director Harvey Gillespie and is an assistant professor in the physical education department and director of intramural sports. He also formerly served as head basketball coach.

EDWARD LITTLE:

Assistant line coach Edward Little is a newcomer. He joined the Moravian coaching staff this past summer. Born in San Francisco, Little spent his high school days in the Harrisburg area of Pennsylvania and played for Cedar Cliff High. He spent a year at the University of Arkansas and then starred for the Lock Haven State College team as a tight-end and later as a tackle. He gained honorable mention honors on the All-State and All-Conference team while at Lock Haven. Before coming to Moravian, Little served a year as an assistant coach at East Stroudsburg State College where he received his master's degree in physical education.

PAUL CALVO:

Brother of the head coach, Paul is beginning his 12th year as assistant coach at Moravian. He was graduated from Moravian in 1952. While in college he played two years at end before a broken leg forced him to quit. He was a star end for Bethlehem High on the 1941 and 1942 teams which won the Big 15 championship. Calvo is a teacher in the Bethlehem Area School District and is basketball coach at Bethlehem Catholic High School.

CHARLIE PETERS:

Peters is assisting Coach Rocco Calvo as backfield coach. Peters was graduated from Moravian in 1953 but did not play football here. He played three years at Bethlehem High (1944, '45 and '46) and then played college ball at Potomac State College. He is a teacher in the Bethlehem Area School District.

JIM KRITIS:

Kritis was graduated from Moravian College in 1961 and made a name for himself as one of the outstanding linemen in Moravian College football history. He serves as an assistant line and end coach for Calvo and as a scout during the regular season. He also is a teacher in the Bethlehem Area School District.

SOME OF THE 1968 COLLEGE FOOTBALL RULES CHANGES

Probably the most publicized change made in 1968 in the collegiate football rules is the return to the 1966 regulations governing scrimmage kicks, which permits the release of interior linemen immediately upon the snap of the ball to cover such kicks downfield. In 1967 these linemen had been restrained on the line until the ball was kicked.

There is quite a radical revision for 1968 which involves the basic scrimmage formation and the eligibility of forward pass receivers insofar as numbering of players is concerned. Briefly, these are the new requirements:

1. On a scrimmage down there must be at least seven players on the offensive scrimmage line, of which at least five must be numbered 50 through 79.
2. Only the players on each end of the scrimmage line are eligible receivers, and they must wear numbers other than 50 through 79 in order to be eligible. There can never be more than two players on the line who are eligible receivers, but there can be one, or none, depending on their numbers and where they are positioned.
3. Any player who is legally in the backfield is an eligible receiver only if he is wearing a number other than 50 through 79.

On a kick any player who makes a signal for a fair catch, and does not touch the ball, may not block an opponent during that down. Infraction of this rule draws a 15-yard penalty from the spot of the foul. The restriction is designed to eliminate the practice of signalling for a fair catch, backing off, and then blocking a player of the kicking team who is attempting to down the ball.

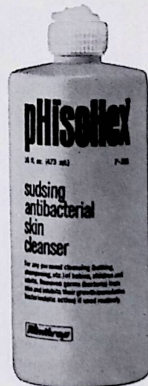

There are also these three changes which deal with "time-out" situations:

1. The length of a free time-out shall be one minute and 30 seconds instead of two minutes.
2. During this free time-out one player may confer with the coaching staff at the team area. This is a liberalization from one player and one coach.
3. Time-out shall be taken by the referee whenever Team "A" is awarded a first down. This allows the linesman's chains to be moved without consuming game time for such activity.

We're proud...

that pHisoHex® has been selected as the antibacterial wash to be used by the U.S. Team for the 1968 Olympic Games!

A winning athlete takes special care of his skin. Above all, he protects it against bacteria that can cause infections and lead to missed practice sessions and games.

If you've ever tried to play with an infected blister on your heel or an abscess on your finger, then you know the role of healthy skin in sports. And that's why pHisoHex is an important part of an athlete's daily health routine.

pHisoHex is America's leading liquid antibacterial skin cleanser in homes and in hospitals. Used regularly in place of soap, pHisoHex produces a superclean skin and builds up an invisible antibacterial film of hexa-chlorophene to protect your skin against germs between washings.

And if you have problem skin, pHisoHex is often valuable. The antibacterial film it leaves on your face will ward off blemish-infecting bacteria. pHisoHex also helps to soften and wash away blackheads.

Use pHisoHex, the skin cleanser of winning athletes.

Break your beard in right.

Right now your beard is in the formative stage.

You can shave it with a razor blade like your father does. And each time you do your beard will grow back a little more difficult. Until one day shaving's no longer a chore. It's an agony.

Look no further than your father's face for proof.

But fortunately, you're catching your beard at an early age. You can break it in to be just as shaveable 10 and 20 years from now as it is today.

With a REMINGTON® shaver.

And if you think the kind of shave we're selling won't be close enough for you, you're wrong.

Our new blades are sharper than anything that's been in an electric shaver before. And there's a dial that lets you adjust them for your skin and beard.

What's more, you can dial a REMINGTON electric shaver into a sideburn trimmer.

Admittedly, it costs more to buy our electric shaver than a razor and some blades.

But it's a good investment.

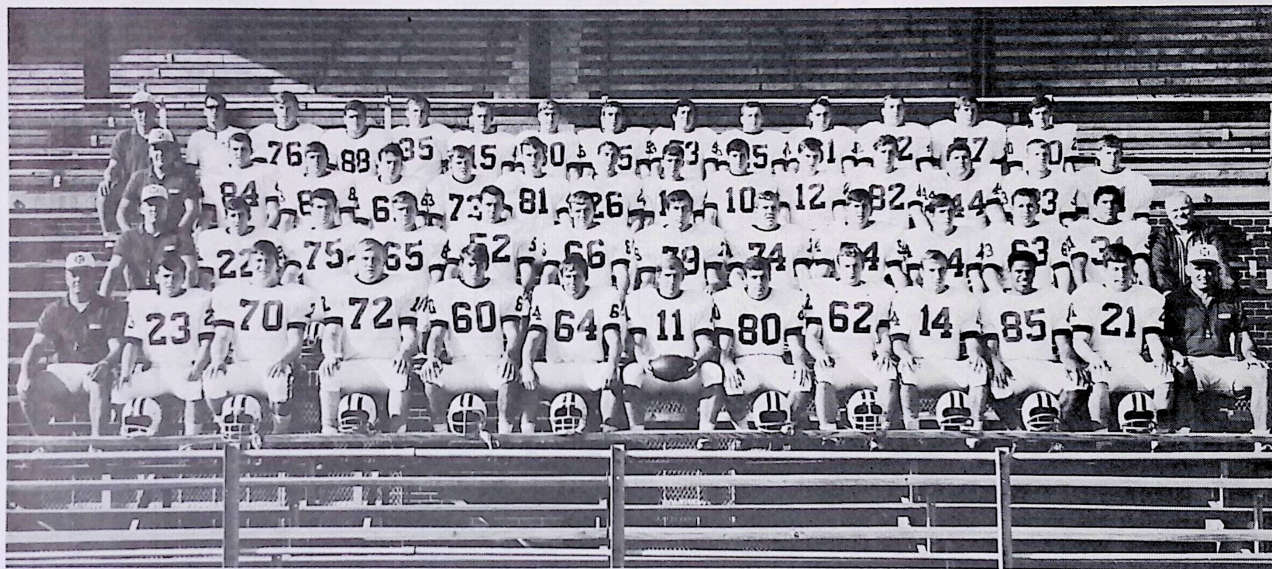

These next few years will determine how you and your beard will get along for the rest of your lives. ✦ SPERRY RAND™

Head Coach ROLAND SCHMIDT (Bloomsburg '56)

WILKES COLLEGE — "THE COLONELS"

The Colonels of Wilkes College in the past three years have boasted an incredible record of 23 and 1, which included three Middle Atlantic Conference championships. As the season ended last year, they had won 21 games in a row. Their opener last Saturday showed that they have no intention of breaking that unblemished streak as they romped over the Catamounts of the University of Vermont by a score of 31-9.

Thirty-seven lettermen are back again this year, giving Coach "Rollie" Schmidt depth at nearly every position. Also—this year's crop of freshmen appears to be one of the best in the school's grid history.

Ranked eighth in the nation in total defense, last year's defensive alignment is back almost intact. The "Flagrant Four," the front line-men, are all back—Bill Layden, Paul Merrill, and Joe Koterba were all first-team MAC selections; John Howe completes this fearsome foursome. The defensive backfield of All-America Joe Wiendl, Jay Holliday, and Dan Malloy, gives the Wilkesmen one of the strongest backfields in the MAC.

With the exception of only one, the entire offensive line—Ed Burke, Angelo Loverro, George Conway, and three time All-MAC tackle Bruce Comstock—is back to protect the triple threat of quarterback Joe Frappolli, Joe Zakowski, and Rick Simonson.

The "Greyhounds" will have their work cut out for them, as will every other team on the Colonels' schedule this season.

WILKES COLLEGE CO-CAPTAINS

Joe Wiendl—Joe is a senior defensive safety from Westfield, New Jersey. An all-around athlete:

Second team All-America in his junior year. All-MAC last fall at safety. NCAA Small College Wrestling Champion last winter—35-1 dual meet wrestling career record. Hit .353 and led MAC in stolen bases with 12 last baseball season. Holds 5 Wilkes College football records including 12 career interceptions.

Bill Layden—Bill is a senior defensive tackle from Wilkes-Barre. He was All-MAC tackle the last three seasons. His is number two man in tackles and assists with 104—a strong, aggressive, and mean pass rusher. Bill is the mainstay of the Wilkes defensive line.

Bruce Comstock—Bruce is a senior defensive tackle from West Pittston. He was All-MAC offensive tackle the last three seasons. Look for Bruce to open up the big gaps in today's game.

WILKES COLLEGE COACHES

ROLAND C. SCHMIDT—Head Coach

This year Coach Roland Schmidt will begin his seventh season at the helm of the Wilkes Colonels. During this time he has compiled a 30-16 lifetime record. His teams in the past three years have posted an incredible 23-1 log which includes three Middle Atlantic Conference championships.

A 1950 graduate of Wilkes-Barre Coughlin High School, Coach Schmidt took part in football, wrestling and track. He attended Bloomsburg State College before serving a two year stint with the Army. Returning to Bloomsburg in 1955, "Rollie" played football and track for the Huskies.

The mentor graduated from Bloomsburg in 1956 with a B.S. in education and served as a member of the Clarks Summit teaching staff for three years. In addition to being an assistant football coach, he also served as the head wrestling coach and assistant track coach. The Wilkes mentor later moved on to Kingston High School and was an assistant for three years. Coach Schmidt holds a master's degree from the University of Scranton. He is married to the former Margaret Dombroski.

CHARLES ADONIZIO—Assistant Coach

A former Colonel line standout, Coach Adonizio played two years of football at the University of Pittsburgh before transferring to Wilkes where he played under Coach Schmidt. "Chuck" received his degree in Business Administration. He played high school football for St. Johns High School in Pittsburgh and later attended the Fork Union Military Academy. At Wilkes, Coach Adonizio has been offensive line coach for the past two years. He is married to the former Catherine Fahey and is associated in business with the Addy Asphalt Company, Wilkes-Barre.

JOHN LUKIS—Assistant Coach

Coach Lukis was a top flight football and baseball player at Burlington High School in New Jersey. Later moving on to Springfield College, Massachusetts, he played quarterback on the grid team before graduating in 1964. Last year for the Colonels, "Jake" served as a backfield coach and also helped out on the diamond with Coach Schmidt in the Spring. He is married to the former Betty Severi of Burlington, New Jersey.

GENE DOMZALSKI—Assistant Coach

A recent addition to the Wilkes Grid coaching staff, Domzalski played for five years in the New York Yankee farm system before retiring in 1964. Gene matriculated at Newport Township high school and starred in Baseball, Basketball, and Football for the Nutcrackers. Domzalski led the nation in punt return average playing for the University of Wyoming in 1958. Last spring he guided the Nanticoke Area Trojans to their first P.I.A.A. District Two Baseball championship. The new assistant mentor will remain teaching in the Nanticoke Area School system. Under Coach Schmidt he will serve as Defensive co-ordinator. Gene is married to the former Arline Barnowski of Wilkes-Barre.

JONAH GOOBIC—Assistant Coach

Jonah was a three sport athlete at Plains High School. Graduating from that Wilkes-Barre Area institution in 1954 Coach Goobic was a standout football, baseball, and basketball player. He later matriculated at Bloomsburg State College, receiving a degree from that down river institution in 1958. During his four years at Bloomsburg he played football and baseball. Jonah teaches at the Northwest Area High School, Shickshinny, and is first assistant and backfield coach at Wilkes. In the spring he serves also as an assistant baseball coach for the Colonels. Coach Goobic will be starting his seventh year at Wilkes.

BRINLEY VARCHOL—Assistant Coach

Another recent addition to the coaching staff, coach Varchol is a product of the Wilkes College dynasty, having served four years under the tutelage of Coach Schmidt. A linebacker during his career at Wilkes, Brinley was co-captain of last year's 8-0 MAC Championship team. He was chosen to the Pennsylvania All State College team last year and ended his college tenure with a total of ten interceptions. Coach Varchol played high school football and wrestled at Hanover Township. In addition to being an offensive line coach, Brinley will serve as an assistant grappling mentor under Coach John Reese. He will teach in the Wilkes-Barre School System.

SOCCER

The Moravian soccer program has its second coach in its history. John Makuvek, a former East Stroudsburg State College athlete, has replaced Terry Jackson, who was head mentor since soccer became an inter-collegiate sport at Moravian in 1963. Makuvek will be counting on his co-captains, George Luzzi and Bill Ryan, to lead the attack. Luzzi, at inside right, holds several Moravian records, while Ryan, inside left, is an aggressive speedster. They are among 12 lettermen who are back for another season of play.

ABOUT SOCCER COACH JOHN MAKUVEK

John Makuvek, a Bethlehem Liberty High graduate and former East Stroudsburg State College athlete, takes over the head coaching job from Terry Jackson this year. Makuvek, who joined the faculty on a full-time basis in 1967, is also head golf coach and served last year as assistant soccer and assistant basketball coach. He is director of men's physical education at Moravian. Makuvek coached two years of soccer and two years of golf at Wappingers Falls, N. Y., High School after graduation from ESSC. At East Stroudsburg, he was a letter winner in soccer, basketball and golf and was one of the top seeded linksmen. He received both his B.S. and Master's degrees at ESSC and taught physical education for a year at Blair Academy in New Jersey while working for his Master's.

ALMA MATER

College ties can ne'er be broken
Formed at old M.C.
Far surpassing wealth unspoken
They'll forever be.

Refrain: M.C.! M.C.! Hail to thee!
Thou hast been kind to us
Ever shall we cherish thee
Thoughts of love and trust.

When our college days are over
And our ways shall part
Still by thee we'll be united
Still be one in heart.

Now pledge we thee by word and deed
Our Alma Mater dear
Loyalty and faith and love
For all thy fostering care.

ATHLETIC PROGRAM

The college is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, the Eastern College Athletic Association, and the Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Conference.

Delaware Valley College athletics today — intercollegiate and intramural — are a vital part of the college program. The intercollegiate athletic program is represented by varsity teams in football, basketball, wrestling, baseball, golf, cross-country, tennis, and track. The College has produced good teams consistently, winning over fifty percent of the contests played in the last ten years.

As of September 1, 1966, the athletic program inaugurated a new era of sports activities by its membership into the Middle Atlantic States Athletic Conference, commonly known as the Middle Atlantic Conference. It was not unified as an actual playing conference until 1952 at Swarthmore College.

Delaware Valley College will participate in the Northern Division of the M.A.C. The following colleges comprise the Northern Division: Albright, Elizabethtown, Juniata, Lycoming, Moravian, Scranton, Stevens, Susquehanna, Upsala, Wagner and Wilkes. The Southern Division, counting in league play and met in several sports are: Dickinson, Drexel, Franklin and Marshall, Haverford, Johns Hopkins, Lebanon Valley, Muhlenberg, P. M. C. Colleges, Swarthmore, Ursinus, Washington, Western Maryland and Philadelphia Textile.

Today the M.A.C. is the nation's largest playing conference, with thirty-seven member colleges located in five states and the District of Columbia.

COMPLIMENTS OF A FRIEND

DELAWARE VALLEY COLLEGE—TODAY

Delaware Valley College of Science and Agriculture is a small, private, State-aided men's college of over 800 students located in the center of historic Bucks County near Doylestown, Pennsylvania. It is 30 miles north of Philadelphia and 70 miles south of New York City on U. S. Route 202, and easily accessible to the Pennsylvania and New Jersey turnpikes.

Founded in 1896, Delaware Valley College is accredited by the Middle Atlantic States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Membership is held in the American Council on Education, in the Association of American Colleges, and in the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities.

It offers a broad scientific education to its students, selected without regard for race, creed or economic status. Bachelor of Science degrees are offered in Agronomy, Animal Husbandry, Dairy Husbandry, Food Industry, Horticulture, Ornamental Horticulture, Biology, Chemistry, and Business Administration.

The College property consists of over nine hundred acres of land surrounding a campus of thirty-seven acres of landscaped lawns, playing fields, and recreation areas. Eight dormitories, two of them newly completed, provide modern housing for the students. The new Samuel P. Mandell Science Building contains the most modern equipment, such as a Food Industry Pilot Laboratory in which food is processed on a small scale for experimental and instructional purposes and the most modern of laboratory equipment for the biology and chemistry majors. A new dining hall, Levin Hall, has been completed and an addition to the library is now under construction.

Over 600 acres of fertile farm land are under cultivation for maximum production as well as to meet the many demands of the educational program in agriculture. The farms are equipped with the most modern machinery. The orchards include 35 acres of fruits and berries. Extensive greenhouses are used for commercial flower production. A modern dairy plant is operated with a large herd of registered cows, beef cattle, sheep and swine. In addition, the college has digital and card processing facilities for instructional purposes and as a tool for scientific research.

D. V. C. VARSITY CLUB SALUTES

Dr. Joshua Feldstein

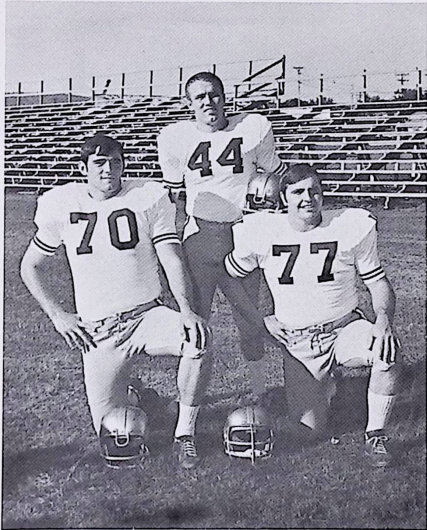

JOSHUA FELDSTEIN, B.S., M.S., Ph.D., was born in Minsk, Lithuania. He has been associated with the college as a student and faculty member for 29 consecutive years. He graduated from the National Farm School in 1942, completed a post-graduate course in Farm Machinery in 1943, at which time he became a member of the faculty as an instructor.

In 1952 he graduated from the National Agricultural College with a B.S. degree in Horticulture. In 1956 he received a M.S. degree from Rutgers University and a Ph.D. from Rutgers in 1962.

Joshua, as a member of the faculty, has progressed from the rank of assistant instructor to his present position as Professor of Horticulture. He is also the present chairman of the Plant Science Division and Associate Dean. He is the past chairman of the Athletic Committee, the Student Affairs Committee, the Admissions Committee and the Curriculum Committee.

The Varsity Club and athletic staff are proud of the honor bestowed upon one of the greatest admirers and supporters of the Dark Green and Gold. His presence at all athletic contests is appreciated and the players wish him well for another 29 years at D.V.C.

Dr. Feldstein resides on campus with his wife, the former Miriam Myzel, and his two sons, Ted and Danny.

Howard L. Rubendall

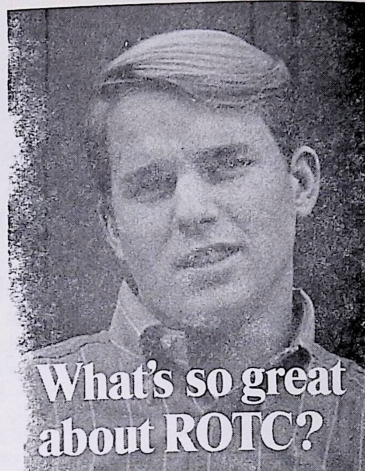

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 83rd intercollegiate football season of Dickinson College.

Since 1885 our fine old college has had the opportunity to greet visiting teams and their followers. The relationship between the Red Devils and their opponents has always been a respected one and we at Dickinson hope it continues long into the future.

Football and other sports in our athletic program play an important part in the life of our Dickinson community. We are convinced that athletics and good scholarship are not incompatible.

On behalf of the College I extend my welcome to the visiting team and its followers and to all members of the Dickinson family — students, faculty, alumni, parents, and friends.

Cordially,
HOWARD L. RUBENDALL,
President

Check 'em.

☐ Great opportunity. You earn a commission while you earn your college degree. Graduate —you start at the top. Fulfill your military obligation as an Army officer. With officer's pay. Officer's privileges.

☐ Great advantages. Employers prefer a college graduate with service as an officer. Pay more to get him. Because he's a trained, experienced leader. Can handle heavier responsibilities.

☐ Great success. From the 5% of college men who had ROTC training have come 24% of our state governors, 28% of executives earning $100,000 to $325,000 per year, 10% of Congress, 15% of our ambassadors.

☐ Great guys. ROTC men are campus leaders—in ROTC, athletics, extracurricular activities. And they do better scholastically than non-ROTC students.

☐ Great extras. $50 per month in junior and senior years. Scholarships for outstanding students. Free flight training at over 125 colleges. Extra social activities—military balls, honor societies, bands, rifle teams.

Any way you look at it, there's a lot more going for you when you're in ROTC.

Your future, your decision . . .

choose Army ROTC.

DICKINSON COLLEGE

ACCREDITATION. Dickinson is fully accredited. The principal education accrediting agency for the College is the Middle Atlantic States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Other agencies accrediting or recognizing it are the University Senate of the Methodist Church, the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction, the University of the State of New York, and The American Chemical Society.

LOCATION. Dickinson College is located in the borough of Carlisle, in the county of Cumberland, Pennsylvania. Eighteen miles west of Harrisburg, the capital of the state, Dickinson is situated in the heart of the beautiful Cumberland Valley. Carlisle is readily accessible by automobile, via the Pennsylvania Turnpike and U.S. Route No. 11, as well as by train and air.

CONTROL. A self-perpetuating board of trustees governs the College. By its charter it is an independent institution, but it has enjoyed a relationship to the Methodist Church.

DEGREE PROGRAMS. The College offers two parallel courses in the Liberal Arts and Sciences leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science. While there is a difference in emphasis in the two programs, both contain a basic curriculum which provides a common experience in the liberating arts and sciences for all students.

Head Football Coach

Wilbur J. Gobrecht

Wilbur Gobrecht now in his 4th year as head football coach guided the 1965-66-67 editions of the Red Devils to a 14-9-1 record.

As an undergraduate at Dickinson Gobie, as he is known to his friends and associates, was an outstanding athlete. He earned 10 varsity letters in football, basketball and track, and was the only Dickinson athlete ever to have been named Dickinson Athlete-of-the-year. Gobie had a very successful high school coaching career from 1954 through 1959 during which time his team had a 49-10-2 record.

Gobie came to Dickinson in 1960 and served as backfield coach for five seasons before assuming the head coaching position in 1965. He is a holder of the Master's degree in educational administration from Duke University. He has the faculty rank of associate professor of physical education at Dickinson and is head football and lacrosse coach.

Line Coach

Robert E. Marshall

Robert Marshall now in his 5th season as line coach of the Red Devil football team has done an outstanding job since his arrival on the campus. He is a 1962 graduate of Purdue University. While at Purdue he distinguished himself as a wrestler. In three varsity seasons he was undefeated in dual meets and won three Big Ten titles at his weight.

Bob also serves as head wrestling coach of the Dickinson wrestling team.

We're proud...

that pHisoHex® has been selected as the antibacterial wash to be used by the U.S. Team for the 1968 Olympic Games!

A winning athlete takes special care of his skin. Above all, he protects it against bacteria that can cause infections and lead to missed practice sessions and games.

If you've ever tried to play with an infected blister on your heel or an abscess on your finger, then you know the role of healthy skin in sports. And that's why pHisoHex is an important part of an athlete's daily health routine. pHisoHex is America's leading liquid antibacterial skin cleanser in homes and in hospitals. Used regularly in place of soap, pHisoHex produces a superclean skin and builds up an invisible antibacterial film of hexa-chlorophene to protect your skin against germs between washings.

And if you have problem skin, pHisoHex is often valuable. The antibacterial film it leaves on your face will ward off blemish-infecting bacteria. pHisoHex also helps to soften and wash away blackheads.

Use pHisoHex, the skin cleanser of winning athletes.

Made by Winthrop Laboratories, 90 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10016. Available in drugstores in 5 oz. and 16 oz. plastic squeeze bottles.

Director of Athletics

David B. Eavenson

David B. Eavenson marks his 15th year as Dickinson's Director of Athletics. Under his guidance the intercollegiate athletic program has expanded to include 12 mens and 3 womens varsity sports.

In addition to supervising Dickinson's fifteen varsity sports he coaches soccer and swimming. As swimming coach, he climaxed his 13 years as coach of this sport by directing his team to their third MAC College Division Championship.

Through his untiring effort and dedication plus the selection of very capable and dedicated staff Dickinson College has enjoyed and continues to enjoy a sound, successful intercollegiate athletic program.

Highlights of the Season:

1892-93 were flourishing years because Captains so frequently that it was impossible to have good unity and co-operation. Too many fingers in the pie, as the saying goes.

The Bucknell game was played at Harrisburg on Thanksgiving Day.

Like the previous year there were too many players on the roster who only played a few games. Also, there were too many freshmen and Prep School players plus ringers (non-matriculated students) who lacked over-all experience.

High scorer for 1893 was Captain Carl S. Dasset with 3 touchdowns — total 12 points.

One of the ringers was Kirby Morrison, a full-back from Harrisburg.

Highlights of the Season:

* Dickinson was represented on the football field by a team called S.A.T.C. in 1918. This stands for Student Army Training Center. They were considered an unofficial college team.

The season was beset by a number of setbacks. Practice started late because of a flu epidemic. In fact, the entire S.A.T.C. was under quarantine and a game with Susquehanna University was cancelled by the State Health Commission on November 2nd.

There were approximately 40 candidates out of the S.A.T.C. team including five members of the undefeated Carlisle High School team.

The majority of the team members were S.A.T.C. men and immediately after the Armistice they were mustered out of the Army. However, they completed the schedule with Gettysburg and Bucknell late in November.

Although the records are incomplete, for this season, John Pipa and William Young were the spark plugs of the team.

Break your beard in right.

Right now your beard is in the formative stage.

You can shave it with a razor blade like your father does. And each time you do your beard will grow back a little more difficult. Until one day shaving's no longer a chore. It's an agony.

Look no further than your father's face for proof.

But fortunately, you're catching your beard at an early age. You can break it in to be just as shaveable 10 and 20 years from now as it is today.

With a REMINGTON® shaver.

And if you think the kind of shave we're selling won't be close enough for you, you're wrong.

Our new blades are sharper than anything that's been in an electric shaver before. And there's a dial that lets you adjust them for your skin and beard.

What's more, you can dial a REMINGTON electric shaver into a sideburn trimmer.

Admittedly, it costs more to buy our electric shaver than a razor and some blades.

But it's a good investment.

These next few years will determine how you and your beard will get along for the rest of your lives. ✦ SPERRY RAND™
