JOHN REESE

This winter spells the 16th year that John Reese has coached the Wilkes College grapplers. During his previous years as the wrestling mentor, Reese has built up an outstanding 121-24-6 record. From 1957 to 1961 Coach Reeses' grapplers held a monopoly on MAC honors.

An area native, Reese attended Kingston High School where he began his wrestling career. As a high school wrestler the Colonel Coach attained laurels on a district level and was a state semi-finalist. After attending Millersville State College, he completed his education at Penn State University where he gained a BS Degree in Physical Education in 1951. Coming to Wilkes in 1955, Coach Reese has built the Colonels year after year into one of the top teams in the country.

In addition to his coaching responsibilities the Wilkes mentor is also the Director of Athletics at the College.

Overall record 13-2 — Coach John Reese

OUTLOOK FOR 1968-69

As in the past Wilkes College once again should turn out an outstanding wrestling team for the 1968-69 season. Reflecting on last seasons 13-2 record, with only 3 starters absent from this years roster, the Colonels should again be tough.

Filling in the slots vacated by graduating seniors will be promising freshmen and seasoned veterans. The Wilkes mat squad, though smaller than in past seasons, should bypass this deficit with greater speed, versatility, and desire.

Adding to the excitement of the Wilkes College fans this season will be Andy Matviak, Joe Wiendl, and John Marfia, all NCAA championship contenders. Along with proven upperclassmen on the squad, Wilkes also boasts a tremendous influx of freshmen talent. This season should in all probability be another banner year for the Colonels.

RICHARD CECCOLI — sophomore from Forty Fort, Pa. . . . regional champ in high school . . . outstanding strength and ability . . . 5-0 wrestling at 160 last winter . . . potential MAC Champion . . . slated to wrestle at 177 for coming year

RON FRITTS — sophomore from Erie, Pa. . . . small for heavyweight but has lots of aggressiveness . . . 6-2-1 record as a freshman with 3 pins . . . would be an ideal 191 pounder . . . could be the sleeper of the year.

BILL HARRIS — Junior from Wilkes-Barre Meyers . . . won George Hooper Award, symbolic of the top wrestler in Wyoming Valley, as a senior in 1965 . . . extremely durable and very quick . . . will grapple at the 130-137 pound weight class . . . 3-1 in limited action last season

STEVE KASCHENBACH — junior from Dallas, Pa. . . . surprise of the 1966-67 wrestling season for Coach Reese when he lettered . . . out of competition last year . . . a very aggressive 145 pounder who constantly works for the fall

JOHN MARFIA — junior from Easton, Pa. . . . 12-3 last winter as a 130 pounder . . . fifteenth on the all-time top Colonel wrestler list with a 19-5 log . . . runnerup in the MAC Championships last March losing in the finals 9-7 . . . most improved wrestler on the squad . . . smart grappler with great moves

ANDY MATVIAK — Junior from Easton, Pa. . . . holds Wilkes team record for pins in one year with 8 . . . fifth among all-time Colonels with a 19-2 records . . . hardest worker on squad . . . compiled a 13-2 log in 1967-68 . . . fourth in the NCAA Small College Tournament . . . second place finisher in the MAC's

DENNIS VERZERA — sophomore from Baldwin, New York . . . quickest wrestler on the team . . . 11-3-1 as a frosh . . . great leg man with a lot of stamina . . . 145 pounder . . . will be the key man in the Colonels success

JOE WIENDL — Senior from Westfield, New Jersey . . . NCAA 160 pound Small College champion in Mankato, Minn. in 1968 . . . was chosen on last winters mid-season all American team . . . 35-1 varsity life-time record makes him number two on the all-time charts . . . 1967-68 record 15-0 . . . holds 5 Wilkes Football records . . . co-captain of this years grid team which has won 29 straight . . . hit 357 and topped the league in stolen bases to lead the Colonels to their first baseball championship last spring . . . should be Wilkes' first 12 letterman . . . captain of this years wrestling squad . . . All-American football safety

GARY WILLETS — sophomore from West Morris, New Jersey . . . recorded an 8-2-1 record last campaign . . . great potential . . . with more experience he should go far

Weight by Weight Preview

125- A freshmen will man this weight for the Colonels with the departure of senior NCAA Qualifier Shaun Farnham. Scott Mantua (two-time Maryland Champion), Taylor Stuart (PA State Qualifier) and Sean Cox will compete for the starting nod. Freshman Griffin Panicucci (NJ State Qualifier) will red-shirt with injury.

133- Another weight where the Colonels must replace an NCAA qualifier with Josh Pauling graduating. Sophomores Ryan Wilson and Matt Manganiello have college experience, while freshman A.J. Fisher (6th NJ), Jeff Peterson (NJ State Qualifier) and Matt Gaines all have their sites at this wide open weight class.

141- This weight class becomes open as Anthony Dattolo, who was a Metro Conference finalist, will move to 149 to start the season. This will leave sophomore Jared Brownmiller, freshman Kris Krawchuk (4th PA) or fellow freshman Kyle Huber looking to start.

149- Erik Smith (Two-time NCAA Qualifier) started the last four years, but Anthony Dattolo, seniors Derek Brownmiller and Robert Griffith all have plenty of experience at this very deep weight class. Tom Andresen, Matt Ellery, Steve Falk, Tyler Ferry and Nathan White (four-time Maryland place winner) will also compete for the opening left by Smith's graduation.

157- Junior, James Histed and Sophomore Rich Sparks both started at times for the Colonels last season and return. Joining them will be Lehigh transfer Ben Marich, freshman Ray Dungee (NJ State Qualifier) and Frank O'Shea.

165- Senior Rich Pellegrini will battle with New York State Champion Jesse Vilella and Maryland State Runner-up Dustin Stough for the starting position. Freshmen Tyler Pickard and Mike Hoff will also look to make an impact.

174- NCAA All-American Frank Heffernan will return and look to improve on his 7th place at the NCAA's.

184- A weight where two conference finalist will look to compete and qualify for the NCAA's. 197 Metro Champion Zach Pizarro looks to drop a weight class and compete with 184 Metro Runner-up Buddy Gouger. Should be an excellent weight for the Colonels.

197- Juniors Chris Smith and Jake Weinrich will look to break into the line-up as a full time starter after serving as back-ups at 197 and heavyweight their first two seasons. Pizarro or Gouger may also see action here later in the year after competing at 184.

285- Two time Conference Runner-up Andrew Feldman will look to capture his first conference crown as a senior. Senior Colin Nagy will also look for mat time after coming back from injury. Freshman Justin Franiak will look to gain valuable experience for the future at this weight.

Head Coach Jon Laudenslager

Jon Laudenslager begins his seventh season as the head wrestling coach at Wilkes University. Laudenslager has led Wilkes to a dual match record of 79-46-3 during his first six seasons. Prior to taking over the head coaching chores he was an assistant coach for the Colonels for three seasons. A graduate of Wilkes with a degree in Psychology, Laudenslager is only the seventh head coach in the 58-year history of the Colonels wrestling program.

A year ago Laudenslager guided the Colonels to a 17-6-2 record as the Colonels won the Metropolitan Conference Title. The Colonels placed seven into the Metropolitan Tournament Finals, with 133 Josh Pauling, 149 Erik Smith and 197 Zach Pizarro claiming titles. The Colonels ranked as high as 12th in the NWCA polls in 2008-09 and qualified five to the national Tournament in Iowa, as 125 Shaun Farnham and 174 Frank Heffernan joined the three conference champions as at-large selections to the NCAA's.

Wilkes College Colonel Wrestling

The
1977-78
Season

The Colonels In 1977-78

Over the past two decades, Wilkes College has firmly established itself as one of the finest small college wrestling teams in the nation, and for 25-year mentor, John G. Reese, the 1977-78 season will be the most challenging.

Under tutelage of Reese, the Blue and Gold wrestlers have compiled an outstanding 236-48-7 collegiate record, including undefeated seasons in 1958-59 (7-0), 1960-61 (11-0), and 1970-71 (13-0). The Colonels were a dominant power in the NCAA's Division III, winning the championship in 1974. Wilkes won a runner-up trophy in NCAA "College Division" in 1966. "To be the best, you have to battle the best", and with that philosophy, Reese left small college mat circles in 1975 to join the strong, NCAA, Division I.

The Colonels made the transition a smooth one, recording a 9-6 log in 1975-76 and finishing sixth in the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Tournament. Two Wilkes grapplers placed at Easterns, Rick Mahonski second at 126, and Jim Weisenfluh, first at 167. Weisenfluh pinned all four opponents en route to his crown and was voted the tourney's "Most Outstanding Wrestler".

Last winter, Wilkes finished the season with an impressive 17-3 record, which included first place in the Binghamton Invitational Tournament and fourth at the EIWA tourney.

Nine returning letterman and an enthusiastic incoming group of freshmen hope to lead the Colonels to a successful season. Senior co-captains Greg MacLean and Danny House, both seasoned grapplers, will guide the 1977-78 edition. With only three seniors on this year's squad, Coach Reese calls it, "a rebuilding year".

The first two weights will be heavily contested for the Colonels, with sophomores Ed Johnson and Don Gaetano heading the list at 118 and 126 respectively. Other worthy challengers at 118 include Billy Dodge, Bryan Billig and Bob Crawford, while Joe Napoli, James Kachidurian, and Gino Gerelli will battle for starting berths at 126.

Junior Alex Grohol will probably get the nod at 134, with freshman, Patrick O'Callaghan as back-up. At 142, the Colonels will go with Casper Tortella, who turned in an impressive record as a freshman, but sat out last year. Injuries may force Reese to juggle these two weights and freshman Greg Kemp may see action.

The Blue and Gold will have last year's outstanding pair of freshmen, Mark Densberger and Denny Jacobs, going in the 142, 150, 158-pound weight classes, with freshman Dan Morrison adding depth. Holding down the 158 pound weight class is senior co-captain Greg MacLean, while sophomores Bill Karpovich and Ben McCollum wait in the wings.

Junior Perry Lichtinger had an 11-2 overall record last year and is expected to start at 167 with freshmen Dan Miner and Mike Sachitella also slated to see action. Veteran Gene Clemons is a strong competitor at 177 and freshman Dan Drescher will be interchangeable at either 177 or 190, with last year's third place finisher at Eastern's Bart Cook being red-shirted.

Rick Smith, a sophomore, a heavyweight performer last year, is trying to cut to 190. If he "makes weight", Smith will provide a strong finish for the Colonels, with co-captain Dan House making the grand finale. The Colonels may need services of freshmen Curtis Shrawler and Steve Gobble in the 190 and heavyweight classes.

The 1977-78 Wilkes Varsity schedule includes seven teams which finished in the "top twenty" of last March's Division I championships at Oklahoma.

After traveling to Bethlehem to meet EIWA rival, Lehigh University, on Tuesday, Dec. 6; the Colonels will return home to host fifth-rated Oregon State on Thursday, Dec. 8, at the Wilkes gymnasium.

Seventh-rated Oklahoma is also a Wilkes home foe on Saturday, Jan. 7, and two days later, the Wilkesmen are slated to travel to Tennessee. The Colonels will then entertain Syracuse University on Saturday, Jan. 14.

Highlighting February's mat card are meets with Hofstra, on Feb. 4, and for the first time in history, the Colonels will host Penn State on Feb. 18.

COACH JOHN G. REESE

John Reese starts his 25th season at the helm of the Wilkes College wrestlers. Over the years his teams have compiled an outstanding collegiate dual record of 236-48-7 including undefeated seasons in 1958-59 (7-0), 1969-71 (11-0), and 1970-71 (13-0).

During this period the Reese men also won 14 Middle Atlantic Conference championships in 19 years. The Colonels wrestlers left the MAC in 1975 and are now members of the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association (EIWA). Reese guided the 1973-74 Colonels team to the NCAA Division III championship. His 1974-75 edition placed third in the same event. The 1965-66 Wilkes squad was runnerup in the NCAA College Division tournament.

The successful Wilkes mentor has coached ten college division champions and two NCAA I Placewinners - John Carr, third (1967), 1966 and Joe Wiend, fifth (1960), 1969. While participating in the Middle Atlantic Conference, 59 Colonels gained titles. Since joining the EIWA, Wilkes has placed sixth (1976) and fourth (1977). Jim Weisenfluh pinned his way through the 167-pound field in 1976 to become Wilkes' first EIWA champion and was named Outstanding Wrestler of the Tournament.

A native of Wyoming Valley, Reese attended Kingston High School where he began his grappling career. While there the Blue and Gold taskmaster achieved District II honors and was also a PIAA finalist.

John started his collegiate wrestling career at Millersville State and completed his undergraduate work at Penn State University where he earned a B.S. in physical education in 1951. In addition, Reese holds a master's in education from Penn State.

The successful mentor serves as athletic director at Wilkes and earlier in his career, coached both soccer and baseball at the college. He is a member of the executive board of the National Wrestling Coaches Association, secretary-treasurer of the EIWA Coaches Association, president-elect of the Middle Atlantic Conference, and a member of the ECAC executive committee, representing Division III.

Reese was recently inducted into the Pennsylvania Wrestling "Hall of Fame" and received a 25-year coaching award from the National Wrestling Coaches Association. John is married to the former Patricia Tosh of Wilkes-Barre and are the parents of three children.

WILKES UNIVERSITY WRESTLING

Alan Zellner, in his eighth year as head coach of the Wilkes University wrestling program, is a 1972 graduate of Wilkes, where he also wrestled. Alan served as an assistant coach to National Wrestling Hall of Fame member, John G. Reese, for sixteen seasons at Wilkes before taking over as head coach in 1995.

Prior to coaching at Wilkes, Alan was the head wrestling coach at Williamstown High School, in Williamstown, New Jersey, from 1972 to 1974. He also served as head wrestling coach at Kutztown University from 1984 to 1989, where he was named Coach of the Year by the Kutztown Athletic Committee in 1988. While at Kutztown, Zellner also served as men's tennis coach and founded the women's soccer program in 1984.

As a scholastic and collegiate wrestler, Zellner had several noteworthy accomplishments. At Williamstown High, he won nine varsity letters and was named the Outstanding Underclassman Athlete in 1967 and the Outstanding Athlete in 1968. He was captain of the football, wrestling and baseball teams in 1968, and was not only named to the All-Conference team in all three sports, but also earned All-State honors in both baseball and wrestling. His wrestling records for career winning percentage and most falls in a season have stood at Williamstown for over 30 years.

At Wilkes, Alan currently ranks 14th for career dual meet winning percentage, is tied for first with two others for most falls in a season, and is third for most falls in a career. He was the recipient of the Timmy Adams Award for Most Courageous Wrestler in 1970, and the Tom Morris Award for Outstanding Wrestler in 1971. Zellner was a three-time Middle Atlantic Conference titlist (1970, 1971 and 1972), a runner-up at the Wilkes Open (1971), and a fourth place finisher at the College Division National Tournament in 1972. That same year, he was named to Who's Who at American Colleges and Universities, Outstanding Athletes of American, and to the NCAA All-American team.

In addition to his duties as head coach, Alan also serves as the University's Coordinator of Minority Affairs and Recruiting Coordinator for the School of Pharmacy. He is a member of the Luzerne/Wyoming County Drug and Alcohol Executive Commission, is Chair of the Drug and Alcohol Prevention Committee, and serves on the P.A.U.D. (Pennsylvania Against Underage Drinking) Coalition. Zellner sits on the Board of Directors of Family Services Association of Wyoming Valley, Children's Service Center, Penn's Woods Girl Scout Council and College Misericordia's Diversity Institute. He is Co-Chair of the Communities that Care Project, "Youth Talent Expo", and Chair of Wilkes-Barre's Martin Luther King Committee for Peace and Social Justice. Alan is also a member of the Peace Center's Dismantling Racism Committee, a trainer for the Anti-Defamation Leagues "World of Difference", and an Elder of the First Presbyterian Church of Wilkes-Barre.

Jon Laudenslager

Jon Laudenslager returns for his third season as an assistant coach with the Wilkes University wrestling team. Laudenslager is a former standout wrestler for the Colonels, earning four varsity letters from 1994 to 1998.

Laudenslager broke onto the season as a rookie with the Colonels during the 1994-95 season. During the campaign he helped Wilkes post a 14-10-1 record while still competing at the Division I level. Individually, he fashioned an overall record of 24-7 while wrestling at 126 and 134 pounds. Laudenslager also finished fifth at the EIWA Championships, earning EIWA Rookie of the Year honors, and helped the Colonels to a 10th place finish. He also ended the season with a team-leading nine wins by fall.

The following season Laudenslager moved up in weight to 134 pounds and finished with an overall record of 10-10, that included three wins by pin.

As a junior Jon ended the season with an overall 17-10 record, while continuing to wrestle at 134 pounds. He posted six wins by pin, and came close to knocking off EIWA champion, Carl Keske from Cornell University, dropping a hard-fought 11-9 decision. He also earned a second place finish at the West Point Open, while earning the team's Shawn Galbreath Academic Coaches Award.

Laudenslager wrestled mainly at 158 pounds during his senior season and finished with an overall record of 11-5. For his efforts he was named the winner of the Timmy Adams Most Courageous Performer award.

Laudenslager, who had a 117-15-1 record at Pocono Mountain High School, graduated from Wilkes with a degree in Psychology.

Scott Henshaw

Scott Henshaw begins his first season as an assistant coach with the Colonels. Henshaw was a four-year standout for the Wilkes wrestling program from 1998-2002. During that time he amassed a record of 77 wins and 48 losses.

Henshaw broke onto the scene as a freshman, fashioning an overall record of 21-13. A year later, he posted a record of 24-13 and earned a third-place finish at the Middle Atlantic Conference Championships.

After finishing with a 13-12 record as a junior, Henshaw compiled a 19-10 record as a team captain last season. Henshaw's work on the mat helped Wilkes post an overall dual match record of 67 wins and 39 losses over the course of his four seasons.

An extremely young, but talented Wilkes University wrestling team will hit the mat this season. The Colonels roster features only one senior, while also including 15 freshmen.

"This year's team may have less experience than last season, but the group of freshmen that we have are very mature in their approach and have been a lot of fun to work with," commented Wilkes head coach Alan Zellner. "I feel that we have outstanding depth on this team, which is very important. Our schedule is going to be tough, so we will continue to ask our wrestlers to step up to the challenge and perform to the best of their abilities."

Here is a breakdown of the Colonels by weight class this season.

125

Five wrestlers will vie for mat time, including returning starter Jeremy Mayer. Mayer, a sophomore, had a 12-15 record last season and finished fourth at the Kutztown Tournament. Four newcomers, Brandon Romanoski, Shane Jerominski, Nathan Fenstermacher and Joe Yutko, will also compete in this weight class.

133

Returning starter John Muscarella is the leading candidate. He had a 16-17 overall record last season. Also seeking time on the mat at 133 is freshman Ricky Simon, who capped a title at this summer's Keystone State Games.

141

Junior Jed Starnier will move from 149 pounds to 141 pounds this season. Starnier was 11-22 while wrestling at 149 last season. Junior Bryan Wech and freshman Patrick O'Hara will also look for mat time.

149

Three wrestlers, Brian Fischer, Keith Jones and Rob Tryon, will battle it out for the starting nod at 149. Fischer, a sophomore, was winless in six matches a year ago. Jones posted a 3-3 mark as a freshman a year ago. Tryon is a junior who did not see any mat time last season.

157

Junior Jon Jamison is a returning starter after posting a 9-8 record last season. Sophomore David Flynn also returns after going 2-6 as a freshman. Two rookies, Erik Hansen and Sean Davies, will also compete at 157.

165

Two veterans will vie for time at 165 pounds. Junior Fritz Delva returns after finishing with a 5-14 record last season. Junior Josh Cole, who did not wrestle last season, returns after posting a 16-15 record two seasons ago.

174

Sophomore Rex Harris returns at 174 pounds after a tremendous rookie season. Harris ended the campaign with a record of 27-12, while finishing fourth at the MAC Championships. Harris also finished second at the York Spartan Invitational, and garnered a third-place finish at the Kutztown Tournament. Sophomore Cory Walker could also figure into the mix. Walker went 4-9 while wrestling in three different weight classes as a freshman.

184

Returning starter Jon Neyerlin was 22-9 last year and finished fourth at the MAC Championships. He was also a champion at the Kutztown Tournament, and finished second at the York Spartan Invitational. Freshman Brandon Kelly is another candidate at 184.

197

Freshman Eric Bleich is the likely candidate to take over the starting role at 197 pounds this season. Bleich was a standout wrestler at Hanover Area High School, winning a District 2 title as a junior and finishing second as a senior. He concluded his high school career with a record of 92-34.

285

Senior Cory Fleisher returns after winning the MAC title and advancing to the NCAA Division III Championships a year ago. Fleisher, who is ranked eighth in the pre-season Division III polls, had a 12-6 record with 12 wins by fall a year ago. Freshmen Chris Cruz and Andrew Steinberg will push Fleisher for mat time this season.

ABOUT THE HEAD COACH

Jon Laudenslager begins his second season as the head wrestling coach at Wilkes University. Laudenslager was an assistant coach with the Colonels for three seasons prior to assuming the top spot. In his first season as head coach Laudenslager led Wilkes to a dual match record of 11-11 and a fifth-place finish at the Middle Atlantic Conference championships.

Laudenslager is a former standout wrestler for the Colonels, earning four varsity letters from 1994 to 1998 while wrestling at the Division I level. He broke onto the scene as a rookie when he fashioned an overall record of 24-7 while wrestling at both 126 and 134 pounds. Laudenslager finished fifth at the EIWA Championships and earned EIWA Rookie of the Year honors. His performance helped the Colonels fashion a dual match record of 14-10-1 and cop a tenth place finish at the EIWA Championships. He also ended his freshman season with a team-leading nine wins by fall.

As a junior Laudenslager concluded the season with an overall record of 17-10 at 134 pounds. He posted six wins by fall, and came close to knocking off EIWA champion, Carl Keske from Cornell University, dropping a hard-fought 11-9 decision. He also earned a second-place finish at the West Point Open, while claiming the team's Shawn Galbreath Academic Coaches Award.

Laudenslager wrestled primarily at 158 pounds during his senior season and fashioned an overall record of 11-5. For his efforts he was named the winner of the Timmy Adams Most Courageous Performer Award.

Laudenslager was a standout on the mats during his high school days at Pocono Mountain High School. During his career, he posted an overall record of 117-15-1.

Laudenslager, who graduated from Wilkes with a degree in Psychology, is only the seventh head coach in the 57-year history of the Colonels wrestling program.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Mitch Marcks

Mitch Marcks will join the Wilkes coaching staff for the first time this season. Marcks is a 2004 graduate of King's College, where he earned a degree in Elementary Education.

Marcks was a four-year starter at 125 pounds for King's. During that time he amassed a school-record 144 wins, while suffering only 18 losses. Marcks also claimed two Middle Atlantic Conference championships in his weight class. A four-time NCAA Division III qualifier, Marcks had his best run in the NCAA Championships in 2003 when he finished as the runner-up. He was a three-time All-American, while also earning Pennsylvania Division III Wrestler of the Year honors twice.

Prior to arriving at King's Marcks had an outstanding scholastic career at Dieruff High School in Allentown, where he was a Pennsylvania State qualifier.

Alexander Sperrazza

Alexander Sperrazza is set to begin his second season as an assistant coach with the Wilkes wrestling program.

Sperrazza, who attended Penn State University, was a standout wrestler during his high school days at nearby Wilkes-Barre Coughlin. Sperrazza fashioned an overall record of 61-14-2 during his high school career, including a 42-5-2 record in dual match competition. He claimed second place at the 1993 PIAA District 2 championships, while earning a third-place finish in 1992.

Sperrazza gained much of his wrestling expertise while mentoring under Artur Manasyan, who is a former head coach of the Soviet Olympic Freestyle Wrestling Reserve School.

Rubin Prophete

Rubin Prophete begins his first season as an assistant coach with the Wilkes wrestling program. Prophete is a graduate of Oneonta State, where he earned a degree in French.

Prophete was a four-year starter on the mat for Oneonta State. A two-time All-New York State honoree, he earned two berths into the NCAA Division III Championships while wrestling at 125 pounds. In 2001, he earned All-American honors and was named the Empire Conference MVP.

Prophete enjoyed an outstanding high school career at Nyack High School. He fashioned a career record of 86-22, which included a 35-1 record as a senior in 1996. That same season he finished third at the New York State Championships.

2004-2005 SEASON PREVIEW

A more seasoned Wilkes University wrestling team will take the mat this season. The Colonels, under the direction of second-year head coach Jon Laudenslager, are coming off a campaign in which they fashioned an 11-11 dual match record and finished fifth at the Middle Atlantic Conference championships.

"The real positive is that we are a year older and a year wiser," commented head coach Jon Laudenslager. "Last season we started seven freshman and the experience that they gained should pay dividends this season. We also have several veterans who did not wrestle last season that are back in the mix. The strength of this team is at the upper weight classes, from 174 pounds up. In the weight classes below we are quite a bit younger."

Two seniors who were among those wrestlers that did not compete last season will anchor the squad. Jon Neyerlin, the MAC runner-up at 184 pounds in 2003, is back. Neyerlin was 24-8 during his junior season. The Colonels also welcome back 141-pounder John Muscarella, who was 17-13 at 133 pounds as a junior. Another senior who missed last season, Rex Harris, will also miss the 2004-05 campaign due to an injury.

"We have received outstanding leadership from our six seniors," added Laudenslager. "Each of these individuals brings something different to the table, so it is a very good mix. The keys to our season are going to be staying healthy and continuing to work hard and improve every day. If we are able to do these things I feel that we can improve our finish at the MAC Championships, which we will host this year, and have a chance to qualify some wrestlers for nationals."

Here is a breakdown of the Colonels by weight class:

125 Lbs.: Senior Jeremy Mayer has finished fourth at the MAC Championships during each of the last two seasons. Last season he went 29-17 with nine wins by fall. Freshman Billy McEvoy is also likely to see mat time in this weight class.

133 Lbs.: Junior Joe Yutko is the incumbent at 133 pounds after posting a 13-22 mark a season ago. Freshman Mike Colagiovanni also figures to see action in this weight class, as will fellow freshman Josh Sperling.

141 Lbs.: The return of senior John Muscarella should make the Colonels very formidable at 141 pounds. Muscarella was 17-13 at 133 pounds two seasons ago and finished fourth at the MAC Championships. Freshman James McCarroll has enjoyed a solid pre-season and is expected to push Muscarella for time.

149 Lbs.: Sophomore Mike Sculara gained a great deal of experience and fashioned a 5-24 record as a freshman. Sculara is expected to receive a challenge for the starting berth by freshman Andrew Franko.

157 Lbs.: Look for sophomore Joe Diliberto, who was 18-16 with six wins by fall as a rookie, to get the start in arguably the deepest weight class for the Colonels. Senior Joe Yenchak (8-13) and sophomore Daniel Giancola (2-12) also have experience. Two freshmen, Tom Leggio and Matt Pavlisko, will also figure into the mix.

165 Lbs.: Junior Alessandro Plutino will start at 165 pounds. Plutino had a 17-22 record with six victories by fall last season. Backing up Plutino will be several of the wrestlers listed at 157 pounds.

174 Lbs.: Senior Rex Harris was scheduled to return to the lineup this season, but will have to sit out due to a season-ending injury. Sophomore Kyle Lenio moved up from 165 pounds to compete at 174. Lenio was 27-16 during his freshman campaign. Additional depth will be provided by junior Nick DeAngelis, who was 2-5 in limited action a year ago.

184 Lbs.: Senior Jon Neyerlin missed all of last season after finishing as the MAC runner-up in 2003. Neyerlin was 24-8 two seasons ago and has a career mark of 63-34. Sophomore Brandon Kelly also missed the 2004 campaign due to injury. Kelly had his freshman season in 2003 cut short due to an injury after opening the season with a 9-2 record. Also expected to compete for mat time is freshman Bill Bleiler.

197 Lbs.: Kelly will probably move up from 184 pounds to start the season at 197. Two members of the Wilkes football team, sophomore Vince Abbott and freshman Joe Scala, will join the squad at the conclusion of the football season. Abbott was the starter last season and fashioned a 10-15 record.

285 Lbs.: Sophomore Matt Carey, a transfer from Rider University, and junior Keith Altieri are both likely to see action at 285 pounds. Altieri was 13-20 with seven wins by fall last season. Junior Diego Alvarado, who competed at 197 pounds last season, and junior Santiago Serrato will provide additional depth.
