DATA ON GORE HALL

CAPACITY: 24 students

OCCUPANCY (end of Fall Semester): 21 students

DROP OUTS: 2 (Dick Ferretti and Frank Wyckoff)

RE-ENTRY: 1 (Pete Malanoski)

MARGINAL CASES

1. VOORHEES: End of third semester; drifting, little motivation, poor general attitude; expect poor academic record; suspect he exerts bad influence on some of freshmen
2. WANCK: End of third semester; appears conscientious, but may be over his head in present major; no other field of interest or aptitude, however; easily led astray; suspect academic prospects are very poor
3. THEURER: End of third semester; intelligent, but unmotivated; most interested in social side of college; wastes a lot of time; manages to get some decent grades with little effort; causes harm to other less-able students
4. SKARKA: End of first semester; most immature student in dorm; no interest, no effort; has no idea why he is in college; will do anything to avoid work; rationalizes
5. NICKLES: End of first semester; obvious neurotic; unhappy and unproductive; little hope for future
6. WENTLES: End of first semester; another bright, but unmotivated student; has been adversely influenced by Chanecka, Gilbert and Theurer; wasted time, but picked up a little at end of semester; could go either way
7. URBANOWICZ: End of first semester; very strange boy, difficult to reach; seems to have chip on shoulder attitude; interest is clearly not at Wilkes College
8. BECK: End of first semester; suspect big inferiority complex, covered over by brash, loud appearance; desperately needs counselling; immature; believe that he does have mental ability
