

ph 717-824-5145

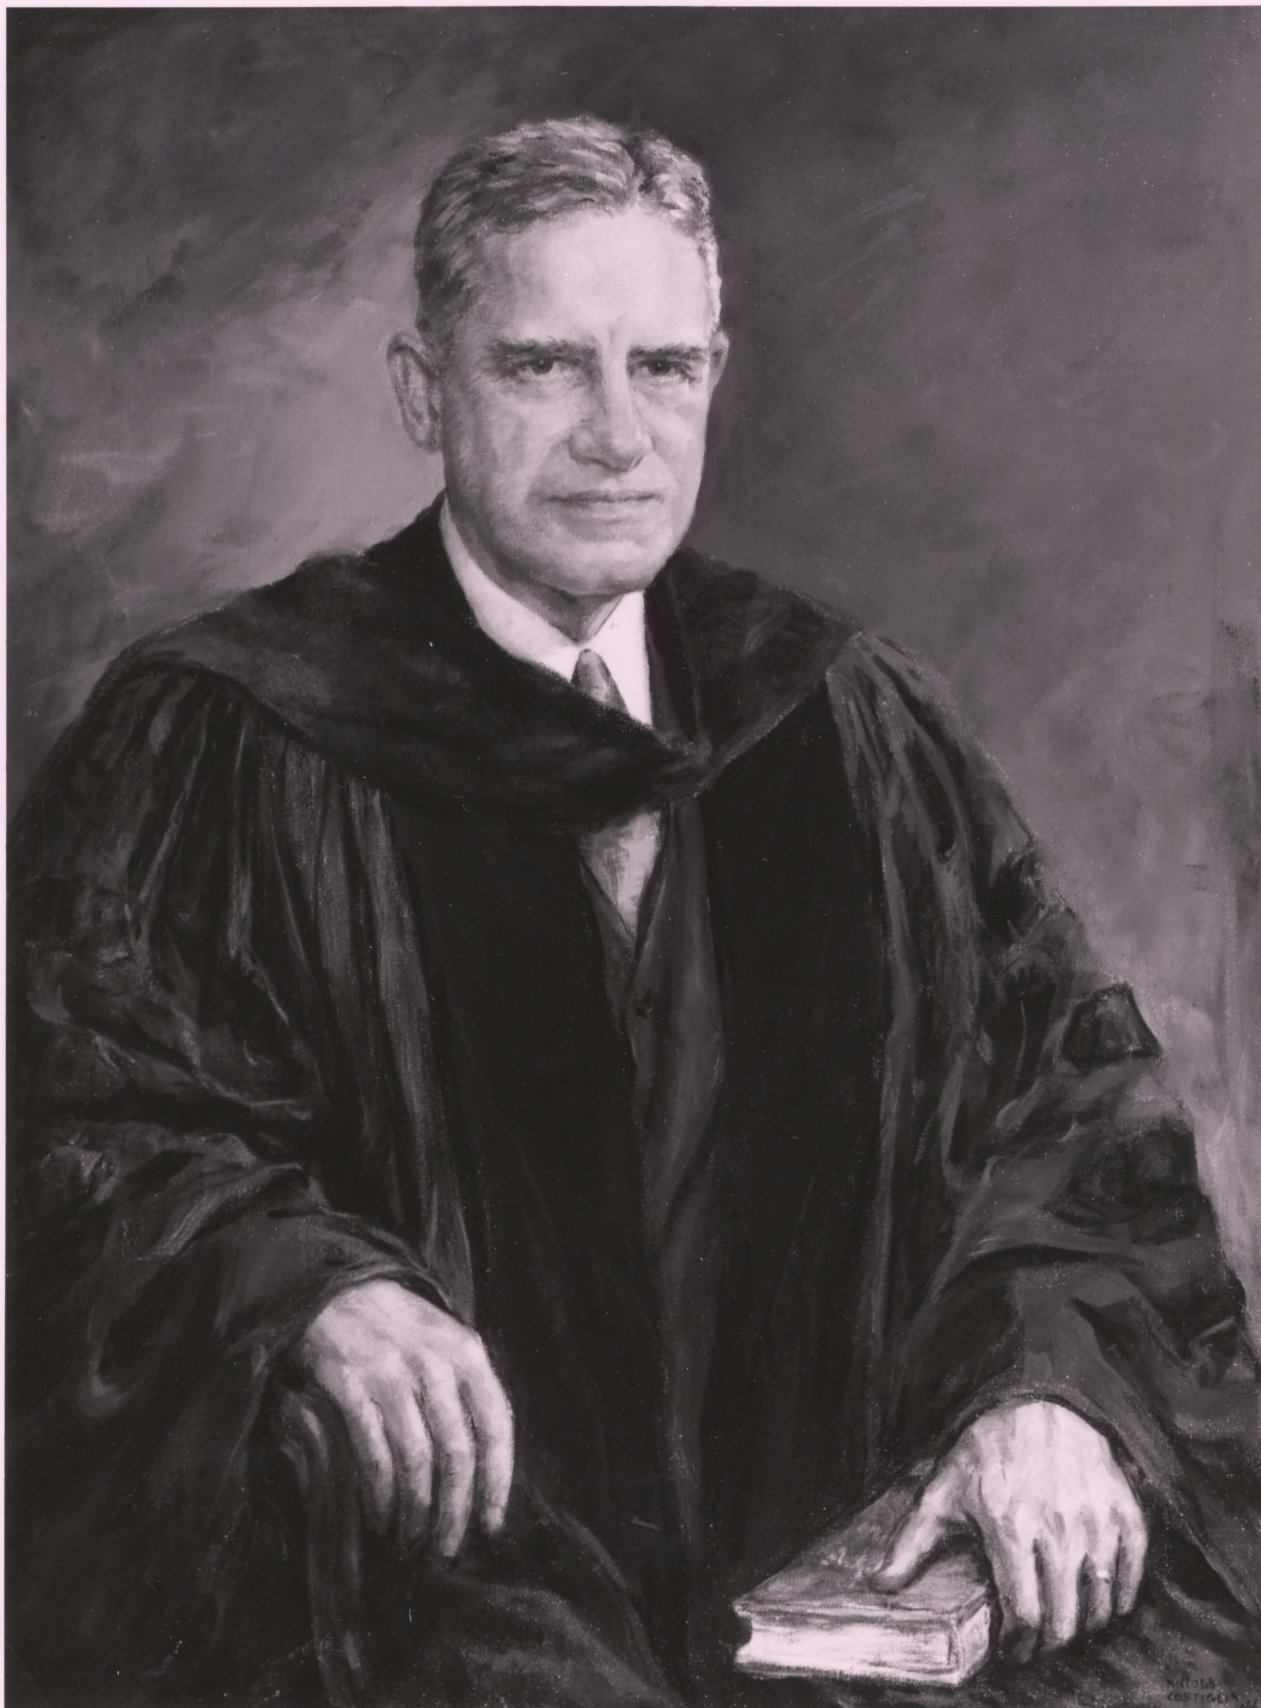

© 1991

Photograph by C. Salonick

ph 717-824-5145

© 1991

Armand C. Marts Center Dedication Committee Meeting: Feb. 10, 10:30 a.m.

- My Working agenda -

1. - Timing: Tours-Reception = 10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. } Fri.,
Dedication Program = 11:15 - 12:00 noon } Feb. 17, 1989
Luncheon, Special Guests = 12:15 - 1:15 p.m.

Committee: Please be available to keep things going smoothly.
Please urge all members your dep'ts. to be on hand.
Please "move" guests into gym at 10:55-11:00.

2. - Invitations / Responses:

Tours + Program: current acceptances = c. 300 (many alum.)
Luncheon: current = close to 130
Duplicate invitations
"Call to Dedication" to W. campus as C.C.? Bob H.?

3. - Tours - Reception:

2 Stations for coffee-tea-muffins } - Coat Rack...
1/2 Tour Guides - Greeters (Name Tags, Orient.?, Bldg. floor plans) } "Program starts at..."
Other W. persons tagged? } "Welcome to Marts Center"
John - Need more?

4. - Program:

Set-up of gym - (ABM memo) - Bleachers down but roped - Ushers? Who gets the guides? } - 500-600 chairs (current) Reserved section?

Music - 10:45-11:15 + at end for 15 min. + Alma Mater

*Platform Party to meet in Coach R.'s office off gym. } north move in at 11:10?! ... not formally } come chairs labelled - Jane Lampe

Participants are underlined -
Not in any order.

* CNB, Gover, Marts/Milas?, Rose, Wiendle, Sandy B., Antunes, Henry, Student Bob M., Mayor L.N., Ralston, Sojka, Bohlin,
Phil W., Loris S., Coplin, Bob Farley, C. Muir

5.- Program - Order of:

Live Run-down of speakers and timing. ^{roll call'd?} Bob - 1 min

Plaques, Miner pictures, Marts picture, easels needed?, cloth
Scripting ok? marts "history" -

Décor ^{Evans -} King Floral will give it free and do it) when ready Coaches from W. or H.S.? ark'd? - (why - my notes?)

6.- Luncheon:

Second floor Media ^{Room} (plus So. Conference, too?)

Wilkes Personnel attending = hosts for singles/lonely/etc. ☺

Flowers (Evans - King Floral giving us free -

Timing imp. i.e. SHORT, so menu is "creative"

"Play-By-Ear" Remarks - CNB in charge. ^{BBC -} script him

Play necess. to discourage unlimited guests? ^{for imp. guests}

Non Bd. attendees stick around to TLC departing guests -

7.- Miscellaneous:

Full Security: 9:00-1:00 - Is this automatic?

Hosting of Special Guests i.e. G. Waldner for Sojka -
"ESSAYS" on tables-gym? - Plans for Marts: last minute

Thank you letters to participants from CNB - Bob? (+ to Guides Students)

MEMORANDUM

RECEIVED

FEB 14 1989

PUBLIC RELATIONS
OFFICE

TO: ABM

FROM: Betsy Condron

DATE: February 14, 1989

RE: Wilkes-Hahnemann Celebration of Excellence, February 16
Marts Center Dedication, February 17

Please note new information and changes since the February 9 memo.

Wilkes-Hahnemann Event:

We are going to try to squeeze 140 guests into the Media Room for dinner; needing 140 chairs and 15 tables. We may have to use some rectangular tables (those already in Marts Center) if we haven't enough rounds.

The South Conference Room should be clear of furniture except for 7 of the tables already there (to be used as 2 bars and a display table) and approximately 12 chairs to be arranged under my direction.

We would like to have these rooms set up Wednesday, February 15 by 2:00 p.m. I will meet you there at 1:00 unless you tell me otherwise.

We need a portable microphone in Media Room for both events.
We will need 150 hangers instead of 130.

There will be liquor, 2 boxes of "Essays..." and cartons of other books to move from Weckesser to the Marts South Conference Room by 3:00 p.m. on Thursday.

Marts Center Dedication Events:

The major change for February 17 is the need to seat up to 200 guests for lunch. We will use both the Media and South Conference Rooms. Please be in touch with me regarding the table availability and placement. 200 chairs will be needed upstairs.

If you need a diagram for the placement of the platform and 650-700 chairs in the gymnasium, please let me know. There should be 18 chairs on the platform. Can you have the platform set up by 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, please? One easel to be moved from my office should be placed near the platform. Some of the artificial plants should be moved from the Darte Center to Marts. (Bruce Phair will direct you.) Phil Wingert will take care of "roping" off the bleachers.

We will need wooden doorstops to hold some of the doors open for ease of crowd movement. WOW!

cc: C. Breiseth	R. Mauer	A. Shipula
T. Hadzor	P. O'Hop	B. Vinovrski
R. Heaman	J. Pesta	G. Waldner
R. Hendershott	G. Ralston	W. Willis
J. Lampe-Groh	J. Reese	P. Wingert
✓ J. Manganello	R. Rozelle	R. Woods

Mrs. Arnaud C. Marts
41 Park Avenue
New York, NY 10016

Dear Mrs. Marts:

On a visit to Wilkes College this week President Breiseth and Al Groh both noted the planned dedication of the Arnaud C. Marts Center scheduled for February 17, 1989.

Knowing of my personal relationships working Arnaud and Gene Farley, President Breiseth was kind enough to invite me to attend those ceremonies. The educational philosophies and administrative management skills of those two men did much to shape my own career in higher education.

Unfortunately, I will be unable to attend that ceremony because of another: my daughter's wedding scheduled for February 18 in New Jersey. The "father of the bride" has a miniscule, but crucial, role to play in that particular event. Lisa is marrying a fine young man, a math teacher, and we are looking forward to sharing that event in their lives.

I do wish to express some personal thoughts to you regarding the new facility. I know how well you understand the unusual foresight and commitment made by Arnaud as he gave leadership, support, and inspiration to the development of that infant junior college of Bucknell University. I am sure he envisioned in his mind the strong offspring, now Wilkes, that he knew would serve the young people of the valley he loved.

I believe this building and its site are especially appropriate as a memorial to Arnaud since it marks the location and preserves the purposes of a building that was the first new construction that Wilkes as a college engaged in. In those early post-war years when the four-year college was chartered, in order for the College to receive its Middle States accreditation it was required to have a facility for its student assemblies and athletic events, ^{in addition to providing space to meet} ~~as well as a facility to support~~

^{for} the state curriculum requirements for physical education. Arnaud helped plan the facility to ^{accommodate} ~~meet~~ those requirements and advised and assisted Dr. Farley in the fund-raising necessary to finance that effort. That building served for over 40 years as the focal point of countless academic, athletic, and social events of the College that are testimony to the success of their vision and that commitment.

With the growth of the College and the consequent demands on that facility, a facility built to ^{meet} ~~accommodate~~ the needs of a student body of approximately half the size of our current enrollment, Wilkes has long felt the need for a larger, modern structure. In fact, our last Middle States Accreditation Review recommended that Wilkes build a new sports and conference center. The Marts Center will provide classroom space for our students in addition to offering modern conference facilities. Of course, the athletic facilities will be as fine as any in the country. And the social and athletic events that our next generations of students will be able to enjoy in this wonderful ^{center} ~~facility~~ will be a lasting tribute to the vision and commitment of Wilkes's founders.

That makes the dedication of the new center in Arnaud's memory an especially appropriate action for the College. It is important that future generations are made aware of the historic figures that struggled in their time to assure opportunity for quality education for ^{the} ~~future~~ generations.

I am truly sorry I cannot join you for such a marvelous event, but I will be with you in spirit. I hope we can visit in New York next spring and share some time to renew our spirit and our friendship.

Sincerely yours,
Francis J. Micheline
President

Check to see if Arnaud in Bld.

WILKES TOMORROW
DONORS

Mr. James Adonizio
Mr. John W. Adonizio '78
Aeroflex Foundation
Air Products
Mr. Stephen Alinikoff
Mr. & Mrs. Myer Alperin
Alumni Golf Tournament
Alumo Products Co., Inc.
Mr. Larry D. Amdur '57
~~Anonymous~~
~~Anonymous~~
Anthracite Plate Glass Co.
Atlantic Financial Federal
Mr. Benjamin Badman '41
The Ballet Society of the Wyoming Valley Scholarship
Mr. David M. Baltimore
Mr. & Mrs. Terry Baltimore '68
Mrs. Sarah Wolfe Bell
Mr. & Mrs. Burton Benovitz '56
Mr. & Mrs. Justin F. Bergman, Jr.
Mrs. Bernard Burgunder
Dr. Robert Berman
Mr. Ralph Blodgett
Mr. & Mrs. Peter Bohlin
Catherine H. Bone Estate
Dr. & Mrs. Christopher N. Breiseth
Mr. and Mrs. James A. Brennan
Mr. William G. Brenton
Mr. J. Archbald Brooks
Dr. Frederic S. Brown '73
Dr. Robert L. Brown '68
Mr. Richard L. Bunn '55
Dr. Charles N. Burns, Sr. '35
Dr. Robert A. Byrne '72
Mr. & Mrs. Robert S. Capin '50
Mr. David L. Capin '82
Mrs. Louise C. Carpenter
Mrs. J. B. Carr
Mr. & Mrs. Robert Casper
Dr. Jesse H. Choper '57, '67
Mr. John J. Chwalek
Mr. Robert J. Ciaruffoli, CPA
CIBA-GEIGY
Class of 1970
Class of 1987
Class of 1988
Mr. Lawrence E. Cohen '57
Mr. & Mrs. Guthrie Conyngham

Mr. & Mrs. John N. Conyngham, III
Mr. William L. Conyngham
Coon Industries, Inc.
Mrs. Nance P. Cordy
Mr. & Mrs. M. K. Cornell
Mr. Frank P. Cuscela '57
Dr. Alfred F. D'Anca '59
The Darling/Manglesdorf Family
Mr. & Mrs. William Davidowitz
Fred H. Davies Estate
Mr. & Mrs. Stanley Davies
Dr. Catherine De'Angelis-Harris '65
Deemer & Company, Inc.
Alexander W. Dick Foundation
Mrs. Walter M. Diener
Mr. Seymour Dimond
Mr. & Mrs. Edward Donley
Dorranceton Millwork, Inc.
Mr. George P. Edmonds
Mrs. Richard M. Ehret
Electrical Workers Local No. 163
Dr. John H. Ellis, IV '79
Mr. Richard G. Evans, Sr.
Paul J. Eyerman, Inc.
Mrs. Eberhard Faber
Mr. & Mrs. George L. Fenner, Jr. '36
Mr. Alan J. Finlay
First Eastern Bank
Mr. & Mrs. Robert Fortinsky
Franconi Auto Parts Co.
Franklin First Federal Savings
Mr. & Mrs. Charles S. Frantz
Gus Genetti Hotel, Inc.
Mr. A. Todd Gibbs '66
Mr. George Ginader '58
Mr. & Mrs. Alan M. Glover
Mr. Jerome R. Goldstein
Mr. & Mrs. Howard Gonchar
Mrs. Priscilla Goss
Mr. & Mrs. Homer Graham
Dr. & Mrs. David Greenwald '66, '66
The GUARD Network
Mr. & Mrs. Thomas B. Hadzor
Mr. & Mrs. David C. Hall
Mr. & Mrs. Harry R. Hiscox '51, '58
Mr. Frank M. Henry
Mrs. Judith C. Herdeg
Julia Hirsch
Mr. Richard Hogoboom
Mr. Andrew Hourigan, Jr., Esq.
Hourigan, Kluger, Spohrer and Quinn
Mr. & Mrs. Frank Hughes, Jr.
Insalaco's Pittston Market
Mrs. Lucile C. Jacobs
Mrs. Mitchell Jenkins

Mr. Frank Townend, Esq.
Trion Industries, Inc.
Mrs. Norma S. Tyburski
U. G. I. Corporation
Marie Umphred Estate
Mr. & Mrs. William J. Umphred, Sr. '54
United Penn Bank
Valley Vending Company
Mr. Steven Wasserstrom '69
Mr. & Mrs. Norman E. Weiss
The Weininger Foundation
Mr. Joseph A. Wiendl, P.E.
Jeanne Martorelli Wideman '69
Mr. & Mrs. Russell B. Wight, Jr.
The New York Times Foundation
The Wood Company
The Woodlands
Wyoming Sandblasting & Painting Co., Inc.
Wyoming Valley Distributing & Storage

GROUP GIFTS

Contributions to:

The Baum Scholarship
The Brennan Scholarship
The Donald Fell Carpenter Fund
Dr. Bronis Kaslas/Sheporaitis Fund
The Langfelder Scholarship
The Liva Scholarship
The Lord Scholarship
The Piatt Scholarship
The Ralston Scholarship
The Reif Scholarship
The Sorber Scholarship

The dedication of the Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center brings recognition and honor to the memory of the man who is most responsible for the firm foundations upon which Wilkes College is built.

Arnaud Cartwright Marts was born in neighboring New York state in 1888. In 1910 he graduated with Phi Beta Kappa honors from Oberlin College in Ohio. Through his first job at Pittsburgh's Y.M.C.A. he became involved in fund raising, an activity he developed not only into a career but into an industry.

By 1926 Dr. Marts was one of the leading fund raisers in the nation and established the firm of Marts and Lundy. He became deeply involved in the development of Bucknell University where he was elected to the Board of Trustees in 1932. Three years later, in the depths of the Depression, his fellow board members called upon Arnaud Marts to be president of Bucknell. He accepted only reluctantly and insisted upon continuing to manage Marts and Lundy, commuting by rail each week between Lewisburg and New York City.

Dr. Marts quickly became aware of the pressing needs of the new Junior College Bucknell recently had established in Wilkes-Barre. In its first years Bucknell University Junior College had grown in numbers of students beyond the wildest imagination of the Bucknell Board. This growth forced Dr. Marts to find a leader for the Wilkes-Barre campus. He did so, after an extensive search, in finding Dr. Eugene S. Farley who would become the first president of Wilkes College.

Throughout the next three decades Dr. Marts served as Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Bucknell University Junior College, helping Dr. Farley to inspire the leaders of the local community to invest in the higher education of their children. From the first fund-raising campaign appropriately named "A Miracle in Our Day," Dr. Marts planned and helped the efforts by which this college established itself financially. In response to Dr. Farley's urgent appeals for more space for the growing student body, Dr. Marts approached the Kirbys, the Conynghams, and the Stark and Chase families to give their great River Street mansions to the College, thus establishing its present campus.

Through a busy and enormously productive life Arnaud C. Marts found the time, energy, and devotion to help build this College for the young people of Northeastern Pennsylvania. He believed in their potential for leadership and service with the proper education. Through his unfailing support of Dr. Farley's efforts and his skillful mobilization of friends and funds for Wilkes College, Arnaud Marts challenged this community to invest in its future.

In 1988 Wilkes College celebrated the centennial of Dr. Marts's birth by bestowing posthumously the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters upon him. We again honor through the naming of this new building, Arnaud Cartwright Marts, Wilkes College's founding father and faithful friend.

Dr. Arnaud C. Marts

FILE NAME: Sports Center - Arnaud C. Marts
JACKET:
DISK: Wilkes 3
OPERATOR: Dee
FONT DISKS: 1/8
DATE: 2/8/89

Llewellyn & McKane

Arnaud C. Marts

The dedication of the Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center is to bring recognition and honor to the memory of the man who is most responsible for the firm foundations upon which Wilkes College is built.

Arnaud Cartwright Marts was born in neighboring New York state in 1888. In 1910 he graduated with Phi Beta Kappa honors from Oberlin College in Ohio. Through his first job at Pittsburgh's Y.M.C.A. he became involved in fund raising, an activity he developed not only into a career but into an industry.

By 1926 Dr. Marts was one of the leading fund raisers in the nation and established the firm of Marts and Lundy. He became deeply involved in the development of Bucknell University where he was elected to the Board of Trustees in 1932. Three years later, in the depths of the Depression, his fellow board members called upon Arnaud Marts to the president of Bucknell. He accepted only reluctantly and insisted upon continuing to manage Marts and Lundy, commuting by rail each week between Lewisburg and New York City.

Dr. Marts quickly became aware of the pressing needs of the new Junior College Bucknell recently had established in Wilkes-Barre. In its first years Bucknell University Junior College had grown in numbers of students beyond the wildest imagination of the Bucknell Board. This growth forced Dr. Marts to find a leader for the Wilkes-Barre campus. He did so, after an extensive search, in finding Dr. Eugene S. Farley who would become the first president of Wilkes College.

Throughout the next three decades Dr. Marts served as Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Bucknell University Junior College, which became Wilkes in 1942, helping Dr. Farley to inspire the leaders of the local community to invest in the higher education of their children. From the first fund-raising campaign appropriately named "A Miracle in Our Day" Dr. Marts planned and helped the efforts by which this college established itself financially. In response to Dr. Farley's urgent appeals for more space for the growing student body, Dr. Marts approached the Kirbys, the Conynghams, and the Stark and Chase families to give their great River Street mansions to the College, thus establishing its present campus.

Through a busy and enormously productive life Arnaud C. Marts found the time, energy, and devotion to help build this College for the young people of Northeastern Pennsylvania. He believed in their potential for leadership and service with the proper education. Through his unfailing support of Dr. Farley's efforts and his skillful mobilization of friends and funds for Wilkes College, Arnaud Marts challenged this community to invest in its future.

In 1988 Wilkes College celebrated the centennial of Arnaud Marts' birth by bestowing posthumously the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters upon him. We again honor through the naming of this new building, Arnaud Cartwright Marts, Wilkes College's founding father and faithful friend.

number or numbers of students

BA

FILE NAME: Sports Center - president's statement JACKET:
DISK: Wilkes 3
OPERATOR: Dee
FONT DISKS: 1/8
DATE: 2/8/89

Llewellyn & McKane

It is with great pride and a sense of achievement that we gather together to dedicate the Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center.

We are proud of this magnificent new facility and the opportunities it provides our students to develop physical attributes through recreational activities and in athletic competition. It underscores our primary goal to produce students fully capable both mentally and physically to accept the many challenges that lie ahead.

There is a sense of achievement because this facility has been the centerpiece of our Wilkes Tomorrow campaign and its construction has been a constant and tangible reminder of the enormous support we have received from all of our friends.

This building and its site are especially appropriate as a memorial to Arnaud C. Marts since it marks the location and preserves the purposes of a building that was the first new construction in which Wilkes College engaged — the construction of the first gymnasium completed in 1950. As Dr. Francis Michelini, second President of Wilkes College and current President of the Commission for Independent Colleges and Universities (CICU), reminds us, the first challenge to build a complex such as this came in 1947 from the Middle States Accreditation Board who mandated that the young college have an appropriate place for student assemblies, physical education, and athletic events.

Dr. Marts helped plan the gymnasium, accommodate the requirements, and advised and assisted Dr. Eugene S. Farley in the fund raising necessary to finance that effort. For over 40 years the "old gym" served as the focal point for countless events on campus. It was, for many members of the Wilkes College family, an emotional moment when we razed that structure. However, history did repeat itself and we again responded, although belatedly, when the Middle States Accreditation Review in 1979 again recommended we build a new sports and conference center to meet the needs of a student body more than twice the size of that in those early years.

Again it was the expertise developed by Arnaud C. Marts, through his firm of Marts and Lundy, that guided us through the successful launching of the Wilkes Tomorrow campaign that made all of this possible.

This Center will provide athletic facilities as fine as any in the country. It will provide much needed classroom and conference space. The academic social athletic events held here will enrich the lives of future generations of students. Because of the vision and foresight of one of our founders, Arnaud C. Marts, we are able to take another confident step forward into the 21st century.

Christopher N. Breiseth
February 17, 1989

Put new in italics

Athletic and recreational should new be in italics?

toward

18

December 28, 1988

The Program of Events

It will include preprogram music. Jane Lampe-Groh has contacted Jerry Campbell. Others to be invited are as follows (with the person responsible for inviting named in parenthesis). These persons are not in any particular order.

- Bruce Gover as "MC" (CNB)
- President Breiseth (will include reference to conference use of building, regional development, history of its development and its naming as suggested in Dr. Michelini's letter, etc.) Acknowledgment of donors.
- Mrs. Marts or her representative (CNB)
- Top athletes of the past (CNB and John Reese. Doris Saracino would be a good person to invite Sandy Bloomberg.)
- Marvin Antinnes (John Reese or ? Is Marvin to "do" the bit re Art Hoover's plaque/ticket booth?)
- Frank Henry or Richard Pearsall? (CNB) Will he recognize dignitaries on platform who are not actually speaking?
- Platform Guests (CNB should invite the special, non-speaking guests: R. Capin, F. Michelini, Bob Farley, Lee Namey? C. Miner? D. Saracino? Others?)
- Student Representatives (Jane Lampe-Groh, John Reese, Phil Wingert)
- Mayor Namey and Paul Kanjorski? (Bob Heaman)
- Conference Representatives (John Reese)
- George Ralston (Bob Heaman) He will lead Alma Mater at end and give Benediction.

Tours of Building and Greeters

Jane Lampe-Groh, John Reese, and Phil Wingert are in charge of inviting as many students as needed to "do the honors." They will coordinate any orientation needed for the guides/greeters. The greeters will hand out the building floor plans.

Publicity

An announcement of the Dedication is included in the new Quarterly. All media releases will encourage the general public to attend. The Beacon and our radio station will also feature the story.

Reception and Luncheon

Custom Management will have one or two stations for coffee/tea/pastries to be served between 10:00 and 11:00 a.m. They will be in charge of the luncheon, pre-set before 10:00 a.m.

Maintenance

I will be in touch with Ray Woods and John Pesta regarding our needs. We know ABM faces a couple of very difficult days!

December 28, 1988

Additional Notes

- Budget number to use?
- Scroll or plaque for Miner family. How is this to be incorporated in the program. Is a Miner to be seated on the platform?
- Parking. Although College is not in session, should there be any special monitoring of lots?
- Security: any special needs?
- Bob Heaman will make sure the College community is invited (faculty, administration, staff) and the College "closed" during the Dedication program.

OUR NEXT MEETING IS SET FOR MONDAY, JANUARY 9 at 9:00 a.m. IN THE BOARD ROOM IN WECKESSER HALL.

ah

*C. Breiseth	J. Pesta
T. Hadzor	J. Reese
R. Heaman	A. Shipula
R. Hendershott	B. Vinovski
J. Lampe-Groh	W. Willis
✓ J. Manganella	P. Wingert
R. Mauer	R. Woods
P. O'Hop

Students? Those taking part and others?

Conference Athletic Directors, High School Coaches

High School Guidance Counselors, Principals, Superintendents, athletes being recruited?

Area Student Affairs persons

Building's architects, Builders, Project Manager, Engineer

Area Alumni (6,500) 3rd class invitation

All Quits go to Sally / Invitation debt to Sally

INVITATION LIST FOR MARTS CENTER DEDICATION

Board of Trustees and spouses	Peggy Corbett
Mrs. Marts and her lawyer/friend	Peggy Corbett
Mrs. N. Cortiglia (Anna)	Betsy Condron
John Wilkes donors, including spouses	Tom Hadzor or Dick Hendershott
Major Marts Center Donors	Tom Hadzor or Dick Hendershott
All Marts Center Donors	Peggy Corbett
Former Trustees and spouses	Betsy Condron
Local friends-neighbors	Tom Hadzor or Dick Hendershott
Mayor, City Council, County Commissioners	Betsy Condron
Bond Issue/3 banks i.e., Tressler, Ross, Rose	Betsy Condron
Groundbreaking Participants and Miners/Moats and Miner Family	Tony Shipula
Local Alumni Council and Executive Committee	Betsy Condron
Planning Committee	Human Resources Management
College Campus Community - all for stuff (com)	Jane Manganella
Media (including news and sports editors)	Sally Slator
WILKES TOMORROW Council
Region III College Presidents and Institutional Representations (including all local) and Stettlers, John Shaffer, etc.
Students? Those taking part and others?	Lampe-Groh/Reese/Wingert
Conference Athletic Directors, High School Coaches	John Reese
High School Guidance Counselors, Principals, Superintendents, athletes being recruited?	B. Vinovrski
Area Student Affairs persons
Building's architects, Builders, Project Manager, Engineer	Ray Woods/John Pesta
Area Alumni (6,500) 3rd class invitation	Tony Shipula

- Sandy or Sally

William

All lists go to Sally / Invitation del to Sally

INVITATION LIST FOR MARTS CENTER DEDICATION LUNCHEON

Board of Trustees and spouses

Peggy Corbett

Mrs. Marts and her lawyer/friend

CNB

Mrs. N. Cortiglia (Anna)

John Wilkes Donors (including spouses)

Tom or Dick

Major Marts Center Donors

General Officers

Selected Platform Party Members

- Top Officers of the past (CNB and John Reese. Doris Saracino would be a good person to invite Sandy Bloomberg.)
- Marvin Antinnes (John Reese or I. Is Marvin to "do the bit re Art Hooner's plaque/ticket booth?)
- Frank Henry or Richard Pearsall? (CNB) Will he recognize dignitaries on platform who are not actually speaking?
- Platform Guests (CNB should invite the special, non-speaking guests: R. Capin, F. Michelini, Bob Farley, Lee Namey? C. Miner? D. Saracino? Others?)
- Student Representatives (Jane Lampe-Groh, John Reese, Phil Wingert)
- Mayor Namey and Paul Kanjorski? (Bob Heaman)
- Conference Representatives (John Reese)
- George Ralston (Bob Heaman) He will lead Alma Mater at end and give benediction.

Jobs of Building and Greeters

Jane Lampe-Groh, John Reese, and Phil Wingert are in charge of inviting as many students as needed to "do the honors." They will coordinate any orientation needed for the guides/greeters. The greeters will hand out the building floor plans.

Publicity

An announcement of the Dedication is included in the new Quarterly. All media releases will encourage the general public to attend. The Beacon and our radio station will also feature the story.

Reception and Luncheon

Custom Management will have one or two stations for coffee/tea/pastries to be served between 10:00 and 11:00 a.m. They will be in charge of the luncheon, pre-set before 10:00 a.m.

Maintenance

I will be in touch with Ray Woods and John Pesta regarding our needs. We know ABM faces a couple of very difficult days!

Arnaud
~~ARNAUD~~ C. MARTS

The dedication of the Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center ~~is to~~ bring recognition and honor to the memory of the man who is most responsible for the firm foundations upon which Wilkes College is built.

Arnaud Cartwright Marts was born in neighboring New York state in 1888. In 1910 he graduated with Phi Beta Kappa honors from Oberlin College in Ohio. Through his first job at Pittsburgh's Y.M.C.A. he became involved in fund raising, an activity he developed not only into a career but into an industry.

By 1926 Dr. Marts was one of the leading fund raisers in the nation and established the firm of Marts and Lundy. He became deeply involved in the development of Bucknell University where he was elected to the Board of Trustees in 1932. Three years later, in the depths of the Depression, his fellow board members called upon Arnaud Marts to be president of Bucknell. He accepted only reluctantly and insisted upon continuing to manage Marts and Lundy, commuting by rail each week between Lewisburg and New York City.

In
Dr. Marts quickly became aware of the pressing needs of the new Junior College Bucknell recently had established in Wilkes-Barre. It its first years Bucknell University Junior College had grown in numbers of students beyond the wildest imagination of the Bucknell Board. This growth forced Dr. Marts to find a leader for the Wilkes-Barre campus. He did so, after an extensive search, in finding Dr. Eugene S. Farley who would become the first president of Wilkes ~~College~~.

Throughout the next three decades Dr. Marts served as Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Bucknell ~~University~~ Junior College, ~~which became Wilkes in 1947~~, helping Dr. Farley to inspire the leaders of the local community to invest in the higher education of their children. From the first fund-raising campaign appropriately named "A Miracle in Our Day," Dr. Marts planned and helped the efforts by which this college established itself financially. In response to Dr. Farley's urgent appeals for more space for the growing student body, Dr. Marts approached the Kirbys, the Conynghams, and the Stark and Chase families to give their great River Street mansions to the College, thus establishing its present campus.

Through a busy and enormously productive life Arnaud C. Marts found the time, energy, and devotion to help build this College for the young people of Northeastern Pennsylvania. He believed in their potential for leadership and service with the proper education. Through his unfailing support of Dr. Farley's efforts and his skillful mobilization of friends and funds for Wilkes College, Arnaud Marts challenged this community to invest in its future.

In 1988 Wilkes College celebrated the centennial of Arnaud Marts's birth by bestowing posthumously the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters upon him. We again honor through the naming of this new building, Arnaud Cartwright Marts, Wilkes College's founding father and faithful friend.

Arnaud Cartwright Marts was born in neighboring New York state in 1888. In 1910 he graduated with Phi Beta Kappa honors from Charlin College in Ohio. Through his first job at Pittsburgh's Y.M.C.A. he became involved in fund raising, an activity he developed not only into a career but into an industry.

By 1924 Dr. Marts was one of the leading fund raisers in the nation and established the firm of Marts and Lundy. He became deeply involved in the development of Bucknell University where he was elected to the Board of Trustees in 1925. Three years later, in the depths of the Depression, his fellow board members called upon Arnaud Marts to be president of Bucknell. He accepted only reluctantly and insisted upon continuing to manage Marts and Lundy, commuting by rail each week between Lewisburg and New York City.

Dr. Marts quickly became aware of the pressing needs of the new Junior College Bucknell recently had established in Wilkes-Barre. Bucknell's first years Bucknell University Junior College had grown in numbers of students beyond the wildest imagination of the Bucknell Board. This growth forced Dr. Marts to find a leader for the Wilkes-Barre campus. He did so, after an extensive search, in finding Dr. Eugene S. Farley who would become the first president of Wilkes College.

Throughout the next three decades Dr. Marts served as Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Bucknell University Junior College, which became Wilkes in 1947, helping Dr. Farley to inspire the leaders of the local community to invest in the higher education of their children. From the first fund-raising campaign appropriately named "A Miracle in Our Day," Dr. Marts planned and helped the efforts by which this college established itself financially. In response to Dr. Farley's urgent appeals for more space for the growing student body, Dr. Marts approached the Kirbys, the Conynghams, and the Stark and Chase families to give their great River Street mansions to the College, thus establishing its present campus.

Through a busy and enormously productive life Arnaud C. Marts found the time, energy, and devotion to help build this College for the young people of Northeastern Pennsylvania. He believed in their potential for leadership and service with the proper education. Through his unfailing support of Dr. Farley's efforts and his skillful mobilization of friends and funds for Wilkes College, Arnaud Marts challenged this community to invest

ARANUD C. MARTS

The year was 1936, Bucknell Junior College in Wilkes Barre was just three years old and already in financial difficulty. The fledgling College was operating as a satellite of Bucknell University in Lewisburg.

It was really no surprise that the young school was in financial straits, in fact to many it was a surprise that the school had survived its first three years. When the idea of a junior college was introduced in 1933 it was done with reserve. People were of the opinion that neither the economy nor the area could support the venture. After all it was in the middle of the Depression; the unemployed constituted about 18% of the population and there was little evidence of hope or help for the anthracite region of Pennsylvania. Coal was being replaced by oil and gas and the Northeast was not then equipped to search for new industry. It seemed bad timing for the establishment of an institution of higher education. The outlook was bleak and even the media predicted the demise of the new school. But something very important had occurred that changed that prediction. A new president, Arnaud C. Marts had been appointed at Bucknell University. It was his decision to support the young people in Northeastern Pennsylvania who wanted a college close to home. His singular determination was instrumental in keeping the the junior college open. In 1947 the Bucknell satellite was granted a charter establishing it as a four year institution known today as Wilkes College.

The dedication of the Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center is to bring recognition and honor to the memory of this man who is most responsible for the firm foundations upon which Wilkes College is built.

Arnaud Cartwright Marts was born in neighboring New York state in 1888. In 1910 he graduated with Phi Beta Kappa honors from Oberlin College in Ohio. Through his first job at Pittsburgh's Y.M.C.A. he became involved in fund raising, an activity he developed not only into a career but into an industry.

By 1926 Dr. Marts was one of the leading fund raisers in the nation and established the firm of Marts and Lundy. He became deeply involved in the development of Bucknell University where he was elected to the Board of Trustees in 1932. Three years later, in the depths of the Depression, his fellow board members called upon Arnaud Marts to be president of Bucknell. He accepted only reluctantly and insisted upon continuing to manage Marts and Lundy, commuting by rail each week between Lewisburg and New York City.

Dr. Marts quickly became aware of the pressing needs of the new Junior College Bucknell recently had established in Wilkes-Barre. In its first years Bucknell University Junior College had grown in numbers of students beyond the wildest imagination of the Bucknell Board. This growth forced Dr. Marts to find a leader for the Wilkes-Barre campus. He did so, after an extensive search, in finding Dr. Eugene S. Farley who would become the first president of Wilkes College.

Throughout the next three decades Dr. Marts served as Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Bucknell University Junior College, which became Wilkes in 1947, helping Dr. Farley to inspire the leaders of the local community to invest in the higher education of their children. From the first fund-raising campaign appropriately named "A Miracle in Our Day," Dr. Marts planned and helped the efforts by which this college established itself financially. In response to Dr. Farley's urgent appeals for more space for the growing student body, Dr. Marts approached the Kirbys, the Conynghams, and the Stark and Chase families to give their great River Street mansions to the College, thus establishing its present campus.

Through a busy and enormously productive life Arnaud C. Marts found the time, energy, and devotion to help build this College for the young people of Northeastern Pennsylvania. He believed in their potential for leadership and service with the proper education. Through his unfailing support of Dr. Farley's efforts and his skillful mobilization of friends and funds for Wilkes College, Arnaud Marts challenged this community to invest in its future.

In 1988 Wilkes College celebrated the centennial of Arnaud Marts's birth by bestowing posthumously the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters upon him. We again honor through the naming of this new building, Arnaud Cartwright Marts Wilkes College's founding father and faithful friend.

Arnaud Cartwright Marts was born in neighboring New York state in 1888. In 1910 he graduated with Phi Kappa Psi honors from Oberlin College in Ohio. Through his first job at Pittsburgh's Y.M.C.A. he became involved in fund raising, an activity he developed not only into a career but into an industry.

By 1926 Dr. Marts was one of the leading fund raisers in the nation and established the firm of Marts and Lundy. He became deeply involved in the development of Bucknell University where he was elected to the Board of Trustees in 1932. Three years later, in the depths of the Depression, his fellow board members called upon Arnaud Marts to be president of Bucknell. He accepted only reluctantly and insisted upon continuing to manage Marts and Lundy, commuting by rail each week between Lewisburg and New York City.

contact: Jane Mangarella
Director

WILKES INVITES COMMUNITY TO DEDICATION OF MARTS CENTER ON
FEBRUARY 17

WILKES-BARRE--Wilkes College President Christopher N. Breiseth has extended an invitation to the entire community to attend the dedication of the new Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center on Friday, February 17 at 11:15 a.m.

Tours and a reception will precede the ceremony and begin at 10:00 a.m.

Breiseth said, "This magnificent new building is a source of pride not only for Wilkes College but for the members of this community whose generous support for our Wilkes Tomorrow campaign has made it all possible. Without the dedication demonstrated in terms of time, energy, leadership and financial support from the Board of Trustees, alumni, corporate donors and community members this facility would not be available to enhance the lives of our students.

"We sincerely hope that the entire community will join us in our celebration as we dedicate the new Sports and Conference Center and honor the memory of Arnaud Cartwright Marts, for whom it was named."

The new multi-purpose center, designed by the award winning architectural firm of Bohlin, Powell, Larkin and Cywinski, will be used for sports activities and for recreation. It will also serve as a much needed conference center and as additional classroom and office space.

The program on February 17th will include remarks from President Breiseth, Frank M. Henry, chairman of the Board of Trustees, Alumnus Bruce Gover, who will serve as Master of Ceremonies and from other sports alumni and student representatives. Mrs. Arnaud C. Marts or her representative and Wilkes-Barre Mayor Lee J. Namey will also speak.

For further information call the Public Relations office at Wilkes College, 822-8413

-30-

*The President and the Board of Trustees
of
Wilkes College invite you to attend the dedication of
The Arnaud C. Marts
Sports and Conference Center
on*

*Friday, February 17, 1989
10:00 a.m. tours and reception
11:15 program*

*The Arnaud C. Marts Center
274 S. Franklin St.
Wilkes-Barre*

Parking will be available in the College lots

Please respond on the enclosed card by February 10, 1989

New Wilkes gym to open in January

A new gymnasium at Wilkes College has been a long time coming but the wait will be well worth it.

The Marts Athletic and Conference Center is scheduled to be finished in time for the Wilkes College Open wrestling tournament Jan. 6-7.

The center, built at a cost of approximately $5 million, was named for one of the founders of Wilkes College, Arnaud C. Marts. It will be the finest complex in the area and one of the best in the country for the school the size of Wilkes College.

The Marts Center will house 3,000 people and includes two regulation size courts. Offices for the entire Wilkes coaching staff will be included on the first floor as well as a concession stand and rest rooms.

The second floor will be mainly used as a conference center with rooms for classes or seminars. There will also be a media room which can be used for press conferences or viewing videos, plus a kitchen area for preparing food.

In addition, the school's registration offices will be housed on the second floor, making that process much easier.

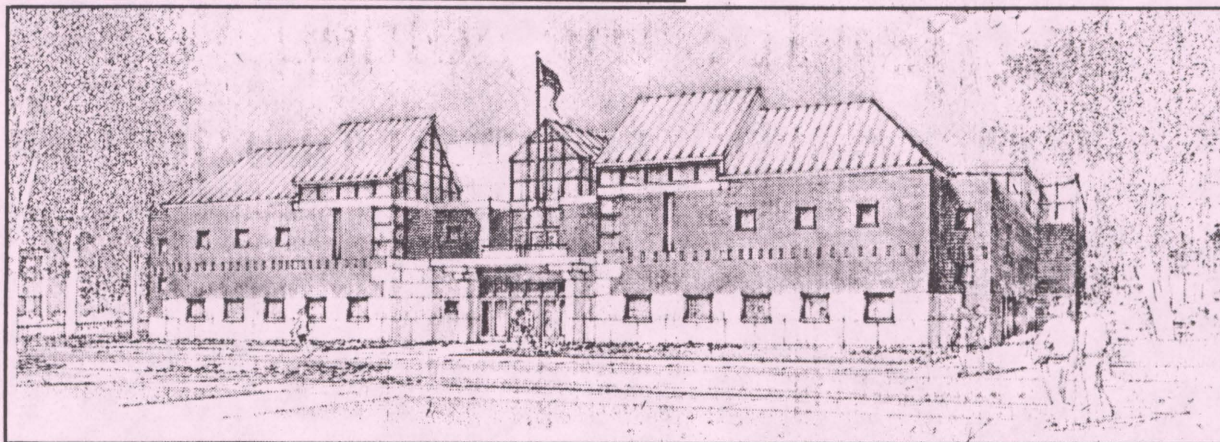

In the basement are various locker rooms, a wrestling room, floor hockey, a batting cage, weight room, sauna and storage areas. The wrestling room will be one of the best in the nation, according to Wilkes coach John Reese.

"There are some big schools like Penn State that don't have a room like we'll have," said Reese. "The only school in the country with a wrestling room like this is Iowa."

The weight room in the Marts Center will contain free weights, nautilus equipment and exercise cycles, allowing students and faculty maximum use of the room. The sauna room holds 12-15 people.

"We're all very proud of this facility," said Reese, who also doubles as athletic director. "This is not just an asset for Wilkes but for the entire community. People will be very impressed when they get to see it next month."

Along with the Wilkes Open, the championship and consolation round games of the Wilkes Letterwomen's Tournament will be held Sunday, Jan. 8 in Marts Center.

The Wilkes College Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center, South Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre, was dedicated Friday.

Wilkes dedicates new sports center

The Wilkes College Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center, South Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre, was dedicated in a ceremony Friday morning at the center.

The multi-million dollar center includes a 3,500-seat gymnasium, offices for coaches, a wrestling area, meeting rooms, the registrar's office and other offices and meeting areas.

The center was described as the "centerpiece of our Wilkes Tomorrow campaign," by Dr. Christopher N. Breiseth, president of Wilkes.

"We are proud of this magnificent new facility and the opportunities it provides our students to develop physical attributes through recreational activities in athletic competition," Dr. Breiseth said. "It underscores our primary goal to produce students capable of both mentally and physically accepting the many challenges that lie ahead."

Dr. Christopher N. Breiseth

The president paid tribute to the late Dr. Arnaud C. Marts, who, during his tenure as president of Bucknell University, helped plan the original Wilkes gymnasium, which was constructed in 1950. He also assisted administrator Dr. Eugene J. Farley, the first president of Wilkes, in fund raising for the 1950 construction. (Wilkes at one time was known as Bucknell Junior College.

"Again it was the expertise developed by Arnaud C. Marts, through his firm of Marts and Lundy, that guided us through the successful launching of the Wilkes tomorrow campaign that made all of this possible," Dr. Breiseth said.

Also on the program for remarks were Mrs. Arnaud C. Marts, Dr. Gary A. Sojka, president of Bucknell; John Reese, Wilkes wrestling coach, and Wilkes graduates Dr. Sandra Bloomberg, Joseph Wiendl, Jr., Marvin Antinnes and Robert D. Wachowski.

Greetings were extended by Bruce Gover, president, Wilkes Alumni Association; Frank M. Henry, chairman, Wilkes board of trustees, and Lee J. Namey, mayor of Wilkes-Barre.

DEDICATION CROWD — The crowd assembles prior to the opening of the dedication ceremonies for the Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center at Wilkes College. The new center was the focus of attention on Friday.

Wilkes dedicates new Marts center

By JILL GRAHAM

Times Leader Staff Writer

WILKES-BARRE — Hundreds of friends of Wilkes College gathered Friday to celebrate the dedication of the school's new Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center.

The new $5.5 million center on South Franklin Street contains a 3,000-seat capacity gymnasium and classroom and office space.

"It is a significant addition to our city and its prosperity. I am proud," said Mayor Lee Namey, a 1968 Wilkes graduate who played football at the college.

People milled around the center Friday morning during a special reception and guided tours, which were followed by speeches by distinguished alumni and college officials paying tribute to the school's rich tradition.

"May this place be the heart of Wilkes College ... It should feed the bodies, minds and souls of Wilkes College as they prepare to serve," said Bruce G. Freeman, president of Marts and Lundy, a New York firm established by Marts.

In 1935, Marts became president of Bucknell University in Lewisburg, the parent school of Wilkes, which was then called the Junior College

Bucknell.

Marts and other college officials worked tirelessly to bolster the budding Wilkes College, said college president Christopher N. Breiseth.

"A cloud of witnesses from more than half a century prepared the way for this celebration," Breiseth said.

Wilkes wrestling team coach and athletic director John Reese said he was pleased with the new facilities.

"I spent 35 years in the old gym, and we had a lot of great memories and events ... But there wasn't enough room for all our students," Reese said.

"I never imagined we could have anything this nice," he added. "I now have a wrestling room for the first time in 36 years. I'm very happy."

Construction of the 75,000 square-foot, two-story structure began in March 1988 and was completed in January.

Wilkes Alumni Association President Bruce Gover called the construction of the center the "crown jewel" of the school's "Wilkes Tomorrow" fundraising campaign.

"This represents a new era for the college — an era of new cooperation and new growth as we head into the 20th century," Gover said.

TIMES LEADER PHOTOS/ALEJANDRO A. ALVAREZ

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS — Wilkes College President Dr. Christopher N. Breiseth speaks at the dedication ceremonies. A portrait of Arnaud C. Marts is shown at the podium.

TL 2/28/89 p.3 sec.1

Wilkes College

News

OFFICE OF PUBLIC RELATIONS • WILKES-BARRE, PENNSYLVANIA 18766
TELEPHONE: (717) 822-8413

contact: Jane Manganello
Director

For Immediate Release

WILKES INVITES COMMUNITY TO DEDICATION OF MARTS CENTER ON
FEBRUARY 17

WILKES-BARRE--Wilkes College President Christopher N. Breiseth has extended an invitation to the entire community to attend the dedication of the new Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center on Friday, February 17 at 11:15 a.m.

Tours and a reception will precede the ceremony and begin at 10:00 a.m.

Breiseth said, "This magnificent new building is a source of pride not only for Wilkes College but for the members of this community whose generous support for our Wilkes Tomorrow campaign has made it all possible. Without the dedication demonstrated in terms of time, energy, leadership and financial support from the Board of Trustees, alumni, corporate donors and community members this facility would not be available to enhance the lives of our students.

"We sincerely hope that the entire community will join us in our celebration as we dedicate the new Sports and Conference Center and honor the memory of Arnaud Cartwright Marts, for whom it was named."

The new multi-purpose center, designed by the award winning architectural firm of Bohlin, Powell, Larkin and Cywinski, will be used for sports activities and for recreation. It will also serve as a much needed conference center and as additional classroom and office space.

The program on February 17th will include remarks from President Breiseth, Frank M. Henry, chairman of the Board of Trustees, Alumnus Bruce Gover, who will serve as Master of Ceremonies and from other sports alumni and student representatives. Mrs. Arnaud C. Marts or her representative and Wilkes-Barre Mayor Lee J. Namey will also speak.

For further information call the Public Relations office at Wilkes College, 822-8413

-30-

MIRACLE OF CREATION: POEMS OF FAITH & HOPE

Chronology

"The Faith of Our Fathers" was written for my father's 85th birthday, April 19, 1980

"A Psalm of Praise," "Daily Prayer," "The Psalmist" were composed in 1986

"Fulfillment" was written for the Rev. Jule and Alice Ayers for their more than 40 years of dedicated ministry in the service of the Lord, June 1988

"The Chosen" was written for Rabbi Charles Popky upon his graduation from Jewish Theological Seminary, May 1988

"Prayer of the Faithful," June 1988, is dedicated to Anne Harts, the wife of Dr. Arnaud C. Harts, former president of Bucknell University and one of the founders of the firm Harts & Lundy, whose loyalty and friendship to Bucknell University and to Wilkes College are cherished by both institutions

"Gifts" was written for the Christmas card sent by Wilkes College in 1962

"The Lord Came in the Night" was written for William and Shelley Smulowitz in memory of their daughter Karen, March 25, 1986

"Ethel's World" was written on the occasion of my mother's art exhibition at Temple Israel, September 8, 1987

"The Man of Honor" was written in 1969 for Dr. Eugene S. Farley, who retired as the first president of Wilkes College in 1970

"There Is Bread Upon My Table" was written for the Fifth Annual United Nationalities Pageant at Wilkes College in 1955.

MIRACLE OF CREATION: POEMS OF FAITH & HOPE

CHRONOLOGY Page 2

"Miracle of Creation" was written as the theme for the Tenth Annual Fine Arts Fiesta in 1965

"Answer America" was written as the theme for the Seventh Annual Fine Arts Fiesta in 1962

"World of Truth" was written as the theme for the Ninth Annual Fine Arts Fiesta in 1964

"Dirge At A Veteran's Death" was written in memory of Joseph Gavlick, an alumnus of Wilkes College, who died in 1988 at the age of 40 as a result of wounds received in Vietnam

"Weapons for Peace" was written for the ceremony on Public Square Park, June 21, 1988, rededicating a plaque honoring those who gave their lives in the service of their country in World War II

"Quest For Peace" was written for the dedication of a Peace Pole on the campus of Wilkes College, August 28, 1987

"I Celebrate the Education of the Mind" was written for the 50th Anniversary of Wilkes College, September 12, 1982

"Inauguration Of A President" was written for Dr. Christopher N. Breiseth, inaugurated as the fourth president of Wilkes College, April 15, 1985

The poems based on the Bible and the 15th century cycle of Miracle plays performed in England are part of a collection from the I'M A BOOK OF POEMS, written between 1978 and 1988

It is with great pride and a sense of achievement that we gather together to dedicate PROGRAM Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center.

Welcome.....Dr. Christopher N. Breiseth
President, Wilkes College

opportunities it provides our students to develop physical

Greetings.....Bruce Gover '72
President, Alumni Association
Frank M. Henry
Chairman, Board of Trustees

challenges that lie ahead.
Lee J. Namey
Mayor, City of Wilkes-Barre

There is a sense of achievement because this facility has Remarks.....Dr. Christopher N. Breiseth construction has been a constant and the

Mrs. Arnaud C. Marts

enormous support we have received from
Dr. Gary A. Sojka
President, Bucknell University

This building and its site are especially appropriate as a memorial to Arnaud C. Marts since it
Dr. Sandra Bloomberg '71
Joseph Wiendl, Jr. '69
John Reese
Marvin Antinnes '61
Robert D. Wachowski '89

preserves the purposes of a building construction in which Wilkes College
Benediction.....George Ralston
Dean Emeritus

President of the Commission for Independent Colleges and Universities (CICU)
Music by
Wilkes College Brass Ensemble
Jerome W. Campbell, Director complex such as this came in 1947 from the Middle States Accreditation Board who mandated that the young colleges have appropriate places for student assembly, physical education, and athletic events.

*Deans!
Use this only
There have been several changes since yesterday
Thanks*

(Tuesday) is copy

*Jane
Feb 8, 1989*

requirements, and advised and assisted Dr. Eugene S. Farley in the building of the new facility. It is with great pride and a sense of achievement that we gather together to dedicate the Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center. It was, for many members of the Wilkes College family, an emotional experience.

We are proud of this magnificent new facility and the opportunities it provides our students to develop physical attributes through recreational activities and in athletic competition. It underscores our primary goal to produce students fully capable both mentally and physically to accept the many challenges that lie ahead.

There is a sense of achievement because this facility has been the centerpiece of our Wilkes Tomorrow campaign, and its construction has been a constant and tangible reminder of the enormous support we have received from all of our friends.

This building and its site are especially appropriate as a memorial to Arnaud C. Marts since it marks the location and preserves the purposes of a building that was the first new construction in which Wilkes College engaged - the construction of the first gymnasium completed in 1950. As Dr. Francis Michelini, second President of Wilkes College and current President of the Commission for Independent Colleges and Universities (CICU), reminds us, the first challenge to build a complex such as this came in 1947 from the Middle States Accreditation Board who mandated that the young college have an appropriate place for student assemblies, physical education, and athletic events.

Dr. Marts helped plan the gymnasium, accommodate the requirements, and advised and assisted Dr. Eugene S. Farley in the fund raising necessary to finance that effort. For over 40 years the "old gym" served as the focal point for countless events on campus. It was, for many members of the Wilkes College family, an emotional moment when we razed that structure. However, history did repeat itself and we again responded, although belatedly, when the Middle States Accreditation Review in 1979 again recommended we build a new athletic and recreational center to meet the needs of a student body more than twice the size of that in those early years.

Again it was the expertise developed by Arnaud C. Marts, through his firm of Marts and Lundy, that guided us through the successful launching of the Wilkes Tomorrow campaign that made all of this possible.

This Center will provide athletic facilities as fine as any in the country. It will provide much needed classroom and conference space. The academic, social, and athletic events held here will enrich the lives of future generations of students. Because of the vision and foresight of one of our founders, Arnaud C. Marts, we are able to take another confident step toward the 21st century.

Christopher N. Breiseth
February 17, 1989

*Denny the only Changes on this are marked in **

NAE-2/14/89 p.14

Public invited to dedication

Wilkes College President Christopher N. Breiseth has extended an invitation to the entire community to attend the dedication of the new Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center on Friday, Feb. 17, at 11:15 a.m.

Tours and a reception will precede the ceremony and begin at 10 a.m.

"This magnificent new building is a source of pride not only for Wilkes College but for the members of this community whose generous support for our Wilkes Tomorrow campaign has made it all possible," Breiseth said. "Without the dedication demonstrated in terms of time, energy, leadership and financial support from the Board of Trustees, alumni, corporate donors and community members, this facility would not be available to enhance the lives of our students.

"We sincerely hope that the entire community will join us in our celebration as we dedicate the new Sports and Conference Center and honor the memory of Arnaud Cartwright Marts, for whom it was named."

The new multi-purpose center, designed by the award-winning architectural firm of Bohlin, Powell, Larkin and Cywinski, will be used for sports activities and for recreation. It will also serve as a much-needed conference center and as additional classroom and office space.

The program on Feb. 17 will include remarks from Breiseth; Frank M. Henry, chairman of the Board of Trustees; alumnus Bruce Gover, who will serve as master of ceremonies; and from other sports alumni and student representatives. Mrs. Arnaud C. Marts, or her representative, and Wilkes-Barre Mayor Lee J. Namey will also speak.

For further information call the Public Relations office at Wilkes College, 822-8413.

Wilkes College dedicates new sports facility

The Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center, Wilkes College's first step into future growth, was dedicated Friday in a ceremony at the new facility on South Franklin Street.

"It is with great pride and a sense of achievement that we gather together to dedicate this center. We are proud of this magnificent new facility and the opportunities it provides our students to develop physical attributes through recreational activities and in athletic competition," Dr. Christopher N. Breiseth, president of Wilkes said at the dedication ceremony.

Construction of the Marts center began in March of 1988 and was completed last month. The 75,000 square-foot, three-story facility cost $5.5 million and its gymnasium will have a seating capacity of 3,000.

Of key importance in designing the new facility was its multipurpose use. Designed by Bohlin, Powell, Larkin and Cywinski, the center has been equipped with classrooms, meeting rooms, offices, and a media room in addition to several sports rooms, locker and shower facilities, two kitchens and a weight and trainers' room.

In reminiscing about the old gymnasium which was considered to be the most innovative of its kind in the area at the time, John

Reese, the college's athletic director since 1958, said seeing the old structure razed was emotional for him.

"It was a big part of my life," Reese told a crowd mixed with alumni, faculty, students and well-wishers.

Reese, who is the third all-time winningest wrestling coach in the country, said he watched as workers dug the hole for the center and since then, watched virtually every brick be put into place.

"Don't ask me to take you on a tour. I'll show you every inch of this place," Reese said with a laugh.

Reese said one of the things he liked about the new facility was that his wrestlers did not have to dodge any more "basketballs and fast breaks" due to sharing the gym with the basketball teams.

Overall, Reese said, "This center is a place where they can grow in spirit as well as in body."

Comments from alumni brought fond memories of the old gym and the college itself to many but a highlight of the ceremony was when senior classman Robert Wachowski, dressed as the Wilkes Colonel, came pedaling in on a unicycle, in celebration of the new facility.

"This is the perfect ending to my four years at Wilkes. The freshman who will use this are really lucky. I only wish I could be around another four years to enjoy it," Wachowski said.

Breiseth said there was a sense of achievement because the facility has been the centerpiece of the Wilkes Tomorrow Campaign and its construction has been a constant and tangible reminder of the enormous support that has been received from friends of the college and the community.

The facility was named after Marts who was most responsible for the firm foundations upon which Wilkes College was built. Marts, founder of Marts and Lundy, Inc., of New York, was vice president of the Board of Trustees of Bucknell University Junior College which eventually was to be Wilkes College for three decades and during that time, inspired the local community to invest in higher education.

In absence of Marts' wife, Bruce

G. Freeman, president of Marts and Lundy, offered comments from Mrs. Marts through a letter. In her letter, Mrs. Marts said she was pleased with the center and the college's decision to name it after her husband and added, "I know Arnaud would have been pleased too."

"His visions and his dreams were to ensure an opportunity for youth of the community, the region and the nation to get a good education and return that knowledge to society," Freeman said.

The woman, it was noted by Dr. Breiseth, donated a portrait of her late husband to hang in the new center. Another plaque, the president said, was placed in the foyer of the center in honor of the Miner family who donated the land on which the center is situated.

In addition to Breiseth, Reese,

Wachowski and Freeman, remarks were made from Bruce Gover, alumnus and trustee who served as Master of Ceremonies; Frank M. Henry, chairman of the board of trustees; Wilkes-Barre Mayor Lee Namey; Dr. Sandra Bloomberg, Joseph Wiendl, Jr., and Marvin Antinnes, sports alumni.

From left are: Wilkes College President Christopher Breiseth, Doris Saracino, coach at Wilkes; Dr. Sandy Bloomsberg, former Wilkes athlete Class of 1971; Joe Wiendl, Jr., former Wilkes athlete, Class of 1969; John Reese, athletic director at Wilkes; Marvin Antinnes, former Wilkes athlete Class of 1961, and Bruce Gover, former Wilkes athlete, trustee and president of the alumni association, Class of 1972.

Wilkes College

Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania 18766

MEMORANDUM

TO: Marts Center Dedication Committee*

FROM: Betsy Condron

DATE: December 28, 1988

RE: The Dedication - February 17, 1989

RECEIVED

DEC 28 1988

PUBLIC RELATIONS
OFFICE

This memo will give us all an overview of the Dedication. Please check it for additions, corrections, suggestions, and any responsibilities which fall into your area, especially where names-addresses are needed.

Timing

- 9:00 a.m. - Board of Trustees' Meeting (Media Room probably)
- 10:00 a.m. - Tours/Reception (Atrium probably)
- 11:15 - noon - Dedication Program (gymnasium)
- 12:15 p.m. - Luncheon (upstairs rooms - Registrar's Office?)
- 1:15 p.m. - Board of Trustees' Meeting reconvenes

Invitations to the Dedication

The wording has been approved and Jane Manganella is having them printed. Response cards will be included to be returned to my office. We hope to mail between January 6 and January 9, to the persons/groups on the attached list. Tony Shipula will arrange to have the 6,500 area alumni invited via a similar, less costly, invitation-mailing.

Invitation to the Luncheon

These will be sent at the same time via a letter from President Breiseth. The responses will come to the President's Office and will be separate from the regular Board meeting attendance responses which come to Peggy Corbett. The persons/groups of invitees are on the attached list.

Printed Program

This will be a "keepsake piece" to include the program of events, a list of donors to date, a photo and brief history of Dr. Arnaud Marts, a brief history of the site and the razed gym, and a message from the President emphasizing the various uses for the Center: wellness, conferences and meetings, sports, classrooms. If appropriate, it may include a piece about Mrs. Marts, photo of Marts Courtyard, etc. Jane Manganella is handling the program piece as well as the printing of the building's floor plans (to be handed out at the door).

Account of Center

History of Center

Program

History of Center

History of Gym

Floor plan

Marts

Shaping the lives of men and women for five decades

An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Institution

December 28, 1988

The Program of Events

It will include preprogram music. Jane Lampe-Groh has contacted Jerry Campbell. Others to be invited are as follows (with the person responsible for inviting named in parenthesis). These persons are not in any particular order.

- Bruce Gover as "MC" (CNB)
- President Breiseth (will include reference to conference use of building, regional development, history of its development and its naming as suggested in Dr. Michelini's letter, etc.) Acknowledgment of donors.
- Mrs. Marts or her representative (CNB)
- Top athletes of the past (CNB and John Reese. Doris Saracino would be a good person to invite Sandy Bloomberg.)
- Marvin Antinnes (John Reese or ? Is Marvin to "do" the bit re Art Hoover's plaque/ticket booth?)
- Frank Henry or Richard Pearsall? (CNB) Will he recognize dignitaries on platform who are not actually speaking?
- Platform Guests (CNB should invite the special, non-speaking guests: R. Capin, F. Michelini, Bob Farley, Lee Namey? C. Miner? D. Saracino? Others?)
- Student Representatives (Jane Lampe-Groh, John Reese, Phil Wingert)
- Mayor Namey and Paul Kanjorski? (Bob Heaman)
- Conference Representatives (John Reese)
- George Ralston (Bob Heaman) He will lead Alma Mater at end and give Benediction.

Tours of Building and Greeters

Jane Lampe-Groh, John Reese, and Phil Wingert are in charge of inviting as many students as needed to "do the honors." They will coordinate any orientation needed for the guides/greeters. The greeters will hand out the building floor plans.

Publicity

An announcement of the Dedication is included in the new Quarterly. All media releases will encourage the general public to attend. The Beacon and our radio station will also feature the story.

Reception and Luncheon

Custom Management will have one or two stations for coffee/tea/pastries to be served between 10:00 and 11:00 a.m. They will be in charge of the luncheon, pre-set before 10:00 a.m.

Maintenance

I will be in touch with Ray Woods and John Pesta regarding our needs. We know ABM faces a couple of very difficult days!

December 28, 1988

Additional Notes

- Budget number to use?
- Scroll or plaque for Miner family. How is this to be incorporated in the program. Is a Miner to be seated on the platform?
- Parking. Although College is not in session, should there be any special monitoring of lots?
- Security: any special needs?
- Bob Heaman will make sure the College community is invited (faculty, administration, staff) and the College "closed" during the Dedication program.

OUR NEXT MEETING IS SET FOR MONDAY, JANUARY 9 at 9:00 a.m. IN THE BOARD ROOM IN WECKESSER HALL.

ah

*C. Breiseth	J. Pesta
T. Hadzor	J. Reese
R. Heaman	A. Shipula
R. Hendershott	B. Vinovrski
J. Lampe-Groh	W. Willis
✓ J. Manganella	P. Wingert
R. Mauer	R. Woods
P. O'Hop

INVITATION LIST FOR MARTS CENTER DEDICATION

Board of Trustees and spouses

Mrs. Marts and her lawyer/friend

Mrs. N. Cortiglia (Anna)

John Wilkes donors, including spouses

Major Marts Center Donors

All Marts Center Donors

Selected Platform Party Members

Former Trustees and spouses

Local friends-neighbors

Mayor, City Council, County Commissioners

Bond Issue/3 banks i.e., Tressler, Ross, Rose

Groundbreaking Participants and Miners/Moats and Miner Family

Local Alumni Council and Executive Committee

Planning Committee

College Campus Community - all

Media (including news and sports editors)

WILKES TOMORROW Council

Region III College Presidents and Institutional Representations (including all local) and Stettlers, John Shaffer, etc.

Students? Those taking part and others?

Conference Athletic Directors, High School
Coaches

High School Guidance Counselors, Principals,
Superintendents, athletes being recruited?

Area Student Affairs persons

Building's architects, Builders, Project Manager, Engineer

Area Alumni (6,500) 3rd class invitation

Peggy Corbett

Peggy Corbett

Betsy Condron

Tom Hadzor or
Dick Hendershott

Tom Hadzor or
Dick Hendershott

Peggy Corbett

Betsy Condron

Tom Hadzor or
Dick Hendershott

Betsy Condron

Betsy Condron

Tony Shipula

Betsy Condron

Human Resources Management

Jane Manganella

Sally Slator

Lampe-Groh/Reese/Wingert

John Reese

B. Vinovrski

Ray Woods/John Pesta

Tony Shipula

Wilkes College
 Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania 18702

INVITATION LIST FOR MARTS CENTER DEDICATION LUNCHEON

Board of Trustees and spouses

Mrs. Marts and her lawyer/friend

Mrs. N. Cortiglia (Anna)

John Wilkes Donors (including spouses)

Major Marts Center Donors

General Officers

Selected Platform Party Members

Peggy Corbett

CNB

Tom or Dick

RECEIVED

DEC 25 1988

PUBLIC RELATIONS
OFFICE

This memo will give us all an overview of the Dedication. Please check it for additions, corrections, suggestions, and any responsibilities which fall into your area, especially where names and dates are needed.

Timeline

- 8:00 a.m. - Board of Trustees Meeting (Usher Room probably)
- 10:00 a.m. - Tours/Reception (Atrium probably)
- 11:15 - noon - Dedication Program (Lynbrook Hall)
- 12:15 p.m. - Luncheon (hospital's room - Boardroom's office?)
- 1:15 p.m. - Board of Trustees Meeting (recessant)

Invitations to the Dedication

The wording has been approved and Jane Margulies is having them printed. Response cards will be included to be returned to my office. We hope to mail between January 5 and January 7, to the persons/groups on the attached list. Tony Shipola will arrange to have the 1,700 group invited via a similar, less costly, invitation-mailing.

Invitation to the Luncheon

These will be sent at the same time via a letter from President Brinketh. The responses will come to the President's office and will be reported from the regular Board meeting attendance committee which comes in Peggy Corbett. The persons/groups of invitees are on the attached list.

Printed Program

This will be a "Thank-you" piece to include the program of events, a list of donors to date, a photo and brief history of the Marts Center, a brief history of the site and the school itself, and a message from the President emphasizing the various uses for the building: classrooms and meetings, sports, classrooms. If appropriate, it may include a piece about Marts, photo of Marts Courtyard, etc. Jane Margulies is handling the program piece as well as the printing of the building's flow chart to be posted out at the door.

Handwritten notes and signatures in the bottom left corner.

Shaping the lives of men and women for the future
 An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Institution

The President and the Board of Trustees
of

Wilkes College

invites the community to attend the dedication of

The Arnaud C. Marts
Sports and Conference Center

on

Friday, February 17, 1989

10:00 a.m. tours and reception

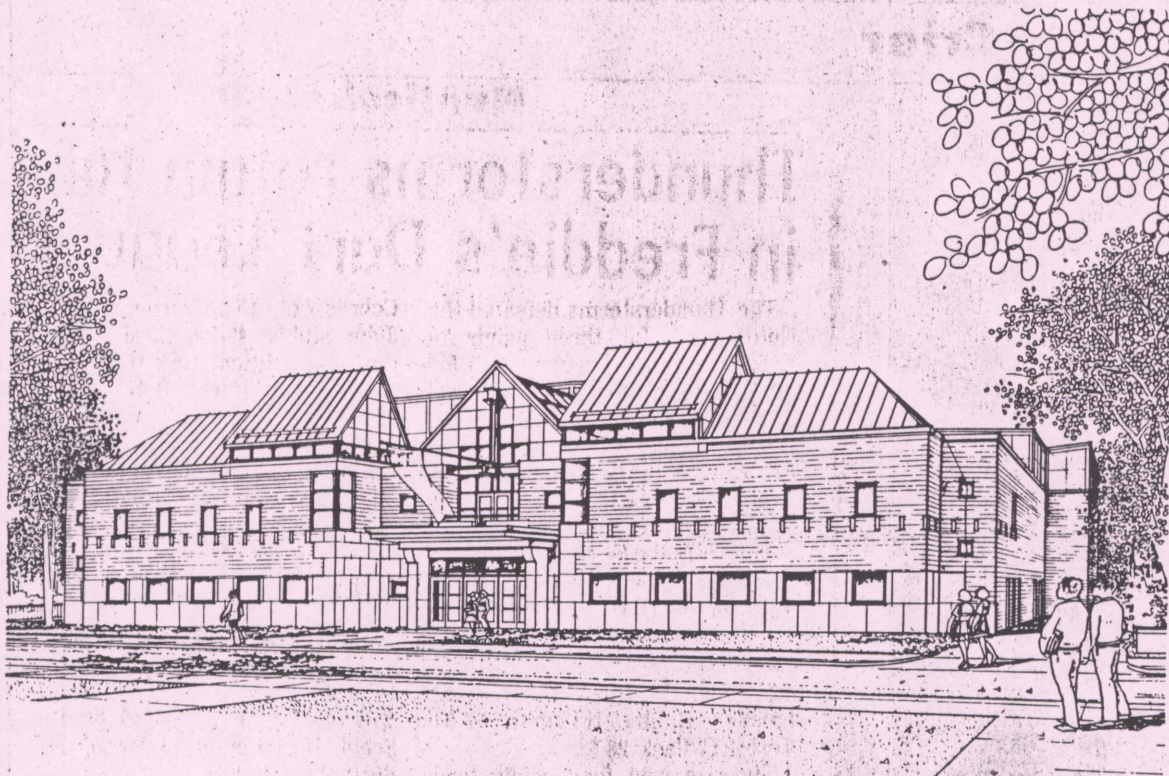

11:15 program

The Arnaud C. Marts Center

274 S. Franklin St.

Wilkes-Barre

TL 2/12/89 5A

Artist's drawing of new Marts Center

Wilkes sports, conference center dedication on Feb. 17

Wilkes College president, Christopher N. Breiseth, has extended an invitation to the entire community to attend the dedication of the new Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center on Friday, February 17 at 11:15 a.m. Tours and a reception will precede the ceremony and begin at 10 a.m.

Breiseth said, "This magnificent new building is a source of pride not only for Wilkes College but for the members of this community whose generous support for our Wilkes Tomorrow campaign has made it all possible.

Without the dedication demonstrated in terms of time, energy, leadership and financial support from the Board of Trustees, alumni, corporate donors and community members this facility would not be available to enhance the lives of our students.

"We sincerely hope that the entire community will join us in our celebration as we dedicate the new Sports and Conference Center and honor the memory of Arnaud Cartwright Marts, for who it was named."

The new multi-purpose center, designed by the award-winning architectural firm of Bohlin, Powell, Larkin and Cywinski, will be used for sports activities and for recreation. It will also serve as a much needed conference center and as additional classroom and office space.

The program on February 17th will include remarks from President Breiseth, Frank M. Henry, chairman of the Board of Trustees, alumnus Bruce Gover, who will serve as master of ceremonies and from other sports alumni and student representatives. Mrs. Arnaud C. Marts or her representative and Wilkes-Barre Mayor Lee J. Namey will also speak.

uesday, February 14, 1989

HSS 2/14/89 p. 36

WILKES COLLEGE DEDICATION — Wilkes College's new Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center will be dedicated on Friday, Feb. 17, the ceremony beginning at 10 a.m. The multi-purpose center, designed by the award-winning architectural firm of Bohlin, Powell, Larkin and Cywinski, will be used for sports activities and recreation. It also will serve as a much needed conference center as well as provide additional classroom and office space.

Marts Center to be dedicated Friday

Wilkes College President Christopher N. Breiseth has extended an invitation to the entire community to attend the dedication of the new Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center on Friday, Feb. 17, at 11:15 a.m.

Tours and a reception will precede the ceremony and begin at 10 a.m.

The new multi-purpose center, designed by the award-winning architectural firm of Bohlin, Powell, Larkin and Cywinski, will be used for sports activities and for recreation.

W300 2/15/89 3

JS 2/9/2/9

DEDICATION AT MARTS CENTER — Wilkes University alumni, trustees, administration, faculty and friends recently gathered at the Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center to unveil a plaque commemorating the many contributions to Wilkes Tomorrow, the University's Capital Campaign. Wilkes Tomorrow began in 1986, with an original goal of $18 million, but that figure was later extended by the university board of trustees to $23 million following an additional study of university's needs. At the close of the campaign, on May 31, 1992, the total pledges received stood at $25.5 million. Physical plant improvements account for $8.5 million of the funds raised during the 6 year campaign. The centerpiece of these improvements is the Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center. At dedication were, from left: Paul O'Hop, vice president for business affairs and auxiliary enterprises; Dr. Robert Heaman, dean of the School of Liberal Arts and Human Sciences; Patricia S. Davies, board of trustees; Arnold S. Rifkin, treasurer/assistant secretary, board of trustees; Dr.

Elizabeth A. Slaughter '68, board of trustees; Clifford K. Melberger, board of trustees; Joseph J. Savitz, Esq. '48, board of trustees; Dr. William F. Raub '61, board of trustees; Dr. Christopher N. Breiseth, Wilkes University president; and Thomas B. Hadzor, vice president for development.

Marts Center file

Wilkes College

News

OFFICE OF PUBLIC RELATIONS • WILKES-BARRE, PENNSYLVANIA 18766
TELEPHONE: (717) 822-8413

contact: Jane Manganella
Director

WILKES DEDICATES ARNAUD C. MARTS SPORTS AND CONFERENCE CENTER

WILKES-BARRE--Wilkes College held a formal dedication ceremony today (February 17) for the new Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center on South Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre. Tours and a reception preceeded the ceremony.

Dr. Christopher N. Breiseth, President of Wilkes, said, "It is with great pride and a sense of achievement that we gather together to dedicate the Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center. We are proud of this magnificent new facility and the opportunities it provides our students to develop physical attributes through recreational activities and in athletic competition. It underscores out primary goal to produce students fully capable both mentally and physically to accept the many challenges that lie ahead.

"There is a sense of achievement because this facility has been the centerpiece of our WILKES TOMORROW Campaign and its construction has been a constant and tangible reminder of the enormous support we have received from all of our friends."

Construction of the Marts center began in March of 1988 and was completed in January. The 75,000 square-foot, three-story facility cost $5.5 million, and its gymnasium will have a seating capacity of 3,000.

The multi-purpose center, designed by the award-winning architectural firm of Bohlin, Powell, Larkin and Cywinski, will be used for sports activities and for recreation. It will also serve as additional classroom and office space.

In addition to Dr. Breiseth, the dedication ceremony included remarks from Frank M. Henry, Chairman of the Board of Trustees; Alumnus and Trustee Bruce Gover, who served as Master of Ceremonies; Wilkes-Barre Mayor Lee J. Namey; and from other sports alumni and student representatives. Bruce G. Freeman, President of Marts and Lundy, a New York fund-raising firm established by Marts, spoke on behalf of Mrs. Arnaud C. Marts.

Ground broken for Wilkes gym

By CATHERINE TRIOMPHE

Times Leader Staff Writer

WILKES-BARRE — Despite the cold weather and the rain, Wilkes College and city officials symbolically broke ground Friday for what will become Wilkes' new gym and conference center.

The new three-story, 75,000-square-foot complex should be ready for use in January 1989. It will fill the South Franklin Street lot occupied by the current gym plus the vacant lot immediately to its north, and include additional classrooms, conference rooms as well as a multi-purpose recreation room and a training center. It will be able to seat 3,000 people instead of just 1,500 in the old building.

Demolition of the old gym is scheduled to begin next week.

"It is time Wilkes College looked at the future," said Wilkes College President Christopher Breiseth during the groundbreaking ceremony, "and build the kind of facility one expects from this kind of institution."

Mayor Lee Namey, a graduate of Wilkes College and one of the estimated 60 guests at the ceremony, praised the college for the services it provides to the city.

"The impact this college has on the city is enormous," he said, and "the new gym is important for the college."

Wilkes College had only 750 students when the old building was built in 1950. Today, Breiseth said, Wilkes

TIMES LEADER/RICHARD SABATURA

MAKING THE ANNOUNCEMENT — Wilkes College broke ground Friday for its new $5.5 million sports and conference center on South Franklin Street. Pictured inside the lobby of the old gym are: left to right, Christopher N. Breiseth, president of the college, and Frank M. Henry, chairman of the college's board of trustees.

has more than 3,000 students, part-time students included.

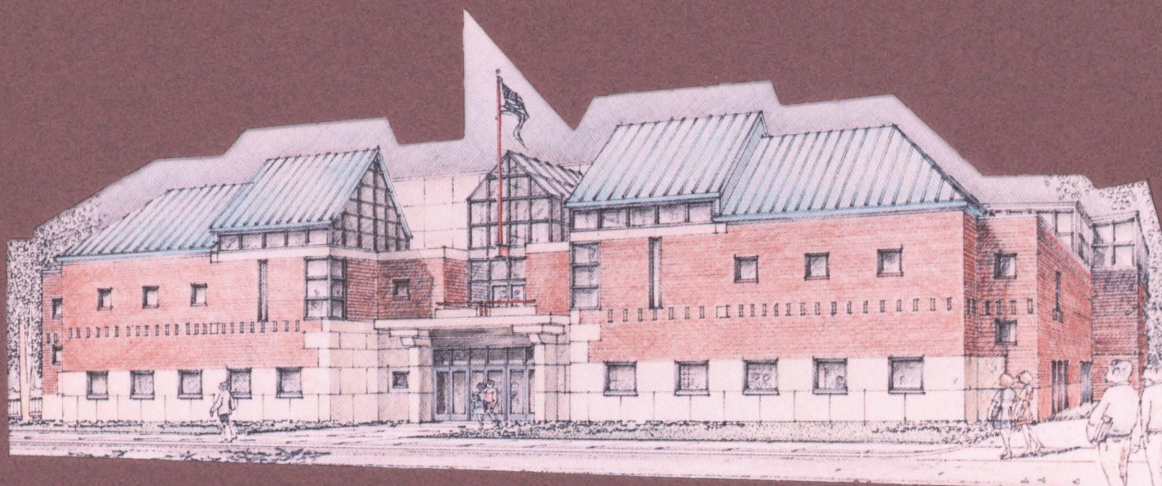

Breiseth said the college had considered building a new gym since 1961. But it is only in the fall of 1985, he said, that the college board decided the new complex would be their top priority.

The $5.5 million project is the first carried out under Wilkes' "Wilkes Tomorrow" fund-raising campaign. Some $18 million are to be raised by the campaign, which ends this year, but right now Wilkes still needs $3 million for the sports and conference center.

No name for the new building has been chosen yet, Breiseth said, but he hopes it will be named after the $1.5 million contributor Wilkes is seeking for the complex.

Dedication
Arnaud C. Marts
Sports & Conference Center
February 17, 1989

Christopher N. Breiseth

It is with great pride and a sense of achievement that we gather together to dedicate the Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center.

We are proud of this magnificent new facility and the opportunities it provides our students to develop physical attributes through recreational activities and in athletic competition. It underscores our primary goal to produce students fully capable both mentally and physically to accept the many challenges that lie ahead.

There is a sense of achievement because this facility has been the centerpiece of our Wilkes Tomorrow campaign and its construction has been a constant and tangible reminder of the enormous support we have received from all of our friends.

This building and its site are especially appropriate as a memorial to Arnaud C. Marts since it marks the location and preserves the purposes of a building that was the first new construction in which Wilkes College engaged — the construction of the first gymnasium completed in 1950. As Dr. Francis Michelini, second President of Wilkes College and current President of the Commission for Independent Colleges and Universities (CICU), reminds us, the first challenge to build a complex such as this came in 1947 from the Middle States Accreditation Association which mandated that the young college have an appropriate place for student assemblies, physical education, and athletic events.

Dr. Marts helped plan the gymnasium, accommodate the requirements, and advised and assisted Dr. Eugene S. Farley in the fund raising necessary to finance that effort. For over 40 years the "old gym" served as the focal point for countless events on campus. It was, for many members of the Wilkes College family, an emotional moment when we razed that structure. However, history did repeat itself and we again responded, although belatedly, when the Middle States Accreditation Review in 1979 again recommended we build a new athletic and recreational center to meet the needs of a student body more than twice the size of that in those early years.

Again it was the expertise developed by Arnaud C. Marts, through his firm of Marts and Lundy, that guided us through the successful launching of the Wilkes Tomorrow campaign that made all of this possible.

This Center will provide athletic facilities as fine as any in the country. It will provide much needed classroom and conference space. The academic, social, and athletic events held here will enrich the lives of future generations of students. Because of the vision and foresight of one of our founders, Arnaud C. Marts, we are able to take another confident step toward the 21st century.

Christopher N. Breiseth
February 17, 1989

The dedication of the Arnaud C. Marts Sports and Conference Center brings recognition and honor to the memory of the man who is most responsible for the firm foundations upon which Wilkes College is built.

Arnaud Cartwright Marts was born in neighboring New York state in 1888. In 1910 he graduated with Phi Beta Kappa honors from Oberlin College in Ohio. Through his first job at Pittsburgh's Y.M.C.A. he became involved in fund raising, an activity he developed not only into a career but into an industry.

By 1926 Dr. Marts was one of the leading fund raisers in the nation and established the firm of Marts and Lundy. He became deeply involved in the development of Bucknell University where he was elected to the Board of Trustees in 1932. Three years later, in the depths of the Depression, his fellow board members called upon Arnaud Marts to be president of Bucknell. He accepted only reluctantly and insisted upon continuing to manage Marts and Lundy, commuting by rail each week between Lewisburg and New York City.

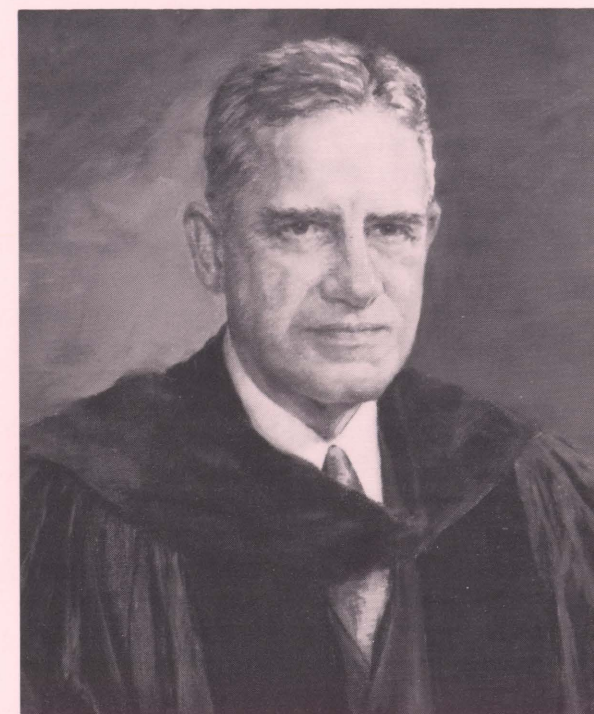

Dr. Marts quickly became aware of the pressing needs of the new Junior College Bucknell recently had established in Wilkes-Barre. In its first years Bucknell University Junior College had grown in numbers of students beyond the wildest imagination of the Bucknell Board. This growth forced Dr. Marts to find a leader for the Wilkes-Barre campus. He did so, after an extensive search, in finding Dr. Eugene S. Farley who would become the first president of Wilkes College.

Throughout the next three decades Dr. Marts served as Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Bucknell University Junior College, helping Dr. Farley to inspire the leaders of the local community to invest in the higher education of their children. From the first fund-raising campaign appropriately named "A Miracle in Our Day," Dr. Marts planned and helped the efforts by which this college established itself financially. In response to Dr. Farley's urgent appeals for more space for the growing student body, Dr. Marts approached the Kirbys, the Conynghams, and the Stark and Chase families to give their great River Street mansions to the College, thus establishing its present campus.

Through a busy and enormously productive life Arnaud C. Marts found the time, energy, and devotion to help build this College for the young people of Northeastern Pennsylvania. He believed in their potential for leadership and service with the proper education. Through his unfailing support of Dr. Farley's efforts and his skillful mobilization of friends and funds for Wilkes College, Arnaud Marts challenged this community to invest in its future.

In 1988 Wilkes College celebrated the centennial of Dr. Marts's birth by bestowing posthumously the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters upon him. We again honor through the naming of this new building, Arnaud Cartwright Marts, Wilkes College's founding father and faithful friend.

Arnaud C. Marts

Wilkes Tomorrow Donors To Date

Mr. James Adonizio
 Mr. John W. Adonizio '78
 Aeroflex Foundation
 Air Products
 Mr. Stephen Alinikoff
 Mr. & Mrs. Myer Alperin
 Alumni Golf Tournament
 Alumo Products Co., Inc.
 Mr. Larry D. Amdur '57
 Anonymous
 Anonymous
 Anthracite Plate Glass Co.
 Atlantic Financial Federal
 Mr. Benjamin Badman '41
 The Ballet Society of the Wyoming Valley
 Mr. David M. Baltimore
 Mr. & Mrs. Terry Baltimore '68
 Mrs. Sarah Wolfe Bell
 Dr. & Mrs. Burton Benovitz '56
 Mr. & Mrs. Justin F. Bergman, Jr.
 Mr. Bernard F. Burgunder
 Dr. Robert Berman
 Mr. Ralph Blodgett
 Mr. & Mrs. Peter Bohlin
 Catherine H. Bone Estate
 Dr. & Mrs. Christopher N. Breiseth
 Mr. & Mrs. James A. Brennan
 Mr. William G. Brenton
 Mr. J. Archbald Brooks
 Dr. Frederic S. Brown '73
 Dr. Robert L. Brown '68
 Mr. Richard L. Bunn '55
 Dr. Charles N. Burns, Sr. '35
 Dr. Robert A. Byrne '72
 Dr. & Mrs. Robert S. Capin '50, '83
 Mr. David L. Capin '82
 Mrs. Louise C. Carpenter
 Mrs. J. B. Carr
 Mr. & Mrs. Robert Casper
 Dr. Jesse H. Choper '57, '67
 Mr. John J. Chwalek
 Mr. Robert J. Ciaruffoli, CPA
 CIBA-GEIGY
 Class of 1970
 Class of 1987
 Class of 1988

Mr. Lawrence E. Cohen '57
 Mr. & Mrs. G. Guthrie Conyngham
 Mr. & Mrs. John N. Conyngham, III
 Mr. William L. Conyngham
 Coon Industries, Inc.
 Mr. & Mrs. William H. Cordy
 Mr. & Mrs. M. Keen Cornell
 Mr. Frank P. Cuscela '57
 Dr. Alfred F. D'Anca '59
 The Darling/Manglesdorf Family
 Mr. & Mrs. William Davidowitz
 Fred H. Davies Estate
 Mr. & Mrs. Stanley Davies
 Dr. Catherine De Angelis-Harris '65
 Deemer & Company, Inc.
 Alexander W. Dick Foundation
 Mrs. Walter M. Diener
 Mr. Seymour Dimond
 Mr. & Mrs. Edward Donley
 Dorranceton Millwork, Inc.
 Mr. George P. Edmonds
 Mrs. Richard M. Ehret
 Electrical Workers Local No. 163
 Dr. John H. Ellis, IV '79
 Mr. Richard G. Evans, Sr.
 Paul J. Eyerman, Inc.
 Mrs. Eberhard Faber
 Mr. & Mrs. George L. Fenner, Jr. '36
 Mr. Alan J. Finlay
 First Eastern Bank
 Mr. & Mrs. Robert Fortinsky
 Franconi Auto Parts Co.
 Franklin First Federal Savings
 Mr. & Mrs. Charles S. Frantz
 Gus Genetti Hotel, Inc.
 Mr. A. Todd Gibbs '66
 Mr. George Ginader '58
 Mr. & Mrs. Alan M. Glover
 Mr. Jerome R. Goldstein
 Mr. & Mrs. Howard Gonchar
 Mrs. Priscilla Goss
 Mr. & Mrs. Homer Graham
 Dr. & Mrs. David Greenwald '66, '66
 The GUARD Network
 Mr. & Mrs. Thomas B. Hadzor
 Mr. & Mrs. David C. Hall
 Mr. & Mrs. Harry R. Hiscox '51, '58

Program

Welcome

Dr. Christopher N. Breiseth
President, Wilkes College

Greetings

Bruce Gover '72
President, Alumni Association

Frank M. Henry
Chairman, Board of Trustees

Lee J. Namey '68
Mayor, City of Wilkes-Barre

Remarks

Dr. Christopher N. Breiseth

Mrs. Arnaud C. Marts

Dr. Gary A. Sojka
President, Bucknell University

John Reese
Dr. Sandra Bloomberg '71
Joseph Wiendl, Jr. '69
Marvin Antinnes '61
Robert D. Wachowski '89

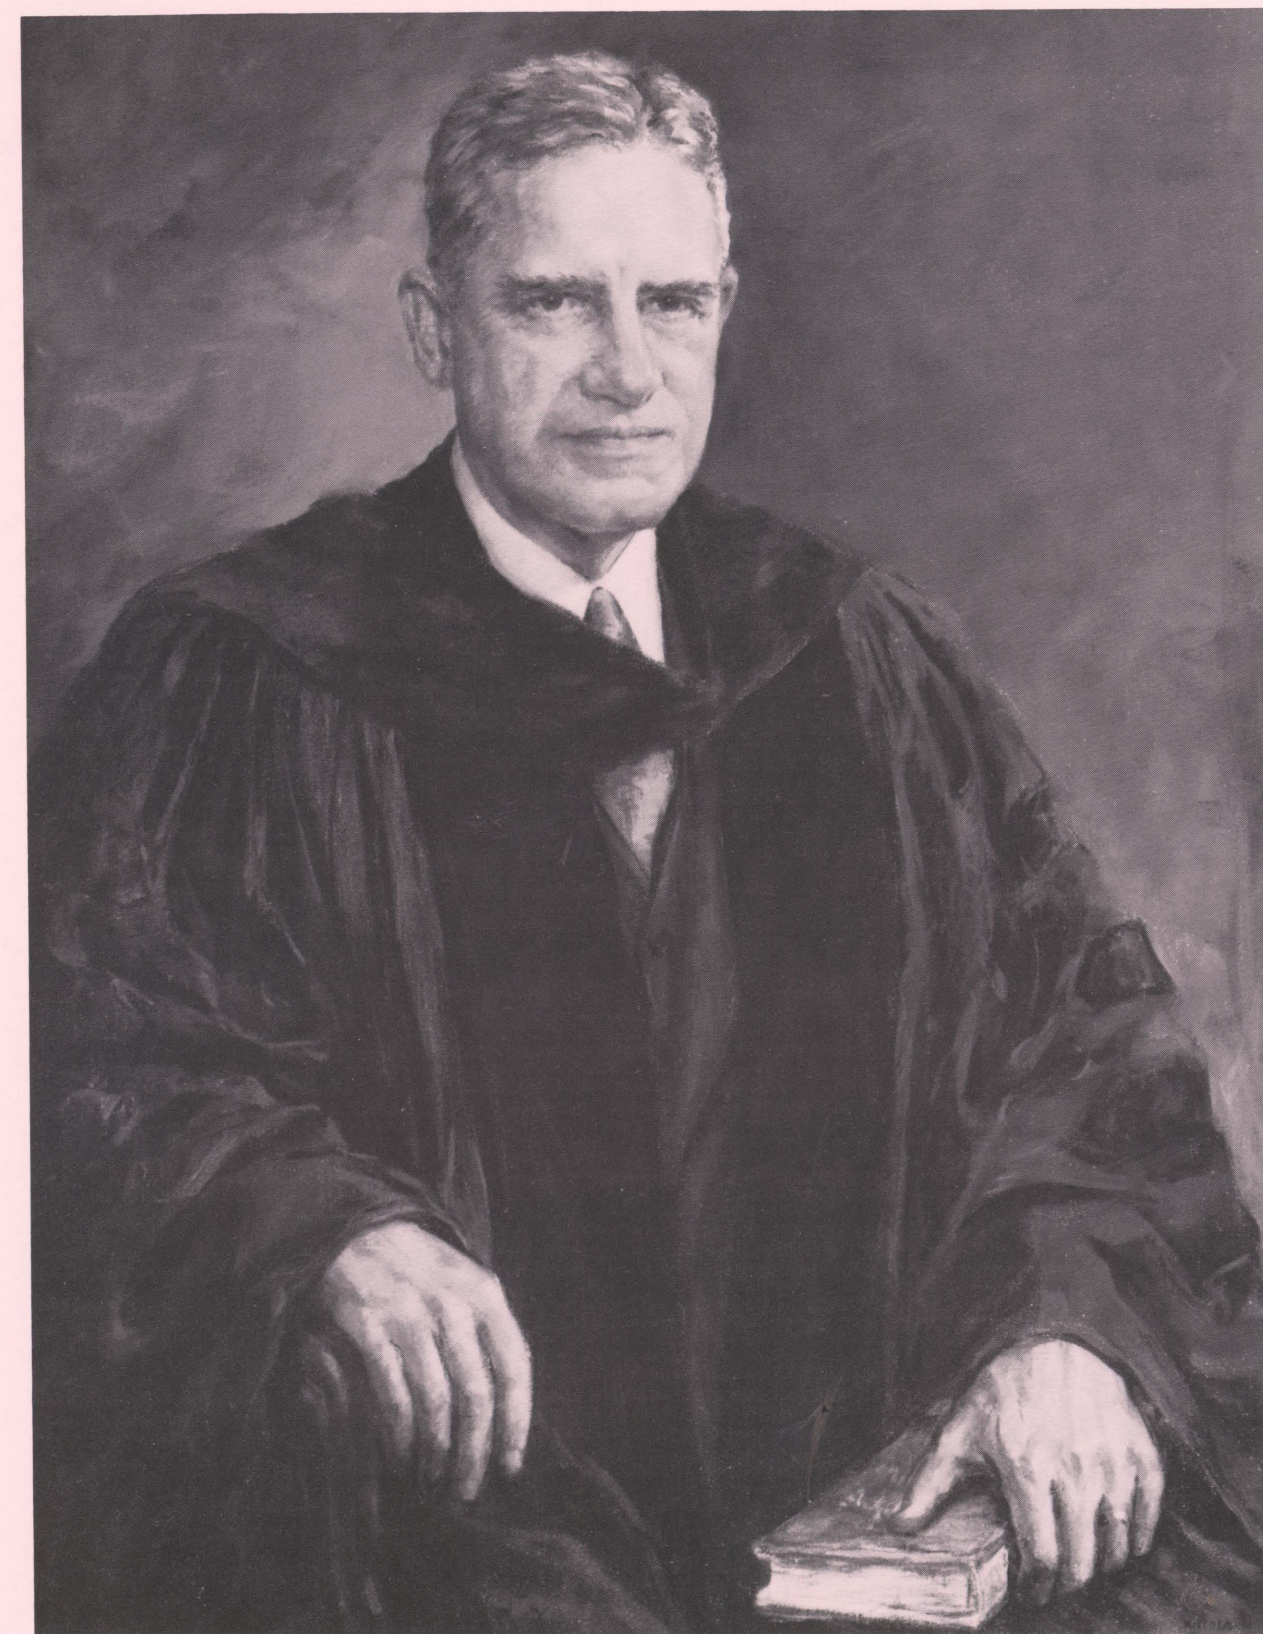

Benediction

George Ralston
Dean Emeritus

Music by
 Wilkes College Brass Ensemble
 Jermone W. Campbell, Director

Mr. Frank M. Henry
 Mrs. Judith C. Herdeg
 Julia Hirsch
 Mr. Richard Hogoboom
 Mrs. Andrew Hourigan, Jr., Esq.
 Hourigan, Kluger, Spohrer and Quinn
 Mr. & Mrs. Frank Hughes, Jr.
 Insalaco's Pittston Market
 Mrs. Lucile C. Jacobs
 Mrs. Mitchell Jenkins
 Jewelcor, Inc.
 Dr. Bronis J. Kaslas
 Dr. Robert M. Kerr '39
 Mr. & Mrs. Thomas H. Kiley
 King Glass & Paint Co.
 Mr. Allan P. Kirby, Jr.
 Dr. Dan F. Kopen '70
 Mr. Ronald D. Kosmala '65
 The Leslie Fay Companies, Inc.
 Rose Gorgold Liebman Estate
 Mr. & Mrs. John M. Litz '72, '68, '72
 Mrs. Miriam F. Long
 Luzerne County Commissioners
 Luzerne National Bank
 Marquis George MacDonald Foundation
 Mr. & Mrs. Thomas J. Mack, Jr.
 Mr. & Mrs. C. Paul Mailloux
 Mr. William R. Mainwaring '65
 Marts & Lundy, Inc.
 Mr. Richard Maslow
 Master Chemical Products, Inc.
 Dr. & Mrs. Robert L. Mayock '36
 Mr. John J. McCarthy '51
 Mr. & Mrs. John McCole
 Mrs. Sharon McCormack '69
 Mr. Robert McFadden '52
 Mrs. Claudia M. McGinley
 Mr. Thomas R. McGuire '85
 Mr. Paul R. Mehm
 Mr. & Mrs. Clifford K. Melberger
 Frank H. Menaker, Esq. '62
 Merchants Bank
 Mr. & Mrs. Sheldon B. Mermelstein
 Mr. & Mrs. Charles H. Miner, Jr.
 Mr. Gerald A. Moffatt '63
 Morrison's Custom Management Corp.
 Mr. & Mrs. Abram Nesbitt, III

Nesbitt Hospital
 Northeast Window & Door Association
 Northeastern Bank of PA
 Northeastern Pennsylvania Building &
 Construction Trade Council
 Mr. & Mrs. Paul A. O'Hop
 Mr. Gerald M. Oppenheimer
 The Albert A. Ostrander Charitable Trust
 Parente, Randolph, Orlando, Carey & Associates
 Mr. & Mrs. George G. Pawlusch '69, '75, '79
 Mr. & Mrs. Adrian Pearsall '51
 Mr. & Mrs. Richard L. Pearsall
 Pennsylvania Millers Mutual Insurance Co.
 Peat Marwick Main & Co.
 Mr. Clement W. Perkins
 William A. Perlmuth, Esq. '51
 Pennsylvania Gas & Water Co.
 Pennsylvania Power & Light Co.
 Mr. Russell R. Picton, Jr. '55
 Mr. Joseph Pinola '49
 Mrs. Edith Agnes Plumb
 Mr. Kenneth L. Pollock
 Mr. Joseph H. Pool, IV
 Mr. Martin D. Popky '50
 Mr. John M. Randolph, Jr., CPA
 Dr. William F. Raub '61
 Mr. Charles M. Reilly
 Mrs. Mary B. Rhodes '77
 Mr. George T. Rifendifer '43
 Mr. & Mrs. Arnold Rifkin
 Mr. Harry W. Rinehimer '43
 Lillian Rinehimer RN Scholarship
 Harriet P. Ripley Estate
 Mr. Harold J. Rose, Jr. '61
 Mr. Theodore Rosenberg
 Rosenn, Jenkins & Greenwald
 Harold Rosenn, Esq.
 Honorable Max Rosenn
 Mr. & Mrs. Richard M. Ross, Jr.
 Mr. & Mrs. Eugene Roth '57
 Royer Foundry
 Mr. & Mrs. William D. Sabatella
 Mr. & Mrs. Richard Salus '60, '62
 Mr. & Mrs. Joseph J. Savitz '48
 Miss Marian R. Schaeffer Bequest
 Mr. & Mrs. George Schall '59, '60

Arnaud C. Marts

Mr. & Mrs. Edward Schechter
Mr. Nathan Schiowitz
Mrs. Marion H. Schooley
Mrs. Sarah T. Shaffer
Mr. & Mrs. Thomas Shelburne, Sr.
The Shotwell Scholarships
Mr. & Mrs. Arthur Silverblatt, Sr.
Mr. & Mrs. Ronald Simms '60, '78
Mr. & Mrs. William Sincavage
Dr. Elizabeth Slaughter '62
Mr. & Mrs. A. Dewitt Smith
Mr. & Mrs. Bill Smulowitz
Mr. Nelson B. Snyder, II '64
Dr. Charles A. Sorber '59
Dr. & Mrs. David A. Sorber
Mr. & Mrs. John Sorber
William A. Sorber, M.D., Ph.D. '67
The Sordoni Foundation, Inc.
Mr. Stephen Sordoni
Mr. Keith Spalding
Mr. & Mrs. Samuel R. Spiker
Dr. Robert L. Sproull
Mrs. Donald C. Starr
The Stott Foundation
Mrs. Luciana DiMattia Suraci
Surdna Foundation
Mr. Robert Tambur/Tammac
Mr. & Mrs. Cromwell E. Thomas '55
The Times Leader
Frank Townend, Esq.
Trion Industries, Inc.
Mrs. Norma S. Tyburski
U. G. I. Corporation
Marie Umphred Estate
Mr. & Mrs. William J. Umphred, Sr. '54
United Penn Bank
Valley Vending Company
Mr. Steven Wasserstrom '69
Mr. & Mrs. Norman E. Weiss
The Weininger Foundation
Mr. Joseph A. Wiendl, P.E.
Mrs. Jeanne Martorelli Wideman '69
Mr. & Mrs. Russell B. Wight, Jr.
The New York Times Foundation
The Wood Company
The Woodlands
Wyoming Sandblasting & Painting Co., Inc.
Wyoming Valley Distributing & Storage

GROUP GIFTS

Contributions to:

The Baum Scholarship
The Brennan Scholarship
The Donald Fell Carpenter Fund
Dr. Bronis Kaslas/Sheporaitis Fund
The Langfelder Scholarship
The Liva Scholarship
The Lord Scholarship
The Piatt Scholarship
The Ralston Scholarship
The Reif Scholarship
The Sorber Scholarship

