

PARRISH HALL---16 South River Street. Wilkes College acquired the Glen Alden Property on May 6, 1958 through generous contributions including gifts from the Albert A. List Foundation, Inc., and RKO Theatres Foundation. The property includes not only the 5-story building at 16 S. RiverSt., but also the adjoining home (34 S. River) and a large parking lot. The building was renamed the Charles Parrish Hall after a noted leader in the coal industry. Parrish Hall includes the finance office, business of fice, and many dept.s of the college.
