

WILKES UNIVERSITY

Unity amidst diversity.

You're invited...

Featuring ...

Lois Moses, Esquire/ Actress/ Poet

Lois Moses is a native of Philadelphia and a lawyer. She is a 1997 graduate from Temple University School of Law. As an actress, Lois had toured and performed extensively throughout the United States and an off-Broadway run of Fedima in 1996. As a poet, Lois has self-published three collections of poetry entitled, not just another...Black/Woman, Missing Pages...(Women Behind the Glass Door), and "A Timely Trinity." Lois' work speaks to and highlights the history of the African women's journeys to experiences in/ and stories of America. Using her theatrical, musical and movement/dance background, Lois creatively combines these artistic forms to produce a powerful medium of performance art. She has performed with artist such as Sonia Sanchez, Nikki Giovanni, Black Ice, Kimmika L. H. Williams, Regie Gibson, and Jill Scott to mention a few.

Henrietta Morgan, Singer/Songwriter

Henrietta Morgan is a well-known music recitalist, educator, and innovator. She blends musical elements from her conservatory education, gospel music background, and love for popular music into the songs she creates and performs she boldly intertwines various spiritual principles to create a unique sound. Ms. Morgan was educated at the prestigious Peabody Conservatory of Music in Baltimore, MD. A noted recitalist in Washington D.C. area, she performed at the Children's Opera Theater, the Washington Performing Arts Society and the District of Columbia Youth Choral as well as many other Venues. For three consecutive summers, Ms. Morgan concretized in England with the Lady Chapel Singers as a soloist and served as an advisor in the performance practice of spirituals. Ms Morgan is featured as soloist and arranger with the Lady Chapel Singers on an internationally acclaimed CD.

You are cordially invited to the
Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration
At the Dorothy Dickson Dart Center

Monday, January 16, 2006

9:00 AM

R.S.V.P. by Thursday, January 12, 2006

By contacting
Andita Parker Lloyd
at 570-408-4731

Or email: culture@wilkes.edu

Office of Multicultural Affairs

Andita N. Parker Lloyd

Coordinator, Multicultural Affairs

84 West South Street
Wilkes-Barre, PA 18766

Phone: 570-408-4731

Fax: 570-408-4021

Email: culture@wilkes.edu

Everyone Has Culture!