MALCOLM TOON

Former Ambassador to the USSR

Prior to his appointment as Ambassador to the USSR, Malcolm Toon served as U.S. Ambassador to Israel from June 1975 to December 1976, to Yugoslavia from October 1971 to May 1975, and from June 1969 to October 1971 as U.S. Ambassador to Czechoslovakia. Previous service included assignments to our Embassies in Warsaw, Budapest, Rome, London, Moscow (twice) and the Department of State as Director of Soviet Affairs in 1965-68 and Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for European Affairs in 1968-69.

Born in Troy, New York on July 4, 1916, Ambassador Toon was educated at Tufts University, receiving a B.A. in 1937, and at The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, receiving an M.S. in 1938. He did graduate work at Middlebury College in 1950 and at Harvard University in 1950-51.

From 1942 to 1946, he served in the Navy, principally as a PT-boat skipper in the South Pacific, and attained the rank of Lieutenant Commander. Toon was awarded the Bronze Star.

In 1946, Ambassador Toon joined the Department of State. In 1965 he received the Department's Superior Honor Award and on July 18, 1973, he was promoted to the rank of Career Minister.

He served in Moscow from December 1976 to October 1979. He was awarded the Department of State's Distinguished Honor Award in November, 1979. Ambassador Toon is now retired.

Ambassador Toon was the first holder of the Allis-Chalmers Distinguished Chair in International Relations at Marquette University in 1982. He is currently serving as Director of McKesson, Inc. He is a member of the Board of Trustees at Tufts University and a member of the Board of Visitors at The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy.

The Honorable Max Rosenn

THE HONORABLE
MAX ROSENN

*Judge
U.S. Court of Appeals*

The Honorable Max Rosenn has served as Judge of the United States Court of Appeals, Third Circuit, for more than fifteen years. In recognition of his tenth anniversary on the bench and his numerous contributions to the U.S. judiciary system and to the quality of life in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the judge's former law clerks, friends and family established The Max Rosenn Lecture Series in Law and Humanities.

A native of the Wyoming Valley, Judge Rosenn was born in Plains (Pa.) and currently resides in Kingston with his wife Tillie.

Throughout his career he has made innumerable contributions to the enrichment of the region. His service has spanned many fields, including law, education, health, religion and public welfare.

A member of the Wilkes College Board of Trustees since 1970, Judge Rosenn received his undergraduate degree from Cornell University and his LL.B. from the University of Pennsylvania. He also did post-graduate work at the University of California at Berkeley, and the University of Michigan.

The prominent and highly respected court official is a member of the American, Federal, and Pennsylvania Bar Associations; a Fellow of the International Academy of Trial Lawyers; a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers; and a member of the American Law Institute. He is a founding member of the Council of the American Society of Law and Medicine, and an associate editor of the American Journal of Law and Medicine.

The former Secretary of Public Welfare for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is a Life Member of both the Jewish Community Center, where he serves as a trustee, and the Wyoming Valley Jewish Committee. Following the flood of 1972, Judge Rosenn served his community as chairman of the Flood Recovery Task Force for Wyoming Valley.
