Dear Mr. Switt:

In behalf of Ohav Zedek Congregation and myself personally, I want to express our appreciation to you for your thoughtfulness and generosity in securing the prayer books and other religious articles for them. While I have not examined the boxes which were placed in the car, I feel certain that much of the material that you delivered to me can be used. I have turned them over to the Synagogue today and I am quite certain you will hear directly from them.

We are all grateful to you for your interest.

Sincerely yours,

MAX ROSENN

Re: Religious Articles

Dear Max:

We still have no luck reaching you by telephone.

Our very dear friend Iz Switt, of 130 So. 8th Street, bought in a load of siddurim, prayer books for holidays, taletim, tefillin, skull caps and other religious articles. He has kindly consented to give them to the Orthodox or Conservative congregation in Wilkes-Barre which has the most need for them. We have been trying to figure a way to get them there. It had been my intention to drive them up before Kippur. However, I am trying to clean things up before we go to the Orient on a business trip. We have been crowded for time.

If you are driving to Philadelphia and back any time this week, or if you have a friend to whom you can delegate this mitzvah, please contact Izzy Switt at WA2-3830, and make an appointment to suit your mutual convenience.

There is a desperate need for these things. We are delighted that Izzy is able to help.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely,

2
Isidor Ostroff
