We the undersigned, at the request of John Douglas ^{Esq} have Valued and Appraised the land, Buildings, Negroes and Stock on Washington Estate, in the Colony aforesaid, and have set opposite to each article what we think its just and true value, according to the best of our Skill and Judgement, finding the whole (Errors of Calculation and addition Excepted) to amount to the Sum of Seven Hundred and Seventy three thousand four hundred & twenty eight Guilders Holland's Currency
