

POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT,

Nov 6 1823

SIR,

I will thank you to see the enclosed bond and contracts properly executed by James Edy & Josiah Norton. As soon as they are executed, you will return them, when a counterpart of the contract, executed on the part of the Post-master General, will be forwarded to the contractor. No payment will be made to the contractor, until the bond and contracts are duly executed and returned to this Department. Two contracts must be signed, as one must be filed in the Treasury.

Your most obedient,

Postmaster

Wm. Keane
