

My dear

Feb. 18, 1862

My dear

There is no wish on my part to give up the mission, and I shall go as soon as my arrangements can be completed, but I find my private affairs, from long neglect, much more difficult to arrange than I had anticipated and therefore I will be able to start quite as soon as expected.

I am really much obliged to Mr. Mitchell, for his friendly expressions.

It is my intention to visit Washington, some time next week.

Very truly
Yours
Timothy Garrison
