

Mrs. Thomas Ferris Atherton

Portrait painted by Mlle. Gambareau, the French lady, who lived with Aunt Sarah after Uncle Thomas died. Mlle. G. taught dramatics & French to some of the young people in W-B - and used them as models for the paintings she did on the walls of the big stone house - in Wilkes-Barre - which Uncle Thomas built - and ⁱⁿ which we lived & grew and which was later torn down -
