1. Portrait of Mrs. Thomas Ferner Atherton, by her beloved foster daughter, Mollie Juliet Gambarean.
2. The house Thomas Ferner Atherton built for his well loved wife. They never had any children of their own. Many said if she had made a will, she would have left it to Mollie Juliet Gambarean. Without her will it descended to Thomas H. Atherton son of her sister Mrs. T. H. Atherton whose name by act of the Legislature to Atherton from Henry whose history was in every way more distinguished ^{he accomplished} - Two sons by his first wife, one killed I think at Antietam, the other carried around a bullet all his life. His beloved only son was thrashed, it has been said when he fraternized with the newspapers history the man dead. Our father T. H. Atherton inherited the position of his aunt Libby, a Millerite who lived with his mother all her life. It is said my father ran to the tent of the commander of the regiment. Why? because Coalie their only horse had been commandeered, he explained Coalie would die if he was not fed by himself. He was sent home instantly being but 12 yrs. old.
