Ready with a pen 1850.

Dear Sir

I have been unfortunate in the country, and am tied now only in town for a day. This will explain W.M., I hope, with the delay and the brevity of this answer to your letter.

I go to return "Robert Clarke" for mention. He told that I should, and I have done so. The purpose of these papers. The enclosed is a cheque for £10 on your general account with the publication. I cannot answer the autobiography question, without seeing something of the work itself.

Yours truly

Dear Sir

Faithfully yours
