

3, Sutton Place, Stuckey
Friday morning,
Octbr. 20th.

Dear friend,

I hope that you will not leave for Gibraltar before Friday and that, I shall thus have the pleasure of, enjoying a quiet evening's talk with you at my fireside. Mrs. Freilgrath will also be delighted to see you again. The best plan to come safely to Stuckey (that suburban Ultima) Thule,
which is a weekend,
and seems more distant,

that over the White Hill and the residence of H. M. the King of the Crocodiles will be, to call for me at my office, St. Mary Court, St. Mary Ave.
The railway station
is very near to it,
and we might then go
together.

May come at abt 4 to five o'clock. I shall wait for you, unless you don't write to the contrary.

I stand you still for
y.

The opportunity you gave me of making James Russell Lowell's interesting acquaintance.

Yours always very truly

Frederick

St. Mary Ave. Boston.
