

Charles R

Charles By the grace of God, King of Great Brittain Ireland and Towns of the Faith &c. To all Whom these Shall come, Greeting. Where as the bearer Lieutenant Colonel Clark for his lawful affairs to go beyond Sea, These are these to and command you and every one of you, to suffer and permit the said Colonell Clark with his two servants and three horses, freely to pass without any trouble search or molestation whatsoever. Whose you are not to fail to do and every one of you will be answerable at your highest Court. Given under our hand and Signet at Newcastle, the eight day of June 1696. And of our Vaigne the 22.

By his Majties
Command

L. M. W. R.

