

SUPREME COURT.—Chief Justice Lowrie, and Justices Woodward, Thompson, Strong and Read.

Chapman et al. vs. The Buck Mountain Coal Company. Appeal from the decree of the District Court of Philadelphia county.
Opinion by Justice Thompson. And now to wit, March 28, 1859: This cause having been argued by counsel on appeal from the Judge at Nisi Prius, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the decree at Nisi Prius, so far as it relates to the defendants, Chas.
M. Morris and Franklin Fell, be reversed and set aside, and it is now hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said Charles M. Morris and the said Franklin Fell pay unto Charles I. A. Chapman the full value of 100 shares of the stock of the Buck Mountain Coal Company, together with such dividends as may have been declared thereon, since the seventeenth day of June, A. D.
1849, together with interest on the said dividends; and further, that they pay a like sum of 100 shares of the said stock to Edward Chapman, and dividends and interest from the date above mentioned, or to them or either of their attorneys in fact, authorized to receive the same, and the case is hereby referred to Hon. Joel Jones, as master, to ascertain and report the amount to be paid to the said Edward Chapman, under this decree, and that said defendants pay the costs of this case; and so far as the bill of complaint relates to the claiming of Rebecca D. Carey, and to the defendants, the Buck Mountain Coal Company, William P.
Jenks, Clement S. Rutter and John Fuller, the decree dismissing the same is affirmed.
