

Must of Willd Thyme.

I hope to bring out
another volume in the Autumn, & am also engaged on a book on William Morris for the "English Men of Letters" series, which I hope to complete by then.

With kind regards &
very many thanks once more

Dear Mr Young

I must thank you very much for your kind letter. It will give ^{me} much pleasure to inscribe the books as you suggest. The list is as follows:-

1. "The Loom of Years" (poems 5/-) published originally by Grant Richards, 1902; but now out of print & rather difficult to secure. (Some of this is included in the American vol.)
2. Poems, 1904 published by Messrs William Blackwood & Sons (London) seven shillings sixpence.
3. "The Forest of Wild Thyme" 1905 (Blackwoods, London) five shillings.
4. "Drake" An English Epic (Blackwoods,) six shillings 1906

5. In America Messrs Macmillan have published a volume entitled "Poems" with an introduction by Hamilton Mabie 1906. (price 1 dollar 26 cts.) ~~About~~ A good deal of that volume is new.

6. Messrs Macmillan are bringing out this month in America, a volume entitled "The Flower of Old Japan" & other poems, which contains some work now quite out of print in this country & also some additions to the
