My Dear Daughter,

I have prevailed upon your Uncle William to return to Charles City with a view to some matter. He is authorized by me to give $800 for Provided with the crop of wheat upon it. Your negroes men I will hire, and Harry must do the best he can with the old negro woman. With prudence and economy you can live very well. The hire of your men will furnish you all necessaries. and Harry must hill and divide the open land into two or three fields - The land is susceptible of improvement and small as is the tract it may be made valuable - The circumstances of its being retired is no objection to you - You will be near your uncle and near enough for me to see you often - Tell Harry to pull off his coat and go to work like a poor man, and he will come out well -

Has Chaney reached you - If so tell him to prep or write the painting - and the carpenters with the House - After finishing the stairs and putting up the bellows to the front porch, the lower rooms new floors should be "planned" off - The furni- ture may be moved all into one room or changed about so^{as} to enable this to be done - I send ~~eighty~~ ^{ten} dollars gifts for Mountcastle and then rest for the sawyers and carpenter - ^{after paying your uncle Williams expenses -} Tell - Have all the rubbish removed from around the House -

Yr Father

If Brookfield can't be bought you will have to go to Cedar Hill - I rather think - You need not make up the carpet - We prefer to think more about it - Perhaps Harry may want one of the men If so let him take Dick -
