

Whereas the present General Assembly of Pennsylvania have repealed the law usually called the Confirming law, made by a former Assembly, by which the Lands of the Connecticut Claimants were confirmed to them & their Heirs and Assigns; & these claimants being thereby exposed to actions of ejectment, which may now be brought against them by the claimants of the same lands under Pennsylvania; And whereas the great sufferings & losses sustained by the Connecticut claimants in times past, have reduced them to such general distress as will render their just defence against such suits of the wealthy claimants under Pennsylvania, a very grievous burthen; and whereas all the titles of the Connecticut claimants rest on the same ground; and the decisions concerning them in a few cases will in effect de-
