safety be sent for — Inclosed is my Certificate of Rum sold to Thomas attested to before Esquire Murray — I can't recollect of any other Lum being sold into York State, only at the Treaty, except it might be a single Gallon or two or quarts &c, which I can't call particularly to mind at present, neither have I any charge to the books against any person in York State, unless it may a small quantity not worth mentioning — I began at the Well a day or two ago which goes on very well so far. — Give me leave to congratulate you
