

Correspondence to Richard N. Nixon, 1965-1969

4.5

May 11, 1965

President Lyndon B. Johnson
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

Your foreign policy in Vietnam, Santo Domingo, and elsewhere is being severely criticized by vocal elements in this country - sit-in teachers, street-demonstrating students, newscasters, columnists.

There are a great many non-demonstrating, non-vocal citizens who understand, appreciate and approve what you are doing and saying. I am one of these, and I thank you for the new leadership you are giving to our beloved Republic.

Sincerely yours,

ACM:he

A. C. Marts

October 15, 1969

Dear Mr. President,

We understand the trials you and Mrs. Nixon are enduring this day.

We send you assurances of our support for your leadership of our beloved America.

We are with you all the way.

Sincerely,

Anne and Arnaud Marts

The Honorable Richard M. Nixon
White House
Washington, D. C. 20006

.....the immortal saying of Stephen Decatur:
"Our country! In your intercourse with foreign nations may she always be in the right; but our country, right or wrong."

