

DT Notes, tape 4

unnumbered, 1936

DT: A ukase from the O.O.—the elimination of the Jews, is one element in our move toward an end-policy in relation to the DK. DT's comment: "Who could comprehend such an order back in 1936? So many of the Jews were with us, as were, indeed, so many of the Nazis. It was my pride, ^{or my} ~~my spirit~~

Salvador

~~d'corps~~, if you will, that I never tried to understand in advance what the O.O.

might be up to."

late '30s

card 299

DT: History is ^{clothing} ~~no more than the clothes that~~ are selected to dress naked deeds. ~~It~~ is a species of description that belongs more to fashion than to objective record.

1936-1939

Card 175

Diplomats have their own understanding. If you are really a gentleman, there are not too many ways to have an interesting life, ^{but} diplomacy is one of them ^{cocktail} ^{conversational flood} ^{floor} and every party given the opposing currents of accurate and false ^{turn into} information, can become an intellectual adventure. (Note to myself, is the ~~word "party" or "parley?"~~)

HH 1938 or 1939

card 256

[CK date]

Hess! The (oo)
Hess's flight: HE desires it because he wishes to have AH substitute

Hess
Bormann for Hess. Does HE stand for Hans Franck?

DD 1938

card 197

During the Blomberg business, DT enters ^{Erna}~~Hanna~~ (sp??) Gruhn and encourages her in analogies: sense of metaphor / my face ("I don't want to smell like a rotten old cabbage down there.")

He washes his armpits carefully, but his heinie? No! No washing there!"

(DT is speaking): "You will wash it with your tongue. Do you wish to be a stenographer all your life?"

Blomberg was given the treatment. Paroxysms of pleasure. He became as soft in his feelings toward Hannah as a maiden (out in the zephyrs of love for "You see what I do for you?" she would tell him. "Only for you!"

the first time.

1938

card 274, Z

DT: Heydrich has a file on the sexual activities of all the high Nazi functionaries. He browses in it from time to time before going out on the town. Does research on the death of Geli Raubal under the guise of protecting the Führer from British intelligence. "We must know all that they can possibly have found out about Geli."

Schellenberg gets the job.

1938

card 377, W

DT: A high Jewish financier in Spain with Franco in 1938. He speaks of ~~the~~

~~the~~ brilliance of Hitler's understanding of power and how ^{his} aims can be carried out—except, of course, for all his nonsense about the Jews. A pity—he would be a political philosopher of the first importance without that other rubbish. Franco, covertly, without quite saying so, agrees with the financier who then reports to his people that he thinks Franco is actually in sympathy with what he said but will, of course, ^(a ~~del~~alas!) do nothing active about it.

1938

card 306

Himmler's Wewelsberg castle is patterned after the council of hell's angels, that is to say, Milton's Hell's angels, not San Diego's.

But see p 9 (next page)

1938-39

card 202A

Himmler at one point decides that ~~Heidrich~~ must have Jewish blood because he is always looking for new mistresses, "a Jewish characteristic."

But see p 9 (next page)

1939

Card 169Z

Himmler knows that with Hei^{drich}'s distrust of all people, he would not even believe his own father's attestations that Süss was not Jewish. And Himmler used it. He ^{will} ~~would~~ hint occasionally at small but awful evidence that he had destroyed "in order to protect you, dear Hei^{drich}."

Of course, he ~~knows~~ ^{will} that Hei^{drich} ^{has} ~~would~~ not believe that he ~~had~~ destroyed

he only can know that he does anything, and so could not know whether there ~~was~~ ^{is} evidence or not.

1938

card 163K

Himmler has a homosexual panic sitting next to Heideich at the Czech execution ^{by} machine gun fire. He is so phallic in his purpose, so unmoved by personal feeling, such an iron man. A crowbar!

"I cannot keep believing he has any Jewish blood."

1938

card 14G

DT waxes ironic about the Wehrmacht's moral code ^{concerning} ~~about~~ loose women

(Blomberg) and homosexuality (von Seeckt—CK spelling) while all the time revering Frederick the Great.

1938

card 8E

Langer: during periods of indecision, Hitler waits for his inner voice to guide him. In '38, during his worst rages, he was known by his associates as "das (or der?)

teppisch-fresser"—the carper-chewer.

1939

Card 57

DT: when it became the hour for him to take action as the commander-in-chief of the Wehrmacht, I reminded him of his days in Vienna with Gustl and how he had felt no fear in composing an opera, redesigning a city, or establishing a mighty touring orchestra (Kubizek, p. 210)

1939

card 368E

Hitler's pact with Russia ^{is} was seen from the beginning as a means of confounding the world Marxist movement, and so weakening it for the future war by steeping it in the confusion of the pact. All the way, Hitler knows that eventually there will be a war with Russia.

Wouldn't he be confusing his own as well? Yes, but he was better organized than the Soviets. He could convert his Germans much more quickly.

Manson defended on idealizing Nazism on passion. The latter ~~can~~ finds it easier to hook onto sudden morals. (Expatriate.) A woman can go from one passionate love to another, and all on the next night, say even the same night. A woman he could never trust a woman.

1939-1945

unnumbered card

DT: Perhaps my greatest function was to make it possible for AH to be daring, since I was able for the most part to neutralize ~~all~~ those human fears, (common to most of what God's judgment on him might be (since I could

Certainly ~~ad~~ succeed, ~~after all~~, in getting him to believe that my presence was ~~that of a~~

Evga
a guardian angel, ~~and so~~ God was on his side.)

1940

card 198A

Air-raids at Dunkirk and fog.

Question: does the Dummkopf affect the weather? To a limited degree, He can, but it is best to remember that weather is a machine designed by Him eons ago, and like all machines, cannot be altered on a whim, particularly when all the parts affect one another, and the engineer is old and has forgotten to some degree how he put the thing together in the first place.

1940

Card 200A, and A-22

Churchill's great speeches. The DK has, I think, a fondness for drunks when they use the booze to anesthetize the pain. There is Churchill, a booze-hound if there ever was one, but the DK gave him his best when the time came to make speeches. Perhaps the DK truly ~~loved~~ ^{wanted} drunks to be at their best when full of our spirits, ~~since~~ ^{after all} that is galling to us.

~~And an~~ expatiation on the nature of spirits can be done here if it comes easily to mind. There has to be a notion implicit in it is that the first imbibing of the spirits early in a night of drinking belong as much to the DK as to the O.O. and it is only as the evening goes on that the O.O.'s hegemony prevails.)

1940

Card 160K

There is less interest now for me in those who would make of sex a religion.

It is such a lonely venture—that is, to find exceptional sexual experience—

~~and~~ ^{boringly easy to trap /}
~~that~~ such people become too easy to catch when sex is their only religious

^{It is not unlike} belief. ~~Indeed, it becomes boring to attach them, not unlike, I would expect,~~ fishing in a well-stocked pond. So it was the Himmlers, more ^{than} ~~that~~ the

^{the Goebbels or / (who)} Goerrings or the Heidrichs ~~that~~ presented the true challenge. ^{It was not} ~~They were not~~ ^{routine / them)}

~~so easy to capture~~ after all, through sex. But I think it ^{easy}

be said that I did

Still, Himmler was a masturbator, and they were usually routine for us — ^{cases} install attached to a milking machine

1940

173 (line through it) bb

In the Warsaw ghetto, the history teacher who has the catastrophic view of history, ~~he speaks in the cheder~~

1941?

Card 337 A and A-13

Given triangulation (which in an equilateral triangle would have God, man and Satan all with equal influence and power over the other two) the movement away from a perfect equilateral triangle produces occasional disconnections. with ~~distances in the forces.~~ DT never has less power ~~than~~ AH than in early 1941.

when he is, Sgt
 (in preparation for the June attack on the USSR. As not devil manipulation, but human vanity that brings AH to disaster.

At a certain point, the O.O. shifts his allegiance from AH (DT, of necessity, goes along as well) and knows that the O.O. is beginning to think of how ~~to~~ work His vision upon the world which will emerge from World War II.

1941

On the Second World War

I was confused. I did not understand why ^{is acceleration of the} advances in technology was our clearest goal, ^{then} why we were setting out to destroy so much of the productive technology of the world. But I was cleansed of my confusion by the O.O.

who imparted to us ^{eventually} (deep as we were in our confusions, some of his understanding. It was simple, he said. ~~The~~ worldwide destruction is the greatest ally of ^{future} technology. In war, the old world is destroyed along with the new, but ~~in the new world~~ only the new can be replaced. It is the old world that resists us. A family in an old house ^{is} despite its many ghosts, is more cohesive as a family than parents and children in a new house or, better, a cheap modern post-war flat. ^{of the sort to come} 1941

Card 99, B and B-2

Declaring war on the US in December, 1941

He had an attitude which sometimes made it easy to manipulate him when orders arrived to push him in one direction or another. ~~It was that~~ AH delighted^{so} in the principle of one against many. If he was the only one who had an idea and all others were opposed to him, then his was the idea to choose. He had, after all, by his own lights, so often been right.

1941

Card 113, b and B-5

Never for a moment did I let him forget that he was working for God, and

God was working for him since he, the wolf-man, Adolf Hitler, would yet be ^{punitive} the ~~putative~~ arm of God, a strong man to ^{oversee the cleaning/} clean ^{out} the stables, a man to get rid of all the devil's impact on the churches, ^{and} the Jews. ^{the Jews had even} once ^{His own people,} (His own people,

^{but they were} ~~and~~ now despised by Him.

1941

card 213 K and Y

Himmler

HH is obsessed with the Kaballah and searches for an SS man who knows it well enough—finally decides to pluck up a Polish Kaballah expert, a rabbi, to purge him for knowledge. The search is assigned to Schellenberg, who finds an SS expert on the Kaballah, a former actor, and has him play a rabbi for Himmler. Himmler believes it. (Much work on Steiner's work)

1941

card 187 L-→K

from Faust, 3485-3500

Oh, you, dear Heinrich, must feel that way too.

Use for Himmler. After he gets sick from watching the execution, he is sick again that night and read Faust to recover.

1941

Card 158 L, then B

I told him: never shrink back from slaughter. The moments/ your high assistants recognize that human life is absolutely without value to you—for you are the higher human being—then the more paralyzed they will become at the thought of resisting you.

Look at p. 339 in Gilbert

1941

card 301, O

AH visits a stockyard and decides on the Endlösung (final solution) ~~and will~~ ~~divert the troops forward.~~ ^{while the} The murder of these animals in the stockyard ~~and~~ enforces his desire not to go near meat, ~~but~~ the Jews are not dumb beasts but evil creatures who deserve ^{considerably} ~~far~~ more punishment than these dumb animals.

Hence, no knives—for in the instant that the knife enters, one feels one's soul, whereas with gas, the soul ^{looks to escape} ~~flee~~ ^{does its best to escape} (the impact and hides from oneself.

and often flies off in not easily recoverable directions.

1941

Card 63 S

~~He~~ ^{DT} might take ^{an invisible} tour of the General Gouvernement, the concentration camps, and the front to use for future manipulations of AII. (~~DT, of course, is~~ ~~taking the tour~~) In Russia, in the winter of 41, DT is filled with ridicule for Speer who has designed, and/or chosen the winter equipment which is relatively light-weight, ski-style stuff, and so lacks the fat of good wool which keeps you considerably warmer. Later, Hitler upbraids Speer gently.

Later that night, Hitler will strive to stroke himself with near to overflowing,

^{they} ~~now~~ overflowing images of Speer naked beside him. He hears six notes from Beethoven's violin concerto as he drives his seed from inside to out—a handkerchief with a perpared cream sauce in his hand—cut to a Warsaw concert hall, Beethoven ^{is} being played illegally.

1941

Card 285, ii

Consider the possibility that DT on orders reveals himself to AH in order to get him to conduct the campaign of Russia, indeed, promises him success.

My own comment: this is a very large note which takes a totally different turn and would have to be considered very carefully. At present its logic does not seem overpowering.

This note written in 2,000 seems even more unusable in 2002

1941

Card 313 AAA

About the time that AH decides on the Endlosung, his nightly anxieties become immense. It is as if all the creatures and energies of the godhead and the reaches of the devil are activated mutually. There is a return flush of the angels—cannon-fodder for us, given the absolute hold we had on Adolf. Nonetheless, he felt it so severely that he thought he had come down with a life-threatening case of the flu.

1941-1944

Card 255 ii

It was generally understood by us that the DK had a large interest in the United States, that it might be His future field of most intense operations. HF, despite all difficulties with AH, namely his vain incapacity to marry instinct to personal discipline, was inclined to oppose the DK with the Thousand-Year Reich. Incidentally, the earlier worry about what does HF stand for—it is Hans Franck—is now answered. HF is the Hockfuhrer, the High Leader or the O.O. By winter of 1941, the doubts have begun. By the early winter of 1943, ^{see next page} fourteen months later, HF had, I believed, decided that the Allies would win and the war ground of the future would be in the US and in the USSR, in which the DK also had ^(in merge) ~~an~~ interest.

Card 155, ii page 2

Note: there is something wrong with the dates. The early winter of 1941 to the winter of 1943 is much more than 14 months later. I think we have to say "by December of 1941" the doubts had begun, and by the early winter of 1943, 14 months later---there we are.

WWII, 1942

Card A 10

At the commencement of worldly existence, it was the cerebral, (ourselves,) that would war with the instinctive (the Dummkopf). A higher God was waiting to see the results, a god essentially indifferent to humans and the planet earth, a god of the universe interested only in what processes prove most useful to that divine and truly Unnameable and Unreachable Self.

Or, at least, this was as far as I could project my thinking.

1942? (maybe later)

Card 88, A and A-10

Sometimes, as some of us saw it, there was besides the Dummkopf and the High Other One, a Mediator above, who would give a verdict eventually in favor of DK or the O.O. and for that we worked, for that we served the O.O.

1942

card 307 XX

when we~~We~~ raise the self-image of people who have been depressed for years by themeasure of their real insignificance, ~~you~~^{we} also arouse the demons, large andsmall, that were formerly incarcerated within ~~by~~ the walls, the palisades, ~~the~~~~bulwark~~^{them} of ~~the~~ depression. So there was never a shortage of troops ready to become executioners. For that a certain mania was necessary and one could count upon it as easily and definitely as a certified check. Depressed German men who ~~were~~ rose to a higher notion of themselves by becoming Nazis, and soldiers, took another step up in their self-estimation by becoming executioners

Card 247, 1942 ii (side 1 ends)

DT's instructions after 1942 were to keep making AH ~~more and more what~~,

~~he had been before, in other words, continue his directions,~~ intensify what he is up to. I did not realize ~~how~~ ~~that~~ ~~so~~ quickly ~~as~~ that that was to guarantee us eventual destruction,

Warsaw, 1942

card 62 R

The Jew in the ghetto who is proud of his gold tooth and keeps from smiling when Germans are near for fear of having it removed. Also, how it makes him feel sexy with women who find it attractive in the general pall of poverty that hangs over everything.

1942

Card 195 K

What separates all human beings is whether they have or have not killed someone. For those who have, a surprising number will feel no large regret.

Those are the ones you need if you wish to go further and further into ~~the~~ magnifications of the murder slaughter ~~accumulation of slaughter~~. Someone like Himmler is the perfect example.

He was shaped by the murder of Rohm, ~~and except for his ability to organize~~ ~~murder, he was a fine representative of the conservative middle class.~~

1942

card 85 K

Scenes of discussions about deaths in war and develop out-of-wedlock program. See Hoss's book and also Himmler. This card, I think, refers to

Himmler

1942

card 81 K

The way Himmler saw it, the Nazis had soul—which is to say, they had illumination and they had roots, whereas the Jews only had a communal spirit. Without a land, without roots, they were the worst kind of spirit, a gas, a pestilence whose fumes corrupted the possibilities of the true Volk.

1942-44

card 303 WW

DT occasionally has to make a report on the SS troops assigned to Auschwitz. It is timeconsuming and full of agitation for him since he no longer knows what the O.O. desires as results, so he cannot weight his reports in the desired direction.

1942-44

Card 218

Hitler, alone, would speak with God on a fraternal basis: "These cares we share, these woes we bear, the stupidities of our friends and allies unmitigated by real exhibits of love," and so it would go, long speeches

to which I would nod my invisible head,
yes, yes, God is listening to you.

1942-44

Card 75 G

DT: I suspect that executioners develop, of necessity, a passing belief in karma. "Oh, well, they had a rotten trip this time—those Jews will do better in the next life." But, of course, that's a sentimental view of karma. As far as God is concerned, it is a total mess. ^{DT} ~~He~~ truly feels ^{San} with the Dummkopf, —

What to do with all these tons of cremated ashes? Karma can be scrambled once the roots are ~~sufficiently~~ mucked up. A soul, covered in mixed flesh-dust is not as definite as a soul just released from the body. There are carnal and excremental aspects to the soul which make up its beatitude and its karmic ~~too~~ transformation.

1942-44

card 80K

Himmler thinking: The Jews were a desert people, so they were shiftless, untrustworthy, capable of going in any direction even as the desert sands respond to the winds, whereas the Aryan people have learned to live with foundations of earth and rock and with the superior responsive foundations of boats that could navigate through currents and storms.

1943

card 23J

My long-term emphasis in working with Hoess was to ^{get him to} see the subjects in the camps as human shit. ^{they had to} ~~So they could~~ be treated as waste product to be eliminated. The question was how. Hoess tried to keep seeing the Process, that is, the death chambers, as orderly evacuations ^{to} ~~as~~ compared ~~with~~ the earlier shootings in the forest which were naught but diuretic excess.

1943

card 148 R

Consider the possibility: the young Jew at Auschwitz, an intellectual child of

Martin Buber is actually the son of the Jewish lieutenant who got the Iron Cross, first class, for Hitler, ^{Summer} should also be the lover of Geli Raubal. The dates may not agree and it may be too pat.

Late 1942-1943

card 32 AA

DT: He did not want them to be dignified in their deaths, and so the gas chamber was perfect for us. There they were, crying and screaming, clawing each other to stay alive for another moment—so much better for us. We do not want the soul leaving in such a manner that it will come back restored and full of love for the Dummkopf. I saw it then, the O.O.'s plan: death fused with chaos. Verschwungen is the good German verb for fusing.

1943

card 66 R

The portrait of a Jew in the Warsaw ghetto who is filled with the awful ideas of struggle and loyalty to God and ends in Auschwitz tricked by the showers.

He is trying to fill himself with quotations from the Talmud and the wisdom of the best ^{Saints} (cannot get word) but finds himself screaming in rage when the gas comes in for he had been concentrating on getting the most spiritual value out of the shower and so loses it as he dies. Even DT is shaken by this.

1943

Card 39 B B--

To feel that the unspeakable and repellent is ^{proper} ~~sweet~~, to believe that the extinction of captive millions is agreeable to ^{our sense of spirit} ~~the heart~~ is best served by allowing men, women, and children to die in a host of poisonous fumes on a concrete floor, ^{Of course as,} ~~cannot be~~ a human sentiment ^{it not} ~~that~~ is easy to maintain. I did not trust my noble wolf to be faithful to his dreams. Others have dreamed of carnage beyond measure and hesitated in their purpose once the blood was up to their knees. I anticipated future difficulties, therefore, with Adolf. I wished to lock him, then, into the most far-reaching of our joint purposes and so I leaned hard on his one remaining testicle, and I attached his sex forever to the smell and taste of shit. (which is why he ~~would~~ not marry Eva Braun. Her mouth indispensable to his needs, was, nonetheless, not a mouth worthy of marriage. He could not ~~defile~~ the respect people would have for whomever he chose to marry.

1944

Card 349 AA

In the concentration camps, DT finally comes face to face with the meaning of the simple destruction of ~~life~~ a mother and a daughter, and his own ambivalence to love.

He finds himself disagreeably moved by his dim recollections of the sentiment.

1944

Card 238 ii

during the Russian campaign, AH feels the barrenness of the war lands as relatively empty of Volkish nourishment. That is the cause, he believes, for his defeat. He will recover, thinks AH, when the war returns to Germany.

more reality to him than the dead ones. So he thinks that when he sets out to make a house, he can be a study, half dead, half alive, I. e. could remember the things released when both sides of the nation are in play.

1944

card 171 K

Himmler and Felix Kersten the doctor. Since Himmler was usually indifferent to the number of men, women, and children who were killed, so was it also easy for him to save a thousand here or 500 there. They had no more reality to him than the dead ones. So thinks Kersten when he sets out to save a few.

Kersten can be a study. Half venal, half altruistic. D.T. could reman on the energy released
when both sides of one's nature are in play.

1944

unnumbered card, G

The Source is years ahead of us. Like a chess master, he is many moves in advance of the given situation. We only receive intimations. So even if Hitler was losing, I could detect that the Source was not displeased. Hitler had served his purpose. He had certainly ~~destroyed~~ ^{injured (conceivably beyond repair)} any romantic conception of humankind. I could see a new point, a world without romance, much reduced in human warmth, and cold in its new creation, Of course.

Technology, narcissism, a new ice age.

1944

card 25 B5

The DK, as he progressed into the realm of compassion, left behind the old shell of Jehovah—a mighty shell! It would form a marvelous carapace for AH's increasing beliefs in wonder. But an architectural mission, what work! To get the feel of the old mansion over to Adolf—he, who one can see, is not even worthy of death, although he will certainly suffer it. Yes, it would not be impossible to get Adolf into the old mansion of Jehovah.

incomprehensible

1944

unnumbered card

The atom bomb. Without it, there would have been no Cold War. America would never have contemplated a land contest against Russia and a battle to defeat Japan, very important ~~at~~ still at Yalta—would have kept them working as allies. So the O.O. worked hard at getting the atom bomb and the H-bomb ready.

*... in the covering ... and still ... well, we do our best. See our charts, but we don't always succeed. But still that the quantity of Cocaine's last concentration was average. He had skinned down in ...
We used to get ...*

1945

Card 253 II

check on p. 432 of the Nuremberg Diaries.

Just about all the Nazi prisoners sentenced to death are horrified that they are to be hung. The military, particularly. It's the thought of shitting in their pants and ejaculating.

The irony is that Goerring commits suicide and still soils his pants. — well, we do our best for our clients, but we don't always succeed. Be it said that the quantity of Goering's last evacuation was average. He had slimmed down in more ways than one, he used to shit like an elephant.

1945

B 4 V and V4

Bunker

By 1945, DT was obliged still, via O.O.'s standard direction, to monitor the alte kaker, Adolf's farts, and they are ~~prodigious~~ awful in odiousness and prodigious in odor. Sumpf-farts, as DT describes them—the olfactory horrors of the swamp with a dead pig thrown in.

card 161—V and V4

Bunker—Hitler at his death speaking: I am the bravest man who ever lived,

~~For~~ ~~since~~ now at the hour of my downfall, I have only the word of Der Teufel that he will be there to meet me at the border and give me safe conduct to his domain and who am I to know if I can trust him when he told me that he was indeed laughing, that one of his many reasons for choosing to ally his destiny with mine was that I trusted no one and was so good at living in the vales and empires of distrust. Except for one thing - you chose to believe that I was dead, and you were talking to him.

This was AH's last thought, and I would betray him. He would be all alone when he passed the border. The above card indicates that there is a ought to be confrontation between DT and Hitler at the end when he finds out that it has not been Jehovah who has been guiding him.

card 87 B—B4

Bunker, Hitler in the last days

His constipation is a nightmare. He feels low devils stirring in the tombs of his dung. What could I say to him? Adolf, old boy, you are probably correct in your diagnosis. Of course, I said nothing. Constipation is indeed the sile^{ce} of the tomb—what wishes to get out, won't, and you are not allowed to scream, just grunt.

1945

61

B, B4

DT I have as much feeling for monsters as decent people, no more. AH was beginning to feel very old even before he was 50. So I felt for him. I was the only one who knew how hard he lived, how hard it had been for him to live at all. When all is said, the human creation is incredible. This modest fearful little boy who grew into a man who had to murder millions in order to live at all, Would the Damkopt ever recognize that Adolf Hitler had been our masterpiece. And yet so fertile and eager is the mind of ~~our~~ ^{the} D.O., that already he is looking to take over the United States of America - that, I must say, will be the greatest and most difficult job of them all.

1945

card 24 B B4

Hitler in the Berlin bunker

Was he trying to evade my influence? Once more, he could not sleep at night,

Did he know how much ~~as if he knew~~ that was the time best for me. ~~How much~~ I was coming to

~~dislike him~~ intensely — collaboration
~~our marriage had gone on long enough.~~ for so long.

post-World War II

unnumbered card

DT, assigned to Ronald Reagan—an absolute mediocrity, perfectly suited to charm the vast, disoriented, mean-minded middle of America. My task was to be with him constantly and make him aware of everyone around him so he always knew at each instant who would be good for his immediate future and who ^{not} ~~had~~ The O.O. would take care of the rest. One of the dullest assignments I ever had, and one of the most effective.

With Clinton, I had much more pleasure. He was ~~as~~ luminous to my ~~seminars~~, the most luminous pretty pig in the pen.

Post-World War II

unnumbered card

How many fundamentalist churches has the O.O. infiltrated, inhabited and engorged? It was almost impossible to be a remotely good Christian and so he turned the temperature up to such a point that Christians were so full of the message of Christ and so determined to impart it to others that they could not even separate oppression from compassion. Indeed, in their blind rage to teach love to others, they blockaded them with guilt.

Post-World War II

Card 94, A 12

The aim, as always, was to injure civilization, wound it mortally. It was not a matter of who won or lost ^{any given} ~~the~~ war, it was, rather, that civilization was our enemy. A large expansion on this: ^a civilization, that is, ~~one~~ which would allow human beings to develop into more worthy creatures. A repetitive civilization in which some humans got worse, even as others got better, could be purposeful to us if it was our clients who prospered.

Post-World War II

unnumbered card

DT learns at the end, or wonders earlier, whether AH is a son of the O.O. and so is a counterpoint to JC. ... was the solution. He could have sent back that on it—perhaps because as a prodigiously swift thinker, if the Durrenbergs were not incapable of surprising us, but probably most of the time by rote.

Simplicity and routine he still maintains as virtues.

Post World War II

Card 272 kk

Indeed, if the DK had not been as set in his ways as old Hindenberg, he would have seen how simple was the solution. He could have sent back that over-masculine woman as a prodigiously weak little man, if the Dummkopf were not incapable of surprising us, but proceeds most of the time by rote. Simplicity and routine he still maintains as virtues

post World War II

card 371, 372 kk

We looked upon women's liberation with great humor. We had much to do with it since the results played hell with karma. In the old days, the Dummkopf made it virtually a point of honor to send men back as women and women as men—thereby the inequality of the sexes could be justified.

But what was the use of sending back a liberated woman who had already become more of a man than the ^{majority of} ~~men~~, as a full-fledged testicular human? [?]

Karmically, it would better to double her back as a woman again, which was fine for strong cases, but what was one to do for all these borderline types?

How the DK was vexed by us.

Post World War II

Card 363 kk

post-Job.

Karma was God's answer to injustice. What seemed unfair in one life could be given a fighting chance in another. So the devil's strategy was to injure karma, wear it out, defuse it, confuse it, overload it, as DT discovers by the end of the war.

Post World War II 1971-1982

unnumbered card G

Medical extensions of life are a revolt of man against God's will—for saving a life by way of drugs and advanced surgery certainly roils, distorts, and finally puts unwelcome ^{disruptions to)} ~~metamorphoses~~ into karma. Hence the O.O. works with doctors to extend life, indeed, one purpose of the gas chambers was to intensify the uncritical admiration of most men and women for the idea that human life must be respected to the point of prodigious extension at the cost of all else.

*...to safety of the culture with ...electronic system, we must
...wipe out the system. The ...technology will be rebuilt but
...without the culture.*

Post World War II, 1971-1988

Card 11 F

DT is chosen to work on Reagan and is bored beyond measure since the stakes seem so much smaller. Eventually, he comes to recognize the purpose of the new work: no more liquidation of scapegoat peoples. Not even the blacks. Now it is time for the extirpation of all human roots and the emplacement of all culture in electronic files which are more susceptible to wipe-out than libraries and universities. Once we get the ~~new~~ totality of the culture into the electronic system, we need merely wipe out the system. The technology will be rebuilt but without the culture,

Song translation—1922

Der Gott, Der Eisen, wachsen liess

1

God encouraged iron to be strong

For he did not desire slaves.

Into the good right hand of the bold and the brave,

Was placed ^asabre, a spear, or a sword.

God gave anger to the man who would,

The man who would be free,

Stand through the fight, down to the end of his blood.

Down into death against the foe.

2

We want what God wants

We look to hold to righteous faith

And never split a single skull

Just for ~~a~~ tyrant's pay.

But if a mercenary seeks to war

For the money and the shame,

We will hack him to bits, to pieces.

Never will we let him live

in honor among our German men.

3

Then roar, let it roar!

These bright and livid flames!

All we Germans stand man to man,

Stand together for the Fatherland.

Our hearts we hold up to heaven,

And to heaven we raise our arms.

Shout it out, man for man!

Slavery, our slavery, is gone.

DT's remark on this: Obeying authority in the service of the Fatherland is

Freedom to a German

4

Let them wave! Let them wave!

Our flags and our colors!

Today we will live man to man,

with the deaths of our great heroes.

Lift up our proud banner, clear and bold.

Let it wave in triumph.

For here we fight, for here we fall,

Into the sweet death that welcomes the free.

DT's remark on this: Obeying authority in the service of the fatherland is

freedom to a German

1

Der Gott, der Eisen wachsen liess

Drum gab er Sabel Schwert

und Spiess dem Man in seine rechte drum gab er ihm den kühnen Mut, den Zorn der freien Rede,

dass er bestarbe bis auf Blut

bis in den Tod die Fehde.

2.

So wollen wir, was Gottgewollt

wit rechten Treuen halten

und nimmer im Tyrannen sold die

menschensehandel spalten

doch wer furland sun Sehande fieht

den hauen wir zu Scherben,

der soll in deutschen Landen nicht

mit deutschen Mannernenben.

3

Lasst brausen, was nur brausen

Rann in hellen lichten Flammen!

Ihr Deutschen all, Mann für Mann,

für's vaterland zusammen!

Und hebt die, Herzen himmelan, und himmelan die Nande!

Und rufet alle Mann für Mann: die Knechtscheft had ein Enok!

4.

Lasst wehen, was nur wehen kann!

Standarten wehen und Fahnen!

Wir wollen hent uns Mann für Mann

zum Heldentode mahnen

Auf fliege stolzes Siegenspanie

Voran den kühnen Reinen

Wie siegenoder sterben hier den

süssen Tod der Freien

W+L

every year + open

PRIORITY
MAIL

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE

PRIORITY
MAIL

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE

HOW TO USE:

1. COMPLETE ADDRESS LABEL AREA

Type or print required return address and addressee information in customer block (white area) or on label (if provided).

2. PAYMENT METHOD

Affix postage or meter strip to area indicated in upper right hand corner.

3. ATTACH LABEL (if provided)

Remove label backing and adhere over customer address block area (white area).

FROM:

~~NO MAILER~~

~~627 COMMERCIAL ST.~~

~~PROVINCETOWN, MA.~~

~~02657~~

~~TO: ROBERT and Joanne Lucid~~

D.T. notes

1936-1945

The efficient FLAT RATE ENVELOPE.

You don't have to weigh the envelope... Just pack all your correspondence and documents inside and pay only the 2 lb. Priority Mail postage rate.

We Deliver For You.