indigent. It is as if Alois Jr. is one
of those tramps.
Also, it violates
the virtue of his own life in regard to work. He at the same time has sworn
not to enter the
churchyard.
But this is not the reason. He ~~is~~ ^{is} afraid of breaking down.

of Alois. I feel one and the same thing, but maybe it is better of thrusting away. At the feeling alone will she not go to her funeral also?

(37A) Alois, in turn is
wrecked by thinking of his wife. They are a polluted couple + the way Edmund may be better off dead.
Adolf has death
fears thinking of Gustav, Ida and Otto.

Alois to Adolf -
"You are now my hope."
Adolf realizes that
his father had begun
to see Edmund as the hope. He had always known that, and yet
had not. D.T. A perfect example of Alfred
and Anne

certain nights.
What will he do
if (via Grimmer tales)
if an arm rises out
of the grave? will
he run, will he look
to call to Edmund, or will he feel the limit
with his air gun?
