Acknowledgments

Estate and Retirement Planning Answer Book: Forms and Checklists is the product of the hard work and dedication of many people. Grateful acknowledgment is due the following professionals for their skill and assistance in the preparation of this book: Richard Kravitz, CPA, MBA and Dean Vogel, MBA for conceiving and developing the idea of the book; Susan Chazin and Kelliann Kavanagh for coordinating, organizing, and editing the structure and content of chapters; and Louis Rolla, JD and Paul Kopacki, for assistance in selecting contributors of forms and checklists.

Guidance and counsel were also received from my co-editor Sam Radin and the contributors of forms and checklists whose names are indicated in various portions of the book. They shared their knowledge and experience without limitation, and their advice and suggestions were extremely helpful in developing this new book.

Last but not least, special thanks go to my wife, May, for her advice, encouragement, patience, and understanding.

Donald R. Levy

I would like to thank my parents for instilling in me the importance of reading and the ideal of writing. They would have been pleased to see this volume.
