Beyond The Law

"A series of thrilling and funny confrontations with wife-murders, gamblers, perverts, prostitutes, pimps and innocents played by a rare assortment of professionals including Rip Torn and Jeremy Irons and amateurs like Gregory Peck, Jack Nicholson, Michael McClure, Edward Bonnell and Peter Russell..."

BEYOND THE LAW is just about everything that THE DETECTIVE wasn't.

"Hard, funny and smart"

"It has guts, humor, pathos, and talent"

—THE NEW YORK TIMES

Norman's Announcement...

by Norman Mailer

It was a surprise to me, I must admit, that the announcement of the marriage of my daughter, Norma, to the young man who had been her boyfriend for so long, should come at this time. I had expected it to come at a more convenient time, perhaps when she was in college, or when she was in the middle of a career. But now, at this time, when she is in the middle of a career, and when she is in the middle of a career, I must admit that I am surprised.

As a result, the National and local governments have been unable to meet the needs of the population. The government has been unable to provide the necessary services to the population, and the local governments have been unable to provide the necessary services to the population. The government has been unable to provide the necessary services to the population, and the local governments have been unable to provide the necessary services to the population.

There is a lot of talk in 1970, as long as the economy is doing all right, that we are not going to have a recession. But I think that we are going to have a recession, and I think that the shock of the recession will be felt in 1971. But I think that we are going to have a recession.

As the system, which the government of some 100 families located and explored again, became more used to work, they had
