

(BMH) Notes

1076

Preface to Source Notes

In addition to ~~my statements in~~ the Appreciations, I would like to reiterate my profound thanks to the Mailer Estate for permitting me to quote freely from Mailer's published and unpublished work, the latter housed in the Mailer Archive of the Harry Ransom Humanities Research Center at the University of Texas-Austin. Permission to quote from these materials, especially Mailer's letters, has allowed me to reveal his inner life as never before. Over the past seven years, the Mailer family and the staff of the Ransom Center have provided encouragement and cheerfully acceded to my every request for information or documents.

In the source notes that follow, I have cited carefully where I have obtained the quotations and facts used in the book. There are three exceptions, namely my interviews, conversations and email exchanges with the late Norman Mailer, his sister Barbara Mailer Wasserman, and Lawrence Schiller. Because of the number of conversations with these three key sources over many years in Mailer's case going back to the early 1970s I have not tried to date quotations from them unless their comments have been published. The dates of my conversations with the 80-odd other individuals I have interviewed are given in the source notes.

more than eighty

ms.p. 1076A
follows

to p 1076
BmSH
BmOT

~~1076A~~
1076A

AUTHOR'S INTERVIEWS

Anna Lou Humes Aldrich, 12-17-10; Peter Alson, 8-19-08, 4-23-12, ~~9-19-12~~; Fred Ambrose, 8-16-09; Nancy Ambrose, 8-16-09; Walter Anderson, 4-20-11; John Bailey, 4-15-12; Anne Barry, 5-4-11, 5-8-12, 11-23-12, 11-24-12; Adele Becker, 1-21-07, 4-8-09; Robert Begiebing, 3-3-12; Beverly Bentley, 5-26-11; Mashey Bernstein, 5-24-09; John Bowers, 3-23-10; Brock Brower, 12-30-10; Millicent Brower, 5-14-09; Tina Brown, 5-31-12; Philip Bufithis, 5-17-11; Christopher Busa, 3-14-09; Sal Cetrano, 10-?-12; Michael Chaiken, 4-19-11; Don DeLillo, 3-29-10; Laura Adams Dunham, 1-24-12, David Ebershoff, 3-26-10, Jason Epstein, 6-25-03, 11-6-08; Harry Evans, 5-31-12; Edwin Fancher, 10-18-10; Mia Feroletto, 8-?-12; Eileen Geist Finletter, 4-15-10; Ivan Fisher, 4-14-09; Eileen Fredrickson, 10-15-11, 12-12-11, 5-19-12; Aaron Goldman, fall, 2004; Doris Kearns Goodwin, 12-14-11; Richard Goodwin, 12-14-11; Thomas Heffernan, 5-24-10; Carol Holmes, 4-14-09, 11-29-11; Margo Howard, 5-24-10; Aurora Huston, 1-17-12, 2-10-12; William Kennedy, 8-4-11, 8-5-11; Mickey Knox, 9-15-08, 9-16-08, 9-17-08; Rudy Langlais, 3-1-12; Barry Leeds, 9-27-10; Peter Lennon, 3-14-11; Robert J. Lifton, 9-14-10; Tom Luddy, 3-?-12; Danielle Mailer, 8-20-08, 8-3-11, 10-19-11, 1-11-12, 4-17-12, 5-21-12, 4-17-13; Elizabeth (Betsy) Mailer, 11-29-11; Kate Mailer, 3-11-13; John Buffalo Mailer, 1-29-09, 10-16-10, 4-24-12; Maggie Mailer, 3-27-09; Mathew Mailer, 8-21-08, 12-28-11, 4-29-12, 9-5-12; Michael Mailer, 11-1-03, 8-21-08, 12-28-11; Norris Church Mailer, 5-13-08, 11-17-08, 4-15-09, 1-30-09, 3-28-10, 10-16-10; Stephen Mailer, 11-5-08, 11-20-11, 3-22-12; Susan Mailer, 9-5-07, 10-29-10, 5-13-11, 8-18-11, 11-03-11, 1-23-12, 4-18-13; William Majeski, 4-23-12, 6-4-12; Elisabeth Malaquais, 6-10-10; Clifford Maskovsky, 2-5-10; Peter McEachern, 8-22-12; Legs McNeil, to p 1076 B follows

1076 B

7-19-12; Jeffrey Michelson, 7-24-11, 12-31-11; Adele Morales, 4-?-12; Adeline Lubell
Naiman, 8-21-07; Mary Oliver, 9-20-11; Dotson Rader, 3-25-10, 3-8-12; Sam Radin, 5-23-
10; Jack Richardson, 4-6-11; Lee Roscoe, summer, 2010; Carol Schneider, 3-24-10; Jack Scovil, 3-24-10; Irwin Shaw, 6-?-83; Robert Silvers, 4-15-09; Barbara Probst Solomon, 5-13-09, 3-26-10, 4-23-10; Richard G. Stern, 12-14-10; Carol Stevens, 3-28-09, 5-15-11, 6-13-11, 6-18-11, 9-21-11, 4-12-12; Richard Stratton, 4-15-09; Gay Talese, 1-23-11; Nan A. Talese, 10-19-10; Bonnie Timmerman, 5-28-12; James Toback, 8-14-10; John "Ike" Williams, 10-23-11; Erin Cressida Wilson, 11-15-11, 5-15-12, 4-21-13; Lois Mayfield Wilson, 11-15-11;
Veronica Windholz, 3-25-10; Rhoda Wolf, 1-30-09, 5-11-12; Naomi Zack, 1-2-12, 1-3-12.

~~Back to top~~

ms. p. 1076C
follows

~~5~~ 1079

MK	Mickey Knox
NCM	Norris Church Mailer
NM	Norman Mailer

(

Comp: each cite/trailing phrase starts on its own line & sets lt. face italic

1080

Notes, Prologue

BMTA Notes

BMSH Prologue:

The Riptides of Fame

June 1948

BMTA PAGE 3 NM's letters are located at the HRC

EN 3 "Pourquoi Paris: Stanley Karnow: Paris in the Fifties (NY: Times Books, 1997), 3.

Light face italic throughout drove to Italy in a small Peugeot: Unless otherwise noted, descriptions of the trip are from BW's letter to Robert F. Lucid, 1-12-98.

lt. face italic

5 The Little Foxes: Hellman's play premiered at the National Theatre in New York on 2-15-39 and ran for 410 performances.

lt. face italic

5 a lot of respect: NM to William Raney, 6-7-48.

lt. face italic

5 batches of reviews: NM to Jenny Silverman (mother-in-law), 5-12-48. He said he'd received more mail that week "than ever in my life."

5 The thing I've got to get down: NM, "Journal May 27 [1948]" (HRC).

7 It was a great shock: Unpublished interview with JML, 12-5-06.

7 New York editor: Robert N. Linscott, Random House.

7 "It was the luckiest timing: Bob Minzesheimer, "To Mailer, A Good Soldier Puts Words on Paper," USA Today, 4-10-03, 7D.

7 "caught in a riptide: Margo Hammond, "Norman Mailer on the Media and the Message," Book Babes, The Poynter Institute, 2-6-04, www.poynter.org.

8 "I used to feel that I didn't: Michael Lee, "A Conversation with Norman Mailer," Cape Cod Voice, 8-2-01, ~~11-13-53-54~~ 12.

Handwritten note in a box: "He's on 7 quote on p 8" with an arrow pointing to the citation above.

8 "an acquired appetite: Alastair McKay, "Still Stormin'," Scotsman, 7-22-00, S2.

8 "was the last time Norman: James Atlas, "Life with Mailer," NYTM, 9-9-79, 88.

8 "felt kind of blue: Louise Levitas, "The Naked are Fanatics and the Dead Don't Care," New York Star, 8-22-48; rpt., CNM, 6.

8 1088

BUSH Notes, ^{One} Chapter 1

Long Branch and Brooklyn

BMAHN

In addition to the sources identified below, the following were drawn on: Fan Mailer's "Fan's Memoir"; BW's "In Search of Mother's Age"; Adele Becker's "The Schneider Family"; JML's "Mailer Log," a record of the last 30 months of NM's life; Robert F. Lucid's 1989; JML's unpublished interviews with NM and BW. NM's letters are located at the HRCG interview with NM

BMA PAGE

EN 3 The Mailers and Schneiders: NM believed his last name had been anglicized. In "The Book of the First-Born," an unpublished autobiographical novel fragment (HRC), he gives his grandfather Mailer the name Ivan Mirilovicz.

NAD

three towns: Libau and Daugavpils in Latvia are also possible cities of origin.

placed madness next to practicality: PP, 190-91. NM's column in Commentary, titled "Responses and Reactions," was devoted mainly to elucidations of Martin Buber's Tales of the Hasidim, published in two volumes, The Early Masters; The Later Masters (Ten Rungs: Hasidic Sayings) (NY: Schocken, 1947-48]; rpt., foreword by Chaim Potok, Schocken, 1991. They appeared bi-monthly from December 1962 to October 1963, and were collected, in part, in PP and CAC.

Commentary columns

Inside there is a narrow marble counter: NAD, 481.

- 13 "his maternal grandfather: Brock Brower, "Norman," Other Loyalties: A Politics of Personality (NY: Atheneum, 1968), 132. Charles "Cy" Rembar, Beck's son, preceded NM at Harvard and Bertram, Joe's son, followed him. 13 "that's where all the brains all the brains and talent: MLT, 13.

~~Long Branch's chief industry: tourism: Entertaining a Nation: The Career of Long Branch (Works Project Administration, State of New Jersey, 1940).~~

Cut

- 17 "dapper," "fussy and punctilious: Robert Begiebing, "Twelfth Round: An Interview with Norman Mailer," Harvard Magazine 85 (1983), rpt., CNM, 316; elegant impoverished figure: "Mailer Goes Egyptian," Marie Brenner, New York, 3-28-83, 36; was very English: Begiebing, 316-17.

Twelfth Round "Harvard Magazine"

- 18 "I.B. from Brooklyn: Jimmy Breslin's friend, Fat Thomas, was I.B. Mailer's bookie. Jimmy Breslin, I Want to Thank My Brain for Remembering Me (Boston: Little, Brown, 1996), 31.

- 18 born in this country: Barney also lied about his country of birth, claiming on his U.S. visa application in 1919 that he was born in South Africa (HRC). NM thought this was the case until the early 1960s.

- 20 "As time goes by: NM to IBM, 5-21-44. All of NM's correspondence is at the HRC.

now in her books

- 20 "My mother" motor-in the family: Carole Mallory, "Norman Mailer," Elle, January 1986, 38.

- 22 "very, very upset: Toby Thompson, "Mailer's Alpha and Omega," Vanity Fair, October 1991, 158.

Cut

23 Barbara quickly recognized: Adele Becker notes this in her memoir and BW confirmed it.

23 she was observant: Bill Broadway, "Norman Mailer: New Advertisements for Himself," New Millennium Writings, 3 (spring/summer 1998), 18. 10/10/98

24 "The Adventures of Bob and Paul": HRC.

24 "Boxing Lessons": HRC.

24 "The Martian Invasion": HRC; the first chapter appeared in First Words: Earliest Writing from Favorite Contemporary Authors, ed. Paul Mandelbaum (Chapel Hill, NC: Algonquin Books, 1993).

24 This novel filled: Steven Marcus, "Norman Mailer: An Interview," Paris Review (winter/spring, 1964), rpt., CNM, 78.

25 On his application to Harvard: HRC.

25 a quiet section: Levitas, CNM, 9.

25 [i]n those days: Begiebing, CNM 308. Robert

26 had to make certain basic distinctions: Christopher Hitchens, "Interview with Norman Mailer," New Left Review (March/April 1997), 117. Twelfth Round, Harvard Magazine

26 I was a physical coward: AFM, 22.

26 never got into fistfights: Transcript of "The Phil Donahue Show," WGN-TV Chicago, 11-21-79.

11 1065

EN 000 tab

26 " He seemed to be on a shorter leash: MLT, 27, was very proper: 29.

27 " an ego that was lopsided: Ramona Koval, "Norman Mailer Interview," 9-1-00, www.abc.net.au/arts/new/arts_01092000.htm.

30 " We also had a sense: Eugene Kennedy, "The Essential Mailer," Chicago Tribune Magazine, 9-9-84, rpt., CNM, 333.

30 " Very intense — the most fabulous kid . . . I'd been frightened: Toby Thompson, 156-58.

31 felt he knew Bogart: "I always felt that Humphrey Bogart was an uncle of mine, and I never met him. But he had the same intensity in my psychic life as a strong uncle I once had."

"Mailer's America" (French Documentary, 1998) transcript, 11B, 2/6. Section 11, 2.

31 " I worshipped him: Introduction to The End of Obscenity: The Trials of Lady Chatterly, Tropic of Cancer and Fanny Hill by Charles Rembar (NY: Bantam, 1969), vi.

32 " He loved to teach: BW, "Growing Up with Norman," MR 1 (2007), 176.

32 the candy store: MLT, 30.

32 bar mitzvah speech: HRC.

32 "the rabbi looked very pale: Brenner, 37.

33 " MAYOFIS JEW: According to Author-Yiddist, Michael Wex, author of Born to Kvetch (NY: St. Martin's 2005), a Mayofis Jew is "the Jewish counterpart of an Uncle Tom: servile, dancing for the goyim and saying 'yassuh.'"

ms. p. 1065A

follows

EN

lab lab

"Mailew's Alpha and Omega"

154

30 "Very intense": Toby Thompson

30 "The most fabulous kid": IBTdy

30 "I'd been frightened": IBTdy, 156

33 "Hitler has been in my mind: JML, "The Castle in the Forest: A Conversation with Norman Mailer," MR (2008), 424; ³⁴ I felt straddled: Begiebing, CNM, 309.

34 "When launched: Edward Pell, "His Childhood Was a Happy Time," Daily Register (Red Bank, NJ) 12-12-66, 1.

35 "too many crystals: Lee, "A Conversation with Norman Mailer," In 1992 NM said, "I've never written about Brooklyn in any real way. There's a lot of things I haven't written about. I think they're probably crystals." Gregory Feeley, "Waiting for Mailer's a Big One," Million: The Magazine about Popular Fiction, January/February, 1992, 13.

35 Crystals, as he explained: NM discussed memory crystals with Christopher Busa, "An Interview with Norman Mailer," Provincetown Arts (1999), 27.

35 "I don't feel joy: Anthony Haden-Guest, "The Life of Norman," Harpers & Queen, October 1997, 192.

35 student at Boys High: NM's high school records are at the HRC.

36 vaulting over the horse: MBM, 49.

36 "In Brooklyn I was always: Begiebing, CNM.

37 "I couldn't keep beat": ^{311.} MLT, 28.

36 One scheme dreamed up: MLT, 28.

37 "I ^{could} keep beat": ~~MLT, 28~~ I like quoted in ~~MLT~~

what 309
#1 MLT
28
year

page #1

37 "High school's that place: Lawrence Grobel, "Norman Mailer: Stupidity Brings Out Violence in Me," Endangered Species: Writers Talk about Their Craft, Their Visions, Their Lives (Cambridge, MA: Da Capo Press, 2001), 294.

37 "quiet, studious and inconsequential: "Vital Statistics," Parade, 12-16-84, 7.

37 "when I said I might go to Harvard: Koval, "Norman Mailer Interview" "Ramona"

Two
Notes, Chapter 2

Harvard

In addition to the sources identified below, the following were drawn on: JML's "Mailer Log"; NM's untitled, hand-written, 49-page journal, kept at Harvard from December 13, 1941 to May of 1942 (hereafter HJ); NM's pocket notebook, begun circa February 1941 (hereafter HN);

JML's unpublished interviews with NM and BW. HN, HJ and all of NM's Harvard papers are located in the HRC ^{as are his letters}

BNA
EN PAGE
38

" white men, grey men: Theodore H. White, "Harvard Lies at the End of the Subway," The Harvard Book: Selections from Three Centuries, ed. William Bentinck-Smith (Harvard University Press, 1982), 293. The class structure White described persisted after he graduated. A ^{Cambridge!} Life (5-5-41) article on Harvard, "Harvard: America's Great University Now Leads World," describes commuter students as "the lowest undergraduate social stratum, once derided as 'untouchables' and long neglected by the administration."

fixed quoted
intert

39 " had solved more delicate social situations: Begiebing, CNM, 310; four out of five of his friends: NM's comments on his social circle and his new clothes are from Begiebing, CNM, 310-11; a young man going: NM to Lobos Jurik, 2-3-89.

40 " Unformed is the word: HJ; a smiler: MLT, 40; We know that one of them was a George Petty: NM to FM, IBM, 10-8-39, 10-25-39.

40 When the band had appeared: Millicent Brower interview, 5-14-09.

41 English A: See NM's preface to Hallie and Whit Burnett's Fiction Writer's Handbook (NY: Barnes & Noble, 1975); about the dullest: NM to FM, IBM, 10-25-39; Before I was seventeen: AFM, 27

42 " the monotony and the boredom: "Interview: Norman Mailer," 7-12-04, Academy of Achievement, www.achievement.org/autodoc/page/mai0int-1; Suddenly, he said, I realized:

Steven Marcus, CNM, 79.

"you could write"

42 " the bitterest blow: Begiebing, CNM, 314; home for the Christmas holiday: HN; I threw down my pen: Koval. ⁴² ⁴³ ^{Norman Mailer Interview} 43 " I can't write humorously: NM to FM, IBM 2-18-40.

43 he accepted an invitation: NM to FM, IBM, 2-28-40; an anecdote from his friend Larry Weiss: MBM, 47.

45 " There's no use in making it: NM to FM, IBM, 2-28-40; A week later he wrote home: NM to FM, IBM 3-7-40.

45 For the last paper of the year: Frederick Christian, "The Talent and the Torment," Cosmopolitan, August 1963, 66. See also Weinberg's version, MBM, 45.

46 " as a finality: The 1943 Harvard Album, 12-13; We are frankly determined: Richard Norton Smith, The Harvard Century: The Making of a University to a Nation (NY: Simon and Schuster, 1986), 138-139; ⁴⁶ ⁴⁷ ^{the force of violence} We were going through the barbed-wire: AFM, 391.

46 Swing bands were the rage: Norton Smith, 138; A member of the class of 1942: John T.

Bethell, Harvard Observed: An Illustrated History of the University in the Twentieth Century

⁴⁷ ^{Cambridge:} (Harvard University Press, 1998), 130; In a May 1940 poll: Conducted by the Christian Science Monitor, Norton Smith, 141. ⁴⁷ ^{Richard} ^{The Harvard Century}

47 A good part of student reluctance: Norton Smith, 138-39; The leader of Harvard's non-interventionists: Kathleen Schaeper, Rhodes Scholars, Oxford, and the Creation of an American Elite, rev. ed. (NY: Berghahn Books, 2007), 126; Mailer heard him lecture: Begiebing, CNM, 313: Arthur Schlesinger, Jr.: Our Harvard: Reflections on College Life by Twenty-two Distinguished Graduates, ed. Jeffrey L. Lant (Taplinger Publishing, 1982), 112: He even wrote an essay: The 1943 Harvard Album, 30-37.

47 "crap"
Mailer, he said, called: MBM, 42.

48 During his sophomore year: NM to Jeffrey Meyers, 1-17-85; Victorian ark: Henrik Ibsen made a similar comment, not located.

53 An active Communist: Davis's obituary, NYT, 7-17-98.

~~53 Mailer said later that he described: MLT, 47-1, 48~~

53 "I can't tell you how my back: SA, 11-12.

54 "when his eyes looked at you": MLT, 55

54 "made the biggest dent: HJ; Sy Breslow said that Mailer: MBM, 48; Along the way with his friend: MBM, 49-50; I weighed 135 pounds: NM to Edward McAlice, 3-7-95.

54 As he wrote later, he had accepted: NM to Jeffrey Meyers, 1-17-85; Harold Marantz: HJ.

55 Portrait of Jennie: (NY: Knopf, 1940); it was made into a 1948 film by David O. Selznick.

55 and he was awarded a $150: NM was notified that he would receive a Lillie A. Ridgway scholarship in a 12-18-40 letter from the Harvard Committee on Scholarships (HRC).

56 The Advocate informed Mailer: NM to FM, IBM, 3-2-41; I simply can't stand: NM to FM, IBM, 3-9-41; they're a bunch of snobs: NM to FM, IBM, 3-16-41; supernova of eccentricity: Andrew McLaren, "Bowden Broadwater, 1920-2005," St. Bernard's Newsletter (summer 2006), 1. NM said, "Bowden had more style than anyone I'd ever met. He dominated the Advocate, his personality[...]. I remember when I read Brideshead Revisited, I kept clucking as I read it. It wasn't that Bowden looked in any way like Sebastian Flyte or that we were close friends. On the contrary, we were on opposite sides. There were two factions." Begiebing, CNM, 313. ⁵⁷ A week later Mailer was invited: Undated invitation from Advocate secretary, Holmes H. Welch, mid-March 1941 (HRC).

⁵⁷ Goethals as Martha: MLT, 52; ⁵⁷ only a playbill survives: HRC.

⁵⁸ "It's all happening too easy: NM to FM, IBM, 4-13-41; ⁵⁸ Mailer's first review: Harvard Crimson, 4-21-41, 2.

⁵⁸ "Please tell your friend: NM to Millicent Brower, 5-11-41; ⁵⁸ major story on Harvard in Life: "Harvard: America's Great University"; ⁵⁸ The nice Jewish boy: AON, 152.

⁵⁹ On May, he: John Holabird to NM, 5-7-41; ⁵⁹ sketch parodying Hemingway: HRC; ⁵⁹ recent Life article: "The Hemingways in Sun Valley: The Novelist Takes a Wife," Life, 1-6-41, 49-57; ⁵⁹ He always had great admiration: See PP, 149-50; SA, 167, 260-64.

⁵⁹ That night he met Roy E. Larsen: NM to FM, IBM, 5-14-41. Given the fact that NM feuded with Henry Luce's Time magazine for decades, it is no small irony that Larsen, one of the magazine's ⁷ co-founders, helped launch his career. Larsen was impressed by NAD, but after that said he gave up reading NM's works altogether (Christian, 64); ⁵⁹ "No Percentage": The manuscript, now at the HRC, had two earlier titles, "All the Laughing Boys and Girls" and "Whistle Stop." The chosen title is a reference to a conversation in the novel about the folly of cheating in a game of solitaire.

Frederick Christian "The Talent and the Torment," Cosmopolitan

yes?

cat

60 First, Professor Davis wrote to him: Fan pasted all of these communications into her scrapbook (HRC); ⁶⁰It was followed a few days later: Crockett wrote: "Norman, the enclosed letter arrived at the Advocate house yesterday along with one to Marvin. It seems like a good market for your novel. Have a good summer. So long, Jack Crockett"; ⁶⁰Possibly nothing has happened: AFM, 70. ⁶⁰Probably

61 Before he arrived, he had written 45,000 words: NM to FM, IBM, 5-17-41; ⁶¹How is the writing coming: FM to NM, 6-25-41; ⁶¹But this comes at the end: NM to FM, late July 1941.

62 much like Barney Kelly: Her father, Sherman: Like Sherman Wexler, Kelly lives in a penthouse, has a spoiled daughter and is powerful and corrupt. Unlike Wexler, he wants to murder his son-in-law, and almost does.

63 Going on the road: MLT, 55-56; MBM, 54; ⁶³He said the idea came from Dos Passos: HJ; ⁶⁴He told his friends: MBM, 54.

65 The completed novel went off to Amussen: NM to FM, IBM, late September, 1941; Amussen wrote to NM, 9-26-09, to say he had read the last two parts of the novel with "keen interest"; ⁶⁵He wrote home that he hated: NM to FM, IBM, 10-?-41.

65 Amussen arranged to meet Mailer: Amussen to NM, 9-26-09; ⁶⁷Anne and Dave Kessler, whose support: NM said that Dave Kessler and his mother disagreed on who really paid for his Harvard education. "For him it was the money he did not take out of the Sunlight Oil Company and for her it was the hours she put in and the work that made it successful and profitable in a way that someone he hired would not make it profitable"; ⁶⁷They were followed by a letter from ⁶⁷ Burnett: Whit Burnett to NM, 10-21-41; ⁶⁷ shows brilliance: Amussen to NM, late November 1941; ⁶⁷ the writing and psychology: Burnett to NM, 1-28-42.

The Harvard Century

⁶⁷ President Conant called a mass meeting: ^{Richard} Norton Smith, 150-51; ⁶⁷ The campus was transformed: A majority of the class of 1944 graduated with NM in June 1943; his yearbook contains the photographs and activities of both classes; ⁶⁷ would feed the novel: MBM, 60; ⁶⁷ I may as well confess: AFM, 28.

⁶⁸ didn't know his ass: MBM, 66.

⁶⁹ In a psychological profile of her: "Cova, and her Case," submitted to Dr. Henry A. Murray's psychology class, 12-14-42 (HRC). Cova was NM's pseudonym for Silverman. He used the name again for a character in "A Calculus to Heaven."

⁷⁰ Barton invited Mailer: HJ; ⁷⁰ listener or monotone: As described in "Music Teachers I Have Known and Loved," submitted in English A-3; ⁷⁰ "The Bodily Function Blues": Complete lyrics published in MR (2008), 221-23.

⁷¹ triangle of influence: Academy of Achievement interview.

"Interview: Norman Mailer,"

⁷¹ Modern American Literature: Begiebing, CNM, 315.

⁷¹ Proust, Mann and Joyce: MLT, 50; ⁷¹ 18th century British: MLT, 61; ⁷¹ Milton: See HG, passim;

⁷¹ especially the French: NM to Pierre Brodin, 10-16-63: "[T]he French novel has always been more congenial to me than the English"; rpt., Présences: Contemporaines Écrivains Américains

72 11 D'Aujourd (Nouvelles Editions Debrese, 1964), 205; I'd like to be another Malraux: AFM, 29.

72 11 "Frederick" "The Talent and the Torment," Cosmopolitan, struck at once: Christian, 66. Morrison added that he wasn't in complete sympathy "with all the uses to which he put his talent"; Pete Barton, Maller wrote: NM to FM, IBM, 2-12-42; 72 11 "haunted degeneracy: Bernard James McMahon, Jr., "On the Shelf: the Harvard Advocate, May 1942," Harvard Crimson, 5-25-42; "Maybe Next Year": AFM, 84.

72 corresponding with Whit Burnett: NM to Burnett, 2-11-42, 3-15-42; Burnett to NM, 2-18-42, 4-6-42.

73 time to drop condoms: Howard M. Spiro, "The Optimist: Saintliness and Sanity," Science & Medicine, September/October, 1998, 2; incredibly self-disciplined: MBM, 58.

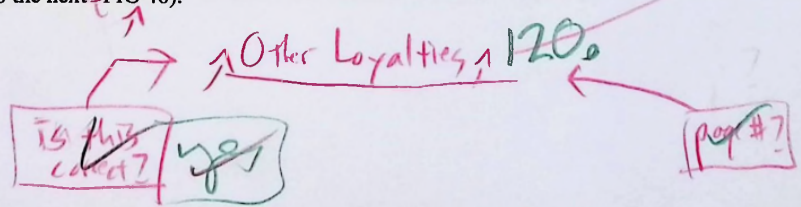

73 11 had suspended himself: "Our Man at Harvard," PAP, 1-5. On the table of contents page of a copy of the anniversary issue, NM wrote: "Being a little memorabilia compounded of the vices and pederasties of one T. John Crockett (stolen from the Advocate Sanctum in October, 1942)."

73 11 "smart-alecky": MBM, 62.

74 The New Yorker was turned down: NM to FM, IBM, 4-12-42; MGM competition: Kenneth MacKenna to NM, 6-18-42.

75 nursed the Chevy: NM to FM, IBM, 5-3-42; Boston State Hospital: NM to FM, IBM, 6-5-42;

75 assigned to the violent ward: Brock Brower; very hard, very horrible: NM to FM, IBM, 6-21-42. In 1975, NM remembered the catatonics he worked with and how they "would not make a gesture from one meal to the next" (FIG 46).

75 "The Darndest Thing": Not located; ⁷⁵soda fountain job: NM to FM, IBM, 6-23-42.

⁷⁶ "the work is consensual":
76 started work as a press agent: NM to FM, IBM, 7-29-42; cast of Othello: Dramatic Society invitation to NM, 8-8-42.

77 liked Bea very much: NM to FM, 8-31-42; ⁷⁷Fear, for Norman: Robert F. Lucid, "Boston State Hospital: The Summer of 1942," MR (2007), 32; ⁷⁷fear ladder: NAD, 176.

77 It took him ⁷⁸15 days: The dates of composition, August 31-September 14, 1942, are given on the last page of the 113-page manuscript, which NM typed (HRC); ⁷⁸he submitted the play: NM to FM, IBM, 9-29-42.

78 suite with Harold Katz: NM to FM, IBM, 9-25-42; ⁷⁸Harvard draft advisor: NM to FM, IBM, 9-28-42, 9-29-42.

81 "Man Chasm," was a dark horse: ⁸¹*Crimson*, 2-25-43; ⁸¹All that men: Man's Fate; (NY: Modern Library, 1961), 190.

81 Southern Mortuary: To view the corpses at the Southern Mortuary ⁸¹Morgue on Albany Street, NM and ⁸¹Silverman had to walk down a set of stairs guarded by a pair of sphinxes, a descent ⁸¹that which offers the possibility that the seed of AE was sown that day. Andrew Ryan, "Old Morgue Finds New Life as Clinic for Homeless," www.boston.com/new/local/articles/2008/05/31/08/old_morgue_finds_new_life_as_clinic_for_homeless; ⁸¹safe in Dunster: NM to FM, IBM, 11-29-42; ⁸¹He remembered the burnt body: AFM, 83 " ^{sometimes you want} Yes, the Indian-answered: AFM, 70.

22 1096

84 ^A ^{at Heaven} "Calculus" was the best: Amussen to NM, 3-23-42; Mailer reported to Millie: NM to Millicent Brower, 4-10-43.

84 " You say, Mother: NM to FM, IBM, 4-10-43.

85 ^{up} Uncle Dave came to NM to FM, IBM, 4-18-43; ^{85 "} Lord knows you've waited: NM to FM, IBM, 4-25-43; ^{45 a} new work, another novel: NM to FM, IBM, 4-18-43.

85 ^{masked} " but what importance do my masks: undated postcard to NM, IBM, late April 1943; ⁸⁵ Cape Cod, Provincetown: According to NM, he had never heard of Provincetown until Bea told him it was an interesting place.

86 ^{Churchill} Winston Churchill: Finally received his honorary L.L.D. at a special convocation 9-6-43, after which he gave a radio address where he praised those opposing Nazism, "a generation that terror could not conquer and brutal violence could not enslave" (Bethel, 154-56). ^{John} ^{Harvard observed}

^{Three} Notes, Chapter 3

The Army

^{the} In addition to sources identified below, the following were drawn on: NM's Harvard Journal (HJ); JML's "Mailer Log"; JML's unpublished interviews with NM and BW.

at HRC

NM's letters are located at the HRC

BMA PAGE
EN 86

uneearthly beauty: Tim McCarthy, "Norman Mailer Gets Moral," Life in Provincetown, 8-14-03, 10; the feel of 1790: Joseph P. Kahn, "Our Town," Boston Globe Magazine, 6-22-03, 19; inn on Standish Street: Provincetown Arts (1999), 24. NM told Busa that he came by train with Bea in July of 1942 and stayed three days but, in fact, they arrived by ferry from Boston on 6-9-43 and stayed for a week. He sent postcards to his parents describing Provincetown, but not mentioning Bea, on June 9 and 11, 1943. Busa's interview contains NM's longest and richest evocation of Provincetown outside of his fictional depictions.

87 he told George Goethals: Raymond Karl Suess, II, "Tom Sawyer, Horatio Alger, Sammy Glick: A Biography of Young Mailer," St. Louis University dissertation, 1973, 83; request that Stanley Rinehart: Amussen to NM, 7-9-43; I was a little frightened: Introduction to A Transit to Narcissus: A Facsimile of the Original Typescript (NY: Howard Fertig, 1978), viii; I was as lonely: FN, viii.

87

Edwin Seaver wrote: Seaver to NM, 8-27-43. Seaver's comments on NM's "remarkable performance for one so young" can be found in his memoir, So Far, So Good, Recollections of a Life in Publishing (Westport, CT: Lawrence Hill, 1986), 146; Cross-Section: Ed., Edwin Seaver (NY: L.B. Fischer, 1944).

89 lawyer named Riorden: Perhaps the most intriguing character in the novel, Riorden has the polished manners and Jesuitical subtlety later seen in Gen. Cummings in NAD and Barney Kelly in AAD.

90

ponderosities: introduction, FN, ix; ski trip: NM to FM, IBM, 12-20-43; Yeah, and suddenly I felt: Bea's version is that NM "needed an anchor on the home front" (MBM, 75).

90 Berta Kaslow: Kaslow to NM, 12-14-43; occasions [in] me a great deal: NM to Seaver, 1-11-44; Mailer responded: NM to Martha Keller, Chief Clerk, Local Board 317, Brooklyn, 1-19-44.

91 " " " " 91 " " " " Fanny, she said, just didn't want: MBM, 75; [N]either Barbara nor I: NM to FM, 10-29-44.

92 I.O. test: NM to FM, IBM, 4-1-44; potentially very important writer: Kaslow to NM, 4-4-44;

92 salute before they had sex: MBM, 75.

92 burned out: Marcus, CNM, 97; THE war novel: Levitas, CNM, 3; instead of keeping a journal: NM to FM, IBM, 4-12-44.

93 lexicon of military slang: NM to FM, IBM, 4-30-44; Mailer never felt more: AON, 58-59.

93 " He wasn't that good: MLT, 76; Details of NM's basic training are drawn from MLT, 74-78, and JML interview with Clifford Maskovsky, 2-5-10; 93 " When it came to taking care: AFM, 91; 94 New York Times Book Review: Marjorie Farber reviewed "Calculus" in the NYT, 5-28-44; Thomas Lyle Collins reviewed it for the Herald Tribune on the same day. Anticipating the consistently sharp division of opinion on all but a few of NM's books, the reviewers disagreed: Farber said "the writer's imagination [. . .] fails him," while Collins says the novella is "a remarkable achievement for so young a writer"; 94 " with my lip buttoned: AFM, 91.

94 first extended piece: NM to Bea, 5-26-44; 94 tableaux of sodden GIs: NAD, 93-104; 94 patch of observation: NM to Bea, 6-6-44; one of the best novelists: NM to FM, BW, 7-9-44; Bell for Adano to be a stinker: NM to Bea, 6-6-44; 94 a twenty volume Transit: NM to Bea, 4-15-45.

94.95 He scheduled the reunion: NM to Bea, 7-13-44.

95 " my first action was of disappointment: NM to Bea, 6-8-44; ~~The Young Lions~~: (NY: Random House, 1948); a feeling for the culture: AFM, 28; ~~The Young Lions~~: (NY: Random House, 1948); NM later admitted that "the European war would have been too much for me. I realized that when I read The Young Lions and saw how much more Shaw knew about Europe than I did." Interview with Eric James Schroeder, Vietnam, We've All Been There, ed. Schroeder (Westport, CT: Praeger, 1992), 91; ~~considerable merits~~: AFM, 28; ~~Shaw landed at Normandy~~: JML interview with Irwin Shaw, June 1983.

96 " I can understand that: NM to Bea, 8-22-44; ~~Mailer is often described~~: The most solemn asseveration of NM as urban writer is Martin Green's essay, "Norman Mailer and the City of New York: Faustian Radicalism," a chapter in his Cities of Light and Sons of the Morning (Boston: Little, Brown, 1972), 58-89. It contains a double-page photo of NM leaning on an uncertain rest superimposed over the New York skyline.

96 " The most dramatic moments: Diana Trilling, "The Moral Radicalism of Norman Mailer," Claremont Essays (NY: Harcourt, Brace & World, 1964), 175-202; ~~sad deep sweet beautiful~~: WVN, 205.

97 He told his ever-anxious mother: NM to FM, IBM, 9-10-44; ~~The Fuhrer~~: NM lists Heider's study in the bibliography of CIF; ~~reading Oswald Spengler's~~: NM to BW, 10-24-44.

97 " mind is peculiarly violable: "Moral Radicalism"; Trilling was the first critic to point to D.H. Lawrence as NM's "predecessor in the line of literary minds dedicated to the renovation of society by means of a revolution in the individual consciousness" (179); ~~past as an organism~~: The Decline and Fall of the West, Vol. I, Form and Actuality (NY: Knopf, 1926), 45. Writing in 1975, NM wrote that he was "overpowered" in his youth by Spengler's idea that "history is an organism, and reveals a sense of style, a divine stroke of the pen to every era" (FIG, 221); a ridge or peak as symbol: NM to Bea, 10-5-44;

cast his first vote: NM to FM, 11-4-44.

Without you, he wrote: NM to Bea, late December 1944; 112th Cavalry: The unit's history is drawn largely from We Ain't No Heroes: The 112th Cavalry in World War II, ed. Glenn T. Johnston and compiled by Heather Dalton, Craig Johnston, Glenn Johnston, Alex McQuade, Alayna Payne, Chelsea Payne and Elisabeth Schmiedel (Denton: University of North Texas, 2005). NM was one of several veterans of the unit interviewed for the project. The other major source is The War in the Pacific: Triumph in the Philippines by Robert Ross-Smith (Washington, D.C.: Center of Military History, U.S. Army, 1993).

the aristocracy of the outfit: William McDonald, "An Evening with Norman Mailer," Lone Star Review (Dallas Times Herald), 4-?-81, 1, 3.

a Texas regiment: We Ain't No Heroes, 4; So, the infantry replacements: We Ain't No Heroes, 254.

he had a typing assignment: NM to Bea, 4-25-45. His other option was to become part of a reconnaissance platoon attached to Headquarters Company, which is where he ended up three months later. Julian W. Cunningham: NM to Bea, 2-14-45. NM used Cunningham, in part, as a model for Gen. Cummings in NAD. Both were strong disciplinarians and zealous about improving bivouac areas. See We Ain't No Heroes, 233, and NAD, 106.

101 interpreting aerial photographs: NM to Bea, 3-11-45. NM was also hospitalized with yellow jaundice for several days while assigned to Headquarters. NM to Bea, 2-16-45; galling at times: NM to Bea, 3-18-45. NM repeated this sentiment in a 3-29-45 letter to Bea, saying, "when I'm not with you [...] I often wonder if I'm really worth anything much at all"; building a shower: NM to Bea, 3-25-45.

102 "Variety, darling: NM to Bea, 3-25-45. I like it 102 "It had a little bit: NM to Bea, 2-24-45; appeared later with slight changes: See NAD 211.

103 Benton's anthology: NM to Bea, 4-11-45; Strachey's Eminent Victorians: 4-20-45.

103 "an unguent for the psyche: NM to Bea, 2-1-45; any better than he should be: Up at the Villa (NY: Random House, 2000), 29; perpetual oscillation: NM to Bea, 2-1-45; an elaborate clock:

DP, 99. In 2000, NM said that his view of life was founded on Maugham's line. "I think you should be a little better than you ought to be. That's what manhood's all about." See Alastair McKay, 2.

104 "there's a wonderful quality: NM to FM, 2-19-45; The unit had 192 casualties: Glenn T.

Johnson, Interview with Norman Mailer (8-25-04), University of North Texas Oral History Collection, No. 1560, 39. In 1965, NM said that he had "the feeling you're going to be killed—I became emotionally convinced of it, and didn't care much anymore what happened." Brock Brower, 109; Combat Infantryman's Badge: NM's army records (HRC). NM was given a new badge for Christmas, 2004. Notoriously difficult to buy a gift for, he liked the gift and recalled how proud he had been to wear it.

Other Loyalties
Yes?

Yes?
Yes?

nd
Yes?

Yes?
Yes?

rom

"Interview with Norman Mailer, " University of North Texas" 105 " been in a little combat: NM to Bea, 4-11-45.

106 " You must make him realize: NM to Bea, 4-20-45.

106 mythic eight-day patrol: Johnson interview, 21; birth allegory: NM to Bea, 4-18-45.

107 " quixotic : NM to Bea, 4-25-45.

107 " A part of me: Marcus, CNM, 83; none of us had the slightest: AFM, 390; Good, I don't see none either: Melvyn Bragg, "Norman Mailer Talks to Melvyn Bragg," Listener, 12-20-73, CNM, 197; 15 miles older: AFM, 389.

108 " The Hukbalahap or Huks: NM to Bea, 5-18-45; The gun had a detestable odor: AFM, 143.

109 " crack Japanese marines: Johnson interview, 33.

109 " The most intense ecstasy: NM to Bea, 5-14-45.

110 " [N]other writer on war: Eric Homberger, The Second World War in Fiction, ed. Holger Klein, John Flower & Eric Homberger (London: Macmillan, 1984), 177; What the hell did Horton mean: Johnson, 25.

110 " black halo, black stockings: NM to Bea, 5-10-45.

111 " I gave up writing: Levitas CNM, 8. BW recalled that during the war when her brother and Bea were writing, she felt that Bea had the best chance to write a best seller. NM told Amussen that Bea's novel "wasn't bad" (MBM, 94), but apparently Amussen's response was too negative for her to revise it.

1103/ Subsequent cites to book shld read:

X Johnston/Johnson ed. We Aint No
Hooes G

to interview: Johnston/Johnson, "Interview with Norman Mailer," University of North Texas @

111 a very intense Somerset Maugham: NM to Bea, 5-17-45; Remember that awful priest:

Jeffrey Michelson and Sarah Stone, "Ethics and Pornography," PAP, 108.

111 Seaver was turning down: Seaver to Kaslow, 6-22-45; He told Bea that this novel: NM to Bea, 5-20-45.

112 Francis Irby Gwaltney: NM first mentions "Fig" in a letter to Bea, 6-9-45; You can't talk that way: Johnson, 31; a brave soldier: Brock Brower, 109. Other Loyalties

112 He sent Bea a few comments: NM to Bea, 7-25-45; soft-spoken, sly: NM to Bea, 10-3-45.

113 If there is a God: NM to Bea, 10-5-45.

113 But he began with real soldiers: "I think the thing that gave The Naked and the Dead its sense of absolute realism [...] is that the characters were good [...] I had lived among these soldiers for two years and I knew a lot about them." Academy of Achievement interview; I studied engineering: Marcus, CNM, 84; He is the novel's titular hero: Lt. Hearn, a default liberal, is often named as the protagonist of NAD because he opposes both Gen. Cummings and Sgt. Croft, but NM told Bea (10-20-45) that his "ridge novel" would not focus on a particular character. NM did not consciously select Croft as the protagonist of Naked, but he is undoubtedly the most realized character in the novel, with the possible exception of Cummings.

114 Mailer was in garrison: NM to Bea, 7-16-45; G.L. Bill: NM to Bea, 7-21-45; graduate courses at Harvard: NM to FM, IBM, 2-26-45.

Johnston, We Ain't No Heroes, 267-71. 30 1104

114 Tateyama Naval Airdrome; Johnson, 267-71; We would have been massacred; Takaaki Mizuno, "Flag-Waving U.S. Shows Signs of Totalitarianism," Asahi Shimbun, 9-14-06.

115 "pathological about machines: NM to Bea, 8-8-45; "The White Negro": NM's essay on urban hipsters, blacks, jazz and marijuana, was first published in Dissent 4 (summer 1957), and reprinted in AFM.

116 "starved, grinning, irritatingly polite: NM to Bea, 9-1-45; many summers that had gone by: NM to Bea, 8-16-45.

116 His ship was with the assembled fleet: NM, Bill Garbo and J.C. Lay, Johnson, 266-68; The commentator said, The sun: NM to FM, IBM, Dave and Anne Kessler, 9-4-45.

116 Tateyama was on the lip: Johnson, 269-70.

117 Mailer volunteered to be a cook: NM to Bea, 10-1-45; "Chorus: The Chow Line": NAD, 86-118; The mess sergeant liked him: NM to Bea, 10-1-45.

118 Ambler's spy novels: NM to Bea, several letters, June through December 1945.

119 [T]heir goodness had no radiation: NM to Bea: 10-20-45; reminds us that life: SA, 23.

119 "the language of knee: NM to Bea, 10-21-45.

120 Cooking for 160 men: NM's 1951 short story, "The Language of Men," follows NM's experiences more closely than anything else he wrote in fiction. It was his first piece in Esquire, April 1953; rpt., AFM, 122-32; Mailer was suspicious: NM to Bea: 11-8-45; I feel very strong:

120 NM to Bea, 10-21-45; ¹²⁰promoted to sergeant: NM to FM, 2-4-46; ¹²⁰a peon in a fascist organization: NM to FM, IBM, 11-14-45. However corrupt and inefficient the army seemed to NM, it kept offering him new experiences. In late November 1945, he was asked to teach an American history course to ten ⁶⁶G.I.s. He began the course, but an officer soon took it over, as he told Bea, 11-23-45.

120 "version sergeant":
 an archetype of all the dark: NM to Bea, 12-22-45; He died happy: NM to Bea, 11-22-45;
 121 "He was efficient and strong": NAD, 156.

121 Mailer's buddies had discovered: NM's 1951 short story, "The Paper House," examines the relations of G.I.s and geishas; rpt., AFM, 109-22; the time-honored American purchase: NM to Bea, 11-25-45. NM later wrote her a second letter (seven pages, undated), analyzing his feelings in great detail; he said doing so made him "feel at ease with myself and purged." Around the same time, NM concluded that masturbation was wrong and stopped, permanently, as he later explained to JML.

122 kind of portable typewriter: NM to FM, IBM, 12-16-45; asked Bea to separate: NM to Bea,
 3-3-46; North Conway: NM to Bea, 11-12-45. At the end of January, NM, his Captain and a Japanese mess boy climbed a mountain about 15 miles inland from Onahama. NM to Bea, 1-27-46; Provincetown in the summer: NM to Bea, 1-11-46; a great humanist: NM to Bea, 12-8-45.

123 names of 161 soldiers: NM to Bea: 1-12-46; 30-40 soldiers: NM to FM, IBM, 1-14-46; 14 enlisted men as significant characters: NM to Bea, undated fragment, February or March 1946.

123 " insights into the weakly Evil: NM to Bea, undated fragment, January or February 1946.

124 "I don't know if it's Harvard

Sair, there are much joyness: NM to Bea, 1-25-46; He also enjoyed writing Sgt.: NM to Bea, 4-4-46.

124 "chickenshit son-of-a-bitch": NM to Bea 4-4-46. NM gave his parents a slightly ~~re~~ sanitized version in a 4-7-46 letter.

124 "crawfish: NM to Bea in a 4-4-46; to FM, IBM, 4-7-46.

125 " was when the keel: Brock Brower, CNM 109; His immediate response was to write: NM to Bea, 4-9-46.

Other Loyalties

125 " Whose ass did you kiss: JML interview with Clifford Maskovsky, 2-5-10.

126 worst experience of his life: JML, "A Conversation with Norman Mailer," New England Review (summer 1999), 138-48; the third lousiest guy: Levitas, CNM, 3. See Christopher Hitchens, New Left Review, 119, where NM says that in a squad of 12, he was "third or fourth from the bottom, I was mediocre at best"; You know really my only decent function: NM to Bea, 7-11-45. The 126 " "and/or" is prescient, as for many years of his life NM could not decide which activity was paramount; Through most of the Great Wet Boot: AFM, 29.

127 " [I]t was the only book: Bob Minzesheimer, "To Mailer, a Good Soldier Puts Words on Paper."

127 " the Norman legend: NM to Bea, 2-7-46; asked if she could see Transit: Adeline Naiman to NM, 1-24-46; badly flawed work: NM summed up his feelings about Transit in 1955 when he called it "a romantic, morbid, twisted, and heavily tortured work." "Mailer, Norman," Twentieth Century Authors, First Supplement, ed. Stanley J. Kunitz (NY: H.W. Wilson, 1955), 628; if no changes were requested: NM to Bea, 2-7-46; who wasn't dashinglly articulate: JML interview with Adeline Naiman, 8-21-07.

USA Today

Cottages Christopher Crow's Nest Bungalows: Busa interview, 26; See also Robert F. Lucid's detailed account, "Crow's Nest Cottages, North Truro, 1946," Provincetown Arts (1999), 32-33.

Mailer was writing an ensemble novel: NM told JML in 1981, "In a lot of those reviews of the time, I remember, I kept exclaiming in amazement, 'This work has no hero.' And I don't see why a work has to have a hero. You know if you can write a book without a hero, well, all to the good"; love of planning & chess: NAD notes, HRC; The truth is, Robert: NAD, 182; Mailer makes Cummings a homosexual: AFM, 223.

"Time Machine" flashbacks: In his 8-29-55 letter to Mr. Broich, NM said, "[T]here is no doubt at all that the Time Machines in The Naked and the Dead were influenced directly by the poetic biographies in U.S.A."; bi-functional: NM to Bea, late September, 1946; On was the product: SA, 237; show something of the turn: Marcus, CNM, 81.

is going to be the greatest novel : A. Lubell [Naiman], "Trade Editorial Report, Little, Brown & Company: The Naked and the Dead, 9-18-46" (HRC). Naiman sent a copy sub rosa to NM, and his father carried it around in his wallet for the rest of his life, as she later explained in "How I Discovered Norman Mailer" (HRC); author's marvelous sense: untitled assessment, HRC; Naiman recalled that she may have predicted a sale of only 3700 in JML interview, 8-21-07.

a piece of realism: NM to Naiman, 9-25-46.

a mystic kick: Harvey Breit, "Talk with Norman Mailer," NYT, 6-3-51; rpt., CNM, 15.

133 " ^{" Bernard} it is certain to be prosecuted: DeVoto critique, HRC.

133 " DeVoto's criticism essentially sound: NM to Naiman, late October, 1946. NM was just as certain of his potential in a 10-24-46 letter to BW about the Little, Brown imbroglio: "As far as I'm concerned Barbara I'm going to be the greatest writer of this decade, and while Little, Brown may not share my enthusiasm, they're damn fools." ^u

134 " We you coming-to-get: The forty typescript pages NM refers to begin with one of the most memorable exertions in the novel, the platoon muscling 37 mm guns over a muddy jungle trail, which leads up to the attack at the river (NAD, 121-55). ^N

135 Cummings's demonic underling: The definitive examination of Melville's influence on NAD is Bernard Horn, "Ahab and Ishmael at War: The Presence of Moby-Dick in The Naked and the Dead," American Quarterly 34 (fall 1982), 379-95. ^N

135 " I hate everything: NAD, 164.

136 " hard, isolate, stoic: Robert Ehrlich, Norman Mailer: The Radical as Hipster (Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1978), 26. Lawrence's line is from Studies in Classic American Literature (NY: Thomas Seltzer, 1923), 92.

136 " the most secret admiration: Paul Krassner, "An Impolite Interview," PP, 136; [K]illing and being killed: ^{" Alfred Kazin} Bright Book of Life: American Storytellers from Hemingway to Mailer (Boston: Little, Brown, 1973), 77; ^{136 "} crude unformed vision: NAD, 156; ^{" 136 "} a limit to his hunger: 701; ^{" 136 "} missed some tantalizing revelation, 709. ^{" 136 "} ^{Illegible}

136 This locus provides: My comments on the confined setting of the novel are based on those of Peter G. Jones, War and the Novelist (Columbia: University of Missouri Press, 1976), 88-89.

137 " General Cummings, he said shortly: Levitas, CNM, 4; Iron Curtain speech: Given at Westminster College, Fulton, Missouri, 3-5-46; The sole member of President Truman's Cabinet who did not favor a strong response to Russian expansionism was Sec. of Commerce Henry Wallace. His stance appealed to NM, who later worked in his 1948 presidential campaign; 137 " people in our government: Levitas, CNM, 4.

137 Norman Rosten: Ten years older than NM, Rosten was the first writer NM knew who lived by his pen. Their paths crossed often in Brooklyn, where Rosten served as poet laureate from 1979 to his death in 1995. In their correspondence, Rosten always addressed him as "Norm I"; he was "Norm II"; We would talk: Christopher Bigsby, "Alarm Calls for American Dreamers," Independent, 2-9-02, 10. In his autobiography, Miller says that the first time he met NM he had just seen Miller's play, All My Sons, and told Miller that he could write a play like that. "It was so obtusely flat an assertion that I began to laugh, but he was completely serious. [...] Mailer struck me as someone who seemed to want to make converts rather than friends, so our impulses, essentially similar, could hardly mesh." Timebends: A Life (NY: Grove Press, 1987), 139; If you give me a contract: Christian, 66; damn fool if you don't: MBM, 92; See also MLT, 104-05.

Frederick Christy "The Talent and the Torment," Cosmopolitan

138 profanity conference: MBM, 92, MLT, 104-05; the irreducible minimum: Levitas CNM, 8;

139 " fug: MLT, 105-06, MBM, 93. NM was never able to beat back the rumors about why and when he first used "fug." Some of the blame can be laid at the feet of Tallulah Bankhead or, more likely, her press agent. She was quoted as saying that shortly after Naked was published, she met

Frederick Christy "The Talent and the Torment," Cosmopolitan

1110A

[Mailer biography, Insert to Notes, p. 1110]

Confusion about the word's origin has been complicated by the comments of several people. Theodore Amussen, Mailer's first Rinehart editor, told Hilary Mills that NM had invented fug after the novel was accepted by Rinehart (Mills, 93), and Mailer's cousin and lawyer, Cy Rembar, told Peter Manso that he himself had come up with the term during a meeting with NM, a statement that NM refuted (Manso, 105-06). Both Amussen and Rembar are in error. The drafts of the manuscript at the HRC confirm NM's statement that he used the word from the beginning, as does his mention of "fug" in a letter to Angus Cameron of Little, Brown in October 1946, when he had only written 184 pages. NM later told Edward de Grazia that fug was chosen because "there wasn't any way in the world you could use 'fuck,' you just couldn't get near it."

Girls Lean Back Everywhere: The Law of Obscenity and the Assault on Genius (NY: Random House, 1995), 520. Despite NM's repeated denials of the Bankhead story, Jesse Sheidlower perpetuated the canard in The F Word (NY: Random House, 1995), and compounding it by attributing the misspelling story to Dorothy Parker, while passing over entirely Mailer's several denials. Although Mailer corrected Sheidlower in print (see Brad Weiner's "Dysfunctionally Literate," San Francisco Bay Guardian, December 1995, 3), the 2009 reprint of The F Word repeats the story, and says Mailer was "required by his publishers to use the euphemism" fug.

Insert from p. 1110A

36 1110

him and said, "Are you the young man who doesn't know how to spell fuck?" Bankhead admitted later that the incident was apocryphal (Tallulah, Darling by Denis Brian [NY: Macmillan, 1980], 17), but the story never died. NM told Newsweek (12-23-68, 7), "I had decided to use the word fug before the book was even begun." In the same magazine thirty years later (6-28-99, 49), he was still trying: "I started with 'fug' [111] What bothered me was that people said, 'Oh, Mailer was using f--- and the publisher said he had to use fug so he gave in.' It never happened that way." When NM finally did meet Bankhead, many years later, Brian reports, they just nodded and smiled; ¹³⁹placate Rinehart's mother: MBM, 93;

¹³⁹ "A saturnine Irishman: JML, "Literary Ambitions," PAP, 165.

¹³⁹ Mailer hired him: MLT, 107; ¹⁴⁰ sometimes "cruel in his criticism: MLT, 107; ¹⁴⁰ Oh, for the good old days: NM to Devlin, 11-19-53; ¹⁴⁰ the Shah of Brat-mah-phur: NM to Basil Mailer, 11-17-54.

¹⁴⁰ "a bonus: Marcus, CNM, 80; ¹⁴⁰ the crawfish scene: Ginny Dougary, "The Norman Conquests," Sunday Independent, 6-26-00, 6L; ¹⁴⁰ would have been considered: Marcus CNM, 80; ¹⁴¹ few pages of Anna Karenina: SA, 22. NM expanded on his influences by saying that ¹⁴¹ Naked "had been written out of what I could learn from reading James T. Farrell and John Dos Passos, with good doses of Thomas Wolfe and Tolstoy, plus homeopathic tinctures from Hemingway, Fitzgerald, Faulkner, Melville and Dostoyevsky" (SA, 74).

¹⁴¹ Jackie Robinson: NM to Joe Mac, 5-7-97; ¹⁴¹ apartment of Millie Brower: Brower email to JML, 7-15-09; ¹⁴¹ He hired Millie's husband: JML interview with Millicent Brower, 5-14-09; seemed to me at the time: MLT, 108.

where is
K+3

37-1111
141
Fritz Lang's classic horror films: In an unpublished short story, "The Thalian Adventure," NM wrote about going to see these films with his parents and his Aunt Rose and Uncle Harry. The older generation was unimpressed; Blood of the Poet: BW remembers NM attending the screenings of surrealist films at the Museum of Modern Art in the 1940s, where Cocteau's film was shown; Mailer and Harvey Anhalt: NM to Adelaide A. Scherer, 5-10-48; several in-camera tricks: JML interview with Michael Chaiken, 4-19-11. In 2008, with a grant from the National Film preservation Board, Chaiken worked with the HRC and the Harvard Film Archive to help restore the film, which has the working title "Millie's Dream." Millicent Brower and NCM attended a screening of the restoration at the New York Film Festival New York on 8-4-09.

142 " I think we Jews: NM to Bruce Dexter, 5-6-97. The professor NM heard lecture is unknown, but it is possible that he was drawing on the historical ideas of both Henry Adams and/or Walter Benjamin. See F. J. Teggart, Theory of History (New Haven: Yale University Press, 1925).

142 " Actually, it offers: "Lillian Ross, "Rugged Times," New Yorker, 10-23-48; rpt., CNM, 14.

143 " [W]ar may be the ultimate purpose: Kazin, Bright Book of Life, 74.

Four
BMSH Notes, Chapter 4

Prominent and Empty

BAMN In addition to the sources identified below, the following were drawn on: "Fan's Memoir"; JML's "Mailer Log"; Ph.D. dissertation of Raymond Karl Suess, II, "Tom Sawyer, Horatio Alger and Sammy Glick: A Biography of Young Mailer" (St. Louis University, 1974) for letters from Francis I. ("Fig") Gwaltney to NM; Robert W. Rosen's interview with Jean Malaquais, and for historical context; JML's unpublished interviews with NM and BW. NM's letters are located at the HRC.

The Mailers shivered: NM, Robert F. Lucid and Richard Wilbur, "Postwar Paris: Chronicles of Literary Life," Paris Review (spring 1999), 273.

Cours de Civilisation Française: Although it has been reported otherwise, NM completed the course. On his final examination, he scored 23 out of a possible 40 points ("assez bien"), and was awarded a "Certificate de Langue Française," dated 2-28-48 (HRC). You get to longing: NM to FG, 11-11-47; critical study of Melville: Herman Melville: The Tragic Vision and the Heroic Ideal (Cambridge: Harvard University Press, 1939); felt ennobled: "Postwar Paris," 279.

the commission of acts of force: Truman's Executive Order 9835 remained in force until the mid-1960s when the Supreme Court struck it down on grounds of vagueness and undue breadth.

I've gone quite a bit to the Left: NM to FG, 10-7-48.

introduced to Jean Malaquais: Suess, 131; MBM, 95; Malaquais' background: James Kirkup, "Obituary: Jean Malaquais," The Independent, January 6, 1999, independent.co.uk/arts-entertainment/obituary-jean-malaquais-1045270; Nick Heath, "Malaquais, Jean, 1908-1998," 12-18-06, libcom.org/hist/org/malaquais-jean-1908-1988; NM, Preface to Jean Malaquais, The Joker (NY: Warner, 1974), rpt., in part PAP, 97-105.

Morally and intellectually: Kirkup; Malaquais loathed formula: The Joker, 15.

had more influence: The Joker, 11; a boy scout: Robert W. Rosen, interview with Jean Malaquais, 8-23-71, in Suess, "Young Mailer," 133; exploit him: Raymond M. Sokolov, "Flying High with Mailer," Newsweek, 12-9-68, 84-88. disliked me: Ibid.

"Obituary," Independent

148 " long leaky French winter: AFM, 91; I have never heard: NM to IBM, 12-6-47.

148 He came back with two ideas: NM's "Journal January 48" (HRC); a collective novel: NM to IBM, 11-1-47; Maybe I'm not scared: NM to IBM, 11-8-48; If my past: AFM, 93-94.

149 E. M. Forster's novels: NM read The Longest Journey (1907) before he completed NAD and said the unexpected death of Gerald, the rugby player, near the beginning, gave him the idea for the similarly surprising death of Hearn in NAD. He says in the Bill Broadway interview, "Norman Mailer: New Advertisements for Himself" (13), that killing "a very interesting character" is tricky, but "one of the most powerful techniques you could ever use in a novel";

New Millennium Life (13) Spring/Summer 1998 (13)

149 work by Jean-Paul Sartre: NM did not read Sartre's philosophical works until the mid-50s. In Paris, he may have read The Age of Reason (NY: Knopf, 1947); The Red and the Black: Stendhal's novel was a touchstone for NM; he admired the audacity of Julien Sorel, the archetypal young man from the provinces. See his comment in Charles Monaghan, "Portrait of a Man Reading," Washington Post Book World, 7-11-71; rpt., CNM, 189; That English fairy: NM to FG, 1-?-48; Goodbye to Berlin: Christopher Isherwood, Goodbye to Berlin (NY: Random House, 1939). See Marcus, CNM, 81, for NM's comment on Sally Bowles.

149 " emasculation : NM to Raney, 1-23-48 and 1-24-48.

150 " howls and sulks: NM to Raney, 2-7-48; Raney's upcoming visit: Raney arrived sometime in the latter half of April. His consultation with NM seems to have gone well. See "Postwar Paris, 279"; [I]t is a tone: NM to Raney, 2-7-48.

NM Lucia and Wilburys Parts Review

151 a sentimental, Ernie Pyle version: Ernie Pyle (1900-45), a Pulitzer-Prize winning war correspondent for the Scripps-Howard newspaper chain killed in combat near Okinawa, was much revered for his reports on individual soldiers written in homey, non-journalistic prose.

152 " no bitch: NM to Raney, 3-1-48; Around dusk: NM to FM, BW, 3-17-48.

153 An American-owned car: Barbara Wasserman (Hodson Review Autumn, 2000) "Spain, 1948—A Memoir," 365.

153 " In a large bare room: Portrait of Picasso as a Young Man (NY: Atlantic Monthly Press, 1995), 15.

154 " thrilled by the prospect: BW to Robert F. Lucid, 1-12-98. This five-page letter and BW's memoir were invaluable in establishing the chronology, events and atmospheric details of the spring and early summer of 1948; What pleased me: Barbara Probst Solomon, "A Long Friendship," MR (2008), 186; rescue mission: The story of rescuing the political prisoners is told in BW's memoir, "Spain 1948," and Barbara Probst Solomon's: Arriving Where We Started (NY: Harper & Row, 1972).

154 work on a screen treatment: NM to Adelaide Scherer, 5-10-48; a courageous piece of publishing: John Dos Passos to Stanley Rinehart, 5-6-48; U. S. A. meant more: JML, "New England Review, 141.

155 " Norman was flush: MLT, 114.

155 Gore Vidal and Tennessee Williams: Gore Vidal, "Some Memories of the Glorious Bird and an Earlier Self," Matters of Fact and Fiction (Essays, 1973-1976) (NY: Random House, 1977), 142; first not in text

"A Conversation with Norman
Mailer,"

155 " I remember thinking meanly: Gore Vidal, "Norman Mailer's Self-Advertisements," United States: Essays, 1952-1992, 31; All they could do was choke: NM to FG, 5-21-48.

NY: Random House, 1993

156 " I have no worries: NM to Raney, 6-7-48.

157 " a tough baby: NM to FM, IBM, 8-4-48; French would call joli-laide: Philip Schopper, interview with NM for "American Masters" documentary on Lillian Hellman, 8-7-98; truly formidable bare breast: NM, Joan Mellon, Hellman and Hammett (NY: HarperCollins, 1996), 258.

158 " what is a carbine: Lillian Hellman file, HRC; visit with Sinclair Lewis: Interview with Sylvia B. Richmond, Chelsea (Massachusetts) Record, 10-2-48, 50.

158 With Naked in first place: NAD remained on the list until 7-24-49, a total of 62 weeks. It was in the top five for 43; Times, Cue, New York Star, New Yorker; These appeared in 1948 on 8-15, 8-21, 8-22 and 10-23, respectively; Getting your mug: Ross, CNM, 13; a novelist to recreate: "Fiction in the U.S.," Life, 8-16-48, 24; insidious slime: "From Here to Obscenity," Life, 4-16-51, 40.

159 " both vulgar and innocent: FG to Karl Suess, 3-9-73

159 " all but the tough-skinned: Rinehart postcard, spring 1948 (HRC); Everyone was both startled and shocked: MBM, 99; Time, New Yorker, New York Times, Newsweek, New York Herald Tribune Book Review: The reviews appeared in 1948 on 5-10, 5-15, 5-9, 5-10 and 5-9, respectively; more explicitly vile speech: Orville Prescott, "Books of the Times," NYT, 5-7-48, 21.

160 " I think I suffered: "Norman Mailer on An American Dream," New York Post, 3-25-65; rpt., CNM, 100-03; ¹⁶⁰made over thirty; Ross, CNM, 12; ¹⁶¹associated with the Progressive Party's: Cedric Belfrage and James Aronson, Something to Guard: The Stormy Life of the National Guardian, 1948-1967 (NY: Columbia University Press, 1978), 24; NM wrote "A Credo for the Living" for the paper (10-18-48), railing against "anti-Russian hysteria" and calling for Wallace's election. He describes himself in the piece as "an ignorant Marxist" because he had yet to read the basic works of Marxist theory; ¹⁶¹2,500-word feature article: "Do Professors Have Rights," New York Post, 10-8-48, 5, 34.

161 " Everyone who was anyone: Shelley Winters, Shelley II: The Middle of My Century (NY: Simon and Schuster, 1989), 69; ¹⁶¹unintentionally eloquent: "Postwar Paris," 281. ¹⁶¹NM ↑ Lucida ↑ and Wilburg ¹⁶¹Paris Review ↑ 162 " unbeknownst to us: Farley Granger, Include Me Out: My Life from Goldwyn to Broadway (NY: St. Martin's, 2007, 94-95; ¹⁶²two hundred ¹⁶²200 other writers: AP wire story, 10-9-48.

162 " Ballots vs. Book Burning: "Speech for Writers for Wallace" (HRC); ¹⁶²Communists are the closest: ¹⁶²Wikipedia entry; Henry A. Wallace. ¹⁶²Bonnie K. Goodman; ¹⁶²www. ¹⁶²presidentialcampaignselectionsreference.wordpress.com/overviews/163 " When I met Norman: MBM, 98; ¹⁶³Report of Court Proceedings; Moscow: People's Commission of Justice in the U. S. S. R., 1938. NM's battered copy is still in his library; ¹⁶³Stalin: ¹⁶³A Critical Survey; London: Longmans, Green, 1939. It is likely that NM also read Trotsky's three-volume, ¹⁶³History of the Russian Revolution (NY: Simon and Schuster, 1937).

164 Dissent: NM wrote a number of articles for the socialist journal founded by Howe, and served on its Board from its founding until the mid-1980s; ¹⁶⁴War Diary; NY: Doubleday, Doran, 1944;

164 " opinionated, cocksure: MLT, 129; ¹⁶⁴World without Visa: (NY: Doubleday, 1948); ¹⁶⁴brought ¹⁶⁴"it was a disaster!"

20th century / 1948 - overview /

~~Hellman and Malaquais together~~; Philip Schopper interview; ¹⁶⁴unrelenting: Mickey Knox; ^{NK}The Good, the Bad, and the Dolce Vita: The Adventures of an Actor in Hollywood, Paris and Rome (NY: Nation Books, 2004), 70; ¹⁶⁴a thoroughly constipated Stalinist hack: Malaquais, Rosen interview in Suess, 165; ¹⁶⁴child's play: MBM, 112.

¹⁶⁵There were times: PAP, 160; ¹⁶⁵You're 25: Transcript of Donahue Show, 11-21-79, 8; ¹⁶⁵Celebrity, he said, was great: Alastair McKay, 2. See also NM's comment on his sudden fame in his January 1968 Playboy interview with Paul Carroll: "Of course I dug it. I had to dig it. [...] it enabled me to get girls I would not otherwise have gotten" (rpt. PAP, 32-45); ¹⁶⁵cauterises a lot: Anthony Haden-Guest, 192; ¹⁶⁵a lobotomy to my past: AFM, 93; ¹⁶⁵Once I had been man: AFM, 92-93; ¹⁶⁵I was a dependable pain: SA, 116.

¹⁶⁶a big fat one: NM to Sinclair Lewis, 11-15-48; ¹⁶⁶"The Devil's Advocate": HRC; ¹⁶⁶a damn thing about labor unions: Marcus, CNM, 81; ¹⁶⁷Waldorf conference descriptions: The following were drawn on: AFM, 408-10; Neil Jumonville, Critical Crossings: The New York Intellectuals in Postwar America (Berkeley: University of California Press, 1991), 1-48; Dwight Macdonald, "The Waldorf Conference," Politics (winter 1949), 32A-32C; Freda Kirchwey, "Battle of the Waldorf," Nation, 4-2-49, 377-78; Tom O'Connor, "News Tailored to Fit," Nation, 4-16-49, 438-40; Joseph P. Lash, "Weekend at the Waldorf," New Republic, 4-18-49, 10-14; Cedric Belfrage, "Guardian Reports on the Peace Conference Panels," National Guardian, 4-4-49, 9; "The Russians Get a Big Hand from U.S. Friends," Life, 4-4-49, 39-43; reports in the NYT, March 24-28, 1949; Diana Trilling, "An Interview with Dwight Macdonald," Partisan Review: The Fiftieth Anniversary Edition (NY: Stein and Day, 1984), 312-32; Michael Macdonald's unpublished interview with NM, 7-9-98 (HRC), JML files, MLT, 134-37; MBM, 112-13.

167" out of the dream: AFM, 408, "Dupes and Fellow Travelers": Life, 4-4-49.

168 Trojan horse: NM, "The Only Way for Writers," Speaking of Peace: An Edited Report of the Cultural and Scientific Conference for world Peace, ed. Daniel S. Gillmor (NY: National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions, 1949), 82-83; ¹⁶⁸¹¹ melancholy debauch: NM to Muriel? 5-3-49; ¹⁶⁸¹¹ both Russia and America: "The Only Way for Writers," 83. ¹⁶⁸¹¹ speaking must always work: "Norman Mailer: The Embattled Vision," Doings and Undoings: The Fifties and After in American Writing (NY: Farrar, Straus and Giroux, 1964), 187; living more closely: Marcus, CNM, 85.

169 " felt like a rodent: AFM, 409-10; 169 " I was immediately able: MBM, 114; 169 " Macdonald came up:
Michael Macdonald interview (HRC).

stay incognito: NM to FG, 1-1-49; the theoretical and empirical: NM to Larry Weiss, 11-16-48; adult fairy tale: NM to FG, 1-1-49.

171 " a good flair for plots: NM to Cy Rembar, 4-26-49.

171 "You're going back":
~~Norman's going to be:~~ MLT, 120.

172 " the ugliest city: NM to FG, 11-16-48; reap the wind: NM to JM, 7-3-49. "

178 " incredibly foul and beastly: (London) Sunday Times, 5-1-49, 1; is like a bell ringing: transcript of NM's conversation with AP, 5-?-49 (HRC); foul, lewd and revolting: Shawcross, Evening Standard, 5-23-49.

173 respectable society: V. S. Pritchett, "Kinsey's Army," New Statesman and Nation, 5-14-49.

174 " the best war book: George Orwell to David Astor, 1-21-50, Why Orwell Matters, ed.

Christopher Hitchens (NY: Basic Books, 2002), 113; profoundly prophetic: "Light on Orwell,"

Listener, 2-4-71, 144; combine the political essay: AFM, 186; Lotus Land: NM to Hellman, 8-8-49; Lancaster was slated: The Good, the Bad, 71; war clouds over Korea: "There was no way then," NM said, "of making a fairly serious movie of the book." David Thompson, "Mailer by the Bay," California, August 1987, 68.

174 Shelley Winters asked for his help: Winters gave her version in Shelley, Also Known as Shirley

(NY: William Morrow, 1980), 253-56; NM gave his in an interview with Andrew O'Hagan,

"Norman Mailer: The Art of Fiction," Paris Review Interviews III (NY: Picador, 2008), 407-08.

175 " looked like a prize fighter: NM to FM, IBM, 9-1-49; running to the hospital: NM to FG, 9-?-49, 1949.

176 " high comedy: MLT, 138; the day after the contract: MLT, 138; "Character of the Victim":

Final script, George Landy Agency (HRC).

176 " He wanted it changed: MBM, 119; They refused and retained: NM to FM, IBM, 11-27-49; the script stank: "Novels Are Easy," Esquire, April 1953; rpt., CNM, 19; treated me well—if eccentrically: Letter to the Editor, NYTBR, 4-30-89, 24.

177 " I want you to give me: IBM to NM, 11-21-49; If I ever had any doubt: NM to IBM, 11-24-49.

179 Mailer used a similarly indignant: A Ticket to the Circus (NY: Random House, 2010), 315-16.

179 the last lodes: NM specifically mentions violence in this connection in the O'Hagan interview, 415-16. His reputation a pioneer in sexual exploration began with The Deer Park (1955), and was solidified with his 1959 short story in AFM, "The Time of Her Time."

180 " a sponger: MLT, 148; I even fell a little: MBM, 118; was the unhappiest woman: MLT, 148.

181 Christmas party description: MBM, 121; MLT, 149-50; Rosen interview, Suess, 187; Shelly, Also Known as Shirley, 296-99; NM to JML, 7-17-07; Darwin Porter, Brando Unzipped (NY: Blood Moon Productions, 2006), 289-94.

181 " Look, Mr. Chaplin: Rosen interview, Suess, 187; Norman, what the fuck: Shelley, Also Known as Shirley, 298.

181 " Norman had an enormous reputation: MBM, 121; landed a job at Twentieth Century-Fox: NM to FM, IBM, 11-27-49.

182 " the whole Hollywood venture: NM to FM, IBM, 3-31-50; Hollywood stinks: NM to FG, early spring 1950; police lineup: NM to George Lea, 3-26-58; best novel written in America: NM to BW, 6-18-50.

183 " The house Marion purchased: AFM, 519. NM's evocations of Provincetown are collected in Norman Mailer's Provincetown: The Wild West of the East, ed. JML (Provincetown Arts Press, 2005).

184 " almost drove me nuts: NM to Adeline Naiman, 7-28-50; fulfills none of the qualifications: NM to BW, 6-18-50; If a writer really wants: Breit, CNM, 16.

185 " To own something: NM to Adeline Naiman, 7-28-50; not writing the book: Marcus, CNM, 82.

diff text

47 1121

186 " brazen, touching, touchy: Philip H. Buftis, Norman Mailer (NY: Ungar, 1978), 37; hard to miss: MLT, 156; quinine tongue: BS, 249; Malaquais's philosophy in Devlin's body: MLT, 158.

187 " the biggest whang: BS, 62.

189 " would have been precursor to Women's Liberation: Michelson, PAP, 123; Here I was: MBM, 123; was a very strong woman: Michelson, PAP, 123.

190 drinking more now: "I never started drinking until it [Naked] came out." Christian, 67;

190 Norman was making: Brock Brower, 126; He listened inside himself: The Last Tycoon: An Unfinished Novel (NY: Scribner's, 1941), 95; How could I know: Adele Mailer, The Last Party: Scenes from My Life with Norman Mailer (NY: Barricade Books, 1997), 61.

191 " A thriller, a western: NM to George Landy, 10-29-50.

192 " It knocked me down: Unpublished interview with JML, 10-14-83, excerpted in JML and George Plimpton, "Glimpses: James Jones, 1921-1977," Paris Review (summer 1987), 205-36. NM told Barry H. Leeds in 1987, "I always thought that Eternity was a bigger book." Barry H. Leeds, "A Conversation with Norman Mailer," The Enduring Vision of Norman Mailer (Bainbridge Island, WA: Pleasure Boat Studio, 2002); rpt., CNM, 374. It's a big fist: NM to Burroughs Mitchell, 12-21-50; It always gave me a boost: AFM, 463 So in a certain sense:

"Glimpses: James Jones," 213.

193 " incredible explosion: Last Party, 68; what I gave: 71.

Jeffrey (and Sarah Stroup) "Ethics and Pornography"

Frederick "The Talent and the Torment," Cosmopolitan

Other Loyalties

Paris Review

JML and George Plimpton

Am, The

Ibid

- 194 "The Meaning of Western Defense": "Originally titled "The Defence of the Compass," it appeared in The Western Defences, ed. Sir John George Smythe (London: Wingate, 1951); rpt., AFM, 204-13; ¹⁹⁴the third-rate ["]Eighteenth Brumaire: NM to Dwight Macdonald, 2-20-51;
- 194 "Western Defense has the ultimate : AFM, 204; ¹⁹⁴the particular equipment: NM to Warren Allen Smith, 2-20-51.
- " " " 194 " " "
- 194 "We had a good marriage: NM to Dave and Anne Kessler, 4-19-51; ¹⁹⁴liking you immensely: NM to Lois Wilson, spring 1951.
- 195 "small-beer ["]Nineteen Eighty-Four: "Last of the Leftists," Time, 5-28-1951, 110; ¹⁹⁵a monolithic, ["]flawless badness: Anthony West, "East Meet West, Author Meets Allegory," New Yorker, 6-9-51, 108; Irving Howe, "Some Political Novels, Nation, 6-16-51, 568-69; Harvey Swados, "Fiction Parade," New Republic, 6-18-51; 20-21; ¹⁹⁵the most interesting American: V.S. Pritchett, Bookman, January 1952. ["]Interview with Norman Mailer, "
- 196 "a party of two: Hitchens, New Left Review; ¹⁹⁶It's a political tract: MBM, 126; ["]But I rather suspect: NM to JM, 7-20-51; ¹⁹⁶consider other occupations: NM thought about becoming a psychoanalyst, going into business or working with his hands (AFM 108-09).
- 197 "an underlying anger: ["]Last Party, 85; ¹⁹⁷Palm Springs: ["]The Good, the Bad, 92. ["]and the Dolce Vita, "
- 198 "Later, she said, he told me: ["]Last Party, 88, 93; ["]AM, The
- 198 "loft party description: MBM, 132-34; MLT, 171-75; AFM, 237; NM to FG, 9-?-1951; ["]Last Party, 107-09. ["]AM, The
- 198 "a mingling of personalities: ["]Last Party, 108. ["]AM, The

199 Provincetown

Art Association panel: Provincetown Advocate, 8-16-51, 10; was the nearest thing to Jehovah: O'Hagan, Paris Review Interviews, 429; the sight of paunchy, aging bodies: Last Party, 130; Humboldt's Gift: (NY: Viking, 1975). Macdonald was Bellow's model for the ineffectual intellectual, Orlando Higgins; Humboldt is based loosely on the poet Delmore Schwartz; grim apartment: AFM, 154.

AM ↑ The

199

After the Lost Generation: NY: McGraw-Hill, 1951; rpt., NY: Arbor House, 1985; Vance

World War

Bourjaily: Another multi-talented WWII veteran, Bourjaily (1922-2010) was friendly with many of NM's crowd in the 1950s. He wrote a number of novels, including Brill Among the Ruins (1970), which was nominated for a National Book Award.

200

The reviews were depressing: NM to Bourjaily, 9-5-51; In those days: NM to Andrew Spear, Christopher Joyal, April 1999; film of From Here to Eternity: MBM, 132.

201

the worst writing: AFM, 107; turned out three stories: Collected in AFM; I moved ahead: AFM, 108

201

"The Notebook": The Berkley Book of Writing, No. 3, ed. William Phillips and Philip Rahv (NY: Berkley, 1956); rpt., AFM, 150-53; You were just watching: Last Party, 110.

202

a brief untitled journal: unpaginated, approximately 20 pp. (HRC); Ross had promised: NM to Dave Kessler, 1-7-52; journeyman: Introduction, The Short Fiction of Norman Mailer (NY: Dell, 1967), 9. He adds that he does not "have the gift to write great stories, or perhaps even very good ones."

204 an intense need to play Pygmalion: Last Party, 102-03.

AM ↑ The

1123A follows

205 " Ah, to live indignant: Émile Zola, quoted in Philo M. Buck, The World's Great Age: The Story of a Century's Search for a Philosophy of Life (NY: Macmillan, 1936).

BMSH

Five
Notes, Chapter 5

The Deer Park ital

BMAN

In addition to the sources identified below, the following were drawn on: "Fan's Memoir"; NM's untitled 1952 journal; JML's "Mailer Log"; JML's unpublished interviews with NM and BW.

BMA
EN PAGE
209 "

209 " dreams or conceives: AFM, 154; exercises in imagination-isometrics: Robert F. Lucid, Introduction, Norman Mailer: The Man and His Work, ed. Lucid (Boston: Little, Brown, 1971).

209 " a small frustrated man: AFM, 154; Aided by encouragement: AFM, 156; The Man Who Studied Yoga: First published in a collection with the work of others, New Short Novels, 2 (NY:

Ballantine, 1956), the story was reprinted in AFM, 157-85; I would introduce myself: AFM, lies founded: AFM, 183, 185; epigraph to Mailer's pleasure novel: The quotation, which concerns "the evil of this dreadful place" of "depravity, debauchery and all the vices," is taken from Mouffle D'Angerville's Vie Privée De Louis XV (London: Leyton, 1781). NM first learned of the king's brothel in an unnamed book about the Marquis de Sade, as he told Walter Kahnert in a letter, 11-20-53.

157.

210 "

211

Mailer wrote to congratulate: NM to Bea, 4-22-53; effort was agony: NM to FG, 4-22-52; quiet, witty, sad: NM to Adeline Naiman, late May, 1952.

211 "

NM's letters are located at the HRC

1124
follows

211 "Our Country and Our Culture": PR, May-June 1952, rpt., AFM, 187-90; I think I ought to declare: AFM, 187; is being dunned: AFM, 188; more conducive: AFM, 190.

212 work within the Democratic: Twenty-five Years of Dissent: An American Tradition, ed. Irving Howe (NY: Methuen, 1979), xiv-xv; published three pieces: "The Meaning of Western Defense" (spring 1954); "In Re: Sidney Hook" (summer 1954); "David Riesman Reconsidered" (autumn 1954).

212 "we did a prodigious amount: Foreword, To Reach Eternity: The Letters of James Jones, ed. George Hendrick (NY: Random House, 1989), viii-x; At the last bar: The Good, the Bad, 89-90.

213 "joyously announcing": Ibid. "Moving about": three best young writers: The Good, the Bad, 89; Roman emperor: Styron, Foreword, To Reach Eternity, x.

213 "I seem unable: NM to Bea, 6-18-52.

214 "seriously fagged: NM to Bea, 6-18-52.

214 "The Paper House": New World Writing: Second Mentor Collection (NY: New American Library, November 1952); rpt., AFM, 109-22; "The Dead Gook": Discovery, No. 1 (NY: Pocket Books, 1952); rpt., AFM, 132-49; inoffensively general: Discovery editorial statement, JML files; I've been meaning: NM to Styron, 2-23-53; Styron wrote back: Styron to NM, 3-4-53, Selected Letters of William Styron, ed. Rose Styron, with R. Blakeslee Gilpin (NY: Random House, 2012), 170-71.

214 "The Language of Men" Esquire, April 1953; rpt., AFM 122-32.

215 The Old Man and the Sea: Life, 9-1-52, and in book form from Scribner's, 9-8-52; but I just can't bear his prose: NM to Lillian Ross, 9-2-52.

216 " make his personality enrich: AFM, 21; one of the few writers: AFM, 265.

216 41 First Avenue: Last Party, 100-01; MLT, 167-68, NM to Bea, 10-7-52; NM to Natalie? 11-18-52; I don't think Norman: Last Party, 101; overall scheme is so grandiose: NM to Graham Watson, 9-2-52.

217 entertaining Susan: NM to Bea, Steve, 11-17-52; some large reservations: NM to Bea, Steve, 12-13-52.

218 " So I wrote the report: MBM, 145-46; 76-year-old grandmother: MBM, 146, 153.

219 " You have hardly acted: NM to John W. Aldridge, 1-12-53.

219 " reasonable doubt: The story of the Civil Service Commission allegation and NM's response is told by his cousin, Charles Rembar, The Law of the Land: The Evolution of Our Legal System (NY: Simon and Schuster, 1980), 370-75.

221 flurry of letters: NM to Walter Kahnert, 1-12-53; FG, 1-15-53, 2-12-53, 4-15-53; Dave and Anne Kessler, 2-5-53; Bea, 3-7-53, 5-22-53; Lindner, 4-15-53; EY, 4-15-53; Bea, 4-24-53;
Styron, 4-24-52; Tobias Schneebaum, 5-22-53; EY, 5-22-53; precisely the courage: NM to Bea,
2-5-53; top to bottom, NM to FG, 2-12-53; some sort of evil genius: Marcus, CNM, 92.

222 " common pimp: "Manners and Morals: A Boy Who Likes Girls," Time, 8-25, 52; steeped in filth: Thomas P. Ronan, "Ban at Jelke Trial Upheld by Jurist," NYT, 2-18-53.

need
page # →

53 1176

"evil genius":

→ CNM → 92.

213 philosopher pimp Marion Faye: Marcus. According to Mia Feroletto, NM may have gotten the name Marion Faye from her mother, Marion Fay, ^{with whom} ~~who~~ he socialized with in the early 1950s.

Feroletto said that her mother's mother had some of the same life experiences as Faye's mother, Dorothea O'Faye, who was modeled after MK's friend Lois Andrews.

213 "I've been rushing: NM to Styron, 4-24-53; boudoir Pygmalion: DP, 12.

214 "fundamental poverty of imagination: NM to Styron, 7-24-53; The most powerful leverage: AFM, 238.

→ ML and George Plimpton → Paris Review 1
215 not 67

214 copy, word for word: "Glimpses: James Jones," 215; Some Came Running: (NY: Scribner's, 1958). Jones was forced to abridge the novel for the 1959 New American Library paperback edition because the technology of the day did not allow for such a huge novel.

216 "Lowney Handy and Jones: NM to Styron, 7-24-53.

216 "the beautiful, raven-haired woman: The Colony (NY: Dutton, 1971), 190, 187.

216 "as little as possible: Last Party, 143.

217 "the music ripped: Last Party, 147; See also NM's comments on the New Orleans trip in Mark Binelli, "Norman Mailer," Rolling Stone, 5-3-07, 69.

217 "deep down: NM to Dan Wolf, 7-28-53; as boffing huts: NM to Styron, 7-24-53.

218 "what with the income tax: NM to Cy Rembar, 8-22-53.

218 "[M]y experience: NM to Vance Bourjaily, 9-26-53.

230 Susan remembers sitting: JML interview with Susan Mailer, 9-5-07.

231 " I'm sick of writing it: NM to Irving Howe, 10-20-53; "Ladders to Heaven": New World Writing, 4 (1953), rpt., as "Novelists and Critics of the 1940s," Homage to Daniel Shays: Collected Essays (NY: Random House, 1972); We don't even get mentioned: NM to Styron, 10-23-53; that talentless, self-promoting: Styron to NM, 11-15-53, Selected Letters, 195.

231 " Gore I've got you: Vidal, Palimpsest: A Memoir (NY: Viking, 1995), 238; gornisht: JML interview with Millicent Brower, 5-14-09; Don Juan in Hell: In the 2-15-93 reading at Carnegie Hall, Susan Sontag played Doña Ana, NM was the Commodore, and Gay Talese was Don Juan.

232 " fifty pages in the middle: NM to Charles Devlin, 11-19-53; half third draft: NM to Chester Aaron, 11-19-53; probably marry: NM to Adeline Naiman, 11-19-53; I go off dreaming: NM to Devlin, 11-19-53.

233 " Norman found that if you: MBM, 134. Description of White Horse gatherings are from MBM, 134-38; I was so pleased: MBM, 137.

234 Lindner's sharp critique: Prescription to Rebellion (NY: Rinehart, 1952), 67-74. "become automatic," Ibid., 73. "A way had to be found," Ibid., 149. 235 " surely right: Charles Ryscroft, Wilhelm Reich (NY: Viking, 1972), 27.

236 never gone into analysis: Hitchens, New Left Review, 119. "Interview with Norman Mailer," "The Psychodynamics of Gambling," Robert Lindner, "The Psychodynamics of Gambling": Annals of the American Academy of Political Science and Social Science 269 (May 1950); While I read your monograph: NM to Lindner, 4-15-53.

235 " The alternative to adjustment " Ibid., 2180

137 " renowned toreros de salon: NM to Allen, 11-20-53; always dependent: NM to Nat Halper, 10-20-53.

237 " only four or five weeks away: NM to Jonathan Cape, 1-6-54; evil principle: NM repeats Lindner's words in NM to Lindner, 1-19-54.

239 " The experience was just fantastic: NM to Chester Aaron, 2-1-54.

241 " I didn't exactly nag: Last Party, 175; after all, I was: 179; Well, Mrs. Mailer: 180.

" happy because I was Mrs. Norman Mailer: 183.

241 " Caine Mutiny: The play ran from 1-20-54 to 1-22-55; an extraordinary story of the Marines: NM to Devlin, 2-23-54.

242 " by dint of pushing: NM to Chester Aaron, 4-30-54.

242 " they liked it: NM to FG: 4-29-54; [L]ife with Jonesie: NM to Allen, 4-30-54.

243 " pen name: novelist John P. Marguando Jr. (1923-1995); Something in the sex: NM to Devlin, 5-26-54; a lousy liver: NM to FG, 5-28-54; the shits:

AFM, 19.

244 " fancy indiscretions: Lois Wilson to NM, 5-19-54; as the years go by: NM to Lois Wilson, 5-29-54.

244 " I took the descriptive edge: NM to Lindner, 6-12-54; Tentatively, she reached: AFM, 260.

245 " Things at Rinehart: NM to Lindner, 7-16-54.

246 "a bright spot": NM to Lindner; 7-18-54.

36-1129

246 " " 246 " " " an uneasy feeling: NM to Bill and Rose Styron, 7-16-54; honest and brilliant: Styron to NM, 7-19-54, Selected Letters, 202-05.

246 " " truly appreciated: NM to Styron, 8-18-54.

247 write a preface: NM repeats Lindner's offer in his 12-15-54 letter; review in the Village Voice: Published 11-9-55; Because I loved him: Last Party, 134.

247 In August, reports appeared: Thomas M. Pryor, "Gregory Acquires 'Naked and Dead,'" NYT, 8-20-54; Irene Thirer, "'Naked and Dead' Movie Scheduled," New York Post, 8-20-54; publish The Deer Park privately: NM to MK, 11-30-54; NM to Lindner, 12-15-54.

248 " " by the cartload: NM to BW, 8-23-54; I found it impressive: NM to Styron, 10-7-54.

248 " " " [M]y pride was that: AFM, 221; maggots like [Walter] Winchell: NM to Mr. Lambert, 9-7-54. Winchell (1897-1972), the inventor of the gossip column, was a right-wing syndicated columnist for the New York Daily Mirror; Mortimer (1904-63) was a muckraking columnist for the New York Mirror and co-author with Jack Lait of U.S.A. Confidential (1952), and similar books about prostitution and gambling; the way to me: AFM, 221; "The Homosexual Villain": The essay appeared in One, January 1955; rpt., AFM, 222-27.

249 " " " I had been acting: AFM, 225; unpleasant, ridiculous, or sinister: 223; I had no conscious: 226.

250 " " " under control: Amussen to NM, 10-7-54; wrote to Styron to congratulate: NM to Styron, 10-7-54; $110,000: NM to MK, 11-16-54; three or four more books: NM to MK, 10-10-54.

250 " So when I was first with Norman: JML interview with Dotson Rader, 3-25-10.

BMHN Notes, Chapter 6

General Marijuana and the Navigator

In addition to the sources identified below, the following were drawn on: NM's "Liptons Journal"; JML's "Mailer Log"; JML's unpublished interviews with NM and BW.

NM's letters are located at the HRC

BMHN PAGE 252 EN

John Henry Cardinal Newman

Calculation never made: An Essay on the Development of Christian Doctrine, 1845.

He wished to live: NM to Bourjailys, 11-29-54; a certain spirituality: NM to Gregory, 11-1-54; cited continental writers: NM to Mr. Cole, 11-16-54; William Phillips, 11-16-54; it meant something: NM to Louis Mailer, 11-17-54; Rinehart halted production: AFM, 229.

"The Mind of an Outlaw": Esquire, November 1959; rpt., AFM, 228-267, as "The Last Draft of the Deer Park"; the most accurate account: MLT, 216; cliques, fashions, vogues: AFM, 233; Hiram Haydn: AFM, 230; gray and dreary: Hiram Haydn, Words & Faces (NY: Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, 1974), 263; pretty bad book: Jones to NM, 3-31-56, To Reach Eternity, 243.

I took out sentence after sentence: NM to Lindner, 12-20-54; eager for the firm: unpublished Alfred Knopf memoir (HRC); hard cash: NM to Knopf, 10-8-55; no reason to care: Alfred Knopf to NM, 10-?-55.

just sit staring: Last Party, 214; as a stage-struck mother: AFM, 232.

256 "The Crack-up": Esquire, February, 1936; rpt., The Crack-up, ed. Edmund Wilson (NY: New Directions, 1945). Time was perhaps the first to make the connection between the two essays, titling its review of AFM (11-2-59) "The Crack-Up," and attacking NM's "fascination with Hip ^m that freemasonry of the beard and the weird" ²⁵⁶; Exaggerated descriptions: NM to Lindner, 12-20-54; NM to Bourjailys, 12-28-54; ^{the} costly legal effort: AFM, 232; ²⁵⁶ "The City of God": Only a fragment exists in the HRC. NM's setting was a Soviet concentration camp; he changed it to a German camp when he revived the idea in CIE ²⁵⁶ drove a spike: AFM, 232; ²⁵⁶ the best novel: MBM, 157; ²⁵⁶ savoring his anger: NM to Lindner, 1-20-55.

²⁵⁷ intricate music: Hitchens, New Left Review, 127; I do not know: AFM, 234.

²⁵⁸ As was evident ²⁵⁸ HRC.

²⁵⁴ "Lipton's Journal": HRC.

²⁶⁰ incontestable that two people: In addition to several reiterations of this idea in "Lipton's," NM refers to it in a 1-20-55 letter to Lindner, saying that his disappointment about Putnam's accepting DP "proves what a saint-psychopath I am at bottom."

²⁶⁵ And this is Tolstoi: Phoenix II: Uncollected Writings of D.H. Lawrence, ed. Warren Roberts and Harry T. Moore (NY: Viking, 1970), 421.

²⁶⁶ I never felt pushed: Last Party, 187; telephone numbers: 190; he slapped her: 204; nagging voice: 188. ²⁶⁷ "Rocky Marciano": Ibid.

²⁶⁷ "The White Negro": The essay was reprinted in the first major anthology of Beat writers, The Beat Generation and the Angry Young Men, ed. Gene Feldman and Max Gartenberg (NY: Citadel Press, 1958); it was reprinted as pamphlet in 1959 by Lawrence Ferlinghetti's City Lights Press, where it went through many subsequent printings. NM reprinted it in AFM, 337-71, along with a point-counterpoint follow-up with Malaquais and Ned Polsky, which first appeared in Dissent (winter 1958). Since then, it has been reprinted many times in the U.S. and abroad as a pamphlet and in anthologies. Probably, we will never: AFM, 338-39.

268 Lyle Stuart: NM explains the circumstances of Stuart circulating his ideas on "Southern rage" in his prefatory comments to WN, AFM, 331-36.

269 rotating his crops: SA, 106.

270 " you believe in that: Laura Adams, "Existential Aesthetics: An Interview with Norman Mailer," PR 42 (1975), rpt., CNM, 218; terrified in that hour: OFM, 468.

271 corrected galley was April 15: NM to Kahnert, 3-7-55; He gave me a marvelous: NM to Elsa Lanchester, 4-15-68; Hiroshige and Hokusai: Utagawa Hiroshige (1797-1858) and Katsushika Hokusai (1760-1849) were acclaimed Japanese woodblock print makers.

272 return of the galleys: NM to Laughton, 3-25-55; ripping up the silk: AFM, 237.

272 " an implicit portrait: 238.

273 " [B]ombed and sapped: 243.

273 drove up to Provincetown: NM to the Kesslers, 8-24-55; lowered The Deer Park: AFM, 245.

273 " think of Sex: DP, 375; Truly, Bob: NM to Lindner, 8-25-55; novel's ending: AFM, 245.

↑ The Rise and Fall of the Village Voice

60 1133

274 Writing to Uncle Dave: NM to Kesslers, 8-24-55; close to speaking: See NM's comments on canine intelligence, OG, 140-41.

274 Laughton had lost interest: NM to MK, 8-25-55; 1955 financial statement: HRC; 30 percent share: Kevin McAuliffe, The Great American Newspaper (NY: Scribner's, 1978), 13-14.

275 inventing the name: AFM, 277; McAuliffe, 13.

The Great American Newspaper

275 inscribed copies: AFM, 265-67; Brando got a copy: NM to Brando, 8-25-55; best wishes to Vidal: NM to MK, 8-25-55.

275 " I could not keep myself: AFM, 265-66.

276 " was inevitably imitative: DP, 353; if you want to come on: AFM, 266; urging of George Plimpton: See Plimpton's account in his Shadow Box (NY: Putnam's, 1977), 259-64, corroborated by Hemingway's letter to Plimpton, 1-17-61, Ernest Hemingway: Selected Letters, 1917-1961, ed. Carlos Baker (NY: Scribner's, 1981), 912; shitty reviews: Hemingway to NM, 8-12-59 (HRC); see Hemingway's full letter in MR (2010), 15-18; ended in fiasco: AFM, 267.

277 " usual qualities of vitality: Moravia to NM, 10-30-55.

277 MacGregor interview: Only NM's copy of the typescript has been located; it probably appeared in the Post sometime in November 1955; with a couple of drinks: AFM notes (HRC); climbed to number six: DP reached number six on November 13 and spent a total of 15 weeks on the list, falling off on 2-12-56; but it is a very personal: Lyle Stuart, "An Intimate Interview with Norman Mailer," Exposé, December 1955; rpt., CNM, 24; Marxian anarchist: Stuart, CNM, 22-23; a really great writer: 27-28.

278 positive reviews with negative: Such an ad ran in the NYTBR, 10-30-55; a thoroughly nasty " book: Orville Prescott, NYT, 10-14-55; he serious and reckless; Malcolm Cowley: A friend of Lost Generation writers, Cowley (1898-1989), wrote an important memoir of his expatriate years in Paris, Exile's Return (1934); the serious and reckless: Cowley's endorsement of NM's novel is contained in a 9-23-55 letter to Paul S. Eriksson of Putnam's. He also gave it a positive review in the New York Herald Tribune Book Review, 10-23-55; $10,000 on advertising: John Tebbel, Between Covers: The Rise and Transformation of Book Publishing in America (NY: Oxford, 1987), 398.

279 half-page ad: NM reproduces it in AFM, 249; that I no longer gave a dog's drop: AFM, 249.

279 " Our generation: Dan Wakefield, New York in the Fifties (Boston: Houghton Mifflin, 1992), 121. Drawing upon hash " : Ebid 278.

280 " to feel the empty winds: AFM, 277-78; Mary Dearborn may have been the first person to comment on NM's use of the third person personal in his VV columns (MBD 113).

281 appeal to several publics: JML interview with Edwin Fancher, 10-8-10, conducted by John Buffalo Mailer. For accounts of the VV startup, see McAuliffe, and J. Kirk Sale, "The Village Voice: You've Come a Long Way Baby, But You Got Stuck There," Evergreen Review, December 1969, 25-27, 61-67; and Louis Menand, "It Took a Village," New Yorker, 1-5-09, 36-45. Also valuable is The Village Voice Reader, ed. Daniel Wolf and Edwin Fancher (NY: Doubleday, 1962).

The Great American Newspaper

282 " " 282 "what with" " 282 " " radical and abrasive: MBM, 167; épater le bourgeois: NM to Chester Aaron, 3-23-56; I really had the notion: Notes for Advertisements, HRC.
AFM ↑

282 the first
Mailer's column: All quotes from and about "Quickly" and letters from readers are from AFM, 279-318.

284 Must You Conform?: (NY: Rinehart, 1956).

285 "The psychopath knows instinctively: AFM, 346.

286 European and American existentialism: I draw heavily here on Robert Solotaroff's comprehensive and penetrating examination of NM's existentialism in his study, Down Mailer's Way (Urbana: University of Illinois Press, 1975), 82-123; 286 " " had a dialectical mind: PP, 273;
286 " " 286 " " alienated beyond alienation: AFM, 341; 286 " " its enormous teleological sense: AFM, 38.

286 " " 287 " " 286 " " WHY DON'T YOU: McAuliffe, 30, 34; for a socialist: MBM, 170. The Great American Newspaper ↑

287 " " should be very radical: MBM, 166.

288 " " 288 " " 288 " " I had mad ideas: Sokolov; when I have to crack up: NM to MK, 2-29-56; 288 " " trip to Europe:
NM to Malaquais, 4-5-56.

289 orgasmic struggles: Originally titled "Sergius and Denise," the composition of "The Time of Her Time" cannot be dated precisely, but it was conceived, if not written, shortly after he resigned from the NY; 289 " " on the philosophy of the hipster: NM to Irving Howe, 5-3-56.

290 "Finally getting together": Ibid.

63 1136

291 Waiting for Godot: Premiered in Paris in January 1953; New York premier, 4-19-56; So I doubt if I will like it: AFM, 316; in the bends of marijuana: OFM, 468; consciously or unconsciously: AFM, 324; Baby, you fucked up: AFM, 319.

290 "A Public Notice": VV, 5-9-56; rpt., AFM, 320-25.

290 riding the electric rail: From the first of NM's six bi-monthly columns discussing the Tales,

"Responses & Reactions I," Commentary, December 1962, 505; hulled: Buber's preface to 1991 edition, xxi; zaddikhim: Description of Hasidic leaders from Buber's preface and Potok's foreword; The Fear of God: Zusya's Tale, "Responses & Reactions V," Commentary, August

1963, 164; for a small intellectual raid: Commentary, December 1962, 506.

292 "the whispers of a new time": AFM, 324.

291 angry impotence: AFM, 325.

291 relaxed on the crossing: Last Party, 225.

293 Jimmy had an absolutely: James Campbell, Talking at the Gates: A Life of James Baldwin

(NY: Viking, 1991), 140. [T]wo lean cats: "The Black Boy Looks at the White Boy," Nobody Knows My Name: More Notes of a Native Son (NY: Dial, 1961), 217-18.

293 myth of sexuality: Nobody Knows My Name, 220-21.

294 Wandering through Paris: Nobody Knows My Name, 224.

294 "A Wandering in Prose": PP, 309-10; still reeling: Last Party, 228.

295 "Norman laughed": Baby, mine is pounding: 229-30.

Tales of the Hasidim to be an American Ibid. 217.

AM, The

295 "never learned to disentangle: 235. "Ibid"

295 "How I wish": Ibid

295 offering to review: NM to Francis Brown, 8-16-56; carbon of his letter: NM to Baldwin, 8-16-

56; very sweet thing: Baldwin to NM, 9-?-56.

Baldwin, "The Black Boy Looks at the White Boy," 296 "aware of a new and warm: Nobody Knows My Name, 220; a partner: James Campbell, 141.

Talking at the Gates

297 "The house is old: NM to JM, 11-22-56.

297 "hoodlums Mailer called them: NM to JM, 10-13-56; working up the nerve: NM to Baldwin, 10-17-56.

298 "phone calls: NM to JM, 10-13-56; in a perpetual stagefright: MBD, 109; Satan and his wife: NM to Chester Aaron, 3-23-56; inhuman city: NM to JM, 10-13-56.

298 "writing a fucking column: Jones to NM, 3-31-56; Dear Jim: NM to Jones, summer, 1956;

299 second, toned-down draft: Jones told NM this in his 3-31-56 letter; note to Styron: NM to Styron, 11-8-56.

299 "boiling mad: MLT, 236-37.

300 "because he permitted: Gay Talese, A Writer's Life (NY: Random House, 2006), 175; Anything that dealt openly: New York in the Fifties, 147. Wakefield

300 orgone box: NM's plywood carpeted box, about the size of a small phone booth, was a fixture in all of his New York studios until a few years before his death. He junked it when he gave up his last studio in the DUMBO area of Brooklyn in the early 2000s; scream and snort: NM to MK, turned to handball: Bill Gallo, www.handballcity.com/boxersplay.htm; Hiya champ: Last Party, 265; Norman sat up: 267.

2-29-56; polished wooden egg: MBM, 190; curl up and be rocked: Last Party, 261; bongo board: MBM, 180; Norman was ready: MBM, 181.

all-purpose expression: Brenner, 31; I started as a generous: AFM, 22.

You're not a publisher: MBM, 180-81.

"Violence and pain" 181.

first novels about hipsters: Who Walks in Darkness (NY: New Directions, 1952).

Beginning to see himself: NM to Dachine Rainier, 12-11-56.

[S]he looked splendid: PAP, 28-29; President Eisenhower: 30; in the elevator: 30-31; See also Mike Wallace Asks: Highlights from 46 Controversial Interviews (NY: Simon and Schuster, 1958), 26-27, and NM's account of his Night Beat appearance in AFM, 406-10.

Leslie, according to Danielle: JML interview with Danielle Mailer, 8-3-11; Mailer made a fuss: Last Party, 250-51; a fantastic experience: NM to MK, 3-27-57.

Norman always loomed: Phyllis Silverman Ott-Toltz, with Barbara Bamberger Scott, Love Bade Me Welcome: The Life of Phyllis Ott (Lake Forest, CA: Behler Publications, 2006), 39-40; what I thought would be a new life: Last Party, 251.

he smashes the living shit: NM to MK, 3-27-57.

Marie Brenner
"Mailer Goes Egyptian," New York ↑

OK?

Comp: break out each bf phrase as separate note on its own line and not let face it!

65 1138

2-29-56; polished wooden egg: MBM, 190; curl up and be rocked: Last Party, 261; bongo board: MBM, 180; Norman was ready: MBM, 181.

turned to handball: Bill Gallo, www.handballcity.com/boxersplay.htm; Hiya champ: Last Party, 265; Norman sat up: 267.

all-purpose expression: Brenner, 31; I started as a generous: AFM, 22.

You're not a publisher: MBM, 180-81.

first novels about hipsters: Who Walks in Darkness (NY: New Directions, 1952).

Beginning to see himself: NM to Dachine Rainier, 12-11-56.

[S]he looked splendid: PAP, 28-29; President Eisenhower: 30; in the elevator: 30-31; See also Mike Wallace Asks: Highlights from 46 Controversial Interviews (NY: Simon and Schuster, 1958), 26-27, and NM's account of his Night Beat appearance in AFM, 406-10.

Leslie, according to Danielle: JML interview with Danielle Mailer, 8-3-11; Mailer made a fuss: Last Party, 250-51; a fantastic experience: NM to MK, 3-27-57.

Norman always loomed: Phyllis Silverman Ott-Toltz, with Barbara Bamberger Scott, Love Bade Me Welcome: The Life of Phyllis Ott (Lake Forest, CA: Behler Publications, 2006), 39-40; what I thought would be a new life: Last Party, 251.

he smashes the living shit: NM to MK, 3-27-57.

307 ^{308 "} beginning of April: NM to Howe, 4-29-57; ["] Each moment fills: Joseph Wenke, Mailer's America (Hanover, NH: University Press of New England, 1987), 81.

308 " ["] too elliptic: NM to Bourjaily, 2-25-58; ^{308 "} rarely bothers to distinguish: Morris Dickstein, Leopards in the Temple: The Transformation of American Fiction, 1945-70 (Cambridge: Harvard University Press, 2002), 151; ^{309 "} a changing reality: AFM, 354; ["] God, he says, is energy: AFM, 351; ^{309 "} ready to go: AFM, 350.

309 " ^{" Baldwin} downright impenetrable: Nobody Knows My Name, 229; ³⁰⁹ City Lights edition: Francis Ferlinghetti's City Lights Press, which published Allen Ginsberg's Howl in 1956, published the first printing (1500 copies) of WN in the late spring of 1959. It carried no publication date, and is usually and erroneously dated 1957. At least five printings followed over the next dozen years;

309 rumored at the time to be Paul Newman: The photo was of photojournalist Harry Redl. See Sarah Bishop, "The Life and Death of the Celebrity Author in Maidstone," MR (2012), 288-308;

309 " ["] is an attempt to impose: Alfred Kazin, Contemporaries (Boston: Little, Brown, 1962), 364.

310 " ^{" 310 "} two strong eighteen-year-old hoodlums: AFM, 347; ["] If one wants a better world: 357;

310 " ^{" Dickstein} momentous shift: Leopards in the Temple, 151.

311 " ^{" AM, The} kindergarten: Last Party, 254.

312 " ^{" Iliad} swapping stories: 254; ^{" Iliad} an air of smug: 238; ^{" 312} were intense and stimulating: James L.W. West III, William Styron: A Life (NY: Random House, 1998), 286-87; ^{" 312 "} was originally king: MLT, 243.

312 ^{" (onandon)} Styron was going: Last Party, 259. ^{AM, The}

[313] "fascinated by it none the less" 67 1140
Ibid.

313 ^{said he} Howe was excited: MBM, 186-87; ³¹³ Beats had their reservations: MLT, 258; ³¹³ acceptable as ⁱⁿ with Lawrence: MLT, 256; ³¹³ a good illustration of a swiftly: Jones to NM, 3-18-58, ⁱⁿ To Reach Eternity, 260; ³¹³ like coughing up blood: ^{West William} Styron, ³¹³ A Life, 288; race-gender-power debates: See, for example, Andrew Hoberek, "Liberal Antiliberalism: Mailer, O'Connor, and the Gender Politics of Middle-Class Ressentiment"; and Frederick Whiting, "Stronger, Smarter and Less Queer: 'The White Negro' and Mailer's Third Man," both in Women's Studies Quarterly 33 (fall/winter 2005).

313 "a new way to think: NM to MK, 8-8-57; ³¹⁴ emboldened him later: MLT, 254; my writing about sex: NM to Brossard, 5-18-57.

314 "one of the four or five: NM to MK 8-8-57; ³¹⁴ it's better than Death: NM to Bea, 8-8-57; ³¹⁴ so bold: NM to JM, 8-8-57.

315 "dream cast: NM to Monica McCall, 8-8-57; ³¹⁵ product of O'Shaugnessey's memory: The Deer Park: A Play (NY: Dial Press, 1967), 33; ³¹⁵ a rather incredible hell: NM to MK, 10-23-57.

315 showing the play: Louis Calta, "Mailer Finishes First Stage Work," NYT, 12-5-57.

315 "the mysteries of murder: AFM, 107; ³¹⁶ bad play: NM to JM, 12-30-57; ³¹⁶ side work: NM to MK, 9-25-57; ³¹⁶ this enormous novel: NM to JM, 12-30-57; ³¹⁶ Intimate Journals: Charles Baudelaire

(1821-67) wrote most of the entries toward the end of his life. Christopher Isherwood translated it from the French (London: Blackmore Press, 1930); ³¹⁶ Now there's a man: NM to JM, 12-30-

57; ³¹⁶ Meyer Shapiro: A Columbia professor and renowned art historian, Schapiro (1904-96) was a member of "The Family," and admired by NM for the breadth of his learning.

316 "An artist exists": ³¹⁶ quoted in "The Invincibles," ILS, 5-5-13, 20. [316] "If I had twice," Ibid.

[316] "with a medium gruesome," NM to JM, 12-30-57.]

316 Actors Studio: ^{MLK}The Good, the Bad, 178; ^{and the Dulce Vita}Last Party, 252-54; ^{AM, The} Frank Corsaro staged some readings: ³¹⁷MLT, 249-52; ³¹⁷recast several of his novels: Dramatic and/or film versions of the following were attempted/completed by NM or others: NAD, BS, DP, AAD, WVN, ES, AE, TGD, as well as ³¹⁷his short stories, "The Greatest Thing in the World" and "The Time of Her Time."

317 "Norman's anger: ^{"AM, The 317"}Last Party, 262; ^{"Ibid 317"}I handled it: 269; ^{"Ibid 317"}Believe it or not: 272.

318 "The Know-Nothing Barbarians": First published in Partisan Review (spring 1959); rpt., Doings and Undoings (NY: Farrar, Straus, 1964), 143-58; ³¹⁸sheer intellectual: Norman Podhoretz, Ex-Friends (NY: Free Press, 1999), 186-89; ³¹⁸suggest a major novelist: "Norman Mailer: The Embattled Vision," PR (summer 1959); rpt., Doings and Undoings, 179.

319 "And how about you: Diana Trilling, The Beginning of the Journey: The Marriage of Diana and Lionel Trilling (NY: Harcourt, Brace, 1993), 353.

320 highbrow, popular and Beat: For a comprehensive, annotated record of NM's periodical appearances and interviews, as well as a life chronology and secondary bibliography, see JML and Donna Pedro Lennon, Norman Mailer: Works and Days, Preface by NM (Shavertown, PA: Sligo Press, 2000); ³²⁰conspicuous success: Charles A. Fenton, "The Writers Who Came Out of the War," Saturday Review, 8-3-57, 6; ³²⁰the promising talent: Edmund Fuller, "The New Compassion in the American Novel," American Scholar (spring 1957), 162; ³²⁰I value Mailer: Dwight Macdonald, "The Bright Young Men of the Arts," Esquire, September 1958, 39.

321 " lousy people: NM to Chester Aaron, 2-11-58; "Styron's Style": HRC; would laugh along: CAC, 109-10.

323 " Bill, I've been told: NM to Styron, 3-12-58; astonished: Styron: A Life, 294; Bill was scared: MBM, 192; warped and perverted: Styron: A Life, 294.

324 " profoundly upsetting: LNM, 116.

324 " probably bragged: Last Party, 261.

325 " The Pistol: NY: Scribner's 1958; contains a perfect: NM to Jones, 2-25-58; emotional sword-twirling: Jones to NM, 3-18-58, To Reach Eternity, 260.

326 " Norman; I don't know who: Styron to NM, 3-17-58, Selected Letters, 250.

326 " Parasites; trust the notion: NM to Jones, 3-20-58.

327 " I just got back: NM to Styron, 3-27-58.

328 " beautifully written and intellectually alive: NM to Baldwin, 3-20-58; Writing ties me into knots: NM to MK, 3-20-58.

329 " fragment about Faye being raped: HRC; on the edge: NM to Philip Rahv, 2-27-58; need to be shocked: Rahv to NM, 3-4-58; damn-the-torpedoes: NM to Rahv, 3-20-58.

329 " Rahv selected "Way Out": "Advertisements for Myself on the Way Out," PR (fall 1958), rpt., AFM, 512-32.

Down Maiter's way

329 "awkward, muddled, and cloying: See, respectively, Jennifer Bailey, Norman Mailer: Quick-Change Artist (London: Macmillan, 1979), 69; Wenke, 230; Solotaroff, 87; my name eludes me: AFM, 512; ghost, geist, demiurge: 520; God is like me: 532.

330 "a climactic party: 515; in the history of our republic: 530; Brave murder: 526.

331 "between the stirrup and the ground: 532.

331 University of Chicago: Morton D. Zabel invited NM to Chicago, 2-11-58; Richard G. Stern: Novelist and longtime professor at University of Chicago, Stern (1928-) corresponded with NM over the next decade and wrote about him in his collection, One Person and Another: On Writers and Writing (Dallas: Baskerville, 1993).

331 "enjoyed the sheer: NM to MK, 6-18-58; series of questions: NM to Zabel, 2-11-58; thanked Stern: NM to Stern, 6-6-58; Paul Carroll: A Chicago poet and teacher, Carroll (1927-96) was the editor of the Beat magazine, Big Table, where NM would publish an excerpt from AFM; the only big city: NM to George Lea, 10-29-58.

Soe
Quer
1-332
Title not in KXT

332 "rushing into a confession: AFM, 376; "Hip, Hell and the Navigator": It first appeared in Western Review 23 (winter 1958); rpt., AFM, 376-86; pitch of excited engagement: AFM, 378; 332 "anti-expressionism: 379; fantastic assertion: 380; this is really something: 381.

334 "consciously makes decisions: 386; teleological sense: See NM's oblique answer to a question about the fallibility of the unconscious, JML, "Writers and Boxers, PAP, 158/59.

334 " Partisan is the most important: NM to FM, 7-9-58; much discussed: NM to EY, 6-18-58; On the Road: (NY: Viking, 1957). The novel spent five weeks on the bestseller list; sales of later printings have been huge; major publications, and Life: The Luce publications ran several negative articles on the Beats; the most disapproving was by Paul O'Neil, "The Only Rebellion Around: But the Shabby Beats Bungle the Job in Arguing, Sulking and Bad Poetry," 11-30-59; see also John Clellon Holmes, "The Philosophy of the Beat Generation," Esquire, February 1958; and Jack Kerouac, "Origins of the Beat Generation," Playboy, June 1959. Ann Charters is the leading scholar of the movement. She wrote Kerouac: A Biography (San Francisco: Straight Arrow, 1973), and edited the most important anthology, The Portable Beat Reader (NY: Viking Penguin, 1992), which has an extensive bibliography. Bill Morgan is to Ginsberg what Charters is to Kerouac; see his I Celebrate Myself: The Somewhat Private Life of Allen Ginsberg (NY: Viking, 2006).

335 " the most venturesome intellect: John Clellon Holmes, Passionate Opinions: The Cultural Essays (Fayetteville: University of Arkansas Press, 1988), 86-87; Notes From the Underground: Dostoyevsky's 1864 novel of anger and irrationality is ultimately a celebration of free will and is often called the first existential novel; associate member of The Family: As noted by Bruce Cook in The Beat Generation (NY: Scribner's, 1971), 17. His study contains important interviews with NM and the major Beat figures; dismissal of the Beats: Standing shoulder to shoulder with Podhoretz's "The Know-Nothing Bohemians" is Diana Trilling's "The Other Night At Columbia," Claremont Essays, 153-73; solitary Bartlebies: Portable Beat Reader, xviii; ecstatic flux: AFM, 466; Beat still has no center: "Ten Words from the Dean," Wagner Literary Magazine (spring 1959), 26-27.

336 " All that green: The Diaries of Dawn Powell, 1931-1965 (South Royalton, VT: Steerforth Press, 1995), 387; film version of Naked: Produced by Paul Gregory for RKO, directed by Raoul Walsh, and distributed by MGM, the film was shot in Panama. It premiered in New York on 8-6-58. Raymond Massey played Gen. Cummings and Cliff Robertson was Lt. Hearn. It cost $1 million to make and earned a profit, although the reviews were middling to poor; the disembowelling naked greed: Untitled 11-page response to the film (HRC); the worst movie: "Norman Mailer," interview with Joseph Gelmis, The Film Director as Superstar (Garden City, NY: Doubleday, 1970), 60. script, CNM 172 337 " Nor could the novelist: Marilyn: A Biography (NY: Grosset & Dunlap, 1973), 19-20; the bastard: Last Party, 246; might make good company: Timebends, 532-33; too impressed by power: W. J. Weatherby, Squaring Off, Mailer vs. Baldwin (NY: Mason/Charter, 1977), 125; terrible tragedy: Bragg, CNM, 203. " was just beginning": Ibid, 258.

338 " Ginsberg-Mailer-Kerouac meeting: MLT, 256-62; more than I would have thought: AFM, 466; In Buddhist terms: MLT, 257; tikkun olam: I owe this insight to Mashey Bernstein; a sense of brotherhood: MLT, 260; the most intelligent: MLT, 260; Mailer saw Kerouac: Last Party, 286. " AM, The " queried in text

339 " influence the history: Stuart, CNM, 20; the artist should be: Selected Letters: Gustave Flaubert, ed. Geoffrey Wall (NY: Penguin, 1998), 217; much better when people: Ross, CNM, 13; little desperate: NM to George Lea, 10-29-58. "shit work": Ibid 340 " detested it: NM to William Phillips, 11-15-58; a provisional plan: NM to Walter Minton, 12-9-58.

340 " 40 jiggle his Self: AFM, 17-18; five or ten years: NM to EY, 1-7-59; my half-vanished techniques: NM to MK, 1-8-59. 341 " 53 " in a dry little voice": Ibid.

Oh, man, did Truman: 166, 40, 341, 11, 341, 11 important theological document: NM to Stern, 2-18-59; intensely curious: PAP, 37, 38 When it comes to personality: NM, "The Capote Perplex," Rolling Stone, 7-19-73, 8; a hint bewildered: PAP, 39-41; nothing like it: "The Capote Perplex," 8; entirely new: Janet Winn, "Capote, Mailer and Miss Parker," New Republic, 2-9-59, 27-28; two-thirds for Jack's virtues.

PAP, 38; demolished Mr. Mailer's: Winn, 28.

out of the way: NM to George Lea, 2-19-59.

make the scene: NM to Lea, 2-19-59; a thoroughgoing autobiography: AFM, 10; the only writer of my generation: AFM drafts (HRC).

assassin to myself: NM to Richard G. Stern, 3-31-59: "Quick and Expensive Comments":
AFM, 463-73.

know about the intense: Doug Ford, "How Yeats Did It," NYRB, 4-3-08; the confession is over: AFM, 336.

at its worst it was a travelogue: AFM, 466-67.

Of all the writers: 467.

is everyone's favorite: ~~467~~

the first figure: 465-66.

347 " ^{Know well} Truman Capote I do not: 465. ^{Ididol}

348 " is essentially a hateful: 471. ^{Ididol}

348 " the early work of Mary McCarthy: 472; I happened to grow up: Zoe Heller, "Yes, I Misbehaved Sometimes," Daily Telegraph, 3-3-03, 19; ³⁴⁸ bitterly intoned: See Francine Prose, "Scent of a Women's Ink: Are Women Writers Really Inferior," Harper's, June 1998, 61-70; Joanna Scott, "Male Writers vs. Female Writers: Beyond the Preconceptions," www.salon.com/media/1998/07/03media.html; Dasee Starr, "Norman Mailer," www.daseestarr.blogspot.com/2010/01/look-up-words-you-don't-know.html.

349 " ridden with faults: AFM, 463-64. ^N

349 " the prettiest novel: 464-65. ^{Ididol}

349 " sense of moral nuance: 471-72. ^N

350 " more arresting: 472. ^{350 The Mind of an}

350 200,000 words: NM to EY, 4-25-59; "Outlaw" appeared in Esquire: Harold Hayes accepted all of NM's conditions for publication in the November 1959 issue. The two most important were that no changes could be made to the text, and his name and the title would appear above any other that appeared on the cover ¹ "top billing," as Cy Rembar put it in a letter (7-1-59) to Hayes. From the start, NM's relations with Esquire editors were contentious and legalistic;

350 "Buddies": IV, 9-16-59; rpt. AFM, 412-21; ³⁵⁰ "Quick and Expensive": Big Table 3 (autumn) winter 1959); rpt., AFM, 463-73; ³⁵⁰two scenes: "Scenes from 'The Deer Park,'" PR (fall 1959);

✓ slash

rpt., AFM, 442-60; ³⁵⁰overground: Hilary Mills' interview with Harold Hayes, 1982 (HRC).

³⁵⁰an indifferent caretaker: AFM, 477.

³⁵¹letters to ³⁵¹13 literary critics: The letter to Macdonald is dated 5-5-59; the rest are dated 5-11-59;

³⁵²supportive reviews: F. W. Dupee, "The American Norman Mailer," Commentary, February 1960; Leslie Fiedler, "Antic Mailer—Portrait of a Middle-Aged Artist," New Leader, 6-25-60; Irving Howe, "A Quest for Peril," PR (winter 1960); Alfred Kazin, "How Good is Norman Mailer?" Reporter, 11-26-59.

³⁵²the avenger: AFM, 488; ³⁵²proud, aggressive: 494; ³⁵²Sergius is the hipster: An American Dreamer: A Psychoanalytic Study of the Fiction of Norman Mailer (Rutherford, NJ: Farleigh Dickinson University Press, 1980), 113-28; ³⁵³dirty little Jew: AFM, 502; ³⁵³whole life is a lie: 502.

³⁵⁵A man is nothing: NM to Lois Wilson, 5-4-59; ³⁵⁵wrote to a New York hotel: NM to Hotel Taft, 5-29-59; ³⁵⁵once in a while I think: NM to Wilson, 6-26-59.

³⁵⁴literary seriousness: Alfred Kazin to NM, 5-21-59; ³⁵⁴the single most unattractive; NM to Kazin, 5-26-59.

³⁵⁵a fantastically courageous book: Diana Trilling to NM, 9-2-59; ³⁵⁵a bit obsessed with Hemingway: NM to Trilling, 9-23-59.

³⁵⁶was very much a Mailer: NM to Dave Kessler, 10-5-59.

³⁵⁶Dear lady (with a light): NM to Lois Wilson, 11-6-59.

The actual inscription reads: "To my most feared friend, to my most beloved enemy, Jim"

360 "Well, if this was going": Baldwin, "The Black Boy" 2360 1149
Looks at the White Boy

357 notably strong reviews: See earlier list of supportive reviews and "Harry T. Moore, "The Targets Are Square," NYTBR, 11-1-58; Kenneth Tynan, Untitled review of AFM, VV, 11-18-59; "The Crack-Up," Time, 11-2-59.

359 The insight Mailer remembered: In 1964, NM quoted Kazin's "very funny" remark, and said the tendency he noted came from trying to compensate for "a certain flatness" in his style (Marcus, CNM, 89); was forged: Preface, Advertisements for Myself (NY: Berkley, 1976), v-vii.

359 "Nobody Knows My Name" 359 "MK" 359 "and the Dolce Vita" 359 "It wasn't a fun evening: The Good, the Bad, 143; in a kind of drunken: Baldwin, "The Black Boy Looks at the White Boy," 234; surrogate for Norman: MBM, 201; Styron wrote the prettiest: The Good, the Bad, 144; started twitching: MBM, 201.

360 "kept a copy: MBM, 201; First Mailer came out: 202; I think I-probably: 203.

360 "because it dramatizes: Aldridge to NM, 11-15-59; the particular lucidity: NM to Aldridge, 12-1-59.

361 persistent detractors: See Aldridge's essay, "William Styron and the Derivative Imagination," Time to Murder and Create: The Contemporary Novel in Crisis (NY: David McKay, 1966), 30-51.

361 "You call him: Shadow Box, 260; We're pretending: 263; both scared and excited: 264.

361 "because I've been talking: NM to Lucid, 12-29-59.

362 writing blurbs: NM wrote approximately 150 blurbs over the course of his life. See Matthew Hinton, "Advertisements for Others: The Blurbs of Norman Mailer," MR (2010), 452-61.

1950s
#7
year

364 "entirely possible: Kazin, "The Jew as Modern American Writer," Introduction, The Commentary Reader, ed. Norman Podhoretz (NY: Atheneum, 1966), xxiv.

Alfred

Seven Notes, Chapter 7

A Felonious Assault and An American Dream

In addition to sources noted below, the following were drawn on: "Fan's Memoir"; JML's "Mailer Log"; JML's unpublished interviews with NM and BW.

NM's letters are located at the HRC

364 "Superman Comes to the Supermarket": Esquire, November 1960; rpt., PP, 25-57. Esquire publisher Arnold Gingrich changed the last word of the essay's title to "supermarket" anguishing Mailer. The original was noted when it was Vidal's reprint in PP.
 364 Gore Vidal's review: "The Norman Mailer Syndrome," Nation, 1-2-60; rpt., United States: Essays, 1952-1992, 31-40; honorable efforts: 40; Great Golfer: 31; a Bolingbroke: 39; create not arguments: 38; a born cocktail-party: 34; a swelling, throbbing: 36; the American president: 39.

364 "His drive seems: 35; very dangerous: 34; some mild rejoinders: "The Shiny Enemies," letter to the editor, Nation, 1-30-60, 2.

365 "I think he was having: Last Party, 282; garnet cross: 285.

365 "since I came on: 293-94. 365 "steadily digging the grave": Ibid., 294.

"lead in the direction" NM to Yarmouth 3 13 68.

366 "Norman glared at me": Ibid 294.

366 "lead in the direction": NM to Yamanishi, 3-13-60.

366 Full-page advertisement:

"Fair Play for Cuba": "What is Really Happening in Cuba?" NYT, 4-6-60, L33.

met in Cuba: NM and NCM visited Cuba in 1989 and had a private meeting with Castro.

367 "the first and greatest: PP, 67-68; met in Cuba: NM and NCM visited Cuba in 1989 and had a private meeting with Castro; "An Open Letter to Fidel Castro": Mailer added a letter to Kennedy, and changed the title to "An Open Letter to JFK and Fidel Castro" when it was published in the IV, 4-27-61; rpt., PP, 63-79; Back in December: PP, 67; Che Guevara: Notes for AON (HRC).

368 "very astute: MBM, 207; We're all shit; 20; I had read his pronouncement: 208.

369 Senators, were actively challenging: See early chapters of Robert Caro's Lyndon Johnson: The Passage of Power (NY: Knopf, 2012); a well-to-do: Oriana Fallaci, The Egoists: Sixteen Surprising Interviews (Chicago: Regnery, 1968), 1-18; characteristic quality: PP, 48.

370 summers of the early 1960s: Last Party, 307-20; MLT, 290-99; Tim McCarthy, "Mailer Gets Moral," Life in Provincetown, 8-14-03, 10; Kahn, "Our Town"; Seymour Krim: An important essayist and editor, Krim (1922-1989) is often linked with the Beat Movement. NM wrote the foreword to his first collection, Views of a Nearsighted Cannoneer (NY: Excelsior, 1961); wild, absolutely wild: McCarthy; At least ten times: Kahn, "Our Town," Boston Globe Magazine.

370 essay on Picasso: "An Eye on Picasso," Provincetown Annual, August 1960; rpt., AFM, 461-62, and Beat Coast East: An Anthology of Rebellion, ed. Stanley Fisher (NY: Excelsior, 1960).

Tim McCarthy, "Mailer Gets Moral," Life in Provincetown

Joseph P. Kahn, "Our Town," Boston Globe Magazine

371 ^{Roger} ~~Donoghue retired~~: Douglas Martin, "Roger Donoghue, 75, Boxer and Brando's 'Waterfront' Trainer, Dies," NYT, 8-25-06, C10; ^{371 " " AM ↑ The} I sometimes thought: Last Party, 314.

371 " I've always loved the Irish: Vincent Canby, "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling, It's Norman Mailer," NYT, 10-27-68, rpt., CNM, 139-44; ^{371 " " NE} drinker with writing problems: Gerry Coughlan and Martin Hughes, Irish Language and Culture (Australia: Lonely Planet Books, 2007), 116.

371 " ³⁷¹ blessed Behan: AON, 47; ³⁷¹ arriving at the apartment with Behan: JML interview with Susan Mailer, 9-5-07.

372 " taxi, taxi: Dwight Macdonald wrote the best account: "Massachusetts vs. Mailer," Discriminations: Essays & Afterthoughts, Introduction by NM (Cambridge, MA: Da Capo Press, 1985), 194-209; ^{372 " " N} I was afraid: "A Letter from Provincetown," New York Post Magazine, 7-3-60, 5.

372 " The only political writing: MBM, 208-09; ^{372 " " N} I had an epiphany: MLT, 305.

373 " ³⁷³ prefabricated politics: ³⁷³ Mailer's America transcript, 9-29-09, Tape 4, 4; ³⁷³ deliberate political attention: Auchincloss and Lynch, CNM, 50.

374 " ³⁷⁴ It was much better: MBM, 209; ³⁷⁴ Sweating like a goat: PP, 84-85; ³⁷⁵ Accompanied by Gore Vidal: ^{Vidal ↑} Palimpsest, 374-78.

375 " ³⁷⁵ altogether meaningful: PP, 46-47; ³⁷⁵ at that time in his life: MBM, 210-11; ³⁷⁵ After I saw the Kennedys: PP, 87.

376 " ³⁷⁶ When it came out: MBM, 213.

376 " ³⁷⁶ It made an enormous: Ibid.

376 " ³⁷⁶ used the tone: Ibid.

" I know how": Ibid., 209.

³⁷⁶ "a vague memory: MLT, 303; ³⁷⁶ I never dreamed: Jacqueline Kennedy to NM, 10-24-60.

³⁷⁷ [T]he Kennedy cortege: PP, 37-38.

³⁷⁸ Sergius O'Shaughnessy born rich: PP, 44; ³⁷⁸ a great many Irish: Sean Abbott, "Mailer Goes to the Mountain," At Random, spring/summer 1997, 50; ³⁷⁸ Since the First World War: PP, 38.

³⁷⁸ The night Kennedy: PP, 60-61; ³⁷⁸ cool conclusion: 88-89; ³⁷⁸ sober, the apotheosis: 59.

³⁸⁰ I hate you: NM to Capote, 8-11-60.

³⁸⁰ The Underground City: (NY: Random House, 1958); ³⁸⁰ Citizens' Emergency Committee: MLT, 306-

08; ³⁸⁰ Humes biography: Harold L. Humes Wikipedia entry; ³⁸⁰ an eccentric comic: Lord Buckley

Wikipedia entry; ³⁸⁰ one of the few people: NM, quoted in Doc (2008), an Independent Lens documentary about Humes, made by his daughter, Immy Humes; ³⁸⁰ made him fantasize: PP, 87; I

³⁸⁰ wanted to be an advisor: Mailer's America transcript, 9-29-99, Tape 4, 5; ³⁸⁰ some drinks and dinner: Joseph Roddy, "The Latest Model Mailer," Look, 5-27-69; rpt., CNM, 148.

³⁸¹ was grim-faced: MBM, 219; ³⁸¹ this insane, cruel, rapacious: Foreword to Views of a Nearsighted

Cannoneer, 6; ³⁸¹ In the city he transmogrified: MLT, 309; ³⁸¹ instructed Rembar: NM to Rembar, 10-18-60; ³⁸¹ you print nice stuff: "A Farewell to His Honor," Esquire, January 1961, 15.

³⁸² flurry of letters: NM to Allen, 10-28-60; NM to Kempton, 10-26-60; NM to Krim, 10-26-60;

NM to Edd, 10-28-60; ³⁸² it is necessary: NM to Walter Kahnert, 10-28-60; ³⁸² Naked Lunch: NM to Ginsberg, 10-28-60.

383 " " tragic, and Kennedy might lose NM to Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., 10-28-60; Kennedy's Wagnerian vision: NM to John L. Saltonstall, Jr., 10-28-60.

383 In undated letters: The letters to Brosnan, Cheever, Spender and Eliot can be dated contextually to the beginning of November 1960.

384 Jim Brosnan: A major league pitcher from 1954-63, Brosnan (1929^{to 19}), wrote several baseball memoirs, the most important being The Long Season (NY: Harper's, 1960); John Cheever: One of the greatest American short story writers, Cheever (1912-82) also wrote several major novels, including The Wapshot Chronicle (1958), which won the National Book Award. "The Death of Justina" was collected in The Stories of John Cheever (NY: Knopf, 1978). NM did not meet him until 1963. Stephen Spender: British poet, essayist and editor, Spender (1909-95), was literary editor of Encounter from 1953 to 1966; T. S. Eliot: NM never met Eliot (1888-1965), who was at the pinnacle of his international fame in the 1960s, but was familiar with his poetry.

385 " " There's a man: NM to Jacqueline Kennedy, 11-3-60; a fair climax: PP, 87-88. "smashed the limits: Ibid. 980

386 Mailer called a meeting: "MINUTES OF MEETING WITH 'DISSENT' PEOPLE, 11/5/60, ON RUNNING MAILER FOR MAYOR ON A NEW PARTY IN NEW YORK." The note-taker of the five-page typed document is not identified (HRC).

386 " " AM, The I thought " What's the matter: Last Party, 340-41; I was unique: Irma Kurtz, "Mailer: I've Always Been an Apostle of Freedom," Nova Magazine, (March 1969), 107.

387 arrested at Birdland: "Norman Mailer in Tiff," NYT, 11-15-60; terribly philosophical: Auchincloss and Lynch, CNM, 43; occasional toke: 47; I think he going to last: 49.

388 rough diary: "Sequence from Tuesday—2 days before Providence," NM's 17-page typed account based on hand-written notes taken during the period (HRC); Noel Parmentel, Jr.: Parmentel (1927-) was a clever satirist who wrote for both the left-wing Nation and the right-wing National Review. His books include Folk Songs for Conservatives, with Marshall J. Dodge III (NY: Unicorn Press, 1964). NM remained friendly with him through the 1960s.

388 reading at Brown: Richard Holbrooke (1941-2010), later President Obama's special envoy to Afghanistan and Pakistan, wrote "Mailer Directs Group Tour of Mailer World," Brown Daily Herald, 11-18-60, 1, 4. Ellen Shaffer wrote a story on NM's visit for the Brown Daily Herald, and sent a copy to Norman Podhoretz, who passed it on to NM. Her published article has not been located; I thought I had God's message: "PPA Press Conference," Publishers Weekly, 3-22-65, 44.

389 the party, stabbing and Bellevue: The following were drawn on: PP, 63-64; TOT, 384-85; MG, 257-63; "Sequence from Tuesday"; JML's "Mailer Log"; JML interviews with NM, BW, MK, Jason Epstein, Robert Silvers, Susan Mailer, Danielle Mailer, Betsy Mailer and Anna Lou Humes; Last Party, 348-63; The Good, the Bad, 178-181; Podhoretz, Ex-Friends, 200-03; MBM, 215-32, MLT, 310-35; Brock Brower; Atlas, "Life with Mailer"; Benjamin DeMott, "Docket No. 15883," American Scholar 30 (spring 1961), 232-37; "Of Time & the Rebel," Time, 12-5-60, 16-17; brief articles in the NYT, New York Post, New York Herald Tribune, New York Daily News, AP and UPI, and summaries of many of the newspaper stories in NM's FBI file (HRC).

389 "he was truly suited": he was truly suited: MLT, 311-12.

391 "was in a strange zone: The Good the Bad, 179; It was a spooky evening: MBM, 221; To my eternal shame: MLT, 314.

391 " I don't know anything: MBM, 221-22; There was a lot of bad: MNM, 222. " ³⁹¹ ^B

392 " It has been quite apparent: "The Lyons Den," New York Post, 11-23-60, 27; I wish you'd hit me: Brock Brower, 110. ³⁹² ^{other loyalties}

394 " Aja toro, aja: Last Party, 349; zombielike state: MLT, 315; He didn't say anything: "Of Time and the Rebel," Time, 12-5-60, 16. ³⁹⁵ ³⁹⁵

344 Evelyn Waugh: Mark Amory, the editor of The Letters of Evelyn Waugh (London: Hodder & Stoughton, 1980) wrote to NM in August 1978 to check on the veracity of Waugh's claim that NM had tried to cut his wife's throat; ³⁹⁴ ^{Plimpton} ^{Peter} George Plimpton: He told Manso that NM used a kitchen knife (MLT, 313); ³⁹⁴ ^{her} alleged that scissors: Oliver Burkeman, in his profile of NM (Guardian, 2-5-02), stated that NM used scissors; ³⁹⁴ ^{her} claimed Mailer had shot: The anonymous writer of "Norman Conquest: Norman Mailer Takes on Picasso" (St. Paul Pioneer Press, 11-4-95) states that NM shot Adele.

394 " always a take-charge guy: JML interview with Anna Lou Humes Aldrich, 12-17-10.

396 " He looked haggard: Last Party, 356-57. ³⁹⁶ ^{Am, The}

396 " That first unmanageable cell: The poem appeared in DFL, no pagination; rpt., MG, 85; Christ, I thought: The Good, the Bad, 179-80. ³⁹⁶ ^{and the Dolce Vita}

397 " The knife to a juvenile: MBM, 224. ³⁹⁷ ^{Mailer}

398 " In my opinion Norman: "Norman Mailer Sent to Bellevue," NYT, 11-23-60, 26. ³⁹⁸

399 Kemp, a young man: Eat of Me, I Am the Savior (NY: William Morrow, 1972). NM called it "a bold novel which takes many chances and succeeds."

400 " So long/as/you/use/a/knife: The poem appeared twice in DFL, but NM chose not to reprint it in MG. Many commentators assume that NM was writing about the stabbing of Adele, yet in PP (145), he states that "I wasn't trying to reveal my private life in that poem. I was trying to crystallize a paradox." In his Playboy interview with Carroll, he says, "I was really thinking about a long conversation I had with a man who stabbed his brother [...]. Once something crystallizes, you have to be ruthless about presenting it; it doesn't matter who gets hurt, starting with yourself."

400 " not psychotic: "Norman Mailer is Found Sane," NYT, 12-10-60; My husband and I: DeMott. 232; I really couldn't say: Normand Poirier, "Mailer: 'I Don't Worry About It,'" New York Post, 1-31-61.

401 " because he feared: "Norman Mailer Admits Guilt in Stabbing of Wife," NYT, 3-10-61, 56; I gamble on human beings: "Judge Gives Mailer a Break," New York Mirror, 5-11-61, 5.

401 Signed by eight writers: "Letters: Norman Mailer," Time, 12-12-60; fine thing to do: Hitchens, New Left Review, 122-23; I walked into the room: Brenner, 32-33.

402 " the bosom: Last Party, 372; a lousy wife: Jones to Burroughs Mitchell, 12-19-60, To Reach Eternity, 293; Letter written in psycho: MLT, 329.

403 " behavior towards Norman: MLT, 333; I saved his neck: Last Party, 369-74; He was the man: MLT, 333.

(Benjamin) Docket
No. 15885
American Scholar

(Christopher) Interview with Norman
Mailer

"Mailer Goes Egyptian," New York
"My boy's a genius: not located."

"AM, The 403" In a sense

404 "a good deal": Ibid, 111¹/_N 12.

85 1158

403 "It affected me: JML interview with Susan Mailer, 9-5-07; That's a good question: JML interview with Danielle Mailer, 8-20-08.

I let God down: JML in conversation with Betsy Mailer, 9-20-05; I think there was: JML interview with Betsy Mailer, 11-29-11.

405 "comes from the fact": Andrew O'Hagan and E.J. Camp, "The Martyrdom of Mailer," Guardian Weekend, 8-30-97, 14; One got out of Bellevue: PP, 64; Through the years: TOT, 384-85.

406 "I lost any central: Brock Brower, 100; A decade's anger: Atlas, "Life with Mailer," 94.

406 "damaged in a lot: JML interview with Danielle Mailer, 8-20-08; You know, my mother: JML interview with Betsy Mailer, 11-29-11; I was trapped: Last Party, 376; make Norman suffer: Anne Kingston, The Meaning of Wife: A Provocative Look at Women and Marriage in the Twenty-First Century (Toronto: HarperCollins, 2003), 180.

My mother was profoundly: JML interview with Betsy Mailer, 11-29-11.

407 "reduced his drinking": make a contribution: "Norman Mailer Goes Free in Knifing Case," NYT, 11-14-61, 45; he drank explosively: Introduction, Deaths for the Ladies (and Other Disasters) (NY: New American Library, 1971), no pagination. The introduction did not appear in the first, hardcover edition of the collection (NY: Putnam's, 1962), the source for all the poems in this chapter. NM reprinted the introduction in EE, 198-204.

409 few reviews of DFL: Time, 3-30-62, 84; Simon: Hudson Review (autumn 1962); Swenson: Poetry (May 1963), 124-25; Lanham: VV, 7-5-62; Rodman: NYTBR, 7-8-62; Macdonald:

Commentary, August 1962, 169-72; ⁴¹⁰an interlude: "Two Bucks—20 Dances," Newsweek, 3-12-62, 104; ⁴¹⁰way of digging myself: Introduction, DFL.

⁴¹⁰ Vidal's apartment: Fred Kaplan, Gore Vidal: A Biography (NY: Doubleday, 1999), 548; ⁴¹⁰The night I met him: MBM, 237.

⁴¹¹ ^{Louise} Jeanne Campbell's background: Alan Brinkley, The Publisher: Henry Luce and His American Century (NY: Knopf, 2010); Anne Chisholm and Michael Davie, Lord Beaverbrook: A Life (NY: Knopf, 1993); Janet Aitken Kidd, The Beaverbrook Girl (London: Collins, 1987); Rosemary Mahoney, "Powerful Attractions," NYTM, 12-30-07, 26; Jeanne Campbell, "Jeanne Campbell Interviews Her Former Husband," London Evening Standard, 10-19-70, 17.

⁴¹¹ "very attractive: ^{Kaplan, Gore Vidal} Vidal: A Biography, 549. ⁵⁴²"some idea of passivity": Ibid. ⁴¹²"I had never gone." Ibid. ⁴¹³"Powerful Attractions," NYTM.

⁴¹³ "the hate book: Rosemary Mahoney, 26.

^{413A} her reaction to her background: JML interview with Kate Mailer, 3-11-13.

⁴¹³ "The Lady and I: NM to MK, 5-17-61; ⁴¹³different magazines: "Gourmandise" and "Eternities," New Yorker, 9-16-61, 11-11-61, respectively; five poems appeared in Atlantic, January 1962; PR turned down 16 poems he submitted; several appeared in the VV; ⁴¹³Some of the best: NM to Don Carpenter, 5-12-61; ⁴¹⁴We had both been extremists: Jeanne Campbell, 17.

⁴¹⁴ "one full heart-clot: OFM, 3-4; ⁴¹⁴the father of modern: Barbara Probst Solomon, "A Conversation with Norman Mailer," Horse-Trading and Ecstasy (NY: North Point Press, 1989), 145; ⁴¹⁴I keep thinking of John Gardner's: SA, 120. ⁴¹⁴"Hemingway constituted": Ibid. ⁴¹⁴"Jeanne Campbell Interviews Her Former Husband," London Evening Standard.

415 " doubly depressing: Alfred G. Aronowitz and Peter Hamill, Ernest Hemingway: The Life and Death of a Man (NY: Lancer Books, 1961), 20; the most difficult death: PP, 103. Except for the comparison with St. Thomas (AON, 105), NM's comments on Hemingway, including his style, are taken from SA and CNM, both of which are indexed.

415 " damn depressing: Aronowitz and Hamill, 20; There is a no-man's: PP, 104-05.

417 " so articulate: Leslie Fiedler, "An Almost Imaginary Interview: Hemingway in Ketchum," PR (September 1962); rpt., A Fiedler Reader (NY: Stein and Day, 1977), 162; "The Big Bite": NM's Esquire column ran from November 1962 through December 1963.

417 "The Metaphysics of the Belly": First published in PP, 277-302; rpt., CAC, 262-305. Two other self-interviews, "The Political Economy of Time" and "The First Day's Interview," appeared in tandem with "The Metaphysics of the Belly" in CAC. The latter was first published in Paris Review (summer-fall 1961), NM's first piece there, and was also reprinted in part in PP, 245-60; an introductory chapter: Michael Mailer, "Mailer on Mailer," Time Out, 10-11-95, 20-23.

418 Mailer: Postulate a modern: CAC, 269-71.

420 " the Beast: AON, 21-22.

420 publication in England: AFM's British publication date was 10-29-61; accept the evisceration: The full text was restored in the 1968 Panther paperback edition; this draping of breasts: NM to Deutsch, 5-6-61; sipping Scotch whisky: "Peter Underwood Meets Norman Mailer," British Books, November 1961, 12-15.

421 " a combination of Brendan Behan: W. J. Weatherby, "The Pursuit of Experience," Manchester Guardian, 9-28-61, 14; hotch-potch: W.G. Smith, "Young American Rebel: An Interview with Norman Mailer," Books and Bookmen, November 1961, 28.

421 Richard Wollheim: A major figure in the study of philosophical aesthetics, Wollheim (1923-2003) coined the term "minimal art." In his interview, "Living Like Heroes" (New Statesman, 9-29-61, rpt., CNM, 65-68), he draws out NM on violence as well as anyone ever has; can literally recreate himself: Wollheim, CNM, 65; had killed 500,000: 66.

422 " There's a psychic poverty: 68.

422 millennial promise: See Wenke's Mailer's America, 237-39 and passim for a thoughtful discussion of NM's focus on this lapsed ideal.

422 " Mrs. Kidd's Ball: Evelyn Waugh to Ann Fleming, 9-23-61, The Letters of Evelyn Waugh, 572.

423 " the horse did bite: NM to Amory, 9-5-78.

424 " a detestation of all: Transcript: "Colin MacInnes Interviewing Norman Mailer" (HRC). Time reported: "Customs: Instant Fad," Time, 10-20-61; a nice knife job: NM to Don Carpenter, 10-23-61.

424 house in Bucks County: NM to MK, 11-11-61; I always suffer: NM to Don Carpenter, 12-9-61; to say how lucky: NM to Grant, 12-9-61; I suppose I suffer: NM to William Watson, 8-5-61.

415 " I wonder how it is: http://bernews.com/2010/12/historical/photos/president/kennedy-in-bermuda/ I'll be a bachelor: NM to MK, 12-9-61.

415 book on Castro: NM to Emile Capouya, 11-7-61; old honey bun: NM to Randolph Churchill, 1-2 (?) -62; ^{415 "are still together"} Divorce proceedings: NM to MK, 1-8-62; ⁴¹⁶ Felker contacted him: NM to A.C. Spectorsky, 8-10-62; end his feud: PP, 92.

416 harsh critique: "The Devolution of Democracy," Dissent (winter 1962), 6-22; ⁴¹⁶ Paul Goodman: In AON (33), NM noted his admiration for Growing Up Absurd (NY: Random House, 1969), and the generally positive influence of Goodman (1911-72) on college students; ⁴¹⁶ because his style: "A COMMENT BY NORMAN MAILER" was written in early January 1962; ⁴¹⁷ delivered exactly to the jugular: AON, 32.

417 as he said in the essay: "An Evening with Jackie Kennedy," Esquire, July 1962; rpt., PP, 81-98, with a new title, "The Existential Heroine: An Evening with Jackie Kennedy, or, The Wild West of the East" -not "Wild Witch" as it has been mistakenly titled; ⁴¹⁷ One's presence was not: PP, 92.

418 " surprisingly thin: PP, 86; ^{" Ibid."} attack on the flag: 81. ^{Ibid.}

419 " And I could see: George, Being George, ed. Nelson Aldrich, Jr. (NY: Random House, 2008), 181-82. ^N

419 asked Richard Goodwin: Podhoretz, Ex-Friends, 208; ["] So, Mailer said, Norman: MLT, 475.

419 " Because my father: Jerry Tallmer, "At Home with Lady Jean Campbell," New York Post Magazine, 4-8-72, 33; ⁴¹⁹ As I was saying goodbye: Beaverbrook: A Life, 488-89.

[430 "Grandfather and Norman": Ibid.

Anne Chisholm and Michael Davis, Lord

430 " " " Jeane Campbell Interviews Her Former Husband, "London Evening Standard," 90 1163

By a Black woman: Jeane Campbell, 17.

431 " " " so arduous: NM to EY, 5-1-63; Jews have a bad head: Irma Kurtz, "Mailer: I've Always Been an Apostle of Freedom," Nova (London), March 1969, 107.

431 " " " making separate starts: NM to FG, 4-14-62; The novel sits: Notes for "big novel" (HRC); 432 " " " "Truth and Being; Nothing and Time": Evergreen Review, September/October 1962; rpt., PP, 271-77.

432 " " " an odd, even exceptional: NM to William Phillips, 1-22-62; archbishop of the new: PP, 274; a rebellion of the cells: 272; the final executor: 273; expel the exquisite: 275; the state of Being: 276.

433 " " " Egypt is fertile: Anthony Burgess, "Magical Droppings," Observer, 6-5-83, 30; some of the best: 274. Ilido 433 " " " we could empty a room: Rosemary Mahoney, 26; immerse yourself: NM to Harry Grant, 4-14-62.

434 marvelous idea calling the child: Sonia Brownell to NM, 5-14-62; whirled round the nightspots: Kidd, 213; Janet Aitken

434 " " " Jeane and her mother urged: Transcript of "Norman Mailer's New Year Message," 12-30-62, Canadian TV program with Nathan Cohen (HRC); announcement of Kate's birth: Margaret Drabble, Angus Wilson: A Biography NY: St. Martin's, 1996), 310. The Sexverkehr Girl

435 Roman circus: "Future of Novel Discussed at Writers' Conference," Times (London), 8-25-62, 8; see also James Campbell, "Let's Do It," TLS, 8-17-12, 36; A nice touch: "Authors' Meeting Breaks Up With Song," Times (London), 8-22-62, 6; French delegation: Raymond Walters, Jr.,

"In and Out of Books: Circus," NYTBR, 9-16-62, 8; a bit of a public figure: Cohen, 24.

This man Mailer: Magnus Magnusson, "Writers' Conference Is Growing in Stature," Scotsman,

8-24-62; was felt to be the pap: Transcript, International Writers Conference, August 1962, part four; It is all of a piece: EE, 262-63; Miller leaned over: Transcript of "Mailer on Miller," 1975 television program, 21.

The method: Transcript, International Writers Conference, part five; he spoke to his friends:

Peter O. Whitmer with Bruce VanWyngarden, Aquarius Revisited (NY: Macmillan, 1987), 64.

Edinburgh had many: Alastair McKay, "On the Town with Norman and Sam," Scotsman, 12-

8-01; told me to let go: "edinburgh book festival footnotes," Sunday Herald,

TheFindArticles.com. 30 Dec, 2010;

http://findarticles.com/p/articles/mi_qn4156/is_20010715/ai_n13961293/; See also James

Campbell, "Let's Do It,"

the most important conservative: NM to EY, 9-12-62; frighteningly bright: NM to Sonia Brownell, 11-28-62; moved and excited: Graham Greene to NM, 7-2-62.

Anne Barry: MBM, 262-63; He was a particularly: "First Meeting with Norman, March, 1962," Anne Barry files.

Barry-Mailer relationship: MLT, 346-49; MBM, 262-63; a very funny man: MLT, 347; Mrs.

Mark Twain: MLT, 349; a stuck-up little: NM to Don Carpenter, 10-5-64; take care of Sadie:

JML interview with Anne Barry, 5-9-12; freedom, his humor: MBM, 263.

in America

440 "The Real Meaning of the Right Wing": The speeches of NM and Buckley were published in Playboy, January 1963, and the ensuing debate in February issue. NM reprinted his speech in PP, 161-74; Buckley reprinted his in Rumbles Left and Right (NY: Putnam's, 1963), 71-84; let communism come: PP, 171.

441 "The airports look: PP, 166; Carson's Silent Spring: Serialized in the New Yorker in June 1962, it was published by Houghton Mifflin on 9-27-62.

441 "I don't care: "Reading from Left to Right," Playboy, April 1963, 8.

442 "Dread, he continues, has been: PP, 161; Metaphysics disappears: 167; in the openness of Being: Heidegger, "The Quest for Being," Walter Kaufmann, ed. Existentialism from Dostoyevsky to Sartre (NY: World, 1956), 272; a repetition of the infantile: PP, 151

442 during his 17-day stay: NM to Don Carpenter, 1-13-61; and CNM, 57-58; For believe me: Nietzsche, "Live Dangerously," Kaufmann, 127.

443 The Concept of Dread: First published in 1844; rpt., as Kierkegaard's Concept of Dread, translated by Walter Lowrie (Princeton: Princeton University Press, 1957); the saint and the psychopath: EE, 210; in secret union: Kaufmann, 253; put iron: DFL introduction, EE, 204.

444 "a clever jabber: Gay Talese, "Mailer Debates William Buckley; Chicago Political Bout a Draw," NYT, 9-24-62, L31; a summer weight suit: JML interview with Gay Talese, 10-19-60.

444 "The crowd was high partisan: PP, 174; Donoghue, Mailer's second: Pete Hamill, "Mailer vs. Buckley: Good Fight, No Decision," New York Post, 9-24-62, 70.

705? →

Heidegger, "The Quest for Being," Walter Kaufmann, ed. Existentialism from Dostoyevsky to Sartre ↑

445 " " 445
I was full: PP, 227; "Ten Thousand Words a Minute": Esquire, February 1962, rpt., PP, 213-445 " " 67; Paret got trapped: PP, 244

446 " " ILID 2610
Have any of you: 216-17.

446 " " Heavy types, bouncers: 223.

447 " " He had stopped: 228.

447 " " plot-ridden, romantic ILID 2610

← Page # TK

448 widely reported: A.J. Liebling, New Yorker, 10-6-62; Red Smith, New York Herald Tribune, 9-27-62; Leonard Shecter, New York Post, 9-27-62; Stan Isaacs, Newsday, 9-27-62; Some ghost of Don Quixote: PP, 266; mélange de genres: NM to EY, 11-28-62.

448 " " MISSISSIPPI
Go to Oxford: NM telegram to Robert F. Kennedy, 9-28-62.

450 Carnegie Hall: See Millicent Brower, "The Novelist Comes to Carnegie Hall, IV, 5-30-63, 1, 6-7, 18; Cosmopolitan: Frederick Christian, "The Talent and the Torment," August 1963.

450 " " 451 " " 451 " " 451 " "
Jeanne and I: NM to Adeline Naiman, 1-15-63; indications that they might: NM to MK, 6-13-
63; Part of the absolute: NM to Harvey Breit, 6-13-63; She's got a will: NM to Moos Mailer, 6-15-63.

452 " " 452 " " 452 " "
dare a bold stroke: NM to André Deutsch, 10-15-63; to do my big book: NM to FG, 11-9-63.

452 " " 452 " "
"Norman Mailer versus Nine Writers": Esquire, July 1963; rpt., CAC, 104-40; The Thin Red Line (NY: Scribner's, 1962); Set This House on Fire (NY: Random House, 1960); Another

NY: Grove Press, 1959

94 1167

Country (NY: Dial, 1962); Naked Lunch; Catch-22 (NY: Simon and Schuster, 1962); Rabbit, Run (NY: Knopf, 1960); Letting Go (NY: Random House, 1963); Franny and Zooey (Boston: Little, Brown, 1961); ^{and} Raise High the Roof Beam, Carpenters and Seymour: An Introduction (Boston: Little, Brown, 1963); Henderson the Rain King (NY: Viking, 1959); ^{453 11} Well, one might as well: CAC, 126-27.

⁴⁵⁴ Sitting with Bentley: JML interview with Beverly Bentley, 5-26-11.

⁴⁵⁵ "I wanted a home: MBM, 271; ⁴⁵⁴ Hemingway's birthday party in Málaga: A photo in A. E. Hotchner's Papa Hemingway (NY: Random House, 1966) shows Beverly and Hemingway wearing fireman's hats and holding drinks. See also Valerie Danby-Smith, Running with the Bulls: My Years with the Hemingways (Waterville, ME: Thorndike Press, 2004), 81-86; Jennifer Hagar, "Beverly Bentley: A Life in the Theater of Our Times," P'Town Women (1998), 41; ⁴⁵⁵ relationship with jazz trumpeter Miles Davis: John Szwed, So What: The Life of Miles Davis (NY: Simon and Schuster, 2002), 145-49.

Associated Press Photo: "Stand-In," New York Post, 4-7 (?) -63.

⁴⁵⁵ "seeing what the mood: NM to MK, 6-13-63; ⁴⁵⁶ a man who takes: New York Post, June (?), 1963; ⁴⁵⁶ "My darling let us: Jeanne Campbell to NM, 6-2-63.

⁴⁵⁶ tested for pregnancy: MBD, 195-96; ^{456 11} lustful and proud: AAD, 266-67.

⁴⁵⁷ Titled "Cancer": (HRC); ⁴⁵⁸ neurobiologists conclusively established: Maureen O'Neill Hooker, "Norman Mailer: From Orgone Accumulator to Cancer Protection for Schizophrenics," MR (2010), 445-51.

← 15510
#17
one per year

458 beginning the new novel: See Robert F. Lucid, Introduction to Laura Adams, Norman Mailer:

A Comprehensive Bibliography (Metuchen, NJ: Scarecrow Press, 1974), xiv-xv; I used the sense: Brock Brower, 102.

459 Conrad and Las Vegas: MLT, 377-78.

459 telegram from Arkansas: MBD, 194; late night drive: MLT, 379.

459 San Francisco visit: MLT, 379-81; narrow ledges: NM to Helene Caprari, Introduction, Norman Mailer's Letters on An American Dream, 1963-69, ed. JML (Shavertown, PA: Sligo Press, 2004), 12; Rojack's harrowing minutes: AAD, 256-60.

460 Southern master-sergeant: NM to FG, 9-10-63.

460 Scott Meredith: NM's agent for almost 40 years, Meredith (1923-1993) was a hard-driving deal maker who popularized literary auctions and other innovations. He supplanted Cy Rembar as NM's agent, although Rembar remained involved in NM's affairs; convinced Walter Minton:

NM to Deutsch, 10-15-63; pitched the idea: MLT, 386-87; great interest in the suicidal:

MBM, 276; was much like Hollywood: NM to Alan Earney, 10-15-63; fantastic advance royalty: NM to EY, 10-16-63; It seems, he wrote to Adeline: NM to Adeline Naiman, 11-5-63; one hundred thousand finished: NM to FG, 10-15-64.

461 in early November: The Presidential Papers (NY: Putnam's) was published on 11-8-63.

462 "The Last Night": Esquire, December 1963; rpt., CAC, 380-97; the early installments: "The Big Bite," Esquire, December 1963, 26; has me more or less pissing: NM to Don Carpenter, 1-

463 "one of the novels"
 15-64; more Dostoevskian; Nancy Weber, "Norman Mailer's 'American Dream': Superman Returns," Books (New York Post), March 1965, 14.

462 "I met Jack Kennedy: "An American Dream: A New Novel Serialized Exclusively in Esquire by Norman Mailer Installment One: The Harbors of the Moon," Esquire, January 1964, 77.

463 Rojack's retelling of events: NM's chronology problem is carefully examined in Hershel Parker's "Mailer's Revision of An American Dream," Flawed Texts and Verbal Icons (Evanston, IL: Northwestern University Press, 1984), 181-212. He argues strenuously that the assassination "wrecked" the novel's time scheme, but few have even noticed the problem.

463 "The Kennedy thing: NM to MK, 12-17-63.

464 "At any rate, I have no desire: NM to EY, 12-15-63.

465 "an intellectual adventurer: PP, 114; accurate, if spiteful: NM to MK, 12-17-63; open poem: "Open Poem to John Fitzgerald Kennedy," VV, 11-23-61, 4.

465 "because his nature: Nancy Weber, 17.

"Norman Mailer's 'American Dream': Superman Returns," Books (New York Post)

466 "A holocaust of a love: Jeanne Campbell, 17; a remarkable girl: Mahoney, 26; I was crazy about her: Frederick Christian, 66; Campbell later married John Cram, and in 1968 had a second daughter, Cusi.

"The Talent and the Torment," Cosmopolitan

466 "playing ten-second chess: NM to FG, 12-20-63; Years ago, Theodore Reik: NM to Bourjaily, 1-16-64; Theodor Reik: An American psychologist, Reik (1888-1969) was an early and brilliant acolyte of Freud.

"Jeanne Campbell Interviews Her Former Husband," London Evening Standard

Rosemary Mahoney "Powerful Attractions," NYTM

467 tribute to Kennedy: "The Fate of the Union: Kennedy and After," NYRB (12-26-63), 6; Vincent

Scully: "Mailer vs. Scully," Architectural Forum, April 1964, 96-97; "The Killer": Evergreen

Review, April/May 1964; rpt., CAC, 222-27; you are a magnetic: Paul Gardner, "Mailer and Buckley Talk on 'Open End,'" NYT, 2-3-64; young heavyweight: NM to Don Carpenter, 3-24-

64; postpone an installment: Carol Polsgrove, It Wasn't Pretty, Folks, But Didn't We Have Fun? Esquire in the Sixties (NY: Norton, 1995), 112.

467 Rojack is still considerably: "Norman Mailer on An American Dream," CNM; a huge mass:

AAD, 19-20; high private pleasure: AAD, 44; a pruning job: Polsgrove, 112.

468 new problem: Polsgrove, 111-14; I've been down: NM to Harvey Breit, 2-11-64; ad in the New York Times; NYT, 4-22-64, L48.

469 It's the only great: NM to MK, 2-17-64; banging away: NM to Vahan Gregory, 3-16-64;

469 feeling wrung out: NM to Martin Peretz, 3-17-64; looks more like his mother: NM to Louis and Moos Mailer, 4-17-64.

469 not up to the first four: NM to MK, 4-19-64; A good writer feels: Fern Marja Eckman, "The

New Moral Climate: The Writers and Poets," New York Post, 6-26-64, 39; If psychic coincidences: CAC, 173.

471 "The Executioner's Song": Fuck You! A Magazine of the Arts 7 (September 1964), ed. Ed

Sanders, one the founders of the rock group, "The Fugs." NM later used the poem's title for chapter 15 of FIG, and as the title of ES; rpt., CAC, 131-32.

471 from imminent alcoholism: Leeds, The Enduring Vision of Norman Mailer, 77.

472 "I'll never write that well": NM ^{in conversation with} JML, 12-28-05. 98 1171

473 "died and was in the antechamber: AAD, 206-07.

473 "a canopy encrusted: 234; solicitor for the Devil: 236; balcony of the 38th floor: Margaret H.

Bay of the real estate firm of Brown Harris Stevens confirmed information about the balcony of the 38th floor apartment, which NM probably visited in the early 60s; something like sane: 270. AAD 474 "What a murderous: NM to MK, 6-2-64.

474 "usually fought a speech: CAC, 30; looked like a handsome: 31; a pleasant urbane: 15; 475 "Talking in a soft: 23.

475 "smelled like formaldehyde: Jeffrey Michelson and Sarah Stone, "Norman Mailer: The Interview," Puritan Quarterly Journal Number 7 (1981), 32; giving off the barbaric: CAC, 25;

"Acute disease is cure: PP, 7; like millions of other whites: CAC, 26; If we are ill: PP, 104; 476 "One worried: CAC, 26.

476 "In the Red Light": Subtitled "A History of the Republican Convention in 1964," it appeared in Esquire, November 1964, rpt. CAC, 6-45.

476 "until you can't stand it: NM to Kemp, 9-30-64.

476 "hard stick-/em-up: NM to Deutsch, 9-14-64; $70,000: George Frazier, "Literary Loot," Boston Herald, 5-12-64.

477 "had a face: CAC, 57-58.

478 "It is even not impossible: CAC, 69; hard, greedy, exceptionally: 48-49.

480 "Gravel, was a friend" Mike Graves to NM, 2-8-65; NM to Mike Graves, 2-20-65.
480 "Edmund Skellings": NM to Edmund Skellings, 2-18-65; NM to Donald Kaufmann, 4-20-65. 1172

478 "city of the future": NM to Tina Bourjaily, 12-23-64; Vertical City: "Cities Higher than Mountains," NYTM, 1-31-65; rpt., CAC, 233-37; flat and dead: NM to Don Carpenter, 1-27-65.

479 "He catches the beauty": Edward de Grazia, Girls Lean Back Everywhere: The Law of Obscenity and the Assault on Genius (NY: Random House), 486; changed the literary history: 495; the golden islands: Preface, Works and Days. "In the days of oppression": Ibid.

480 Alaska trip: Donald Kaufmann's "Norman Mailer in God's Attic," MR (2008), 298-312, is the best account of NM's visit, written by Skellings's Alaska colleague.

480 National Book Award events: "PPA Press Conference," 44; our rebels: Thorpe Menn, "But Without the Golden Age, There Is No Waste Land," Kansas City Star, 3-21-64, L39.

481 "the apocalyptic romanticism": Nina A. Steers, "'Successor' to Faulkner: An Interview with Saul Bellow," Show (September 1964), 37-38.

481 "But we moral nihilists: Menn; hostess of the intellectual: P. Albert Duhamel, "Book Awards Bespeak a Return to Relevancy," Boston Herald, 3-14-65.

482 "flirting with Beverly": MBM, 285.

482 "I didn't want to hit: MBM, 285. 482 'fairly drunk': Ibid. "was absolutely catatonic": Ibid.

481 "a small round girl: 286.

483 "wearing an old trench coat: 287; Phillips, sent the review: Phillips to NM, 3-25-65; Dream has received: "A Small Public Notice by Norman Mailer," PR (spring 1965), 180-81;

483 the division of opinion: Hardwick: PR (spring 1965); Hicks: Saturday Review, 3-20-65; Rahv: NYRB, 3-25-65;

Shattuck: VV, 5-13-65; Hyman: New Leader, 3-15-65; Wolfe: Book Week, 3-14-65; Aldridge:

no
bt mediator list of names names were BF, right?

no bf

100 1173

Life, 3-19-65; Bersani: PR (fall 1965); Rhodes: Kansas City Star, 3-14-65; Didion: National Review, 4-20-65; Pickrel: Harper's, April 1965; Poirier: Commentary, June 1965; run

no bf

Chicago Tribune: Paul R. Jackson, 3-14-65; Time: 3-19-65; Newsweek: 3-15-65;

484 " Congratulations on a nearly: Buckley to NM, 4-7-65; 484 " nicest review: NM to Buckley, 4-20-65.

485 " an extraordinary piece of crap: NM to Trilling, 6-8-65; 485 " because no vice: NM to Trilling, 3-25-65.

Why no BF for names of reviewers and publications?

Eight Notes, Chapter 8

Third Person Personal: Armies and After

no chap title queried p. 486

In addition to the sources identified below, the following were drawn on: "Fan's Memoir";

JML's "Mailer Log"; JML's unpublished interviews with NM and BW.

nm's letters are located at the HRC

486 " offered to lend him money: MBM, 292; 486 " greeted the new champ: Brock Brower, CNM, 115.

Other Loyalties

Gravel, was a friend: Mike Gravel to NM, 2-8-65; NM to Mike Gravel, 2-20-65; Edmund Skellings: NM to Edmund Skellings, 2-18-65; NM to Don Kaufmann, 4-20-65; Where's that tough guy: Donald Kaufmann, "Norman Mailer in 'God's Attic,'" 302.

487 487 487 MR (2008)

"Norman Mailer in God's
A#2, "MRJ"

101

1174 "Mailer on Alaska," Alaska Living

487 " I can breathe here: Tim Bradner, "Mailer on Alaska," Alaska Living (Anchorage Daily News), 6-30-68, 3; the future of this state: Kaufmann, 305; All the messages: Bradner, 3; For twenty long minutes: Kaufmann, 310-11.

488 " Donald " Diana 491 "adored" Now what I'd like: NM to Trilling, 3-25-65; celebrated you both: Trilling to NM, 5-17-65.

489 " In what must be called: Marcus, CNM 77.

489 " Being around Norman: JML interview with Peter Alson, 8-29-12.

490 teach-in at Berkeley: Louis Menashe, editor and compiler, wrote the notes accompanying speech excerpts (including NM's) on two LPs, "Berkeley Teach-In: Vietnam," Folkway Records,
No. FD5765, 1966; NM's speech was first published in Realist, June 1965; rpt., We Accuse, ed.
James Petras (Berkeley: Diablo Press, 1965), and CAC, 67-82; the largest audience: NM to EY, 6-3-65.

491 " a standing ovation": Ibid 491 "buried unvoiced faith: CAC, 71; shedding the blood: 79; bully with an air force: 81; close to insanity: 77-78; [Y]ou, Lyndon Johnson: 82.

492 " Fig and Ecey: NM to FG, 3-31-65; Al Wasserman: An Academy-Award winning documentary filmmaker, Wasserman (1921-2005) was also the founding producer of NBC's "White Paper" programs, and from 1976-86, a producer for 60 Minutes on CBS. He also directed a 1973 NBC documentary based on Theodore White's book, The Making of the President, 1972; See Christopher Lehmann-Haupt, "Al Wasserman Dies at 84," NYT, 4-10-05; Harvard's Sanders Theater: W. J. McCarthy, "2,000 Hear 'Teachers-In' Demand LBJ Resignation," Boston

Herald, 7-15-65; "President Assailed by Norman Mailer," NYT, 7-16-65; Three cheers, lads:

"On Vietnam," PR (fall 1965), 620-56; NM's contribution, rpt., CAC, 83-90.

intellectual precursor: Robert Freidman, "Clay, Mailer in 'Draw,'" San Juan Sunday Star, 8-1-65.

interviewed several times by Brock Brower: JML interview with Brock Brower, 3-17-11; We would each become: NM to Brock Brower, 8-19-65; final confirmation: "'Life' Goes to Norman Mailer," National Review, 11-2-65.

What the hell: NM to Buckley, 10-18-65; his flair for arch: Richard Witkin, quoted in Sewell Chan, "Remembering Buckley's 1965 Run for Mayor," NYT, 2-27-08.

majestically unsuited: "Norman Mailer on Lindsay & the City," WV, 10-28-65; rpt., CAC, 63.

genuinely pissed off: Richard Kluger to NM, 3-16-65; bawled the hell: Kluger to NM, 6-22-65.

results of the poll: Book Week's 9-26-65 issue, titled "American Fiction: The Postwar Years, 1945-65," was devoted to the poll, including excerpts from the comments of 45 of the respondents (excluding NM's); Just think when Time: NM to Kluger, 7-14-65.

new miscellany: NM to EY, 10-8-65; the ghosts of the Nazis: CAC, 3-4; minority within: The final chapter of Poirier's critical study of NM, Norman Mailer (NY: Viking, 1972), is titled "The Minority Within," and brilliantly explores this formulation, which he defines as an element that "has somehow been repressed or stifled by conformity to system" (112); is quite unable: 114.

two huge types: CAC, 3.

497 " The Book of the First-Born: Various drafts are at the HRC. NM sent Scott Meredith (9-6-74) a list of the separate fictional pieces that he was considering incorporating into AE, including "The Book of the First-Born."

497 Tristram Shandy: The Life and Opinions of Tristram Shandy, Gentleman, published in several volumes from 1759-1769, is a masterpiece of comic digression.

"Good fucks make good babies": POS 1916

500 The Prisoner of Sex: First published in Harper's in March 1971, this 50,000-word essay was reprinted in book form by Little, Brown in 1971.

500 "Good fucks make good babies"

(POS 1916) "waiting for Master's a Big One, a Million"

502 " the saga of the Mailer: Gregory Feeley, 40; a writer of the period: John Whalen-Bridge, "The Karma of Words: Mailer since Executioner's Song," Journal of Modern Literature 30 (fall 2006), 9.

503 " so many years: NM to EY, 12-9-65.

503 Lucid, had organized: "American Calendar," American Quarterly 18 (spring 1966), 118-20;

503 audience of approximately 2,000: James Yuenger, "What Norman Means," Chicago Tribune Magazine, 2-6-66, 50, 52; fine blue suit: Richard G. Stern, "Report from the MLA," NYRB, 2-17-66, 26.

504 " a phenomenon never before: "Modes and Mutations: Quick Comments on the Modern American Novel," Commentary, March 1966, rpt., as "The Argument Reinvigorated," CAC, 96; like a weed: 99; clarify a nation's vision: 98; of the deepest: 103; thundered applause: 28.

505 Poetry Center: Program, The Poetry Center, 1965-66; traveling to Japan: NM to EY, 3-23-66.

505 "to explain" in Ibido

"prophetic and penetrating": Eldridge Cleaver, "Notes on a Native Son," Ramparts, June 1966

104 1177

506 " a 19th century novelist: NM to David Madden, 3-24-66; waterfront house: NM to Don Carpenter, 4-16-66.

Wrote to Eldridge Cleaver: NM to Cleaver, 4-26-66.

507 " 50 odd and horrible: Preface to a paperback reprint of Why Are We in Vietnam? (NY: Berkley Books, 1977), v; rpt., as "Are We in Vietnam?" PAP, 9-12. NM also intended to draw on accounts of the 1959 murder and dismemberment of four women by a Provincetown man, Tony Costa, and did draw on descriptions of Costa's marijuana cache in the Truro woods in TGD, as detailed in an unpublished paper by Christopher Busa, "Mailer's Tough Guys: Novelist Invites his Characters to Dance," delivered at the October 2012 Mailer Society conference; I was, as I say: viii. NM ↑ preface ↑ Why Are We in Vietnam? ↑ 508 " bonuses, gifts: "Mr. Mailer Interviews Himself," NYTBR, 9-17-66; rpt., CNM, 107.

509 " a mystique: MBM, 296.

509 " long letter from her: Trilling to NM, 5-6-66; unhappy question: NM to Trilling, 6-?-66; 510 " These McLuhans, these Pinchens [sic] and Jeremy Larners: Marshall McLuhan (1911-1980), communication theory guru and author of Understanding Media (NY: McGraw-Hill, 1964); Thomas Pynchon (b. 1937), reclusive author of complex novels about, among other things, paranoia and technology. NM may have been responding to the critical buzz surrounding the publication of Pynchon's postmodern novel, The Crying of Lot 49 (Philadelphia: J. P. Lippincott, 1966); Jeremy Lerner (b. 1937), novelist, teacher and screenplay writer, published a novel about a college basketball star, Drive, He Said (NY: Delacorte, 1964).

510 " I carry my ideas: NM to EY, 4-24-66; adventurers, rebels: "Our Argument at Last Presented," CAC, 307; modern science may prove: 308.

511 Eliot-Fremont Smith: "A Nobel for Norman," NYT, 8-22-66, 31; A. Alvarez: "Dr Mailer, I Presume," Observer, 10-15-67, 27; John Wain: "Mailer's America," New Republic, 10-1-66, 19-20.

511 anthology devoted to the Beats: Feldman and Gartenberg.

The Beat Generation and the Angry Young Men(-)

511 Leo Garen: A television and film writer and director of off-Broadway theater, Garen (1936-2006), met NM in Provincetown and later worked with him on MM; white with fury: MBM, 295; When I was pregnant: MBM, 305; Carol Stevens: Born in 1930, Stevens cannot recall the month in 1962 that she met NM.

514 Stevens was on a date: JML interview with Carol Stevens, 3-28-09.

513 " Norman never held her down: MBM, 305; doesn't want to share: MBM, 296; We did it up here: NM to Louis and Moos, 9-25-66; to running the (at times enormous): MBD, 272; 513 " Norman's career: William Wolf, "Mrs. Mailer Describes Life with Mailer," Asbury Park Sunday Press, 3-19-67, 25; I began to feel: MBD, 272; The game is not over: 273.

513 " all the lard: NM to MK: 8-3-66; Theatre de Lys: NM to EY: 12-14-66; At least I'll be done: NM to Breit, 9-24-66; review of Rush to Judgment: "The Great American Mystery," Book Week, 8-28-66; rpt., EE, 269-83; had no intention: EE, 272; literary commission: 282.

515 social event of the year: Madeline Belkin (NM's secretary) to Elizabeth Davies, 10-14-66.

516 "dirty gabardine raincoat": George Plimpton, Truman Capote, 276.
516 "Everything felt annoyed," Ibid, 277.
516 "I WAS dissolute": Ibid, 269.

106 1179

515 Black and White Ball: Gerald Clarke, Capote: A Biography (NY: Simon and Schuster, 1988), 369-80; George Plimpton, Truman Capote: In Which Various Friends, Enemies, Acquaintances, and Detractors Recall His Turbulent Career (NY: Nan A. Talese/Doubleday, 1997), 247-78; Phillip Schopper interview for "American Masters" documentary on Hellman; Lillian www.flickr.com/photos/52207413@NO2/5472186684/.

517 paid him $20,000: NM to Deutsch, 12-1-66; ten stunning: Introduction, The Deer Park: A Play (NY: Dial, 1967), 7-32; perhaps the dearest: DPP, 11-12.

518 "a twin tower: Richard Gilman, "Big Red Heart," Newsweek, 2-13-67, 109; shameless vice figure: Walter Kerr, "Evil: Plainly a Fun Thing," NYT, 2-12-67, 13; interviews to the Village Voice and the New York Post: Stephanie Harrington, "Norman Mailer's 'Deer Park': Countdown Drama," VV, 1-5-67, 1, 23; Jerry Tallmer, "Norman Mailer: Playwright," New York Post Magazine, 2-11-67; Statement of Aims, VV, 1-5-67; a long essay: "Mr. Mailer Passes Out the Cigars," NYT, 1-22-67; I wanted the critics: Dick Schaap, "Opening Night at the Theater," New York Post, 2-2-67, 29.

518 "I think we've got: Schaap, 29; ad in the Times: NYT, 4-26-67, 4D; host a Village: Stephanie Harrington, "Mailer's Street Scene: Renewal on Sunday," VV, 5-4-67, 1, 21.

519 "his own drum: Wilfred Sheed, "Another Word from the Sponsor," Life, 2-24-67, 8; the complicated story: Michael Smith, "Theatre Journal," VV, 2-9-67, 23; Mailer is a moralist: Walter Kerr, 1; spout philosophy: Sheed, 8; I hold on: NM to MK, 5-2-67; $60,000: NM to JM, 5-3-67.

"Evil: Plainly a Fun Thing," NYT
"Another Word from the Sponsor," Life

519 short stories: The Short Fiction of Norman Mailer (NY: Dell, 1967); Why Are We in Vietnam? (NY: Putnam's, 1967); The Bullfight: Subtitled A Photographic Narrative with Text by Norman Mailer (NY: CBS Legacy Books/Macmillan, 1967); NM's essay first appeared in Playboy, October 1967 as "The Crazy One," rpt., EE, 37-60; Lorca poem, The Poetry Bag (winter 1967-68), rpt., EE, 236-42.

520 expressing reluctance: NM to Felicia Geffen, 3-2-67; anti-war speeches: Dallas Morning News, "Mailer says U.S. Dangerously Split," Dallas Morning News, 3-29-67; Lee Coppola, "Mailer—Man of Fevered Words," Buffalo Evening News, 4-1-67; "Mailer Speaks for City TNT," Goucher Weekly, 4-14-67.

521 "We had absolutely fantastic: "Norman Mailer," Interview with Joseph Gelmis, The Film Director as Superstar (NY: Doubleday, 1970), rpt., CNM, 158; Norman suggested to Buzz: The Good, the Bad, the Ugly, 256; 521 "A gestalt of galoot: Michael Chaiken, "The Master's Mercurial Mistress: How Norman Mailer Courted Chaos 24 Frames per Second," Film Comment, July/August 2007, 38.

522 "had the horror: Gelmis, CNM, 164; almost unendurable: Canby, CNM, 141; usual narcissistic fog: NM to Harvey Breit, 6-13-63; as if everybody: Canby, 141.

522 "I just loved cutting: Gelmis, 159; the worst movie: "Celebrities Make Spectacles of Themselves," New Yorker, 1-20-68; I thought I was going: Canby, 141.

523 $450,000 advance: MBM, 301; Jewish experience: MBM, 302; was going to follow: MBM, Ibid. 302; Mailer wrote back: NM to Bill Walker, 7-15-67; far too concerned: NM to Don

Gelmis already filed in Biblio

523 11 Carpenter, 7-14-67; ¹¹fallen on dull, chilly days: NM to MK, 5-2-67; ⁵²³publishing a major new novel: The Confessions of Nat Turner (NY: Random House, 1967); ^{523 11}putting out peace feelers: NM to MK, 7-21-67; ⁵²³*Go to the Widow-Maker*: (NY: Delacorte, 1967); ^{523 11}paranoia, ¹¹megalomania: NM to MK, 4-7-67.

523 "an extraordinary idea: NM to JM, 5-3-67; ⁵²⁴mailed him his review: NM to JM, 9-9-67.

524 Playboy interview: rpt., in part, PAP, 32-45; ^{524 11}metaphorical and elliptical: NM to Nat Lehrman, 7-5-67; Making It: (NY: Random House, 1967); ¹¹one of his literary executors: NM to Rembar, 5-25-64; a copy to Mailer: Podhoretz, Ex-Friends, 215.

525 ^{why Arthur?} reviews of Vietnam: John W. Aldridge, "From Vietnam to Obscenity," Harper's, February 1968, 91-97; Eugene Glenn, VV, 9-28-67, 6-7, 41; Eliot Fremont-Smith, "Norman Mailer's Cherry Pie," NYT, 9-8-67, 41M; Jack Kroll, "The Scrambler," Newsweek, 9-18-67, 103-05; Denis Donoghue, "Sweepstakes," NYRB, 9-28-67, 5-6; Granville Hicks, "Lark in the Race for Presidency," Saturday Review, 9-16-67, 39-40; Christopher Nichols, "Psychedelic Freakout," National Review, 10-31-67, 1216-17; "Hot Damn," Time, 9-8-67, D12-13; ^{525 11}Disc Jockey: WVN, 24; ¹¹genius brain: 27; ¹¹trading myself: 23. ^{525 11}"The fact of the matter" ¹¹*Ibid.* 238.

525 " taste of fish: WVN, 69; ^{526 11}There were two eyes: 70-71; ¹¹Write from experience: Henry James, "The Art of Fiction" (1884), rpt., Henry James: Essays on Literature, American Writers, English Writers (NY: Library of America, 1984), 53.

527 " intensity of this process: AON, 152-53.

young woman named Lee Roscoe; JML interview with Lee Roscoe, Summer 2010.

109 1182

527 The cast included: Evergreen Scorecard, Vol. 2, No. 3 (November/December 1968); He's not only convinced: Roger Ebert, review of Beyond the Law, Chicago Sun-Times, 11-4-69; slightly manic: Canby, "Norman Mailer Offers 'Beyond the Law,'" NYT, 9-30-68; a real course in filmmaking: MBD, 234.

528 "lugubrious conscience: AON, 16-17.

529 "are not in focus: AON, 19.

529 compared to Joyce: Christopher Lehmann-Haupt: "Norman Mailer as Joycean Punster and Manipulator of Language," Commonweal, 12-8-67, 338-39; outrageous theories: Gilman, 109;

530 made his daughter Susan: AON, 13; endless blendings: 74-5.

530 "He had learned: 13-14.

531 "leisurely twilight: 21; the exploratory personal: Werner Berthoff, "Witness and Testament," Aspects of Narrative, ed. J. Hillis Miller (NY: Columbia University Press, 1971), 189.

532 "as a piece of material: Canby, CNM, 142.

532 "architecture of ancient Egypt: AON, 178; the architecture of his personality: 26; serves willy-nilly: 66; half-heroic: JML, "An Author's Identity," PAP, 153; Curious, when you're with X: Lowell, quoted in Macdonald's review of Armies in Esquire, May 1968, rpt., Discriminations, 210-16.

533 "finest journalist: AON, 30-31.

535 "The eye is the first circle: "Circles," Ralph Waldo Emerson: Essays & Lectures (NY: Library of America, 1983), 403.

535 "sound-as-brickwork: AON, 99.

536 "marked the move: Sandy Vogelgesang, The Long Dark Night of the Soul: The American Intellectual Left and the Vietnam War (NY: Harper & Row, 1974), 134; Future historians: 131.

536 "For the war spoke: AON, 108; to be able to enjoy: 91-92.

537 "as if finally: 129; It was as if the air: 147.

538 "feeling like the people's: 225; had every promise: 98.

538 "No, in fact: Donald Newlove, "Dinner at the Lowell's," Esquire, September 1969, 178; I've been trying: Lowell to NM, 3-13-68; a Quixote: Ian Hamilton, "A Conversation with Robert Lowell," The Review (London), 1971; rpt., American Poetry Review September/October 1978, 26; Notebook, 1967-68 (NY: Farrar, Straus & Giroux, 1969); "For Norman Mailer": 183.

539 "the form of the book: Hamilton interview, 26; Prince of Bourbon: AON, 42; the expression on his face: 43; fatally vulgar: 54; a blending so dramatic: 50-51.

541 "What a good short story: Matthew Grace and Steve Roday, "Mailer on Mailer: An Interview," New Orleans Review 3, No. 3 (1973), 231; an astronomical figure: MBM, 321. crouched like a boxer: Ibid.

541 "No book I wrote: SA, 14; isolated and bored: MBM, 322; going off in a new: Christopher Bollen, "Norman Mailer, Writer," V magazine, January/February 2003, 7; "A Shaky Start":

"A Conversation with Robert Lowell," The Review

Time, 10-27-67, 25; ^{together} really tied the thing; MBM, 316; ^{"The average reporter":} could not get: AON, 78; Now we may leave: 12.

542 read a long chapter: SA, 99; ⁵⁴² Adams' The Education: Published by Houghton Mifflin in 1918.

Using the third person personal as effectively as the major writers who had employed it ^{born him before and after him}

(Thucydides, Julius Caesar, Gertrude Stein), he writes about the huge changes, especially in technology, that he observed over his long life. The grandson of John Quincy Adams, the sixth president, Adams (1813-1918), was also acquainted with Albert Einstein, as well as many major American political figures and artists of England and the U.S.; ^{United States} It's as if I: SA, 99; ⁵⁴² damned odd:

127; ⁵⁴² part of the ego: 86.

543 "already laid out: MBM, 321; ⁵⁴³ 40,000 words: NM to EY, 11-20-67; ⁵⁴³ I was stunned: MBM, 322; 543 "I think we should: Willie Morris, New York Days (Boston: Little, Brown, 1993), 217.

543 Beverly cooked: New York Days, 218; ⁵⁴⁴ frizzy hair: North Toward Home (Boston: Houghton Mifflin, 1967), 358, ⁵⁴⁴ 218. Look, I'm Irish": Ibid.

544 "The Steps of the Pentagon": Harper's, March 1968, 47-103; rpt., in revised form as Book I of The Armies of the Night (NY: New American Library, 1968); ⁵⁴⁵ Umbashrien: MLT, 471; "History as a Novel": published as "The Battle of the Pentagon," Commentary, April 1968; rpt. as Book II of AON; ⁵⁴⁵ only an afterthought: New York Days, 219; ⁵⁴⁵ old dear great: "Up the Family Tree"

(review of Making It), PR (spring 1968); rpt., EE, 171-97; ⁵⁴⁵ Beverly was searching: New York Days, 219.

545 " Podhoretz ↑
 dirty little secret: Making It, xvi-xvii; Mailer-like bid: 356; very nasty indeed: Breaking Ranks (NY: Harper & Row, 1979), 221; agreeable variety: EE, 176.

546 " squalid yard: EE, 172; Here I was: MLT, 473; himself a literary character: EE, 180; one is advancing: 181; forced to jog: 189; muted limited account: 187-88; deserted his possibilities: 189.

547 " Podhoretz apes: Robert Kirsch, "Hang-ups of Podhoretz in Aping Mailer," Los Angeles Times, 1-14-68; invariably as attractive: EE, 187; was probably too cruel: Andrew O'Hagan, "Norman Mailer: The Art of Fiction," The Paris Review Interviews III, 425; probably would dislike: Podhoretz, Ex-Friends, 214.

549 Among the major reviews: John Simon, "Mailer on the March," Hudson Review (autumn 1968), 541-45; Mario Puzo, "Generalissimo Mailer: Hero of His Own Dispatches," Book World (Chicago Tribune), 4-28-68; "First Person Singular," Time, 2-23-68, 81; Willie, if I ever: NM to Willie Morris, 3-7-69; diary-essay-tract-sermon: Kazin, "The Trouble He's Seen," NYTBR, 5-5-68; rpt. JML, Critical Essays on Norman Mailer, 62; the best American writers: 64-65

550 Death in Life: (NY: Random House, 1967); He immediately took BJ: JML interview with Robert J. Lifton, 9-14-10; He repeats the story in his memoir, Witness to an Extreme Century (NY: Free Press, 2011, 355-56); Your speaker is here: "Accepting the National Book Award," EE, 254-55.

551 " pleasant reception: NM to MK, 3-4-68.

552 " The movies are not there: Gelmis, 167-68; Making movies is a religious: 172.

552 " the horror of life: Ibid., 167.

552 over $70,000; 158; below the reality: 160; anything goes-bottomless: Michael Chaiken, "The Master's Mercurial Mistress, 38-39."

553 Jack Newfield: A well-known leftist journalist who wrote for the VV and other newspapers, Newfield (1938-2004) was a friend of Robert F. Kennedy and wrote Robert Kennedy: A Memoir (NY: Nation Books, 2003), and several books about New York City politics. Newfield wrote a piece: "On the Steps of a Zeitgeist," VV, 5-30-68; rpt., JML, Critical Essays on Norman Mailer (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1986), 99-103; Mailer, novelist, counterpuncher: 100; I want a guarantee: 101; they are an active: 102. "Norman Mailer is come": Ibid.

554 "with every stimulus: "A Course in Filmmaking," New American Review, August 1971; rpt., Maidstone: A Mystery (NY: New American Library, 1971), 157. Criterion Films (Eclipse Series 35) reissued re-mastered versions of Maidstone, Wild 90, and Beyond the Law in 2012, with notes by Michael Chaiken; there had not been a President: AON, 135; unbelievably paranoiac: JML interview with Carol Stevens, 7-5-11.

555 James Toback: Writer and in some cases also the director of several important films, Toback (b. 1944), was a long-time friend of NM, and also worked with his son Michael on film projects, including Two Girls and a Guy (1997); There was a fair amount: JML interview with James Toback, 8-14-10, conducted by Michael Chaiken.

556 "tacitly understood: MM, 159; a bunch of enforced existentialists: 139.

556 "You crazy fool: MM, 121. See Michael Mailer's account, "Over-Exposed—My First Taste of Filmmaking," PlumHamptons, June 2011, 209.

557 " all too unhappily: MM, 177.

557 Toback's Esquire article: "At Play in the Fields of the Bored," Esquire, December 1968; rpt., MM, 8-21; when we discussed it: JML's question for James Toback interview.

need correct wording

558 " they're part of a certain: JML interview with Michael Chaiken, 4-19-11; We came here: AP story, "Mailer at Venice with Film Aiming to Be Memorable," NYT, 8-31-70, 21.

558 " drew more than anybody: NM to MK, 10-21-70; Guy Domville: the story is best told in the novelized version of the event by David Lodge, Author, Author (NY: Viking, 2004); came under the head[ing]: John M. Lee, "Mailer, in London, Trades Jabs with Audience over Film," NYT, 10-17-70, 21; my failed cinematic masterpiece: SA, 198.

559 spending $125,000: NM to MK, 7-28-68; shares in the Village Voice: MM, 156; the Republic hovered: Miami and the Siege of Chicago (NY: New American Library, 1968), 14; God may have withdrawn: Not located.

560 " There had never been: MSC, 46; inner debate: 44.

561 " Most of them were ill-proportioned: MSC, 34-35.

562 " he had the presence: MSC, 71-72; body armoring: See Theodore P. Wolfe's translation of Reich's 1933 study, Character Analysis (NY: Farrar, Straus and Giroux, 1970).

562 " spent ten days: NM to EY, 9-30-68; reporter was sentimental: MSC, 85-86.

563 " police riot: The phrase was used in "The Walker Report," formally titled Rights in Conflict (Chicago: National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence, 1968); people whose ancestors: MSC, 104; Gestapo tactics: 180.

564 " It seemed to him: 185; had allowed him to write: 187; potential militancy: 188; Write good, baby: 190.

565 By August 21: NM to Susan Mailer, 8-21-68; 50,000 words: NM to EY, 9-30-68; more conventional: Eliot Freemont-Smith, "Family Report," NYT, 10-28-68, 45; to unfold: Jack Richardson, "The Aesthetics of Norman Mailer," NYRB, 5-8-69, 3-4; holds up better: Frank Rich, "Introduction," Miami and the Siege of Chicago (NY: New York Review of Books, 2008), vii-xi.

BMGH Notes, Chapter 9
Politician to Prisoner

BMGH In addition to the sources identified below, the following were drawn on: JML's "Mailer Log"; JML's unpublished interviews with NM and BW.

EN articles for Life: NM to EY, 3-17-69; the real had become: OFM, 141; suggestions from three writer: Michael Gross, "Norman Mailer: The Writer as Candidate," New York, 4-6-98; Gloria

567
1964 back cover

Steinem: One of the most celebrated American feminists, Steinem (b. 1934), is a distinguished journalist and the author of several books, including a biography of Marilyn Monroe, Marilyn: Norman Jean (NY: Henry Holt, 1986), bring them whole: AON, 135.

567 " with the heart: William Inge to NM, 5-29-68; the disease of the 20th century: NM to Inge, 6-15-68; 567 " One key, one solution: Emerson: Essays & Lectures, 966.

567 honor guard: MSC, 203-04; Weidenfeld and Nicolson: AON was the first of NM's books published by this firm; later it published DPP, WVN, MSC, OFM and POS; Harvard Board: Thomas Nagel to NM, 7-24-68; comic, philosophical: NM to Nagel, 8-2-68; see also Robert M.

Smith, "Mailer and a Member of S.D.S. Seeking Posts on Harvard's Board of Overseers," NYT, 4-21-69, 37; an auspicious moment: Grunwald to NM, 9-26-68; NM to Grunwald, 9-30-68.

568 Newsweek beat it: Sokolov; the poorest part: MSC, 203; the awful cry: 221; balance every moment: 93-94. Raymond "Flying High with Mailer," "enjoying a dalliance": Ibid. 94. "illimitable funds" Ibid.

569 honorary degree: honorary Doctor of Letters degree on 6-4-69; feeling a little tired: NM, form letter, early 1969; Carolyn Mason, invite: Joe Flaherty, Managing Mailer (NY: Coward-McCann, 1970), 15; Jimmy Breslin: A Pulitzer-Prize winning newspaper columnist who writes from the perspective of ordinary people, Breslin (b. 1930), is also an accomplished novelist and investigative reporter; street smarts: Managing Mailer, 18. Could be matched: Managing

569 Queer
in
RTT

Mailer, 18; hip left-right coalition: 80; Electoral politics: 20; Do you know something: 23.

570 full-page ad: VV, 4-17-69, 13; ticket as comptroller: See "Gloria Steinem Remembers Norman Mailer," NYT, 11-12-07; either because of fatigue: Carolyn G. Heilbrun, The Education of a

"hypercultured the 1st manuscript"