RE: NORMAN MAILER, J. Michael Lennon, text pp. 2-300; Notes pp.1080-1138

TEXT:

I often added full titles to NM works as well as names of publications, which makes it easier for the reader to follow the story.

I added many first names, also to make it easier for the reader.

I changed a number of ambiguous "he" and "him" to Mailer (or whoever)—again to make it easier for the reader.

I called out all quotes for cites to be added to Notes. Once more—this makes it easier for the reader to know where a quote is coming from.

NOTES:

I broke out each cite on its own line.

I fleshed out short cites that aren't in Biblio or any of the Lists of Abbreviations.

I added to the headnote for each chapter a statement regarding where the NM letters are located.

I made an abbreviation: AM, for Adele Mailer.

The Adele Mailer book, THE LAST PARTY, is quoted often—permission may be needed.

I'm assuming JML has permission to quote extensively from NM books, especially AFM?

Possible legal on p. 1094.

Dear Mr. Lennon:

Re. Norman Mailer

Here is your partial manuscript (text pp. 2-300; Notes pp. 1080-1138) with queries, plus a memo from Fred Chase, the copy editor, for your reference. As you deal with the copyedited manuscript, we ask you to observe the usual procedures, in order to avoid problems that can otherwise occur.

1. Leave all flyers attached, indicating your response on the flyer. If you wish to amend the manuscript in any way, please use a different colored pencil from the copy editor's. (I enclose two green pencils.)
2. If you need to insert a lengthy addition, please type it (double space) on a separate page, indicating where it should be entered.

If you have any questions, please be in touch, and I'll be happy to help.

Sincerely yours,

Gypsy da Silva
