

JOB NO.	PAGE	POSITION	DENSITY	%
4650	211	1		140

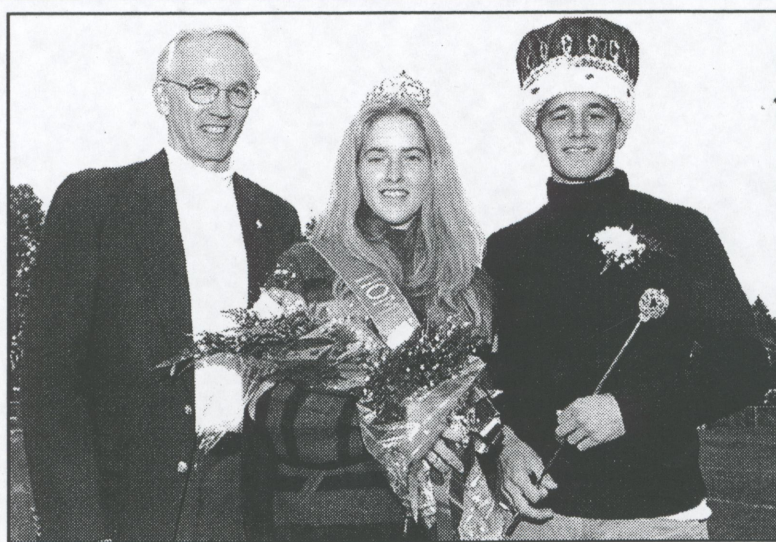

ns' Voice, Wilkes-Barre, Pa. 31, Monday, November 1, 1999

Wilkes crowns Homecoming queen, king

Abby Sherburne, of Towanda, and Jarrad Max, of Allentown, were recently crowned Wilkes University's 1999 Homecoming Queen and King during the 52nd annual celebration at Ralston Field, Edwardsville.

Sherburne, 19, is one of the youngest queens in Wilkes history. She is a senior communications major who will graduate from Wilkes in May 2000 and plans to continue her education in graduate school. Max, son of Mary Anne and Ronald Max, is a secondary education major with a concentration in English and will graduate from Wilkes in the fall of 2000. After earning his degree, he plans to teach junior high school. From left are: Wilkes president Dr. Christopher N. Breiseth, Abby Sherburne and Jarrad Max.