A MAN was run over in Broadway the other day, and several sympathetic witnesses of the accident rushed forward to his assistance. At that moment somebody in the crowd exclaimed:

"He is an ice dealer." Thereupon out of seventeen persons who started to the rescue, sixteen turned back.
The one who remained, it was subsequently learned, was in the same business.—Brooklyn

The latest adv'ces from the Sandwich Islands report that the lava thrown from Mauna Loa is likely to destroy a portion of the town and harbor of Hilo. This is bad for Hilo, but it is hoped "Jack and the game" may be saved.—Norristown Herald.

No Hospital Needed.

No palatial hospital needed for Hop Bitters patients, nor larger salaried talented puffers to tell what Hop Bitters will do or cure, as they tell their own story by their certain and absolute cures at home.—New York Independent.

THE SURPRISE BOUQUET.

Just Out, and the Best Practical Joke of the Season.
This beautiful Butter-bio Bouquet is made of Artificial Flowers and Leaves, which so closely resemble natural flowers that not one person in a thousand would detect the difference. After placing the Bouquet in your button-hole you call the attention of a friend to its beauty and fragrance. He will very naturally step forward and smell it, when to his utter astonishment, a fine stream of water will be thrown into his face. Where the water comes from is a mystery, as you can have your hands at your side or behind you, and not touch the Bouquet in any manner. You can give one dozen or more persons a shower bath without removing the Bouquet from your button-hole, and after the water is exhausted it can be immediately refilled without removing it from your coat. Colognes can be used in place of water when desired. We have many funny things in our stock, but nothing that equals this.
Price, all complete in a beautiful box, with full printed instructions, only 30 cents, or four Bouquets for $1, by mail, post-paid. Postage stamp accepted for amounts less than $1. Address
