Mr. HENRY CLAY LUKENS ("Erratic Enrique") is the sole agent and representative of the Texas Siftings in New York city and vicinity, and about May 1st will open a bureau of advertising, correspondence, and delivery. Mr. Lukens has terminated his association with THE JUDGE as a regular contributor to its columns.—Rochester Express.
Commercial to the last!

"Excuse me, Bridget, but may I inquire what this arrangement means that you have hung up on the kitchen wall?" "Oh, that! Sure an' it's a daddo, mum, and just wait till you see the beautiful paycock's feather I'll be after hanging above the dure. It's issthetic I am, mum, if you please, and my gallery greenery young man's comin' here to take tay wid me this evening."
—Grip.

"Whoever heard of a mule dying a natural death?" —Georgetown Record. We have. Buffalo gnats are killing mules on the Sabine river. Do not those mules die a gnatural death?—say, Nat?—Siftings.

The willingness of the Scovilles to take charge of Guiteau and his estate reminds one of the Irishman who was married, before the war, to a rich Southern widow, owning five hundred negroes, and belonging to one of the first families of Virginia. When the preacher asked, "Dost thou take this woman to be thy wedded wife, to love her, to cherish her," etc., Paddy spoke up: "I do, and the nagurs, too."—Exchange.

There was one hard case inside of another hard case when Jesse James was buried in a metallic burial case. Jesse's folks say he is better off in heaven, and as there is no reward for him there, may-be he is.—Texas Siftings.

The Boston Post wants to know why Belknap does not come to the front. It is raining mush and milk for that style of patriot just now.

When a Kentucky Congressman was informed that he could have all the garden seeds he wanted from the Agricultural Department, he exclaimed: "Seedst! What do I want seeds for? But hold on! Yes, yes, I believe I do want a few." And he forthwith sent for half a bushel of cardamom seeds, the only seeds he had any use for.—Brooklyn Eagle.

HAYES is reported to have contributed $250 to the Garfield monument fund. When it comes to his paying over the money it is mercifully proposed to administer chloroform. The entire $250 will be extracted from him at once, before he is seized with remorse, takes it all back, and expects interest on it besides.—Exchange.

A TEXAS exchange says the Arabs are heartless wretches, but that is what the editor always says about people who do not subscribe to his paper nor advertise in it.—Exchange.

"Going to the shoah this summer, old feller?" "Naw; the shoah's too bracing, don't you naw; makes a feller feel too much like work."—Boston Bulletin.

"And the cares of daylight flee," says Earl Marble in a "barcarole." The cares of a daylight flea are very apt to make a barker roll.—Exchange.
