

3.25

Correspondence: Eisenhower, President Dwight D., to Gilbert Stuart McClintock, 1959 February 26th

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

February 26, 1959

Dear Admiral Stark:

Here is a copy of the letter that the President is sending Mr. McClintock. I hope it is satisfactory.

The President was deeply appreciative of the personal message that I relayed to him; he feels very strongly about the issue of the balanced budget and was delighted to know that you share his views.

Sincerely,

Ann C. Whitman
Personal Secretary
to The President

Admiral Harold R. Stark, USN, Ret.
4900 Glenbrook Road
Washington 16, D. C.

Enclosure

February 26, 1959

Dear Mr. McClintock:

My longtime and valued friend, Admiral Stark, has told me of your collection of Presidential letters and your intention that the letters eventually become the property of Wilkes College, in which I understand both you and Admiral Stark are so much interested. It is my privilege to send you this note, along with my hope that Wilkes College will continue to preserve the traditions of the early days of our country even as it spurs the education of the young men and women of our country for their places in the world of tomorrow.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

Gilbert McClintock, Esq.
34 South River Street
Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania

cc: Admiral Stark

mg

THE WHITE HOUSE
Washington

February 26, 1959

Dear Mr. McClintock:

My longtime and valued friend, Admiral Stark, has told me of your collection of Presidential letters and your intention that the letters eventually become the property of Wilkes College, in which I understand both you and Admiral Stark are so much interested. It is my privilege to send you this note, along with my hope that Wilkes College will continue to preserve the traditions of the early days of our country even as it spurs the education of the young men and women of our country for their places in the world of tomorrow.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Gilbert McClintock, Esq.
34 South River Street
Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania

cc: Admiral Stark

