

To Commander Hased H. Stark, U. S. Navy, from one who still always remembers with gratitude not only his very efficient services and loyal support in the old Hatilla days, but also his invaluable and devoted services at the London Headquarters in handling the vitally important personnel matters with a tact and ability that left nothing to be desired. Wm. J. Smith London, March, 1919.

A. Campbell
 London, 1919.

23x16

14/11/19