--- A NIGHT OF THEATRE ---

directed by

Alfred S. Groh

... an experimental drama project
containing scenes from remembered plays of yesteryear.

April 5, 6, 7, 8, 1960

8:15 p.m.

Chase Theatre
rear 184 South River Street
Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania

... from the director

Cue 'n' Curtain welcomes you to its first workshop production of scenes representing great moments in the theatre.

Each of the scenes is a statement about love -- innocent, idealistic, spiritual, and passionate.

Although the settings vary, from Elizabethan London to Twentieth Century America, the theme is timeless.

There can be no make-believe on the stage, no pretense. It is life we are seeing, and we must have the truth about it.

We believe that "a night of theatre" is an enriching and rewarding experience.

August S. Groh
