

May 21, 22, 1951

Chase Theatre

CUE and CURTAIN

Presents

IF MEN PLAYED CARDS AS WOMEN DO, by George S. Kaufman

John.....PAUL THOMAS
Bob.....Douglas Newton
George.....Bert Stein
Mark.....Sam Melins

Directed by Shirley Salsburg *Alumnus

THE INFORMER, by John McGroarty (adapted from the novel of Liam O'Flaherty)

Mrs. McPhillip.....Shirley Salsburg
Mary McPhillip.....Ann Azat
Bartley Mulholland.....Edward Wallison
Tommy Connor.....Dale Harnmouth
Gypo Nolan.....Robert Saunders
Dan Gallagher.....Bert Stein
Katie Fox.....Eleanor West
Peter the rat Mulligan.....James Gatens

Directed by James Gatens

A WILD, SILLY DREAM, by Dale Harnmouth (Wilkes College)

Jack.....Peter Margo
Rachel.....Rosemary Turissini
Della.....Carol Reynar
Bill.....Wayne Madden

Directed by Alfred S. Grah

THE HARMONIZERS

Burl Updike, Jake Kovalchek, Bowie Phillips, Carl Lahr

LIGHTING.....Jack Gallagher and Robert Stackhouse
STAGING.....Robert Ladd, Jerry Kaufman, James Gatens, Bert Stein

The order of presentation will be announced. We believe that student-directed plays and original student productions offer opportunities sometimes not afforded by large universities; and that the measure of college theatre is in its ability to meet the needs of its members and to encourage their direct and wholesome participation in its program.

Alfred S. Grah
Director, Cue and Curtain