

Wilkes College Faculty Entertained by President

The annual reception at which Wilkes College faculty members and administrators formally welcoming new faculty members was held Friday evening on the torch-lighted lawn of President and Mrs. Francis J. Michelini.

Eighteen new members of the faculty and administration were the guests of honor at the early evening festival, which was conducted in an atmosphere of warmth as those present were served from well-filled food tables set up beneath a huge canopy.

Yesterday morning the faculty met for the first time during the new academic year at a meeting in the Stark Learning Center and tomorrow will mark the start of the first full week of classes for more than 2,000 students, including 610 freshmen and 80 transfer students.

Shown in the photo at upper left are most of the new members of the "Wilkes Family." Left to right, bottom: Dr. Richard Porter, mathematics department; Donald Gaundlett, chemistry department; Dr. William Hansen, mathematics department; Alfred Federaro, assistant dean of residence life. Standing: Irwin Morrison, commerce and finance department; Hsi-ping Shao, library staff; JoAnne Demyun, assistant in nursing department; Judith Schreiber, nursing department; Dr. Jeffrey Cline, environmental science department; Capt. Richard Willett, US Air Force ROTC Unit; Dr. Louis Rigley, biology department.

Taking time out from their conversation are, left to right, seated at table in upper right photo are: President Michelini, Mrs. Michelini, Dean of Academic Affairs Robert S. Capin and Mrs. Capin. Standing, Dr. James Rodechko and Mrs. Rodechko, Mrs. Jack Meyers and Mr. Meyers, Mrs. Richard Wing and Lt. Col. Wing.

Many of the guests took advantage of the lawn area to socialize. Shown beneath one of the many trees and posed on and around a bench are, left to right, seated—Mrs. Francis J. Michelini, Mrs. Charles B. Reif, Mrs. David Leach, Mrs. Robert Riley, and Mrs. Joseph Belucci. Standing—Dr. Belucci, President Michelini, Thomas Richards, Dr. Leach, Dr. Riley and Dr. Reif.—(Ace Hoffman)

Miss Anne K. Davis Married Yesterday

MRS. ROBERT R. MARCINKIEWICZ

St. Patrick's Church, Wilkes-Barre, was the setting yesterday for the marriage of Miss Anne M. Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard T. Davis of 280 Hazle Street, Wilkes-Barre and Robert R. Marcinkiewicz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marcinkiewicz of RD 1, Trailwood.

The double ring ceremony was performed and Nuptial Mass was celebrated at 1 p.m.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal white gown of silk Sata Peau. Her finger-tip mantilla fell from a Camelot headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of miniature carnations, baby breath and stephanotis.

Mrs. Michael Swlontek, sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

tion at Gus Genetti's, the couple left on a trip to Canada.

Mrs. Marcinkiewicz is a graduate of St. Mary's High School and Mercy Hospital School of Radiologic Technology. She is employed as an X-ray technician at Mercy Hospital.

Mr. Marcinkiewicz attended schools in Clifton, N.J., and is employed as a mechanic by S. Frieder & Sons, Co.

Mrs. Marcinkiewicz was entertained at a variety shower by her grandmothers, Mrs. James A. Davis and Mrs. William Davis.

Reese-Erzar Vows Exchanged

MRS. WILLIAM J. REESE

Miss Dianna Patricia Erzar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Erzar of 415 Foster Street, Duryea, and William John Reese Jr., son of Mrs. Veronica Reese and the late William J. Reese Sr., were united in marriage yesterday at 2 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Church, Duryea.

The Rev. Dr. Frank P. Mikus performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white formal gown of silk Sata Peau. Her headpiece was a profile of Alencon lace with double blusher chapel-length veil of English illusion. She carried a formal bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, centered with white georgiana orchids.

Miss Joyce Gudaltis and Miss Kathy Breig were bridesmaids. They were dressed identically to the matron of honor.

Amy Radzwilka was flower-girl. She was also dressed identically to the matron of honor.

Stanley Polak was best man. Ushers were Richard Reese, brother of the bridegroom, and Joseph Chiampi. Marty Dunay was ringbearer.

An evening reception was held at the Y.M.S. of R. Hall, Main Street, Duryea.

After a wedding trip to the Miss Charlotte L.

MISS CHARLOTTE L. HOYLE

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming B. Hoyle, formerly of Wilkes-Barre, announce the marriage of their daughter, Charlotte Louise Hoyle, to Orabell Blackwell of Harrisburg.

Miss Hoyle is a graduate of Wilkes-Barre and was employed by the Harrisburg before transferring to Harrisburg. Mr. Murry is employed by Harrisburg. A Summer wedding is planned.

Reunion of Mercy Alumnae To Be Held

Plans for a reunion of all former graduates of Mercy Hospital School of Nursing will be discussed at a special meeting scheduled for Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., on the lower level of the Medical Arts Building (former School of Nursing and Nurses Residence), Church Street.

The meeting is the first to be arranged since the Mercy Nurses Alumnae Association became inactive as a result of the Agnes Flood of 1972, it was reported.

The hospital's School of Nursing will graduate its 75th class in May 1975.