Who doesn't love a mystery? Not the thousands who flock to every whodunit on Broadway. Of all the mystery plays which have been produced on the American stage, none has proved more popular over the years than "The Bat." We are pleased to present, as our first workshop production, an adaptation of this classic thriller.

ONCE UPON A TIME

Many moons ago in a far-off place,
Lived a handsome prince with a gloomy face,
For he did not have a bride.
Oh, he sighed "Alas:"
And he pined, alas:
But alas: The Prince couldn't find a lass
Who would suit his mother's pride.

For a princess is a delicate thing,
Delicate and dainty as a dragonfly's wing.
You can recognize a lady by her elegant air,
But a genuine princess is exceedingly rare.

On a stormy night to the castle door,
Came the lass the Prince had been waiting for:
"I'm a princess lost", quoth she,
But the Queen was cool and remained aloof
And she said, "Perhaps, but we'll need some proof.
I'll prepare a test and see.

"I will test her thus:" The old Queen said,
"I'll put twenty downy mattresses upon her bed,
And beneath those twenty mattresses I'll place a tiny pea.
If that pea disturbs her slumber, then a true princess is she"

Now, the bed was soft, and extremely tall,
But the dainty lass didn't sleep at all.
And she told them so next day.
Said the Queen, "My dear, if you felt that pea,
Then we've proof enough of your royalty.
Let the wedding music play:"
And the people shouted quietly: "Hooray!"
