Six Senior members of Cue and Curtain bring much experience with them to this last production to be presented in Chase Theater. Commencing in the Fall, all future productions will be given in the new Wilkes College Center for the Performing Arts.

Mary S. Russin, of Plains, has appeared in "The Music Man," "The Sound of Music," and in "Enemy Of The People."

Stephen J. Gavala, of Shenandoah, has most recently appeared in Pirandello's "It Is So If You Think So."

"Cecile" was the last production in which Edward Lipinski, of Jersey City, appeared.

Martin Brennan, of Kingston, has appeared in "Look Back In Anger," and "Enemy Of The People."

"The Man With A Tranquil Mind" furnished the latest vehicle for Pauline Homko, of Kingston.

Sumner Hayward, of Philadelphia, has appeared in "Look Back In Anger," and "Impromptu."

Five newcomers round out the cast. Two are freshmen: Jean Kardos of Easton, Conn., and Susan Kempner, of Metuchen, New Jersey. Three are sophomores: Robert Smith, Long Island; Hermon George, Conshohocken; and Brooke Evans, Kingston.
